WILL MISS GRISCOM WIN?

ASPECTS OF WOMEN'S ANNUAL GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP.

Some of the Players of the First Class—The Arrangements of the Links—A Bogey Score of 86—An Unusually Open Race for Premier Honors.

There is one unusual aspect about the women's golf championship, which starts to-morrow morning at the Baltusrol Golf Club. It is that for the first time in its history there is no special favorite to win—no particular player or two or three players are to be picked out as the sure leaders at the finish. The first four years the question was whether Miss Beatrix Hoyt could be beaten; last year the race was conceded to be between Miss Hoyt, Miss Ruth Underhill and Miss Frances C. Griscom. This time the speculation is whether or not Miss Griscom will be able to defend her title successfully. She will be opposed by the largest field that has ever gathered to play in the championship, eighty-four in all, of whom over forty never have before tried for the honor. These new aspirants may include in their number a phenomenal player or two, for it is high time that the younger girls should play as well as the college boys, and it is from this set that Miss Griscom must be on the watch for surprises. She is quite able to hold her own with the contemporary players.

But a match between golfers of the same grade is always an uncertain one. Miss Griscom plays with great dash and confidence, and she has visited for two seasons in Scotland, but judging by the close finish with Miss Georgiana Bishop in the fall tournament at Baltusrol, she is not in a class above our best players. Miss Beatrix Hoyt, Miss Ruth Underhill, Miss Genevieve Hecker, the Curtis sisters, Miss Anna E. Kip, Mrs. Caleb Fox, Mrs. E. A. Manice, Mrs. Pendleton Rogers, the Misses Cassatt, Miss Goffe, Miss Eunice Terry, Miss Elsa Hurlburt, Miss Maule, Miss Marion L. Oliver, Miss Lucy Herron, Miss Maude Wetmore, Miss Bessie Anthony, Miss Louisa A. Wells and Miss J. Anna Carpenter, unless out of spirits, are quite able to give Miss Griscom a lively match. In fact, the class of "top-notchers" is so large that if over seventy start it seems unjust that thirty-two should not receive a chance to qualify instead of only sixteen. A further uncertainty will be added to the outcome of the play by the general use of the lively ball. It is thought that the new ball, which is so responsive to an easy swing with little power behind it, will about even up the long game of the contestants. If so, each hole will be settled by an approaching and putting match. Playing the first hole in practice the other day to show what wonders may be expected to happen when the bounding ball is used, Miss Bishop after a drive and brassey found her ball on the face of the bunker. She then laid it on the green with an iron, covering more ground on the shot than she had with the two full shots with wood. The statistics of the championship follow.

Year and link. Score Medal. Winner. Runner Up.
1898 Morris'n Miss Hoyt Miss Hoyt Mrs. A. Turnure
1897 Manchester Miss Hoyt Miss Hoyt Miss Sargent
1896 Ardsley. Miss Hoyt Miss Hoyt Miss Wetmore
1899 Bala. Miss Hoyt Miss Underhill Miss Carpenter
1900 Southampton. Miss Hoyt Miss Griscom Miss M. Curtis.

There will be two new holes met with at Baltusrol on Tuesday, but their greens are as good as the old ones for they have been ready for play since the spring. The links never has been so good and it may be pronounced the best course that the women have as yet had for their tournament. The synopsis of the playing conditions is thus recorded:

1. 463 Yards—Ditch with bunker to be carried by a good second.
2. 363 Yards—Trap for topped drive or slice, cop bunker well before green.
3. 204 Yards—Mounds at 160 to 175 yards.
4. 488 Yards—Pond before tee; cop bunkers to be carried by second and a sand pit guarding green.
5. 284 Yards—Cop bunker 110 yards from tee and another to guard the green.
6. 332 Yards—A new hole, played across road to saucer-shaped green surrounded by woods. Easy hole if play is straight.
7. 325 Yards—Also a new hole. Punishment for sliced or pulled drive, bunkers to be carried by second.
8. 283 Yards—Cop bunker 125 yards from tee, green on the hilltop.
9. 182 Yards—Play through a cutting in woods, a good but easy hole if line is kept.
10. 184 Yards—Drive high tee over pond to green in valley.
11. 254 Yards—An uphill hole, green guarded by natural lay of land.
12. 257 Yards—Tee on hill, green in valley with cop bunkers guarding it.
13. 421 Yards—Wide line of play with punishment for slice, brook before green.
14. 329 Yards—Favors a pulled ball; brook will trap a bad drive and cop bunkers guard green.
15. 464 Yards—Cop bunkers to be passed on the drive and third shots.
16. 496 Yards—Sand trap 120 yards from tee, cop bunker before green.
17. 302 Yards—Cop bunker 120 yards from tee.
18. 245 Yards—Brook 100 yards from tee; same pit before green.

New tees have been put forward on the long holes, but they do not shorten them materially. The full round is 5,976 yards, and the men's bogey score is:

Out.....6 5 4 6 4 5 6 4 4—44
In.....4 4 4 5 6 6 4 4 4—42—86

There was quite a number of the entrants at the Baltusrol Golf Club yesterday, butfew of them made the round. In response to the suggestion in THE SUN of last Thursday a petition is being circulated for signatures asking the U. S. G. A. to permit thirty-two to qualify instead of sixteen. Otherwise the women state that their championship is framed on more severe lines than that of the men. Their trump card is that at Bala, in 1899, when seventy-eight started, there were only three strokes between the sixteenth and the thirty-second score.

An international team match between picked men from the U. S. G. A. and the Canadian Golf Association is off for the reason that after three defeats the Canadians thought it no use to try again this year. An annual match of the sort, but between clubs and not picked men from the associations, was, however, decided at Montreal on Saturday and for the first time in five years of its history the Canadians were the winners. The score was:

Alexander Smith, formerly of Carnoustie, whose well-known past record includes the tie with Willie Anderson for the open championship at Myopia, has taken up his duties as professional of the Nassau Country Club. He has been in Scotland all summer and is right on the top of his game. Special contests during the month include an approaching and putting contest on next Saturday, a mixed foursome on Wednesday, Oct. 16, a long driving contest on Saturday, Oct. 19, and a men's foursome on Saturday, Oct. 26.

The annual fall tournament of the Chevy Chase Golf Club, open to members of clubs in the U. S. G. A. and to such other players as may be invited, will be held on Oct. 31 and Nov. 1 and 2. It is always a popular tournament with Philadelphia and New York golfers. The qualifying rounds will be at thirty-six holes, with the usual low score prize. The first sixteen will meet at match play for the club cup and the second sixteen for a consolation cup. There will be runner-up prizes also. On the last day there will be an eighteen-hole handicap, for a cup, in which there will be also prizes for the second net and the best gross score.

John Venters, for five years with the Shinnecock Hills Golf Club, has been engaged for the winter as professional by the Country Club of Lakewood.

The first of the fall schedule of competitions of the Newark Athletic Association was held on Saturday for the McCarter Cup, forty contestants driving off. The first two sets of eight on net scores, who are to keep on at handicap match play for the trophies, were as follows:

NEWARK, Oct. 6.—On the links of the Yountakah Club yesterday afternoon there was a very interesting contest. The approaching and putting event among the women was won by Miss Holdsworth. There was also a men's driving contest, won by Arthur Hoebes, with an average of 134 yards. A mixed foursome followed and was won by Dr. and Mrs. F. R. Goddard. The scores:

ORANGE, Oct. 6.—On the links of the South Orange Field Club yesterday morning a five-man team from the Mount Airy Country Club of Philadelphia was defeated by the Field Club team, by the score of 28 to 3. Twenty-seven holes were played. The following players represented the Mount Airy Club: A. Fleming, Jr., W. Larne, S. D. Ferguson, A. H. Nevins and R. H. Hults, Jr. Those who played for the Field Club were: G. W. Lethbridge, N. H. Joralemon, G. W. Hutchinson, M. M. Armstrong and E. E. Lethbridge. The first round in the contest for the William J. Kingsland cup was played in the afternoon and resulted as follows:

Hasselman beat Grady, by default; Taylor beat Shepard, by default; G. W. Lethbridge beat Young, by 7 up and 5 to go; E. E. Lethbridge beat Palen, by 4 up; Armstrong beat Brainard, by 4 down; Newell beat Williams, by 1 up, and Joralemon beat Stone.

MANCHESTER, Oct. 6.—The perfect weather induced a large number of golfers to play in the handicap stroke competition at the Essex County Golf Club yesterday. A new record for the links in competition was made by James F. Curtis, who went the rounds in 83, the best previous record being 84, made by Francis I. Amory. Mr. Curtis received a special prize. M. B. Mason was the winner of the competition with a net score of 82 from a handicap of nine.

A professional thirty-six hole match for $50 a side was played yesterday at the Rockville Centre Golf Club, between Maurice J. McCarthy, the professional, and C. W. Thatcher, until recently professional at Put-in-Bay, on the St. Lawrence. Thatcher was 5 up at the ninth and 3 up at the eighteenth hole. After luncheon his play was not so effective as in the morning and the match was all square on the twenty-seventh hole. Again on the thirty-sixth hole the men were all even. On the extra hole McCarthy won by 4 to 5.

Preparing for a Lively Track Season at Columbia.

Capt. Chesley B. Marshall of the Columbia track team is preparing for an active year, beginning with the annual fall games, which are to take place at the end of the month. Last year's team, the best Columbia has had for several years, will remain intact with the possible exception of Barker, the hurdler, who may not return to college. Much is expected of several new candidates from the preparatory schools. Fred Squires, the champion pole vaulter of the New England Intercollegiate Association from Williams, and T. B. Johnson, also from Williams, who put the shot 41 feet at Columbia last year, have spent the necessary year of residence at the university and will be regular members of the track team this year. S. C. Pilcher, the Southern quarter-miler from Vanderbilt University, is also eligible. Another new man is Wylie, the former Princeton runner, who has entered the law school. He will run in all class and dual games, but will be debarred from the intercollegiate competitions for one year. J. Johnson, '03 college, the former running mate of "Maxey" Long, who was ill last year, is expected to return this autumn to finish his college course. He was a member of the two relay teams which won the events for Columbia at Pennsylvania's field day in 1899.

As yet the managers have not got a line on the preparatory school runners who enter the university this year. The best of those who are known are P. Delsmer from Columbia Grammar School, the interscholastic champion at 100 yards, who has received credit for covering the distance on several occasions in 10 seconds. De Forest, sprinter from the Bridgeport High School; Webster Benham, from Trinity School; Herche, hurdler; R. Strange, shot putter, and W. Strange, hammer thrower from Columbia Grammar. "Ernie" Hjertberg will be retained as trainer on account of his good work last year. The new manager and his assistant will be chosen at the first student mass meeting of the year. Plans are afoot to build a track on the gymnasium grove, which will save the runners the necessity of making the tedious trip to Williamsbridge every day during the training season.

Wrestling.

Another Terrible Turk of elephantine proportions is on his way to America and is expected to arrive here within a few days. The name of the newcomer is Mehmet Nechad. He stands 6 feet 2 inches in height, weighs 220 pounds and is only 22 years old. It is said that he is very clever and strong and that he has quite a record abroad. Nechad is reported as being wealthy and it is understood that he intends to back himself in all his matches. Nechad, it is further said defeated Paul Pons, the French champion in Paris last year and Nouroulah in Turkey. He is coming here to arrange a match with either Tom Jenkins or Ernest Roeber. The impression prevails that he will be quickly accommodated unless the two American wrestlers see fit to reject him on account of his size and weight.

Billy Lee of Yonkers informs THE SUN that he is ready to match Alec Swanton against either Jack McCormick of Philadelphia or Harvey Parker. Lee is willing to arrange a contest under catch-as-catch-can rules for a side bet and a purse. He adds that he is prepared to meet the representatives of Parker or McCormick at any place to clinch a bout.

Dan McLeod, the Buffalo wrestler is after a match with Tom Jenkins. A few weeks ago McLeod posted a forfeit with a Buffalo newspaper, but states that up to date his money has neither been covered nor has he heard from Jenkins or the latter's manager. McLeod says that if his money is not covered in a few days he will take it down and proceed to England, where he has been promised a meeting with Jack Carkeek of Detroit, who is now in London.

Bowling Notes.

Tournaments will be organized at the Thirteenth and Twenty-third regiments.

The Twenty-sixth Ward Wheelmen have withdrawn from the Long Island Association of Cycling Club's tournament.

A call has been issued for the annual meeting of the Brooklyn Interclub League. A tournament will not probably be held this season as the Crescent A. C. and the Knickerbocker F. C. have resigned.

On Saturday night the Royal Arcanum Minor League of Brooklyn arranged the details for the opening of its tournament on Oct. 17. Twenty-three contests will complete. Games will be played every week night except Mondays. Trainor's alleys have been engaged. President Sheffield appointed schedule and prize committees, and nothing will be left undone to have a successful tournament.

The Fire Insurance League Board of Managers expected to complete all arrangements for their tournament on Wednesday afternoon, but as only one of the two vacancies was filled it was decided to hold another meeting this afternoon. In the meantime the officials hope to get another team to join, should they fail the tournament will go on with fourteen teams. The Union Fire Insurance Company was admitted to membership at yesterday's meeting.

KILLING IN A 50-CENT QUARREL.

Bartender Stabbed to Death, but the Stabber Pleads Self-Defence.

Thomas Hurley, a bartender, of 305 East Twenty-sixth street, was stabbed and mortally injured early yesterday morning by August Rehg, a pianomaker, of 212 East Twenty-second street in a fight in front of Rehg's home following a quarrel over an alleged debt of 50 cents. According to Rehg Hurley was trying to collect the 50 cents, which Rehg said he had never borrowed. Hurley called him a liar and began to punch him and then Rehg drew his pocket knife and struck out with it.

"Take me to a priest, I'm dying," gasped Hurley when Policeman Shields reached him. Shields rapped for assistance and Hurley was carried around to the stoop of the priest's house of the Church of the Epiphany at 239 East Twenty-first street. There Father Phelan administered the last rites of the church to the injured man. Afterward Hurley was taken to Bellevue in a patrol wagon. He had seven stab wounds in the abdomen and the man died without making a statement.

Rehg was found hiding in a closet in his home and was hurried to the hospital where Hurley identified him as his assailant. Coroner Rausch held him on a charge of homicide.
