The breaking of the drought in the Southwest was the signal for general selling of wheat under which prices declined. Then, too, the cables were lower, outside markets were weak, the Southwest sold freely at Chicago, the Northwest was selling and bears were encouraged to put out fresh short lines on the improved prospectus for winter wheat. Liverpool declined ¼d., London ¾d., Paris 10 centimes, Budapest 8 kr. and Berlin ¾ to 1 mark. Later on, however, there was a rally which obliterated most of the decline owing to predictions of colder weather for the Southwest, a more active export demand, smaller receipts, an estimated decrease in the Minneapolis stock for the week of 1,000,000 bush. and covering of shorts. Primary receipts were 504,000 bush. making 1,300,000 thus far this week against 1,346,000 thus far last week and 2,002,000 last year. Corn declined early on the depression in wheat, a decline of ¼d. in the cables, heavy selling by Logan at Chicago and liquidation, but soon rallied and closed at a fractional net rise on predictions of lighter receipts, reports of a better cash trade and covering of shorts. Primary receipts were 340,000 bush. and the total thus far this week is 1,024,000 bush. against 1,125,000 in the same time last week and 2,150,000 last year. Oats advanced on bull manipulation and some commission-house buying, but lost part of the rise on selling attributed to Patten. Primary receipts were 319,000 bush. making 1,100,000 thus far this week against 990,000 thus far last week and 1,619,000 last year.

FLOUR—Quiet and steady. Sales, 12,500 bbls. Receipts were 11,743 bbls. and 11,793 sacks; exports, 6,147 bbls. and 16,638 sacks. Winter in bbls. Rye flour, $3.25@$3.70.

COTTON—Spot cotton here was unchanged. Sales, 21 bales for spinning and 2,700 delivered on contracts. Middling uplands, 9⅛c. against 8¾c. last year; New Orleans and Gulf, 9⅜c. against 9c. Southern spot markets were generally unchanged; Augusta declined 1-16c. Liverpool declined 1-32d. on the spot, with sales of 8,000 bales; futures declined 2 points, but recovered most of the loss, closing at a net decline of ½ point. Manchester quiet. The movement to day was as follows:

	To-day.	Week.	Last Year.	Last Year.
Port receipts	19,174	15,670	17,999
New Orleans, estimated to-morrow	6,000	to 7,000	6,909	6,888

Receipts, 13 towns	10,669		12,319	15,089

In New Orleans, May was 8.66@7.78c., closing 8.77@8.78c.; July 8.77@8.88c., closing 8.87@8.88c. Futures closed firm here at a net advance of 6 to 11 points with estimated sales of 175,000 bales. Prices as follows:

A slight early decline in cotton was attributed to a drop in Liverpool, reports that short time was extending among the yarn mills of Lancashire, some liquidation and a certain amount of bear hammering, principally by three firms to say nothing of more or less selling by spot houses and the idea that Philadelphia is inimical to an advance; but later on the market advanced easily on buying attributed largely to a prominent Wall Street operator and his following encouraged by a small Houston estimate, and reduced receipts at the ports. Then, too, Liverpool rallied, spot markets were generally steady or firm, shorts were disposed to cover and large commission houses were buying for the outside public. Galveston, Tex.—Twenty-one towns in north Texas and Indian Territory show aggregate stocks 27,000 bales, against 70,000 bales this time last year. The estimated receipts at same places for remainder of the season, or from now until Aug. 31, next, 8,500 bales, against 48,000 last year. The stock at Houston, Tex., of 60,076 bales includes 10,000 bales of linters. By "linters" is meant the lint that remains after the first ginning and is used for stuffing mattresses, chairs, &c., and of no practical use for spinning needs of America, Europe, Asia or Africa. Therefore, for all practical purposes this 10,000 bales of linters should be considered as much removed from the visible supply of American in this country, as though it did not exist.

COFFEE—Rio on the spot was dull at 5¾c. for No. 7. Sales, 300 bags Maracaibo. Futures declined 10 to 15 points, closing weak with sales of 48,500 bags. Havre declined ½ to 1f. and Hamburg ¼ to ½ pfg. American warehouse deliveries, 73,119 bags. Rio declined 75 reis; exchange was unchanged at 12d.; receipts, 10,000 bags; stock, 642,000 bags. Santos declined 100 reis; receipts, 23,000 bags; stock, 1,100,000 bags. Interior receipts, 23,400 bags. Prices here as follows:

BOY SHOT IN A FIGHT.

Blood Spilled in the Feud Between the "Dudes" and the "Hooligans."

Daniel Cronan, 16 years old, of Malbone street and East New York avenue, Brooklyn, is in St. Mary's Hospital with a bullet wound in his thigh received in a fight with the "Dudes" of the St. Mark's avenue section of Stuyvesant Heights, who were playing baseball yesterday in the lots of Crow Hill. Irwin Kelsey, 14 years old, son of William H. Kelsey of 831 St. Mark's avenue, is under arrest charged with the shooting of Cronan. He was arraigned in the Gates avenue police court yesterday, where he pleaded not guilty and was held in $500 bail for examination.

Bad blood has existed for some time between the boys of St. Mark's avenue and those of the "squatter" element on the outskirts of Crow Hill. The shooting was the result of an attempt to break up a game of baseball. The Shantytown lads are known as the "Hooligans," and those from Stuyvesant Heights as the "Dudes."
