FIRST WHIP'S HANDICAP:

BEATS DECANTER QUITE EASILY AT BRIGHTON'S TRACK.

Herbert and Kamara Also Run in the Same Race Ondurdis and Lady Sterling, Long Shots, Provide Upsets—Three Successful Favorites But the Betting Public Loses on the Day.

Yesterday was another hard test for the individuals who try to make a living by picking winners of horseraces. Down at Brighton, though three favorites were successful, it did not line the public's pockets much, as two of them captured the first two races, after which the layers got most, if not all, of the money back.

The principal event on yesterday's card was a handicap for four-year-olds and upward, at a mile and an eighth. First Whip, ridden by Patsey McCue, was a 2 to 1 favorite when the layers first put up the marks. Decanter, with Burns up, was next in favor, at 18 to 5. It seemed as if both Herbert and Kamara were at false odds when 7 to 1 and 6 to 1, respectively, appeared against them on the slates. Both carried top weight, 117 pounds, however, and the wise men thought that the distance was a trifle too far for them. All Gold, with 100 pounds impost, was well backed at fives, and as soon as the flag fell he ran out in front as if a demon was after him. Herbert raced alongside and then just behind the Rayon d'Or colt until the end of the back stretch was reached, where on the turn All Gold became leg-weary and First Whip, as if shot out of a catapult, took a lead of two lengths. This advantage was maintained until half way down the stretch. Then Decanter rushed past both Herbert and Kamara and was second, a length in front of Herbert, which beat Kamara by a neck. Kamara, too, was a neck in front of All Gold and the latter beat Latson by a similar advantage. The race was run in 1:52 2-5, which was 1 1-5 seconds slower than the track record.

The first race was run true to form. It was at a mile and seventy yards for three-year-olds that had never won a race of the value of $1,500. J. G. Follansbee's Roehampton, with Shaw in the saddle, was a prohibitive favorite at 1 to 3. Arden was second choice at 4 to 1. Roehampton, after a short neck-and-neck tussle with Arden, drew away and won easily by two lengths. Arden had a cinch with the place being fifteen lengths before Humboldt, third choice at 12 to 1. The time was 1:44 2-5.

Another favorite ran up to expectations in the second event, a selling race for three-year-olds and upward, at a mile and a sixteenth. Charles Dwyer's Ethics, with Cochran up, was the popular selection, but there was also a strong play on Scurry, which closed second in demand at 13 to 5. Dolando, even though Shaw had the mount, was allowed to go back a point in the betting. Scurry set a working pace with Elojm, 8 to 1, Big Gun, 4 to 1, and Ethics following swiftly in a bunch for the first quarter. It was Scurry at the half with Eloim in the place by a bare half length over Ethics, but the latter moved up into second position after that and pushed Scurry so persistently around the turn that Shaw and Charles gelding was not easily caught but passed. Ethics had to be driven, however, to win by two lengths, Scurry heading Dolando out of the place, with the latter a neck better than Eloim. The time, 1:46 4-5, was fast.

With two favorites over the plate, the third became confident and went to Whiskey King in the third race for two-year-olds that had never won more than one race. The distance was five furlongs and Whiskey King, ridden by Troxler, recently reinstated, was a 7 to 5 favorite. The play on Clarence Mackay's Gay Boy was steady enough to keep his price from being raised more than 1 point. The Pittsburgh Phil had the winning card, however, in his Montana gelding Bonner. Shaw had the mount, and as much as 5 to 2 could be secured about the gelding when he went to the post. Whiskey King got away fast and Troxler did not get the real speed out of the Kentucky colt until the stretch was reached. By it was then too late, though Whiskey King, in fifth place, was less than two lengths back of the winner. Bonner was the pacemaker, with Andalusian, 50 to 1, so close to him that Shaw was unwilling to take matters easy at any stage. Sombrero and Essene were also close up. In the stretch Bonner drew away enough to win handily by a length. Gay Boy came up from the rush and was only beaten a head for the place by Sombrero. Gay Boy, Andalusian, Whiskey King, Essene and Cardinal finished heads apart in the order named, all under the whip.

There was another setback for the players of favorites in the fifth race, a selling affair for two-year-olds at five and one-half furlongs. Frank Farrell's O'Hagen, having Shaw to guide him, was reduced from twos to 8 to 5. Honolulu was much wanted at threes with a comparatively strong plunge on Lady Sterling, the filly sold by J. E. Madden on Tuesday to Anthony L. Aste. The pace for a quarter of a mile was set by Lieschen, 10 to 1, when Honolulu was in front to the half-mile pole, where Lady Sterling, well guided by little Michaels, was sufficiently fast to win in a drive by half a length from Honolulu. Man o' War, 12 to 1, was third with O'Hagen trailing home in fifth place, a cause for much grumbling.

In the last race for three-year-olds and upward at three-quarters of a mile Starter Fitzgerald had quite a little trouble with seventeen horses. Rikki-Tikki-Tavi was favorite at 3 to 1 with Goebel and Prince of Veronia well followed at fours. Ondurdis and McGrathiana Prince were caught by many at tens. After half a dozen breaks the field was sent away to a good start. On the quarter Ondurdis shot out of the bunch with a hot burst of speed. He had a lead of a couple of lengths in the stretch, and Nounce thought that the race was his. But in the last fifty yards McGrathiana Prince came with a rush from behind and almost caught Ondurdis on the post. As it was, Ondurdis won by a nose with McGrathiana Prince two lengths in front of Goebel. The summaries:

JOCKEY TURNER FINED $100.

Punished for His Ride on Wax Taper, but Suspension Removed.

After investigating the facts in the matter the stewards of the Brighton Beach Racing Association's meeting decided to remit the suspension of Jockey Nash Turner and fine him $100 for his ride on Wax Taper in the last race on Tuesday. The stewards concluded that the boy was simply over-confident and careless, and that he was guilty of no dishonesty. The fact that the stewards are alert just now in the way of inspecting the work of certain jockeys may result in much good. Turner is lucky in not being ruled off. If such had been the final decision there would have been very little adverse comment from racegoers, who saw the offence for which he was disciplined.

At Newport.

CINCINNATI, July 10.—The following notice was posted on the big blackboards this afternoon that had been arranged for a foreign book at Newport:

"There will be no foreign book on this track during this meeting."

This means, of course, that the American Turf Congress has squelched Manager Fowler's foreign book project. Only a fair sized crowd witnessed rather poor sport to day over a fast track, although the weather was pleasant. H. Watson, who rode Ceylon, an equal favorite in the third race, had his leg broken after the start by being jammed against the fence. Cannobert ran away before the fifth race and finally threw Dade, his rider, delaying the start thirty minutes. Summaries:

First Race—Six furlongs—Cy Jaynes, 111 (Nelson) 6 to 1, won; John Todd, 109 (Hothersall), 10 to 1, second; The Irish Boy, 109 (M. Williams), 13 to 5, third. Time, 1:16.

At Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 10.—Sidney Lucas, the Derby winner of last year, furnished a genuine surprise today at Washington Park. Sidney has started several times at the meeting, but always gave it up early in the race and was supposed to be a wind-broken cripple. The Thompsons backed their horse at odds of 10 to 1 and it is reported that the win $10,000 on Sidney Lucas's victory. Aside from the victory of Sidney Lucas, the feature was the win of Anna Bain at 15 to 1 in the books. The Lady was 5 to 5 favorite in this race, but she was unable to overtake Ann Bain in the stretch. Summaries.

First Race—Seven and a half furlongs—Meenon, 112 (Winkfield), 6 to 5, won; Jumbert, 115 (Van Dusen), 8 to 1, second; Hans Wagner, 115 (J. Woodspy), 10 to 1, third. Time, 1:07 1-5.

At Fort Erie.

BUFFALO, July 10.—Favorites scored four races at Fort Erie again to-day, the books having figured three of them at odds on. Khaki was much the best in the third race, but his jockey lagged with him in the stretch and had to ride hard to get him up. Summaries:

Turf Notes.

Jockey Landry has signed to ride for Green B. Morris.

The entries of Anoka—Fitz Kanet, Barretto and Flintlock will be refused in future at local tracks until they have been schooled to the barrier.

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 10.—C. W. Williams to-day shipped by special train to Gatesburg, Ill., his five great stallions, Alleron, 2:09¼; Expedition, 2:15¼; St. Vincent, 2:13¾; Belene, 2:21¼, and Infact, 2:26¾, and about fifty head of broad mares and young horses. Williams has purchased a farm near Chicago and will take his horses there and establish a breeding stud.

Polo.

CEDARHURST, July 10.—Spirited polo was enjoyed here to-day in the final game of the Rockaway Hunting Club tournament for the Blizzard cups. The first and second teams of the Rockaway Hunting Club lined up for the match which was to determine the ownership of the handsome prizes. The latter received five goals by handicap.

The veterans of the first team were altogether too much for their younger opponents and won by a score of 13 goals to 8. Rope in Montague did clever work all through the game.

Water Polo.

BUFFALO, July 10.—The Knickerbocker A. C. water polo team beat the Central Y. M. C. A. team in Park Lake to-day by a score of 13 to 0 in two eight minute halves.

IN THE BASEBALL WORLD.

NEW YORKS AND ST. LOUIS TIE FOR SECOND PLACE.

Former Beat Cincinnatis, While Cardinals Dispose of Brooklyns—Pittsburgs Still Winning—Quakers Outplay Chicagos—Results of American League Games—Notes.

Two Eastern and two Western clubs won in the National League yesterday. The New Yorks whitewashed the Cincinnatis, the Philadelphias beat the Chicagos, the Pittsburgs won a 1 to 0 game from the Bostons, making it three straight, and St. Louis was too much for Brooklyn. The steady success of the Pittsburgs is the feature of the race just now and it shows that the Pirates will be very hard to dislodge. They are the hardest team in the League to beat on home grounds. St. Louis, New York and Philadelphia are having a lively tussle for second place. The former two are tied. As the New Yorks won yesterday the refreshing inference may be drawn that the umpire's decisions for once did not destroy their chances. The threadbare "robbed by the umpire" is temporarily out of use. In the American League Chicago cut down Boston's lead defeating Milwaukee while the Hub men were losing to Philadelphia. Baltimore disposed of Washington and Detroit beat the Clevelands. The National League results and standing follow:

New York, 3; Cincinnati, 0.
St. Louis, 5; Brooklyn, 1.
Pittsburg, 1; Boston, 0.
Philadelphia, 6; Chicago, 2.

NEW YORK, 3; CINCINNATI, 0.

CINCINNATI, July 10.—It was New York's turn to win to-day, and in spite of the fact that the Reds' premier, Hahn, opposed him, Taylor piloted the team to victory. The Cincinnatis showed up very weak at the bat and were never dangerous after New York once got the lead. Once in the eighth, Bergen and Hahn made consecutive singles, but two were out and the next man flied to McBride. This was the nearest the Reds came to scoring. Hahn too, twirled a good game and with perfect support would have allowed but one run. The Reds presented the same crippled front of yesterday. Irwin who last night received his ten days' notice, was replaced in the fifth by Heileman, a local man. Capt. Davis of the New Yorks, who last night said his team should not play another game in which Behle umpired, reconsidered it to-day when Behle showed him a telegram from President Young empowering him to officiate. New York's first run was a gift from Irwin in the third. Petitz threw wide to first, Taylor singled and Van Haltren walked. Selbach filed to Dobbs, McBride hit to Irwin, who booted the ball. Taylor scored, but Van Haltren was caught at the plate. In the seventh Strang singled and daringly stole second while Hahn held the ball. Bowerman singled to centre, scoring Strang. Davis singled in the ninth and Strang bunted safely. Bowerman tried to Hahn, but Heileman muffed the assist at third, filling the bases. Ganzel scored on Bowerman's out. Pitcher Mills arrived here this morning and will probably receive a trial in the St. Louis series. The score:

ST. LOUIS, 3; BROOKLYN, 1.

ST. LOUIS, July 10.—The Cardinals defeated the Brooklyns to-day. Harper and Hughes kept the hits down to the minimum, and these well scattered. Players again officiated as umpires. In the second inning the visitors managed to get a man on second but after that the seventh they could not get one to first. Then Daly got first on Wallace's error and advanced to third on Dolan's single, scoring on McGuire's force-out of Dolan. This was the only run Brooklyn made. The fielding of both teams was excellent despite the fact that two errors are charged against the visitors and one against the Cardinals. Attendance, 3,600. The score:

PITTSBURG, 1; BOSTON, 0.

PITTSBURG, July 10.—Unearned hold Pittsburg down to four hits in twelve innings and then but the most brilliant game of ball ever seen. Making a wild throw, which a regular first baseman would have stopped, after Brashear fanned in the twelfth Lowe threw over Moran's head, allowing Wagner to reach second base. Beaudoin then beat out a bunt. Dineen tried to catch him napping, but his throw escaped Moran and Wagner scored the winning run. After Carr was injured, Ely went in and each of the double plays which he started cut off runs. The score:
