MAMARI WINS THE CRITERION.

FLEET HAMBURG FILLY DEFEATS BITURICA IN A DRIVE.

Hermis Takes the Handicap From Himself and Oom Paul—Kittaning, Morokanta, Connecticut and Irene Lindsey Disconcert the Talent—The Entries.

With seven races to solve, the form players experienced some hard knocks at Gravesend yesterday, as four favorites were beaten, while such surprises as Kittaning, 40 to 1, Morokanta, 8 to 1, Connecticut, 10 to 1, and Irene Lindsey, 5 to 1, landed purses. Lee Jackson, the Western boy, who has excited so much comment for his rides on Green B. Morris's Old England, piloted three winners, while the veteran Sam Doggett also got two home. The weather was so chilly that the attendance was limited to the regulars. The track was holding and in some places lumpy.

The feature of the card was the Criterion Stakes of $3,500, for two-year-old fillies, at five furlongs. James R. Keene's Hamburg filly, Biturica, with Shaw up, was an added starter, and was backed pretty well at five, but the favorite was Miles Finnegan Monmarte's swift-footed daughter of Hamburg Mecrere, who won the Fashion Stakes at Morris Park. A. Featherstone's Mary Street was second choice, at 16 to 5, with confident support for Capt. Sam Brown's Sir Dixon filly Martie Lewis, at eight. When the barrier was let go Martie Lewis was practically left, but went after field with her wonderful speed and gameness. Though Mary Street showed in front for the first sixteenth, she gave way to Mamari, who, handing to pounds in neat fashion, had a fairly comfortable lead when entering the stretch. But as Mary Street tired of following the favorite's pace, Shaw got Biturica up from the rear in time to press Mamari persistently in the last furlong. Meanwhile Martie Lewis had come through the field at a great burst of speed and was knocking at the door, too, in the last 100 yards. It was a striking finish, in which Doggett got Mamari home winner by a half a length, while Biturica beat Martie Lewis a neck for the latter finishing strong. With a fair break Capt. Brown's filly might have won. The time was 1:01 2-5.

The handicap at a mile and a sixteenth was particularly noteworthy because of the defeat of Senator Jacob Worth's Oom Paul and a meteoric ride by Jackson on H. M. Ziegler's three-year-old colt Hermis, by Hermence—Katy of the West, who won principally on his own courage. Oom Paul opened favorite at 8 to 5, but receded to 7 to 5 as the money poured in on Hermis, reducing him from twos to 9 to 5. Meanwhile there was a great plunge on Father Bill, Daly's Himself, who, with Burns up, was hammered down from 7 to 1 to 9 to 2. There was also a magnetic tip out on Frank Farrell's Five Nations, who closed at fours. Himself made the running, with Hermis always within striking distance. Three hundred yards from the finish to get to the front lost was shut off. But he finally got through at the top of the stretch, only to put up a weak finish. Then Hermis, just as Old England did on Tuesday, came on and won the race hardily by a length in 1:48 1-5. Himself was three lengths before Oom Paul, who beat Five Nations by three parts of a length. Oom Paul's showing was far below expectations.

Newton Bennington's Jack De Mund, with 96 pounds, looked to have the second event for platers at a mile and seventy yards at his mercy so he was made a 4 to 5 favorite. At the start Mosketo was jumped and Michaels put Blue Ribbon out, which was not allowed. Jack De Mund won galloping by four lengths in 1:41, with Wunderich, 20 to 1, holding the place from Lucky Star, second choice, by two lengths. The latter was ridden all over the track, and so was Calthess.

The first race for maiden two-year-olds at five furlongs was figured out for S. S. Brown's colt Blue Ribbon, a full brother to Blues and Blue Girl, being by Sir Dixon—Bonnie Blue II. With odom up, Blue Ribbon was made a favorite at 11 to 5, but he got away slowly and never showed in a prominent place. Mike Dawe's colt Kittaning, by Halma—Virginia Kinney, a 40 to 1 shot, made the running after a poor start and lasted long enough to win by a head in a drive from Julius Fleischmann's Attaboy, by Star Ruby—Afric Queen, with Odom up. Bakal, a best The Goughacres stable's Athelroy ran a fine race, getting away poorly, yet finishing fourth, a length away. The time was 1:02 2-5.

E. J. Miller's Morokanta was the good thing in the fifth event for platers, at about six furlongs. The Morocco horse was snapped up eagerly at 8 to 1 by those who knew what was in the wind, while the form players went on making The Puritan, Eve Referee and Duckworth favorites. Eve and Carroll D showed in front to the turn, where Morokanta, with Jackson getting him up from a slow beginning in good shape, took the lead. It was a case of whip all down the stretch after that, Morokanta winning hard drifting, by half a length, in 1:16 4-5, with Early Eve in the place, heading out The Referee. Shaw was unable to take The Puritan from the duck at any stage.

Clarence H. Mackay's Frankfort, 7 to 5, favorite to win the sixth race for maidens at about six furlongs, finished second, being unable to overhaul Connecticut, with Doggett up, who made a runaway of it and delighted those who had taken its 10 to 1. The colt won by three lengths in 1:12 1-5, Frankfort being a length and a half before the Goughacres stable's White Crest, backed down to eights. Lady Mag, who acted more like a bucking bronco than a thoroughbred, after an exciting time on the way to the post, was left.

Thornycroft, the favorite for the seventh race, which was under the same conditions prevailing in the sixth, was beaten a length in a drive by Irene Lindsey, who was in front all the way and was well handled by Jackson. Jack McGinnis was third, a length back. The time was 1:11 2-5. The summaries:

Turf Notes.

T. C. McDowell arrived at Gravesend yesterday with W. K. Vanderbilt's horses and his own, fifteen in all.

A petition is being circulated among the horse owners asking the various racing associations to hang up purses for three apprentice races for half a season.

Those who intend racing at the different Canadian meetings have asked the Dominion Government to allow them to have free access in taking horses across the border, rather than the old system an amount had to be a bond after a lot of red tape.

Before the Criterion Stakes were run yesterday, James R. Keene's Biturica, while warming up, got away from the stable boy who rode her. She ran away for three quarters of a mile. In the race she was only beaten a half length by Mamari, so that next time out she will be followed.

George Dixon Meets Danny Dougherty in a Six-Round Bout.

George Dixon, the former featherweight champion, made his reappearance in the ring at Philadelphia on Tuesday night in a six-round bout before the Globe A. C. Dixon had for an opponent Patsy Dougherty of Philadelphia, who recently lost the bantam championship to Harry Forbes of Chicago. The bout between Dixon and Dougherty went the limit and was devoid of knockdowns and slugging. Despite this it was interesting. Although Dixon is not the Dixon of old he showed considerable of his old-time cleverness. His hitting powers were weak, however. Dougherty was the aggressor throughout and had any decision been rendered he would have been declared the victor.

BOSTON, 1; NEW YORK, 0.

BOSTON, May 28.—Andy's air hitters were a mark for Willis to-day and thirteen of them retired on strikes. Taylor also pitched fine ball, but lost the game for his club in the ninth. New York had a good chance to score in the first, when two singles and a gift filled the bases. Bean, however, failed to hit the ball and was the third out. Boston's four hits were widely scattered. In the ninth Lush walked, Tenney sacrificed, but McIntyre to McGuire. Bean. When Conroy sacrificed Taylor let go a slow one and the ball went by Bowerman and rolled to the grand stand, Lush scoring. Jones fell down in trying to steal second in the fourth inning and was badly spiked on the forearm by Long as he came flying across the bag to take the throw from Kittridge. A gash two inches long was cut in the arm. The score:
