GRAVESEND'S GETAWAY DAY.

ETHICS WINS ANOTHER HANDICAP FOR THE DWYERS.

Julius Fleischmann's Artleander Takes the Leading Two-Year-Old Event From Tantalus Cup—Roxboro, 20 to 1, Wins All the Way—Two Favorites in Front.

The Gravesend meeting closed yesterday afternoon with a fair card, which drew a crowd of 6,000 and provided some hot finishes. Only two favorites won, however, which enabled the bookmakers to get back some of the money won from them on previous days.

The feature was a $1,200 handicap at a mile and a furlong, the talent being in something of a dilemma as to the probable winner. Ethics and Smart Set opened equal favorites at 4 to 5, but the former receded to twos while the latter held steady. Gen. McLewee's Hanover colt Hindred was a strong tip, and was played down from 8 to 1 to fours. He proceeded to make the running for a mile and then tired. Ethics under Burns's treatment coming on in the stretch and winning, ridden out, by a length in 1:54 1-5. Vincitor, 12 to 1, got up in time to take the place from Hindred in the last jump by a head. Smart Set sulked and was five lengths away.

Next in importance was a handicap for two-year-olds at about six furlongs, in which Julius Fleischmann's Star Ruby colt, Artleander was the favorite at 11 to 10. Bensonhurst, with top weight, 126 pounds, was second favorite, and Tantalus Cup third at fives. These youngsters split up the purse, Artleander being an easy winner by a length in 1:10 1-5, Tantalus Cup beating Bensonhurst for the place by a head. Bensonhurst led to the top of the stretch, where weight began to tell, and the favorite, well ridden by Shaw, drew away.

Perry Belmont's Musidora, though she was made favorite at 16 to 5 to win the first race, for platers at about six furlongs, again proved a disappointment and was in the rear all the way. In a hot finish Redfern landed the second choice, Criterion, winner by a head, Ben Howard, Charles W. Meyer, Golden Cottage, Maiden and Anecdote following heads and necks apart in the order named. The time was 1:10 2-5.

W. C. Whitney's Slipthrift was a 7 to 5 favorite in the second event for three-year-olds at a mile and seventy yards. C. H. Mackay's Grand Opera, at a false price, kept his head in front a greater part of the way and won by a length in 1:46. Connecticut, displaying a conspicuous reversal in form, beat the favorite for the place by a nose.

Roxboro, 20 to 1, captured the third race for maiden two-year-old fillies at five furlongs, in a sharp drive after making all the pace. The second choice, Gold Money, came fast in the last furlong, but was a stride too late to beat him but Ethan a length for the place. There was a lively plunge on the latter by "Pittsburg Phil" and others, the odds being cut from 15 to 1 to sixes. The favorite, Pride of Galore, was pulled up at the post, as Assistant Starter William Murray happened to be directly in front of her when the barrier was released and would otherwise have been seriously injured.

Agnes D. backed down to 7 to 10, took the lead early for selling platers at a mile and a sixteenth in a drive. She was a length before Henry Clay Rye, second choice, who fought it out with her during the last half mile. Prince Richard was third, five lengths back. The time was 1:48 3-5. The summaries:

News of the Wheelmen.

G. F. Schirmer—The record for one hour is 45 miles, 166 yards. It was made by Rohl at Paris on May 13, 1902. In Europe they permit of the use of pacing machines that would not be allowed on American tracks. More than a year ago Will Stinson did ride more than 40 miles in one hour. That was behind a tandem under N. C. A. rules.

READY FOR TO-DAY'S HANDICAP

ADVANCE GUARD AND GOLD HEELS IN FAVOR.

Blues, Herbert, Reina, Pentecost and Contend Also Well Thought Of—A Field of Twelve May Go to the Post for the $10,000 Suburban at Sheepshead Bay.

The $10,000 Suburban Handicap at a mile and a quarter will be run at Sheepshead Bay this afternoon, the horses going to the post about 4 o'clock. There are twelve entries. As was the case in the Brooklyn Handicap speculation is rife as to the winner. When J. B. Haggin's Watercolor, who was all along the favorite in the winter books, was declared out of the Suburban ten days ago, Gen. F. C. McLewee's four-year-old colt Gold Heels, by The Bard—Heel and Toe, was made the choice, partly because of his form of a year ago and partly for the reason that he had shown vast improvement in his work this spring. Gold Heels made his first appearance of the year at Gravesend on June 7. He carried 126 pounds or two pounds more than he will take up to-day and at a mile and an eighth was beaten by J. E. Madden's Col. Bill, with 90 pounds, in the fast time of 1:52 1-5. In this race Gold Heels, who was clearly short, hung in the final strides. He has not engaged in a race since then but he has shown such favorable work that the more prominent layers said last night that he would in all probability remain the favorite when the first prices appear this afternoon.

Advance Guard, the five-year-old Great Tom horse, who has displayed consistent form all the year, will probably be practically on even terms with Gold Heels in the betting. Conservative turfmen agree that Advance Guard comes very near being the best of the older horses in training. The last time out he picked up 129 pounds in the Standard Stakes, made his own pace and won off by a dozen lengths in the excellent time of 2:35 4-5 for a mile and a half. Advance Guard will carry 119 pounds and appears to be able to handle this impost in easy fashion. He is a notorious slow beginner, but a whirlwind finisher. Bullman is slated to have the mount, though many persons would be better satisfied to see Burns up, as the horse has run his best races with the latter in the saddle.

Frank Farrell's four-year-old colt Blues, by Sir Dixon—Bonnie Blue II., with 124 pounds, is considered next in point of form and excellence. Blues has been an erratic performer this season; in fact, he has been put down in some quarters as a disappointment, with his last year's achievements in mind. He was the favorite in the Brooklyn, but failed to come up to expectations. In the race that Gold Heels was beaten by Col. Bill Blues hung at the end of a mile and thereby burned up a lot of money placed upon him by his confident owner. Farrell and his trainer, Tom Welsh, said yesterday that Blues had shown marked improvement in the last week, and that they would not be at all surprised to see him win to-day under favorable circumstances. They will bet on him and Shaw, who will ride, will be instructed to take the colt out in front, thereby making the pace according to the liking of Sir Dixon.

H. C. Rollins's five-year-old Herbert, by Albert—Bonnie Ola, is another dangerous factor, it is thought. He will shoulder 121 pounds and will be ridden by Odom, who is in fine form just now. Despite a very disappointing performance when the Brooklyn turned a mile and a quarter in 2:11¾. This work satisfied Rollins that the Albert colt would get to the post absolutely fit, and for that reason there is bound to be a generous play about his chances.

On work, and bearing in mind his great race in the Brooklyn, when he came from behind and finished third, J. E. Madden's three-year-old colt Pentecost, by Hastings—Tarantella, will cut a big figure in the betting. For the past ten days Pentecost has been steadily backed in Wall Street and Uhlman's books, until he is now held down tight in the quotation of the layers. His work on Thursday of a mile and a quarter in 2:11¼ was so impressive that Madden was highly elated and made the remark that if the colt got away from the barrier in a fair position he would take a lot of beating. Pentecost is the only three-year-old in the list of starters and precedent is against him, as no horse of his age has ever won the big event. He will carry only 99 pounds and will be handled by Redfern, another first-class boy who has been improving daily.

A. Featherstone's Reina, the four-year-old Esher—Reflection filly, who surprised the turf world by winning the Brooklyn at long odds, is also worthy of consideration. She must take up a twelve-pound penalty for her Brooklyn victory, which makes her impost 114 pounds. Mr. Featherstone's regular jockey, Winnie O'Connor, will ride her. She has not run since the Brooklyn, but has been carefully handled by Julius Bauer, who feels sure that she will not be disgraced.

Thomas Monahan's four-year-old colt Contend, by Galore—Conjectrix, is another dark one. Ever since two fast races he has been backed in the future books, his price tumbling from 100 to 1 until yesterday it was about 20 to 1. Contend is a big, powerful colt who will be asked to shoulder the featherweight of 99 pounds. On May 26 with this weight up the Galore colt won a handicap at a mile and an eighth at Gravesend in 1:52, which was a new track record. Two days later with 103 pounds he won the Parkway Handicap at a mile and a sixteenth in 1:46 2-5, incidentally beating Watercure, The Regent, Advance Guard, Smart Set and others in a drive. On the strength of these two performances Contend has been figured ever since as a Suburban possibility. It is said that his owner refused $12,000 for him the other day. Cochran will leave the mount.

Green B. Morris's Watercure and C. H. Mackay's Trigger are outsiders in the calculations, though the former has made himself notable in the past for finishing in the money in many big events of this kind. Trigger has worked well but has not shown much in races.

Sadie S., the four-year-old Charaxus—Eolee filly, owned by P. H. Sullivan, is in with 98 pounds, the same weight she carried in the Brooklyn, when after getting away absolutely last she finished fifth, about four lengths behind the winner. On May 31 with ten pounds less Sadie S. ran a crack race and defeated such horses as Herbert, Dublin, Monograph, Ethics and others, covering a mile and an eighth in 1:52 4-5. Since then she has not had such light weight but Sullivan and his friends think she has a chance to do something to-day.

W. M. Hayes's Monograph, who, it will be remembered, led the Brooklyn field for a mile and then died away, will carry 109 pounds to-day. He has been improving gradually and has worked over the course in good time. Charles W. Baird's Arden, a four-year-old colt by Fabulous or Charade—Faith, completes the list. He will carry the lightest weight, 97 pounds, but he is not seriously considered.

In addition to the Suburban, the first part of the $10,000 Double Event will be run, incidentally drawing out all of the crack two-year-olds, barring August Belmont's Mizzen. The Coney Island Jockey Club has made provision for the accommodation of 45,000, and if the day is pleasant it is believed that the attendance will easily reach these figures.

FAVORITES WIN AT PARKWAY

Lord Belgrave First in 2:18 Pace After Seven Heats.

The last day's racing at Parkway was the best of the meeting. Two events went to favorites without effort, although each finish was fought from the head of the stretch to the wire, and the time was fast.

The 2:18 pacers split it up to a seven heat affair although many of the spectators thought that "Father Bill" Daly's fortitude in apparently won the third and fifth heats by a head. Summaries:
