TRIUMPH FOR SIDNEY PAGET

RIDES TEN CANDLES TO VICTORY IN THE AMATEUR CUP.

Mr. Whitney's Colt Defeats Seminole in the Last Few Jumps—Blues Beats The Rhymer in a Great Finish—Star Bright a Disappointment—Petra II. by a Head—Entries.

The running of the Amatour Cup, a high-weight selling race exclusively for gentlemen riders, provided a popular triumph for William C. Whitney and Sidney Paget yesterday afternoon at Morris Park. Mr. Paget rode Mr. Whitney's Ten Candles, by Candlemas—Tenerine and the crowd, numbering nearly 10,000 racing enthusiasts, generously applauded the effort. There was a field of five, including Dolando, with Mr. Holloway up; Harry W. Smith's Support, handled by the owner; Seminole, piloted by Mr. Buckley, and Balloon, with Mr. Hollister in the saddle. The heaviest play in the ring was upon Ten Candles at 7 to 5 and Dolando, reduced from twos to 9 to 5. Support was said to be a good thing at sixes, while Seminole, at eights, had many followers.

When Starter Fitzgerald dropped the flag they were all going nicely. Dolando immediately ran out in front, with Ten Candles and Balloon following a length back. Seminole and Support at the quarter pole were apparently out of it.

Then Mr. Paget took Ten Candles into the lead and held the advantage by a length over Dolando to the half. The latter had drawn away from Balloon and looked dangerous, so much so that when Mr. Holloway landed the celebrated "Beef and" champion in front again at the turn there was a commotion among those that had backed Farrell's gelding. When they rounded into the stretch, Seminole, well ridden by Mr. Buckley, came in close to the rail and thereby assumed the lead by three lengths. Ten Candles swung wide, and the talent believed that he was beaten. But Mr. Paget rode the colt with plenty of energy, and opposite the free field Seminole's big advantage began to grow less and less with every stride. They were on even terms in a few yards and raced neck and neck to the wire. A half-dozen jumps from home Mr. Paget drew his whip and inflicting several cutting whacks on Ten Candles's flank he got the colt in front and won by the shortest of heads. The crowd at once broke into cheering and handclapping, which was repeated when the winner and his rider came back to the stand. Seminole took the place from Dolando by twenty lengths, the latter beating Balloon a head. This was not the first triumph for Mr. Paget in the Amateur Cup. In 1898 he rode Sir Vassar to a dead heat with Damien in 1:47⅘, the weight being 149 pounds. In 1899 he piloted Bueia to victory in 1:44⅘. The time of yesterday's race was 1:46, the track being fair.

The Pocantico Handicap for three-year-olds, with $1,200 added, at one mile and a sixteenth over the hill, produced a rattling finish. The Messrs. Fleischmann introduced Blues for the first time this season and as the favorite colt was pronounced exactly fit the layers were unwilling to offer better than 3 to 5 against him. The Rhymer was look upon favorably at 2 to 1, chiefly because of his consistent racing of late and his impressive victory over Pink Fox on Monday. Blues had Winnie O'Connor up, while Shaw guided The Rhymer. The race was cut out in sensational style by the outsiders, Anecdote and Gautama. They were still ahead when three-quarters of a mile had been covered. When the straight went off, The Rhymer shot ahead and had half a length the better of it for a furlong or so. But O'Connor went to work with Blues and was soon on even terms with the fleet-footed, honest son of The Bard. They raced close to the rail in the last two yards and some of the spectators thought that The Rhymer was crowded. At any rate the finish was a fierce drive and when they flashed past the judges, The Rhymer was still fighting for every inch of ground. It was not until the numbers were hoisted that the crowd knew which had carried off the palm and then there were cheers for Blues as well as for The Rhymer.

Mr. Whitney's much-talked-of Star Bright received a defeat in the sixth event, a handicap for three-year-olds at one quarter of a mile and a furlong, that would make it appear that his chances in the coming Brooklyn Handicap will not be especially bright. Beaten handily on Saturday by McMeekin, Star Bright was caught easily to outdrive First Whip, Larson and Alsike in yesterday's affair. Accordingly the Alntree colt was always an odd—on favorite. First Whip was second pick, while a field of "educated" money on Larson cut his price from fours to 7 to 2. Well ridden by Shaw, it looked to be nothing better than a trailer at 50 to 1, with 5 to 1 in the pace books. Along the backstretch the four horses travelled in a compact bunch. Star Bright and Larson were at the end of it. At the top of the stretch it was noticed that Burns was riding Star Bright as if he feared disaster. At one point here Alsike was actually in front by a neck with Star Bright leading First Whip by a length. Star Bright, however, could not keep up and Shaw, Jack Rowe's pupil, reached the goal. There it was that First Whip in a drive drew away from Alsike and won by an open length, while the Daly seller, the latter beat Star Bright by five lengths.

Petra II. by Petra—Little Purpose, that has been a consistent performer all this spring, scored another popular win in the third event, though it was only by a whisker. With four to 5 it was a puzzle to discriminate among Petra II., Katherina, La Valliere and Gleneliffe, all at equal prices. Jockey Gerry Shaw up, was favorite at 2 to 1. Petra II. was at 5 to 2, Gleneliffe at threes and La Valliere at 7 to 2. The distance was seven furlongs on the Withers mile. Gleneliffe broke running for the first furlong, with Katherina and Petra II. pressing her persistently. Then John Dale's filly began to die and in the stretch Katherina and Petra II. came like the wind neck and neck. They maintained their speed and kept relentless to the finish. When Petra II.'s number was hoisted there was a great cry of joy, though at the same moment there were many sad faces and parched throats because of Katherina's failure.

Oliver Mc. at 5 to 5 favorite, was easily disposed of in the first race over the Withers course by Julius Fleischmann's Barbara Frietchie, second choice and widely played at 6 to 5. There was an equally unpleasant upset in the second race, for Lady Schorr, at four and a half times, when Rod Dhu came at 4 to 5, was put out of the way in handy fashion by O'Hagen, 4 to 1. With four favorites downed, the owners enjoyed another prosperous day. Th summaries:

RESULTS ON OTHER TRACKS.

At Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 21.—This was the seventeenth day of racing at the Worth track, and while it has rained several days in this vicinity this month, not a drop has fallen at Worth until to-day. A cold rain began at noon and continued during the afternoon. The track is new and there was considerable curiosity as to what effect rain would have on the course. So far it has stood it well and there was good footing under a top layer of slush. The card was a good one, but the weather detracted much from the sport. Summaries.

First Race—Six furlongs—Hampshire, 110 (Dominick), 11 to 5, won; Avatar, 110 (Ott), 8 to 1, second; Dick Turner, 122 (Caywood), 30 to 1, third. Time, 1:20 3-5.

Second Race—Six furlongs—Braw Lad, 124 (J. Winkfield), 9 to 20, won; If You Dare, 107 (J. Baker), 16 to 1, second; Myra Morello, 105 (Coburn), 10 to 1, third. Time, 1:18 3-5.

Third Race—Five furlongs—Minerva, 103 (See), 9 to 1, won; Yana, 111 (Dominick), 15 to 1, second; Haydon, 106 (J. Winkfield), 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:05 2-5.

Fourth Race—One mile—Castor, 102 (Coburn), even, won; Obert, 107 (Dominick), 12 to 1, second; Boney boy, 103 (J. Winkfield), 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:45 1-5.

Fifth Race—One mile and 70 yards—Knight Banneret, 112 (See), 4 to 1, won; Flatbush, 93 (Davison), 30 to 1, second; Sunro, 96 (F. Jackson) 11 to 5, third. Time, 1:52 4-5.

Sixth Race—One mile and 20 yards—Shut Up, 104 (Coburn), 8 to 1, won; Woodstick, 106 (Dominick), 5 to 1, second; Impromptu, 103 (See), 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:48.

At Latonia.

CINCINNATI, May 21.—Threatening weather, with a sprinkle of rain during the first race, made the sport at Latonia uninteresting, yet there was a good crowd present, attracted mainly by the Latonia Oaks, which was contested by Lady Schorr and Dainty Wood, the net value of which was $2,430 to the winner. It was a mile and a quarter event and had there been more starters would undoubtedly have been interesting. Notwithstanding the sloppy track, Lady Schorr led and at the start she won as she pleased. The last half mile she was easing up but still gained and won place leisurely winning by ten lengths. Grandon, entered to be sold at $1,200, was the favorite and Joplin & Company got him for $1,600. The summaries:

First Race—Six furlongs—Troubaline, 98 (Random), 3½ to 1, won; Accendravia, 88 (Gormley), 12 to 1, second; Casava, 99 (J. Hicks), 5 to 1, third. Time, 1:19¾.

Second Race—Five furlongs—Our Jessye, 101 (Boseman), 6 to 1, won; Golden Glitter, 107 (Gilmore), 20 to 1, second; Carmaid, 104 (Callahan), 7 to 5, third. Time, 1:03¾.

Third Race—One mile—Grandon, 102 (T. Knight), 2 to 5, won; Jangwood, 88 (Gormley), 2½ to 1, second; Gossaine, 99 (Martin), 7 to 1, third. Time, 1:49¾.

Fourth Race—The Latonia Oaks; for fillies, three-year-olds; one mile and a quarter—Lady Schorr, 122 (Woods), 1 to 2, won; Fancy Wood, 109 (Gilmore), 9 to 5, second. Time, 2:10¾.

At St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, May 21.—There was a good attendance at the races to-day. The weather was cold and a keen shower raged at the close of the fourth event making the track sloppy and slow. Summary:

At Newport.

(CINCINNATI, May 21.—Showers and chilly weather kept attendance at Newport down to the smallest crowd since the gates were made free. The track was very muddy and the sciatics plentiful. Summaries.

Turf Notes.

It is not true that Clarence H. Mackay backed Semolinole to the extent of $10,000 on Monday.

Trainer Tom Welch had an inning yesterday with three winners, O'Hagen, Blues and Barbara Frietchie, prepared for him.

LEXINGTON, May 21.—Ballyhoo Bey is at John E. Madden's Hamburg place here, where he will be trained by Madden during the fall and next spring, with the idea of racing him again if he will stand training, if he will not stand training he will be sent to the Whitney stud at Lakelaire farm. The largest thoroughbred foal on record here was foaled last night at Kinrath Stud. It is a chestnut colt weighs 100 and of Frontiny and measures a fect 9 inches in height.

CHICAGO, May 21.—At a Bangs-Upton horse sale selling John H. Shultz of New York bought six horse yearlings consigned by Mr. Pace, the stock farm of Lakeland, Fla., for $1,032. The bidding was very light on all horses offered, the top price being $1075, paid by James Croden of Boston for the three-year-old gelding Boseman, by Asian, Golden Gate of Chicago paid $825 for Lasshero, 2 2-1 b. The sensational colt Diddy, which was expected to fetch $2,000, was purchased by M. H. Smith of Hartford, Conn., for $600.

At the time for the Brooklyn Handicap prospects looked very pretty, gamble that the crowd will not be so near sound attractiveness. It is said it was said that rumors had taken shape for some time that Sheepshead Bay would not run. Jockey Odom injured his leg in the morning and was taken to the city hospital. Jamaster worked over the distance in the afternoon in 2:11. It is said now that he will go to the post. Golden worked a mile in :35 3-5, and Knight's defeat by Lord Advocate in the Alabama Handicap at Latonia was not so low at the quarter in Saturday's six race. It is also doubtful whether Golden will go. Altogether it looks as if the Brooklyn field will be very orphanic, instead of collecting the leading stars of the turf.

Long Island Oarsmen Meet.

There was an enthusiastic meeting of the Regatta Committee of the Long Island Amateur Rowing Association last night at the clubrooms of the Seawanhaka Boat Club in the Hotel Carleton in Brooklyn. Preparations were completed for the annual regatta of the organizations, which will be held on Saturday, July 6, over the Flushing Bay course. It was decided to engage a barge, which will leave the Third street dock, Long Island City, at 1 P. M. on the day of the races and will arrive at Flushing Bay in time for the first race. After the regatta, on the way home a tasting will be made at North Beach.

NEW YORKS BEAT PITTSBURG AFTER A CLOSE CALL IN THE NINTH INNING.

Matthewson Wavers, but Pulls Himself Together and Strikes Out the Last Two Men—Brooklyns Lose Again and Are Only One Place Removed From Tail End—Other Games.

All of the National League games were played yesterday and not one in the American. The New Yorks won from the Pittsburgs and the Cincinnatis kept up their fast clip by downing the Bostons handily. No team about here this season has shown better form than the Reds. The Brooklyns were beaten by St. Louis, while the Chicagos dropped their third straight to Philadelphia. There was only one change in the order, the Champions falling back into next to last place. The National League results and standing:

New York, 2; Pittsburg, 1.
St. Louis, 11; Brooklyn, 5.
Cincinnati, 4; Boston, 1.
Philadelphia, 5; Chicago, 3.

NEW YORK, 2; PITTSBURG, 1.

Matthewson pitched against the Pittsburgs at the Polo Grounds yesterday. The New Yorks won as they did alone six times before with Matthewson pitching. But for all that it was the closest call Matthewson has had this season. He was in the tightest sort of a fix in the ninth inning. Four of the Pittsburgs reached first in that inning, one scored, there was a delirously wild throw by Strang and a couple of wild pitches by Matthewson; and altogether the situation was one calculated to turn a few of the lusty young wonder's golden locks to gray. Matthewson, with two out and two on bases and a run needed to tie the score, seemed to be wavering between a flight into aerial regions and a continued stay on earth. He was plainly nervous, but pulled himself together and fired the ball down the line so fast that Fly struck out, ending the game. The fact is, Matthewson and Smith appeared to be all tangled up in their battery work in the ninth. Their signal system seemed to have slipped a cog.

Matthewson was as much of a puzzle to the Pittsburgs as he has been to other teams. The visitors could hardly hit the ball sound. Of their six hits Wagner beat out an infield tap and Beaumont made a brace of bunts. Except Strang, the New Yorks gave good support to their pitcher. They did not do much at the bat. Philippi pitched in splendid form. The hits that were made off him were fortuitously placed, safeties that there were few of them. Davis got three of the seven sending the ball on a line each time. The captain also fielded well. Seibach made a timely two-bagger, and Van Haltren worked in a bunt and a clean single.

Van Haltren opened up the first inning and took second on Tannehill's tumble. Rapid travelling carried him to third on Seibach's fly to centre, but he was caught between third and home on Strang's throw well to Ritchey. A feature of Pittsburg's half of the inning was tumbling out by Seibach in going after Beaumont's fly. It was a brilliant catch, and the air shook with the applause which it called out. The Pittsburgs went out in one-two-three order in the second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth innings.

Davis singled to left in the second inning and went on to second when the ball was thrown in. Smith scored him with a scratch single to right. Tannehill flied to left fielder Beaumont, who dropped the fly in the fourth, for two bases, went to third on Ganzel's out, when Ganzel hit to short, and was nailed at the plate on an attempted double steal. Smith started to kick on the decision at the plate, which always set off a tirade from Davis's side, and went out to his field position without a word, whereat "Broadway" subsided. An unusual and smooth play occurred in the sixth inning. Seibach slammed a grounder to Transfeld's wholetot and Tommy fell between his legs. Ritchey, however, came running in to back up Bransfield, scooped the ball while under full headway and threw it to Phillippe, who sprinted over from the box to cover first in time to retire the batter. In the eighth inning Van Haltren opened up the rally with a bid for Seibach's strenuous wallop, which hit the 25-cent stand. Beaumont began the momentous ninth inning with a safe bunt. He tried to make third base on a wild pitch, but Smith was quick on the ball and Davis's throw, which always set off a tirade from Davis's side, was high and wide, compelling Beaumont to stay at third. Then Wagner hit to Strang, who threw over Ganzel's head. The ball would have rolled between the grand stand and the bleachers if a spectator had not kicked it back into the field of play. Beaumont had scored and Wagner was placed on third as it was and tallied soon after on another ball that got by Smith. Before Matthewson could recover his equilibrium he had sent Bransfield to first on balls and Hitchcock to make a clean single to centre, which kicked in the first two balls sent up to Tannehill. The crowd shouted play ball, and Matthewson got down to business again. He struck out Tannehill. Fly was retired the same way, Smith dropping the third strike. Ganzel was hit by a pitched ball, and sidling the line until he picked up the sphere and tossed it to Ganzel, ending the game. The score:

The champions were defeated in the first game of the present series at the Washington Park yesterday afternoon. The game developed into a batting match in which both McFarlan and Harper were knocked out of the box, the former in the third inning and Harper in the fourth. Kennedy was hit hard in the last inning, but Taylor finished better. Powell took Harper's place and did good work. CINCINNATI, 4; BOSTON, 1.

BOSTON, May 21.—Raized week on the part of the Boston team, coupled with inability to hit Phillips so well as the rest of the Reds, gave the home team an easy game yesterday. It was said that rumors had taken shape for some time that Sheepshead Bay would not run. Jockey Odom injured his leg in the morning and was taken to the city hospital. Jamaster worked over the distance in the afternoon in 2:11. It is said now that he will go to the post. Golden worked a mile in :35 3-5, and Knight's defeat by Lord Advocate in the Alabama Handicap at Latonia was not so low at the quarter in Saturday's six race. It is also doubtful whether Golden will go. Altogether it looks as if the Brooklyn field will be very orphanic, instead of collecting the leading stars of the turf.
