RECORD GOLF BY KENNADAY.

CUTS THE MONTCLAIR FIGURE DOWN TO SEVENTY-FIVE.

For Second Year Champion of New Jersey State Association—Professionals and Amateurs Out on Many Links—Richmond County Beats Apawamis.

Showers changed with sunshine in the play at the Montclair Golf Club yesterday, during the closing rounds in the third annual tournament of the New Jersey State Golf Association. The winner was Allen Kennaday, who was also the winner last year, and in defeating Marc Michael, by 11 up and 10 to play, he made the record for the links of 75, better than either amateur or professional had ever done before. This great score was made with an approximate eight on the ninth hole. In his match with Lynch on Friday Kennaday made every hole, going out in four except the seventh, where he had a five. His total then was 37. Yesterday his play was more irregular, but he squared off the poorer holes by exceptional work on three of the greens, in each instance holing out in three.

On the homeward journey Kennaday's golf was par on every hole, except on the eleventh green. His drive, although the distance was 270 yards, made it possible for him to use the putter for his second, and he ran down the ball. It was certainly a six-foot put. Nine up over the morning play, Kennaday maintained his consistent play in the afternoon, except that through driving out of bounds on the seventh hole he wasted a stroke.

Kennaday was 3 up in the morning. Michael did not play up to his best game. The card follows:

Kennaday	4	4	3	5	4	3	5	5	*6	39
Michael	5	5	4	4	*6	*5	5	4	5	43
Kennaday	4	5	5	4	4	3	5	5	4	39	75
Michael	5	*6	6	5	4	*5	4	4	4	44	87
Kennaday	5	4	5	5	4	*6	4	4	3	35	110
Michael	5	4	5	5	4	4	6	5	5	38	125

* Approximate.

In the play for the second cup Wilson was ahead at the eighteen th by 2 up and he won cleverly in the afternoon, by 6 up and 5 to play. The card was:

Wilson	4	5	4	5	4	4	5	4	4	39
Delano	4	7	4	5	5	5	5	4	6	45
Wilson	5	7	5	5	5	6	4	5	5	47	86

Wilson	4	5	4	5	4	4	5	4	4	39	147
Delano	4	5	6	5	*	*	*	*	*	21	48 148

After leading Harold Wilcox by 2 up in the morning, James A. Tyng could only break even with him in the afternoon. On the eveng hole Wilcox won the match and the third cup, in 4 to 5. Tyng as Kennaday had done, drove into the 220-yard bunker and had to drop back. The card:

Wilcox	4	6	4	5	4	4	5	5	4	44
Tyng	4	5	4	5	4	4	5	3	4	38
Wilcox	5	5	5	6	4	4	6	4	6	45	89
Tyng	4	4	5	5	4	4	7	4	5	42	80
Wilcox	4	4	4	6	4	4	5	4	4	39
Tyng	4	4	5	4	5	3	6	6	6	43
Wilcox	4	5	5	6	4	3	5	5	5	42	84 173
Tyng	4	5	5	5	4	4	5	4	5	43	86 174

Extra hole: Wilcox 4, Tyng 5.

Marcellus and Candler were all square at the eighteenth hole in their match for the fourth cup, but the former won handily by 4 up and 3 to play. Marcellus was getting down all sorts of puts. The card:

Marcellus	5	5	5	4	3	4	5	4	5	40
Candler	4	6	4	5	5	6	5	3	4	43
Marcellus	4	5	6	6	4	4	6	5	6	44	84
Candler	5	4	5	5	4	4	5	4	5	41	84
Marcellus	5	4	5	5	4	4	5	3	4	39

Golfers from the Cotton Exchange used the links of the Columbia Country Club yesterday for their fourth annual championship. There were seventy-five entries. Frank H. Wiggin won the gold medal for low gross score with a 93. The Class A handicap event was won by W. A. Robinson, with 115—9—106, James Riordan second, with 99—8—96. Class B was won by F. B. Simpson, with 115—9—106, D. R. Williams getting second prize with 121—15—106. The prizes in the kindergarten class went to J. Ayres, first, and J. Hill, second. W. W. Wendler won the "dishrag-drink" prize for the worst score.

Brooklyn's newest links had its formal opening yesterday, and, barring a few showers, the affair could not have been more successful in any way. The nine-hole course, which was laid out by George Low last fall, on the Underhill property land beyond Eastern Parkway and New York avenue, greeted which is covered with a short, crisp natural turf and well suited for golfing, although very rough in places. This had a bad effect on the scores in the four-ball match between the professionals, Alex Smith and George Low against Alex Patrick and Stewart Gardner. The former pair won by 2 up. The best ball score was:

Low and Smith	4	5	5	5	4	5	4	4	5	41
Patrick, Gardner	4	5	5	4	4	5	5	5	6	43
Low and Smith	3	5	5	4	4	6	5	5	4	41
Patrick, Gardner	4	4	5	5	4	4	5	4	6	42
Smith and Low	2	5	5	4	4	5	4	4	5	38

Parkville Harness Races.

Despite showers the light harness meeting of the Pleasure Drivers Association of Brooklyn at the Parkville track yesterday was a success. There was a goodly attendance despite the weather conditions, many handsomely gowned women being on hand, and some very spirited and successful racing that was thoroughly appreciated. All events were half-mile heats, amateurs to drive. W. K. Pulitzer's Daisy won the 2:40 class event. It was found that Daisy had a far better then 2:25 made last year at the Bay Ridge Driving Club's trotting, and while it is not a record owing to no gate being charged she was protested and the judges reserved their decision. The summaries:

Life Savers Race Yachts.

The third annual regatta of the Life Saving crews of Jones Beach, Gilgea and Zach's Inlet stations, was held yesterday at Amityville. There was a strong southwesterly wind and a high sea. Capt. Delancey Kirchman's Gracie won, beating Carrever Chichester's Idaho by nine seconds and Roy Mellch's Yvette by 4 minutes, eighteen seconds.

Ardsley Yachts Race.

The first race for the one-design class owned by members of the Ardsley Club was sailed yesterday over a nine-mile triangular course off the clubhouse. Five yachts started and the Scout, owned by August Cowperthwait, won. B. Flower's Kim was second, F. Chrystie's Sandfly third, N. A. Sample's Ping-Pong fourth and Edwin Gould's Midget fifth.

DUFFY RUNS IN RECORD TIME.

GEORGETOWN SPRINTER THE FEATURE OF N. Y. A. C. GAMES.

Sixty Yards in 6 2-5 Seconds, His Best Effort—Flanagan Wins With the Hammer in the Absence of De Witt—Dead Heat in Final Heat of Quarter-Mile Run.

The annual spring games of the New York A. C. were held yesterday at Travers Island and a holiday shower spoiled what gave early evidence of being the greatest meeting in the history of the old club. Around the hour of 12 o'clock thousands of splendidly dressed men and women swarmed at 129th street and Third avenue to take the train for the "Island," but a threatening drizzle chilled most of the enthusiasts and they left for home. However, between 5,000 and 6,000 persons journeyed to the "old green patch on the Sound."

A star attraction of the meeting was Arthur F. Duffy of Georgetown University, who made an attempt to alter the 60 and 50-yard records. In the 60-yard contest he had two pacemakers, George H. Hoffmann of the Jersey City A. A. and W. E. Kaufman of the National A. C., both with starts of seven feet. The start was disastrous for Duffy in the 60-yard event. It was a case of "get ready," "set," "bang," and Starter See shot Duffy off his mark, but it availed the sprinter nothing, as instead of gaining he lost, and only covered the distance in 6 2-5 seconds, time which was previously accomplished by Duffy himself and also by L. E. Myers, W. D. Eaton, and Washinta Delgado.

A short time afterward Duffy essayed a tussle with the 50-yard record, and with conditions similar to that of the 60-yard event he ran the distance in 5 3-5 seconds. The world's amateur record is 5¾ seconds, by the late L. E. Myers, and the crowd present were disappointed when Duffy failed to wipe the long-standing mark off the slate. As it was, the Georgetown sprinter got a great ovation. He was, as a wag expressed it, "the whole thing and dog under the wagon."

Those who admire big men and their efforts in slinging heavy weights were disappointed when De Witt of Princeton failed to appear against Flanagan on the hammer throwing event. Flanagan did not have to extend himself, and he won handily from scratch.

The quarter-mile race furnished a contest opened in athletic games. R. L. Forbes of the new West Side A. C. and H. A. Sedley of the New York A. C. ran a dead heat in the final. On the run-off Forbes won by a comfortable margin. Richard Sheldon, the New Yale shot-putter, could not quite overcome the handicaps in the weight event, but he gained third prize from scratch. The summaries:

100-Yard Run, Handicap—Won by James J. Fallon, Fordham College, 7½ yards; S. J. Fleet, C. N. Y., 9½ yards, second; R. K. Neill, Greater New York Irish A. A., 7½ yards, third. Time, 10 seconds.

MANHASSET'S NEW HOME.

Fine House for Yachtsmen Opened at Port Washington—Racabouts Compete.

The new clubhouse of the Manhasset Bay Yacht Club was formally opened yesterday afternoon. The flag was raised by commodore Clay M. Greene and then Commodore Stephen W. Roach congratulated the members on their new home. There was a large gathering of members among whom were Commodore Roach, Vice-Commodore M. Roosevelt Schuyler, Secretary E. M. Mayo, Julian, H. S. Fairchild, J. W. Alker, G. S. Williams, Horatio E. Harper, Julian Rix, Clay Greene, W. G. Newman, Fritz Williams, DeWolf Hopper, J. R. Grisner and C. F. Wardwell. C. T. Pierce and J. Fred Ackerman of the Atlantic Yacht Club, H. T. Foote, Eugene Lambden, C. P. Tower, H. W. Lloyd, and Frank R. Carter of the New Rochelle Club, Commodore A. P. Thayer, ex-Commodore James H. C. Ward, and L. C. Ketcham of the Huguenot Club.

The yachts in the harbor were all dressed for the occasion and the fleet present was quite a large one. The Manhasset Bay Yacht Club has grown rapidly during the last few years and now takes its place among the leading clubs of the Sound.

The new house is of colonial design and is two stories high. A broad piazza extends around three sides of the house and on the east side is the porte-cochere. The front faces the northwest. A broad flight of steps leads to the main entrance. The hall which is the lounging room is two stories high and is 22 by 44 feet. On the east end of the hall is the ladies' room, which is 17 by 22 feet, and on the west end is the cafe, which is also 17 by 22 feet.

There are nine bedrooms on the second floor, varying in size from 8 by 8 feet to 9 by 12 feet. On the attic floor there are three bedrooms, 11 by 12 feet, 11 by 13 feet and 13 by 16 feet, respectively. In the basement, at the east end of the building, is the billiard room and under the hall is the locker room. The hall is very handsomely decorated. Above the wainscoting are panels painted by Julian Rix, Carleton Chapman, Charles Dana Gibson and Guy Standing, who are all members of the club. There is a stable, with accommodations for five horses, and carriages, and a large coach house, with room for thirty carriages. A new dock, 150 feet long and 8 feet wide, T shaped, has been built. A landing float is placed each side, one for yachtsmen and their guests and the other for crews.

There was a race for Manhasset Bay racabouts in the afternoon, which was won by the Mist. The table follows:

Yacht and Owner.	Finish. H. M. S.	Elapsed Time. H. M. S.
Mist, J. W. Alker	3 10 50	1 35 50
Bab, J. R. Hoyt	3 13 15	1 38 15
Arizona, G. A. Corry	3 14 15	1 39 15
Lalookin, S. V. Roach	3 14 48	1 39 48

The yachts were started at 1 35 o'clock and sailed over a triangular course five miles in length.

Lacrosse.

The lacrosse game between the Crescent A. C. and the Dufferins team of Canada at Bay Ridge yesterday afternoon afforded good sport and the result of the game was some what of a surprise. Both teams put up a good game, the Dufferins players having a shade the better of the defensive work. The game resulted in a victory for the Dufferins by a score of 8 to 5.

FINE SPEEDWAY BRUSHES.

Large Crowd at the Final Matinee on the Big Drive.

Better brushing was witnessed at the Speedway yesterday afternoon than since the road was opened. A crowd of 3,000 persons attended and from end to end of the long programme interest was at fever heat. The committee rushed the events off in rare style so that long before the showers the crowd was on the homeward journey.

The team race supplied one splendid heat—then a fizzle, as the Halloran hitch, blind Hopeful and Calypso would not break away, and Mr Deveson was obliged to go the course alone. That one finish was, however, highly exhilarating, the four pacers abreast, although Hopeful broke up the stretch and was allowed to run it out, while Calypso paced as true as steel under the whip. Kingmond, 2:00, and King, 2:13½, had two good heats, Kingmond barely landing the first by a neck, while Mr Lamar, by dint of hard driving, had the handsome bay gelding in trouble in the second and won out nicely with King. Kingmond came back the fresher in the deciding heat and won by two lengths, as Mr Lamar stopped driving when he saw his horse was all out and a trifle tired. George Coleman, behind Miss Meadder, 2:16½, had an exciting moment. While in the lead the off front tire slipped off, and, fearing the mare would step in it, he put his foot outside the wagon floor and, with his toe, held it near the fellow till the danger point was passed.

The battle of the day was in Class C, where Angelus, West Wilkes and Freeland split it up. Andrew Crawford finally won with Angelus as West Wilkes was unsteady at the end when hard driven, running out the final strides. They had to trot four heats to decide the question and Angelus's victory was both popular and unexpected as he took his record of 2:12¼, in Supples and always has been unsteady at the drive.

Few horses were drawn and the crowd appreciated the keen contests and the way the final spring matinee was handled. Mr Lamar and his committee have in mind a gala day in the near future. During the afternoon Jack Curry announced that he was not going to leave David Lamar's employ having signed for another season. On Tuesday he is to ship to Hartford the faster of the Lamar string to get ready for the circuit races.

Following is the summary of the afternoon's racing:
