ADVANCE GUARD WINS BY A NOSE

GREAT TOM HORSE BEATS BLUES IN A HOT FINISH.

Thistle Stakes Go to the Owners' Francesco, With Ethies, His Stable Mate, Second Irish Lad, With 129 Pounds, Triumphs Again—Six Favorites Beaten.

Though six favorites were beaten at Sheepshead Bay yesterday afternoon, there was plenty of fine racing and numerous sensational incidents. In spite of the chilly atmosphere and threatening sky, fully 7,000 persons were on hand, drawn to the track by an unusually good card.

From a racing standpoint the most interesting event of the afternoon was the handicap at a mile and a quarter, in which Advance Guard in a magnificent rush down the stretch collared Blues and beat him by a nose at the wire. P. Ryan's Nones, by Sir Dixon—Amy Pasenport, opened favorite at 8 to 5, but he receded to 11 to 5 as Blues was backed from 2 to 1 to 2 to 1 favorite. Seven horses went to the post and when the barrier was let go Waterguide wheeled. Tom Kenny, carrying only 87 pounds on a rattling pace on the backstretch with Blues and Advance Guard close behind him at three-quarters of a mile. Coming around the far turn Blues went to the front so swiftly that he had two lengths the best of it as he swept into the stretch and looked all over a winner. As Tom Kenny had shot his bolt, Advance Guard and Nones rushed around him and began the run home on even terms. A furlong from the wire Blues began to back up. Martin drew his whip and plied it without mercy but still the Farrell colt hung while Advance Guard gained with every stride. It was the hottest kind of a finish and Advance Guard got the verdict by about four inches, Blues being a short half length in front of Nones, Tom Kenny, three lengths away, leading the others. The time was 2.07.

The only stake event on the programme was the Thistle at a mile and a furlong, with selling allowances. E. J. Wilson, Jr.'s Carbuncle was a strong favorite at 3 to 2. "Mike" Dwyer, however, sent several big commissions into the ring on Ethies and Francesco, his son's colts, who were coupled at 4 to 1 in the first betting but were soon backed down to two. Francesco, with only 91 pounds, dashed away from the post at top speed, followed by A. Featherstone's Ethiopee. Going up the backstretch they raced on even terms, with Carbuncle third and Ethies fourth. Then Ethiopee had enough, bearing the turn, and Francesco opened a gap of half a dozen lengths over Carbuncle, who was having a warm argument with Ethies. Coming down to the wire little Creamer let Francesco have his head and the erratic three-year-old fairly romped home a winner by six lengths in 1:12 3-5. Martin never let up on Ethies, who in a fight to took the place from the favorite by a short head, the Dwyer stable, therefore, finishing one, two.

Harry Payne Whitney and Herman B. Duryea scored another triumph in the fifth race, for two-year-olds at five and a half furlongs straightaway, with their recently acquired Irish Lad, by Candlemas—Arrow Grass. Irish Lad took up 129 pounds, and ridden by Nash Turner he won in handsome style. J. R. and F. P. Keene's colt Clarion, by Kingston—Flying Squadron, who was touted as the best of the Keene youngsters, made his first start, yet the talent made him the favorite. The Goughacres Stable's Alibiri made the running about half a length over the track to the home stretch, with Irish Lad a neck behind. Then Turner put Irish Lad in the lead in a few strides and the plucky Candlemas colt fairly flew down to the wire, where he won by a length and a half in 1:02. Athelros kept the place from Mellonian, by Tigre—Lengths, a length ahead in the last sixteenth.

P. S. P. Bendelow's Ethan, a 2 to 1 favorite, finished out of the money in the first race, for maiden two-year-olds at five furlongs, straightaway. Sixteen youngsters started. J. J. McCafferty's Esher—Felseen colt Joe Cobb got away in the style and raced with Frank Brandt's Elon colt Minstrel to the end, where McCafferty's colt won by a head. Earl of Warwick was third, eight lengths back. Joe Cobb's time was 1:00 3-5.

In the race for apprentices at a mile, second on the card, there were fifteen starters. John Evans's Thorneycroft was the favorite at 9 to 5. Shot down from Westbury, Perry Belmont's Magrin filly Musidora, with Gillihan up, and 10 to 1 about her, hurried away from the others at the five-furlong pole and then had it all her own way, winning in a gallop by two lengths in 1:41 4-5. Frank Bi Stone's San Andres was second in a drive by a length.

The last race was a mint for the ring. It was for three-year-olds and upward, seven pounds above the scale, at three-quarters of a mile on the grass. John W. Schorr's Charles W. Meyer, 10 to 1 shot, took the lead at the start, lengthened out to six lengths, and held the rest of the field in hand by Bullman to win by a length in the fast time of 1:14 1-5. Pretorius finished strong and took the place by three lengths from Wealth, who beat Cruel by a neck.

RACE FOR DERBY STARTERS.

$5,000 Offered for Special Race Between Wyeth and Eastern Colts at Brighton.

The Brighton Beach Racing Association is making an effort to arrange a special race to be run during the meeting with the idea of determining if the American Derby was run on its merits, so far as regards the showing made by the Eastern horses. A telegram was sent by the association last night to John A. Drake, owner of the Derby winner, Wyeth, in which it was stated that the association would add $5,000 to a special sweepstakes for starters in the American Derby, the distance and weights carried to be the same as in the big Chicago event and the race to be run on or about July 19.

If Mr. Drake consents to send Wyeth on, it is thought there will be no difficulty in getting the owners of the Eastern colts, Henry Pentecost, Hermis and Arsenal, to join in the sweepstakes, as the impression prevails that the long journey had much to do with their defeat.

BROOKLYNS BEAT NEW YORKS AND REGAIN SECOND PLACE.

Taylor Batted Out of the Box by Rivals—Pittsburgs Take a Fall Out of Chicagos and the Bostons Vanquish the Quakers—Other Games and Gossip.

The Brooklyns regained second place in the National League yesterday. They defeated the New Yorks in hollow style, while the Pittsburgs were worsting Chicago. Boston had little trouble in taking Philadelphia's measure.

BROOKLYN, 8; NEW YORK, 1.

The Brooklyns had such a pleasant time with Taylor's pitching in the early innings of yesterday's game at Washington Park that the New York baseman ceased to be a participant in the game after four rounds and became a mere onlooker. The Brooklyns solved Taylor's tosses by degrees. In the first inning they did not get the ball out of reach of a fielder in the second they hammered out one hit, in the third they fell against Taylor for three safe cracks, including a clout over the right-field fence by Flood, and in the fourth they straightened out the silent man's delivery for seven safeties. Right there was where the abdication of Taylor was recorded in history, and though Bissett, the Georgetown left-hander, performed creditably the rest of the game, the Brooklyns had such a big lead that winning was only pastime for them. Kitson, having the game cinched, moderated his baffling transports and the New Yorks did their batting when their chances of winning were forlorn at the best. Stigler by O'Hagan, Bean and Brodie gave them their only run.
