LOCKWOOD PLAYS FINE GOLF.

DEFEATS HOLABIRD IN EXCITING MATCH.

Second Round of Championship Disposes of All the Westerners Except Egan—Douglas and Travis Win Their Matches Without Being Extended.

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 11.—Eight of the best amateur golfers of this country remain to contest to-morrow in four matches to decide who will meet in the semi-finals for the amateur championship at the Atlantic City Country Club. Eight of the sixteen who this morning were possibilities were put out of the race, some in one-sided contests and others in close matches, especially in the Holabird-Lockwood affair, when the former, the pride of the West, fell before the consistent playing of the Bostonian, though the Westerner made an uphill fight. Holabird's defeat leaves but one Western golfer, Walter E. Egan, in the road for the championship. In him the Westerners now place their hopes; but before he can carry away the honors of the big event he will have to meet two Easterners in the semi-final and final, if he progresses that far.

Travis has won his two match-play games with such comparative ease that no one knows his ability, as he has not been pressed hard enough to show what he really can do. Both Travis and Douglas may survive to the semi-finals, as to-morrow one has Livingston as his opponent and the other Jennings. The experts here predict that both will remain to the semi-finals. Before the pride of the West can be in line for the honors he will have to dispose of Percy R. Pyne, 2d. They meet to-morrow and a good match is looked for. One of these will meet in the semi-finals the winner of the Seeley-Lockwood match. Of the last four named but one can live to the finals and who that will be has precipitated no end of discussion to-night. All four are playing such an even game that only the scores of the next two days can decide.

To make a hole in 2 is usually considered an achievement; how much better is it when a hole is halved in 2. This happened on the tenth hole of the Lockwood and Holabird match and it is the first time on record in any country. This match carried the "gallery," and it was the great event of the day. Holabird, Jr., is a stocky young lad from the West, who wears a red jockey cap. He plays a really good game, wise in every department, and it is to be doubted if any one could beat him except a foreigner such as Douglas or Lockwood. The match was regarded by many as the critical one of the tournament, for once past Holabird the talent felt that only Douglas could hope to put out Lockwood. There has never been such a closely contested match in this country. Going out in 38, Lockwood was then 1 up with Holabird, who had twice made 2s and who finished in 39.

The halved hole in 2 started the second round, Lockwood finishing out in 37 to Holabird's 40 and being then 1 up. Lockwood made another 39 in the first round of the afternoon. He was 3 up at the twenty-seventh green and he then had the match in hand. The playing throughout was most spirited, and, in putting out Holabird, Lockwood showed great force. He will meet no better player during the course of play. In style Lockwood is unequalled. The one fault in his game is a want of vim, or push or aggressiveness, or whatever it should be called.

Neither Douglas nor Travis was quite pushed up to his best work. Douglas, who classes with the best of his Scotch brethren who are here as professionals, was pitted against Griscom. The latter had the inspiration of his sister as "caddie," but he could not hold Douglas. The cards:

Douglas	4	5	4	3	5	3	6	4	5	—39
Griscom	4	5	4	4	6	4	6	3	7	—45
Douglas	4	3	5	3	4	5	4	6	5	—39—78
Griscom	4	5	5	4	6	4	4	5	3	—40—85
Douglas	5	4	4	4	7	3	4	5	5	—40
Griscom	5	5	5	4	7	4	6	3	6	—43

MacDonald, the former amateur champion and twice the gold medal winner, was the opponent that Travis knocked out. Travis played a plodding, rather than his usual game; there was hardly a hole on the round that could be called a brilliant one. Unless Travis improves he does not class this time with either Douglas or Lockwood. MacDonald was not at his best. The short game in which he probably excels every player in the country was by no means wonderful, but his tee shots were splendid. The cards were:

Travis	4	6	5	3	6	4	7	4	5	—44
MacDonald	5	6	5	3	7	4	6	3	7	—46
Travis	3	4	5	5	5	4	3	5	4	—38—82
MacDonald	3	4	6	5	5	4	4	6	5	—42—88
Travis	5	4	4	4	6	4	5	4	5	—41
MacDonald	5	5	5	3	7	3	6	3	5	—43
Travis	5	4	5	*	*	*	*	*	*
MacDonald	4	4	5	*	*	*	*	*	*

*Bye holes not played.

Percy Jennings, who has never been heard of before, continued his good work, while Livingston, Egan and Seeley were playing telling, if not sensational, golf, but there never was such a vivid match as that between Lockwood and Holabird. The summaries follow—winners playing as named to-day:

Second Round—Percy Pyne 2d., Princeton, beat A. M. Reid, St. Andrews, by 3 up and 2 to play. Walter E. Egan, Chicago, beat W. C. Fownes, Pittsburg, by 4 up and 3 to play. C. H. Seeley, Wee Burn, beat R. C. Fownes, Pittsburg, by 9 up and 8 to play. A. G. Lockwood, Boston, beat W. Holabird, Glenview, by 1 up and 38 to play. F. S. Douglas, Nassau, beat R. E. Griscom, Philadelphia, by 10 up and 9 to play. Louis Livingston, 2d, Westbrook, beat J. G. Thorp, Boston, by 3 up and 2 to play. Percy Jennings, Burlington, Vt., beat F. M. Byers, Pittsburg, by 7 up and 5 to play. W. J. Travis, Garden City, beat C. B. Macdonald, Chicago, by 7 up and 6 to play.

Golf Gossip.

Pat, the caddie master at the Montclair Golf Club, made a remarkable score of 88 with an ordinary putter over the club course, which is a trifle more than six thousand yards. The score was made during a match with young Tom Anderson, a younger brother of Willie Anderson.

JERSEYSON, N. H., Sept. 11.—The first match play round in the September tournament was played to-day under conditions which were far from ideal. For the morning brought light showers with promise of steady rain while one pair, Batter and Manning, who waited for fairer terms in the afternoon were rewarded with a downpour instead and they postponed their match until to-morrow morning after playing a few holes. With that exception all the matches were completed before noon. For the Waumbek cup, F. J. Robbins beat H. A. Dailey, 2 up; D. R. Hartshorne beat L. C. Dailey, 5 up and 4 to play; James S. Taylor beat John D. Raymond, 3 up and 2 to play. For the Jefferson cup, Fred H. Lockman beat H. Fray, 1 up; W. P. Simpson beat C. M. Cook, 3 up and 1 to play; J. D. Foot beat A. M. Dallett, by default. Henry M. Stoddard beat H. E. Adriance, 5 up and 4 to play.

The Fairfield Company vs. Fox Hills team match scheduled to be played at Fox Hills on Sept. 14, has been postponed until November on account of a number of players on both teams being away at the golf championships at Atlantic City.

Billiards.

The outlook is favorable for the arrangement of a match soon between the two premier billiardists, George Slosson and Jake Schaefer. The latter has not replied to Slosson's recent letter in which the "Student" threw down the gauntlet to several experts, but Slosson said yesterday he had been informed by the Brunswick-Balke-Collender company that Schaefer would be here in about two weeks, prepared to arrange a meeting with Slosson. Slosson said in his letter that he would play Schaefer for 1,000 or 2,000 points, eighteen-inch balk line, one shot in turn, with the option of "chalkers" or "fouls" and Schaefer the Frenchman have been playing the eighteen-inch, two shots in turn game. This is new to Slosson, but he tried it a little before last and made a couple of high runs.

"I did not seem to me that I had any speed at the game," said the "Student." "I cannot tell much about it until I try it a little longer."

CRICKET.

United States Wins the Annual Match From Canada.

OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 11.—The twenty-ninth annual cricket match was decided here to-day on the ground of the Ottawa Cricket Club, and by gaining a victory by 94 runs the United States team made its record for the series 19 victories against 8 defeats, the remaining two games having been drawn.

The Canadians made a plucky effort to-day to stave off defeat, and every man who went to the wickets did his utmost to hold up his wicket. J. A. Lester and P. H. Clark bowled in splendid style, however, and their manipulation of the leather prevented any prolonged stand taking place.

When play opened this morning F. W. Lowneshorough and J. H. Forester took up their places at the wickets. The latter had played a good steady innings in his first attempt, but this time he was quickly bowled by Lester for 3. Bristowe then made a short stand, but the other men fell easy victims until A. W. Mackenzie came in and hit with vigor. He could get no one to stay with him, however, and when the innings at length came to an end for a total of 102 he was still undisposed of with 24 to his credit. The score:

TRAP SHOOTING.

Louis H. Schortemeier Wins the Brooklyn Handicap at Interstate Park.

The second day's programme of the New York Organization for the Protection of Fish and Game was decided at Interstate Park yesterday. The tournament was under the auspices of the New Utrecht Rod and Gun Club. C. J. Nauman of San Francisco, James A. R. Elliott of Kansas City and many other cracks competed.

The annual convention of the association was held at the Casino during the day, with Cornelius Ferguson, Vice-President of the New Utrecht Rod and Gun Club, in the chair. The Jeanette Rod and Gun Club, Hell Gate Rod and Gun Club, Flushing Gun Club, Erie Gun Club of this vicinity and two or three out-of-town organizations were admitted to membership.

The feature of the programme was the Brooklyn Handicap. Louis H. Schortemeier, of the New York County Gun Club, won the event with 89 breaks. The New York State team championship at clay targets, won by the New York County Gun Club. Sim Glover, of Utica, C. F. Dudley of Brooklyn, J. J. Fanning of Jersey City, F. G. Tallmann, Stearns and T. H. Keller gained most of the money in the other events. The scores:

The Brooklyn Handicap—One hundred targets per man; handicap rises; high guns not class shooting; entrance fee, $7. $100 added.—Louis H. Schortemeier, New York, 18 yards, 89; Charles F. Dudley, Brooklyn, 17 yards, 88; Stephen M. Van Allen, Canada, 17 yards, 86; Harvey M. Murchison, Syracuse, 20 yards, 86; E. D. Fulford, Utica, 20 yards, 83; Sim Glover, Syracuse, 20 yards, 82; Edward Banks, New York, 19 yards, 82; F. B. Ellyson, Ballinger, 18 yards, 82; William H. Hopkins, Aqueduct, 16 yards, 81; C. F. Kelsey, Baltimore, 17 yards, 81; Ansley H. Fox, Baltimore, 18 yards, 80; C. J. Nauman, San Francisco, 19 yards, 78; C. C. Cutler, New York, 17 yards, 79; John J. Fanning, Jersey City, 20 yards, 79; Capt. A. W. Money, Oakland, 17 yards, 78; D. F. Laird, New York, 17 yards, 76; F. H. Hood, Baltimore, 20 yards, 75; F. G. Stearns, Richmond, 20 yards, 72; H. H. Le Roy, Campello, Mass., 20 yards, 70; Col. A. G. Courtney, Syracuse, 18 yards, 76; D. A. Carlough, Boston, 17 yards, 49, withdrew; James A. R. Elliott, Kansas City, 19 yards, 16, withdrew; C. Watson, Paterson, 16 yards, 87, withdrew.

New York State Team Championship—Teams of four men who reside in same county of State, and are members of the same gun club. Twenty-five targets per man; entrance fee, $10.

New York County Gun Club—Louis H. Schortemeier, 22; Sim Glover, 22; C. F. Dudley, 23; Stephen M. Van Allen, 20. Total, 87.

New Utrecht Rod and Gun Club—Edward Banks, 19; Thomas W. Morfin, 19; Frank D. Stephenson, 18; Thomas H. Keller, 18. Total, 74.

CHESS.

Lasker and Pillsbury to Play for the World's Championship.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10.—Harry N. Pillsbury, the American chess champion, was interviewed here to-day with regard to the report from England that he had challenged Dr. Lasker to a match for the world's championship. In reply to the statement that the report had appeared in Lasker's own column in a Manchester paper, Pillsbury said that he had sent no formal challenge. "There is, however," he added, "a perfect understanding between Dr. Lasker and myself in regard to a match in the future." He declined to commit himself any further, but stated that he expected to sail for England about the end of the year and that the time to be set for the match would depend entirely on circumstances. The presumption is that Pillsbury and Lasker will suit each other's convenience as much as possible and make the time fit in with the international tournaments to be held in Europe next year.

Seven games have been contested in the series between Eugene Delmar of the Manhattan Chess Club and C. S. Howell of the Brooklyn Chess Club, the latter being the player who filled Delmar's place on the American team in the last cable match with Great Britain. Of the seven games Delmar won two and Howell took fourth prize. In the pending series Delmar offered to concede the odds of the draw to Howell. The seventh game was drawn and counts a win for Howell, placing him one ahead in the score.

W. E. Napier of Pittsburg came to New York yesterday and may remain here several weeks, during which time it is proposed to arrange a triangular contest between him, Howell and Marshall at the Brooklyn Chess Club.

NATIONAL HORSE SHOW.

New Classes and Many Special Prizes Offered.

Nov. 18 to 23 is the week that has been selected for the National Horse Show of this year at Madison Square Garden. It will be the seventeenth annual exhibition of the association, and despite the growth in popularity of the horseless carriages, it promises to surpass the show of the previous fall. There are 118 classes mapped out to be judged among them some that will be found new to the regular patrons.

There will be classes for thoroughbreds, trotters, pacers, roadsters, hackneys, half-breeds (stallions and their get), French coach horses, cab and bassom horses, animals in harness to various rigs, tandems, four-in-hands, ponies, saddlers, jumpers, hunters, horses suitable to become hunters, police horses, horses suitable for cavalry service, horses suitable to become chargers, and all the sub-divisions of these classes. Special prizes are offered as follows: Street cleaning horses and carts, novices, singles and pairs, best gig horse, the breeders' challenge cup for registered or half-registered hackneys, mares or geldings, three years old or over, bred in America, shown to vehicle. A prize has been offered by Frank Jay Gould for horses not under fifteen hands one inch, to be shown before a woman's victoria. James H. Hyde offers a prize for a pair shown before a four-wheeled dog cart, the near horse to be ridden by a position in livery. Entries for the show will close Oct. 26 at 16 East Twenty-third street.

Football Notes.

The Roseville Football Association has Oct. 5, 26 and all Saturdays in November still open and would like to arrange games with first-class teams averaging 150 pounds. Would take a team from Rivington A. C., Midland F. C., Kingsley, N. W. C. A. and Via A. A. Satisfy guarantee given. Address C. A. Loff, 122 South Eleventh street, Newark, N. J.

AUTUMN STAKES FOR LEONID.

AUGUST BELMONT'S COLT BEATS MAJOR DAINGERFIELD.

Blues Takes the September Stakes From Monarka—Nones Wins the Handicap From Louisville in a Drive—Belvino, 40 to 1, a Surprise—Five Favorites Win.

The public had an inning at Sheepshead Bay track yesterday and with the victories of five favorites the ring, which has been prospering of late, was hard hit. Incidentally, Winnie O'Connor, who for the time being has replaced Willie Shaw as a popular idol, rode three winners, including Belvino, a 40 to 1 shot, who upset the talent in the fifth race. The track was very heavy owing to the rain that fell Tuesday night and scratches were in order, the two stake events suffering materially. The weather was just right for the sport and the usual big crowd of enthusiasts enjoyed the salt breezes.

The Autumn Stakes of $3,000 for two-year-olds over the last six furlongs of the new Futurity course was robbed of some interest by the withdrawal of John E. Madden's colts Blackstock, by Hanover—Mannie Himyar, and Alabarch, by Albert—Hypocrite. Green B. Morris also took Homestead out of it, so that with the Setauket stable's Setauket as an added starter, only four youngster went to the post. August Belmont's Hastings colt, Leonid, was a hot even-money favorite, with the Pepper Stable's Par Excellence, Shaw up, second choice, and Major Daingerfield a point higher in the betting. Setauket was played quite earnestly at eights. O'Connor had the mount on Leonid and as soon as the flag fell he took Mr. Belmont's colt into the lead at a rattling gait. Setauket and Major Daingerfield followed closely and changed places several times, but Par Excellence fell away back in the ruck before the first quarter had been completed. O'Connor had Leonid well in hand when the bend was passed and though Burns laced Major Daingerfield enough to take the place from Setauket, by five lengths, he could not reach Leonid who won easily by a length in the slow time of 1:16.

The September Stakes for three-year-olds at a mile and three furlongs was reduced to three contenders, the noted Watercolor being withdrawn because of the going. Nones, sold by T. Hitchcock, Jr., to P. Ryan, was also scratched. At first T. C. McDowell's Monarka was the favorite at even money, with Frank Farrell's Blues, Shaw in the saddle, beginning at 6 to 5. But soon the "right money" began to go onto Blues, and the colt was quickly made an odds-on favorite at 9 to 10, while Monarka, also well supported, receded to 11 to 10. A Featherstone's Autolight was a 15 to 1 outsider. Once away from the flag Blues leveled in the mud and ran away from Monarka along the backstretch so easily that the crowd, remembering Blue's race in the Century Stakes last Saturday, when, a favorite in the betting, he ran last, awoke to the fact that Blues was in an improved condition and also was up against a field inferior to the one that beat him on Saturday. Shaw did not have to make a move on the Farrell colt, but just steadied him, so that Blues won in a gallop by three lengths in the fast time, considering the track, of 2:22 3-5. Monarka was twenty lengths in front of Autolight.

The $1,200 handicap for three-year-olds and upward at a mile and a quarter on turf provided more puzzling betting and a better finish than either stake event. Terminus and Nones opened equal favorites at 8 to 5, but there was such a plunge on Louisville at fours and Nones was backed so widely, especially by his new owner, "Packy" Ryan, the Western plunger, that Terminus went back to 11 to 5, while Nones closed a 3 to 2 favorite. Knight of Rhodes at fives was also a tip that caught quite a lot of money. The race, from a jockey's standpoint of view, was simply Knight of Rhodes and Louisville made the pace neck and neck for a mile with Alsike and Nones neck and neck a length and a half back for three-quarters and Shaw trailing with Terminus. At the far turn Alsike stopped and Terminus made a desperate spurt to get up. Knight of Rhodes quickly tired there and Terminus overhauled both Louisville and Nones so that they entered the stretch practically on even terms. All three were put to the lash and in a sensational drive Nones won by a half a length, in 2:07, Louisville beating Terminus a head off, with Knight of Rhodes ten lengths behind. The winner's time was four-fifths of a second slower than Star Bright's track record, which, taking into consideration the sogginess of the turf, was a remarkable performance for the Sir Dixon gelding.

The biggest surprise of the day occurred in the fifth race for all ages at three-quarters of a mile. Utopian was a 9 to 10 favorite, with heavy backing for Isia at threes, and quite a play on Barouche, which cut her price from five to even. Belvino, opening at 20 to 1, was a rank outsider at 40 to 1 when sent to the post. Belvino and Locket 15 to 1, made the running on even terms for half a mile. Then Utopian, ridden vigorously by Wonderly, moved up with a rush, but he did not have speed enough to catch Belvino, who, driven hard by O'Connor, won by a length. Utopian was six lengths in front of Locket. Isia, carrying top weight and ridden by Spencer, burned up his backers' money by a sorry performance.

The seven maiden two-year-olds started in the first event, a selling race at five and one-half furlongs. Cast Iron, Gold Braid and Electress were equal favorites at 5 to 1, Cassville and Tact being next in favor at 8 to 1. Cassville and Gold Braid cut out the running close together all the way, Burns outriding Rowe and Wonderly Cassville's winner by a length. Rocky, 10 to 1, was third. Terry McGovern's colt, Joe McGovern, ridden by Phil McGovern, a 300 to 1 shot, was last.

Bowen and Hammock were equal first choices at 3 to 1 in the second race at a mile. Monarka rushed Bowen, who had a commanding lead for three-quarters of a mile, but she exploded and Bowen came on a winner by two lengths, with Barbara Frietchie, 8 to 1, in the place three parts of a length better than Alfred Vargrave, 12 to 1. The time was 1:41 1-5. The summaries:

VOLODYOVSKI BEATEN.

Runs Second to Doricles for the St. Leger—Objection to Winner Overruled.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

LONDON, Sept. 11.—The race for the St. Leger Stakes of 25 sovereigns each, the owner of the second horse to receive 300 sovereigns and the third 100 sovereigns out of the stakes, the old St. Leger course, about one mile six furlongs and 132 yards, having 244 subscribers, was run at Doncaster to-day and was won by Mr. Leopold de Rothschild's Doricles, by Florizel II., out of Rosalie.

W. C. Whitney's (Lady Meux's) Volodyovski was second and J. Gubbins's Revenue third. The betting was 40 to 1 against Doricles, 6 to 5 on Volodyovski and 100 to 8 against Revenue. Thirteen horses ran.

An objection was lodged with the stewards against Doricles on the ground of boring.

The objection was overruled.

Doricles won by a neck. Volodyovski was three lengths in front of Revenue. The time was 3:08 2-5.

LIGHT PENALTY FOR SHAW.

Suspended for the Rest of the Sheepshead Bay Meeting.

Jockey William Shaw has been disciplined for his palpably careless ride on William C. Whitney's Blue Girl in the Great Filly Stakes at Sheepshead Bay track last Saturday. He has been set down for the balance of the Coney Island Jockey Club's meeting, which winds up on Saturday next.

After looking into the facts in the matter the stewards of the Coney Island Jockey Club made a report on Tuesday to the stewards of the Jockey Club to the effect that while there seemed to be no evidence of crookedness, Shaw, in their estimation, was guilty of gross carelessness and inefficiency and that in view of some suspicious riding by him at Saratoga they deemed it advisable to refer the boy's case to the stewards of the Jockey Club.

Accordingly the stewards of the Jockey Club held a meeting at the Sheepshead Bay track yesterday afternoon. Those present were August Belmont, James R. Keene, J. H. Bradford, F. R. Hitchcock, J. G. Follansbee and Andrew Miller. The evidence was gone over carefully, after which the stewards decided to suspend Shaw for the balance of the meeting for "negligent riding, no fraud being established in connection with the race."

It was at the request of Mr. Whitney that Shaw's ride was investigated. The owner of Blue Girl openly stated that Shaw's ride was about the poorest bit of jockeyship that he had ever seen. There were all sorts of rumors afloat shortly after the race, some of which implicated "Pittsburg Phil," Shaw's regular employer, who freely admitted that he had not backed Blue Girl, but had bet on Lux Casta. The sheets on the race were examined, but they threw no light on the situation. It is believed that the Jockey Club will pass a rule before another season prohibiting an employer of a jockey from betting against any mount that his jockey may secure. At present there is a rule that forbids an owner from betting against his own horse, but not his jockey. If such a rule is passed it will put an end to an evil which "Pittsburg Phil" himself, says exists. Mr. Whitney was not at the track yesterday, but was at Lenox, Mass.

Sale of Yearlings.

Although a large crowd attended the sale of yearlings from the Trade Wind, Anita, Walnut Grove and other studs at the Fasig-Tipton Company's paddocks at Sheepshead Bay yesterday afternoon, the bidding was light. The most spirited bidding took place on the imp. Lord Esterling—Welcome colt, and he was sold to W. H. Karrick for $1,400. Following are the principal sales:

Chestnut filly, by imp. Lord Esterling—Tarpeia II., J. B. Haggin	$475
Gray colt, by Gotham—Speecher, J. E. Widener	250
Chestnut colt, by imp. Lord Esterling—Glenalt, J. McGinnis	255
Tom Mayhew, ch. c., by imp. Lord Esterling—Welcome, W. H. Karrick	1,400
Chamblee, ch. c., by imp. Charaxus—Canley, R. W. Walden	375
Brown colt, by imp. Water Level—Joyeuse, W. H. Karrick	500
Bay colt, by imp. Water Level—Counterbreeze, E. A. Tipton	350
