SURMISE A BIG SURPRISE.

DEFEATS CARBUNCLE AND FLY WHEEL IN A DRIVE.

Henry J. Morris's Sir Dixon Colt Takes the Bronx Park Handicap—Apprentices' Race for Irritable—Faust Beats Squid a Neck—Zoo Hurdle for Valdez.

With nineteen horses blue pencilled from the Bronx Park Handicap, run over the Withers mile at Morris Park yesterday afternoon, the race seemed to lie between Perry Belmont's three-year-old Falsetto colt Fly Wheel and R. T. Wilson's sturdy five-year-old gelding Carbuncle. Carbuncle was backed down from 6 to 5 to 4 to 5 favorite, while Mr Belmont's colt went up from 5 to 2 to fours. Henry J. Morris's four-year-old colt Surmise, by Sir Dixon—Conjecture, carrying only 95 pounds, was such a tempting bait at 10 to 1 that many bettors put their money on straight and place until he stood at 7 to 1. These speculators had not forgotten the fact that not long ago Surmise had run second to the great Watercolor in fast time and a few days later had finished third to Smoke and St Ethnan.

Booger attempted to make a runaway race of it with Fly Wheel, who showed in front with Red Path clinging to him until the Eclipse crossing was reached. There Odom moved up with Carbuncle and little Georgie Thompson began to let Surmise have his head. As a result the four horses rushed into the stretch in close order. Carbuncle had Fly Wheel beaten a furlong from home, both boys whipping, when suddenly Surmise, also suffering the lash, came along on the outside with an overwhelming stride. Thompson never rode a better race in his life and as the trio dashed on past the 50-cent field, Surmise was overhauling Carbuncle in every jump, while Fly Wheel, killed by his own pacemaking, was falling away in a corresponding manner. Odom laid the whip on confidently that fifty yards from home it looked as if Carbuncle would get the verdict, but Surmise never faltered and in a most sensational finish the Sir Dixon colt was victorious by a short neck in the fast time of 1:49. Fly Wheel was five lengths away and three lengths in front of Red Path.

This event wound up in a fitting way an afternoon's sport that, while it did not bristle with rich stake events and the performances of high-class thoroughbreds, was thoroughly enjoyed by another holiday crowd of 8,000 devotees. Form was not altogether out of consistent running gear, either, as two favorites, two second choices and a third won.

Outside of the Bronx Park Handicap, perhaps the most interesting event was the fourth in which the horses were ridden by apprentices, and the display made by the youngsters, barring that of Fletcher, who rode Julius Fleischmann's Irritable to a neatly turned victory, made the crowd laugh. Irritable was a torrid favorite, being played down from threes to 9 to 5, while J. B. Hagin's Bon Mot, originally the first selection of a great many, went back to 4 to 1. Perry McGovern's midget brother Philip had the mount on "Father Bill" Daly's Handicapper and the moment the horses came out of the paddock, the boy's mother, from a good seat in the grand stand, let everybody know that Philip was her beloved son.

"That's him," cried Mrs McGovern. "Aint he a broth of a boy?"

But the devoted mother was doomed to bitter disappointment, as Philip's horse was no better than fifth, while the boy laid on the whip just as Perry had done on the unpopular Bon Mot's saddle. Irritable made the running, with Fletcher riding him coolly, while Bon Mot and Kingraine hung on until the top of the stretch was reached. Then every boy, except Fletcher, drew his whip and dogged away for dear life. Kingraine, responding to Kinney's pitiless pushing up to even terms with Irritable, but Fletcher never once losing his head and riding the colt out cleverly with his hands and heels landed the purse by a head in 1:29⅘. Kingraine was two lengths before Boxsterer, who beat Bon Mot a head.

The opening event was the Zoo Hurdle race at a mile and a half over six flights. The Albemarle Stable's Mecrathiana Prince and Joseph E. Widener's Valdez were equal favorites at 8 to 5. Mecrathiana Prince showed the way for over a mile, with Lou Kate and Valdez within striking distance. Valdez, took the lead at the last hurdle after some bungling and then drew away, winning easily by three lengths in 2:54. McGrathiana Prince held the place securely by four lengths over Fabius. Heider and Herting, who rode the second and third horses respectively, lodged a protest of foul against the winner, but the stewards would make no change in the original order of the finish.

Newton Bennington scratched Lady Alberetta out of the Kinder Selling Race for two-year-olds, and the Oakwood Stable's fillies came forward as short favorite over H. K. Vingut's Blue Banner and the Oneck Stable's Faust, both of whom were at 7 to 5 in the pool betting. But just before the horses were raised Faust was really made the choice by means of a heavy plunge which cut his price to 5 to 2 in most of the books. Faust, a Tom Bowes bay gelding by Carlo—Faustine, and, ridden by Redfern, he set a rattling pace down the chute with "Father Bill" Daly's Squid, 20 to 1, the only one able to keep close to him. Burns had Blue Banner under the whip in the first furlong and she left the others, until it was important for her to overhaul the two leaders. Faust was the winner under a clever hand ride, beating Squid, who continued to take punishment to the end, by a neck. Blue Banner was three lengths behind.

The third race for maiden three-year-olds and upward looked to be a "copper-lined" catch for William Lakeland's Knight Templar, who as soon as even money appeared was made 3 to 5 favorite. Matt Byrne's Flirtineer, meanwhile, receded to 9 to 2. At the start Tact stumbled and threw Wonderly, but the jockey was not hurt. It was Flirtineer, all the way with Stella in runner up, until the final furlong came. Then Knight Templar could not catch Flirtineer, who won with something to spare by two lengths in 1:23. The favorite was three lengths in front of Stella Walsh, who just got third money by a head from Bella.

Without anything like a good ride, John W. Schorr's H. I. Coleman would have won the fifth event, a selling affair for three-year-olds at seven furlongs, without trouble. The Farandole colt was heavily backed and went to the post favorite at 9 to 5, Justice being played down to 13 to 5, second choice. First Cobra, then Jack McGinnis and later "Father Bill" Daly's Squidmaid were in front of a rapidly weakening Squid. Swamplands having a good lead in the middle of the stretch, H. I. Coleman, meanwhile, had been ridden all over the track by W. Murphy, a stable boy, but with apparently little help from his rider the colt came so fast in the last furlong that with another inch or two he would have won. As it was Swamplands beat him a head, with Caithness a length back and a neck in front of Justice. The time was 1:29. The summaries:

Kid Abel Wins From Tommy Sullivan.

ST. LOUIS, May 16.—Kid Abel, of Chicago, got the decision last night at the West End Club over Tommy Sullivan, of New York, in what was to have been a 20-round bout. In the fourteenth round, Abel knocked Tommy through the ropes. Vernon Johns, his manager, picked Sullivan up and got inside the ring with him. Sullivan clinched and Abel landed a vicious blow putting Tommy out of the game. Dr Heine Marks examined Sullivan and pronounced the blow a foul one, but Nelson, the referee, gave the decision to Abel because of Johns's action in staying inside the ring.

Morris Rauch and George Munroe fought a 15-round draw in the preliminary.

Brooklyns Defeat St. Louis, Pittsburgs Whip Philadelphias and Chicagos Shut Out the Bostons—Detroit in the Lead in the American League—Notes.

The New Yorks are doing fairly well against the teams far down in the race. They opened with the Cincinnatis yesterday and cast a damper over the new grand-stand dedication festivities by winning out in the last inning. The Brooklyns defeated St. Louis and Boston was shut out by Chicago, shut-outs being almost a daily occurrence. The Pittsburgs disposed of Philadelphia handily. The Detroits took first place in the American League. They beat Cleveland. Boston downed Philadelphia and went down into second place, passing St. Louis and Philadelphia. St. Louis lost to Chicago. The Baltimores defeated Washington, ousting the latter from sixth place. The National League results and record follow:

NEW YORK, 5; CINCINNATI, 3.

CINCINNATI, May 16.—To-day John T. Brush's new $30,000 grand stand was formally dedicated, after which his Reds were defeated in a strenuous finish. Brush and President DeHaas Robison of the St. Louis team were the only magnates on hand. Judge Howard Ferris, on behalf of the Cincinnati Baseball Club, presented the new stand to the city, and Mayor Fleischmann accepted it in a brief speech.

A better game could not have been given on such an occasion except for the fact that the home team lost. Hahn and Taylor pitched wonderful ball for seven innings and not a run crossed the plate. The fielding was fast and often sensational, Jackson, Magoon, Van Haltren and Smith all making extraordinary plays. In the eighth, after Hoy had singled, Taylor threw the ball far over Doyle's head and Hoy ran to third. Dobbs was hit. Beckley's line hit to Van Haltren allowed Hoy to score, and Dobbs followed on Magoon's single. Then Corcoran hit a high one to Bean, which was muffed, and Magoon scored. This apparently clinched the game, as Hahn had been invincible, but the New Yorkers made a plucky and unlooked-for finish. Lauder beat out a bunt and Jones singled to left. Doyle walked. Bean fanned with the bases full, but Jackson singled, scoring Lauder and Jones. Bowerman made his second long hit of the game, a double to right field, and Doyle tied the score. Yeager batted for Taylor, and his single won the game, driving in Jackson and Bowerman. The score:
