FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE

Colonial Furniture

illuminates our store with the early history of our country. Beloved designs, redolent of those days when Paul Revere lanterns, two-handled mugs and copper kettles were in demand. Most truly is furniture its own best historian, and we have reproduced even to the dull finish. The goose-neck rockers, fiddle-back chairs, high-boys—each floor is an open book, so he who runs may read.

Proposals.

PROPOSALS for the Purchase of Bonds of the City of San Juan—Office of the Mayor, San Juan, Porto Rico, October 23, 1901.—Under and by virtue of the authority granted in the Act of the Legislative Assembly of Porto Rico, entitled "An Act to authorize and regulate the issuance of bonds by the Cities of Porto Rico," approved January 31, 1901, and Section 38 of the organic Act of the Congress of the United States, approved April 12, 1900:

Sealed proposals will be received by the Mayor of the City of San Juan, at his office in said City, until four o'clock P. M., on Saturday, November 23, 1901, for the purchase of the whole of six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000.00) of bonds of the City of San Juan, Porto Rico, at not less than their par value; the bonds to be delivered and the purchase money therefor paid as follows: Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) of bonds as soon as legally executed, and the balance of three hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($350,000) of bonds within twenty (20) days after the delivery of the first installment; delivery of the bonds and payment of the purchase money therefor to be made either in the City of New York or in the City of San Juan, at the option of the purchaser hereunder.

The purposes of the proposed loan are: The payment of the bonded and floating indebtedness of the City of San Juan; the completion of its water works; the construction of sewerage; the construction of a suitable home for the indigent poor of San Juan; the repair of public buildings of the City, necessary to their preservation, and the repair, construction and repavement of the streets of the City.

The said bonds are to bear date January 1, 1902, to mature in twenty years after date, and to bear interest at the rate of six (6) per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually on the first days of January and July of each year; the city reserving the option to redeem and pay said bonds, or such portion thereof as may be called, at par, with the interest thereon, on any interest paying day on and after January 1, 1912, upon giving sixty (60) days' printed notice in one or more newspapers in the City of New York, or in the City of San Juan, to be designated for such purpose by the purchaser hereunder.

The bonds will be issued in denominations of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), with coupons attached, payable in gold coin of the United States, in English, consecutively numbered, duly registered in the office of the Treasurer of the City of San Juan, and certified copies of such registration transmitted to the Treasurer and Auditor of Porto Rico for record in their respective offices, the interest and principal to be paid in gold coin of the United States, at some bank in the City of New York, or in the City of San Juan, to be designated by the purchaser.

The total assessed valuation of the taxable property of the City of San Juan, for the year 1901, is $11,655,967.00. In the event of a default on the part of the city to make prompt payment of the interest or principal of the bonds, or any part thereof, as the same shall become due, the City, as a pledge of its good faith, authorizes the Treasurer of Porto Rico to withhold from the revenues of said municipality hereafter to be collected by the Insular Government and due to the City, a sum sufficient for such payments in arrears.

A certified check of any national bank of the United States, payable to the order of the Mayor of the City of San Juan, for the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00), or cash for the same amount, must accompany each proposal, as a guarantee of good faith.

If the terms and conditions of the proposal of the successful bidder are not complied with, he shall forfeit his deposit; otherwise the deposit shall be returned upon completion of the contract. The City Council shall reserve the right to reject any or all proposals, and take proper action thereon within forty eight hours.

The award shall be made to the highest bidder complying with all the terms and conditions of this notice.

The right is reserved to the City to reject any and all bids.

All proposals must be sealed and indorsed "Proposals for Purchase of Bonds of the City of San Juan," and addressed to MANUEL FRIGOLI, Mayor of the City.
