KEENE COLORS TWICE IN FRONT

PORT ROYAL AND HURST PARK WIN AT SHEEPSHEAD BAY.

Former Takes the Handicap at a Mile in Good Time on Slow Track, While the Latter Captures the Spring Stakes From Africander—Form Players Do Well.

The colors of J. R. and F. P. Keene were twice carried to victory at Sheepshead Bay yesterday, and in each instance the talent took advantage of good prices. Port Royal a three-year-old gelding by Kingston—Maurine, won the handicap for three-year-olds and upward at a mile, while Hurst Park, a two-year-old colt by Kingston—Editha, captured the Spring Stakes at three-quarters of a mile.

The performance of Port Royal was really the feature of the day. In the betting Port Royal was a 5 to 2 favorite, with Pretorius backed down to 13 to 5. The track was slow, yet as soon as the field was sent away Port Royal took a commanding lead and raced along at a rattling clip. He made every post a winner and crossed the line with a couple of lengths to spare in the good time of 1:49. Shaw easing him up quite a bit. Pretorius and Cunard fought each other all the way, the latter finally getting the position a sharp drive by a length, with Mr Whitney's colt a length in front of Grand Opera and the latter half a length better than Francesco.

Shaw also had the mount on Hurst Park in the Spring Stakes. August Belmont's Mizzen was withdrawn together with Golden Maxim and Dropo'Rye. This left six to go, as J. B. Haggin's Ada Nay was added. Africander, the Star Ruby—Afric Queen colt, recently sold by Julius Fleischmann to Deimel & Dwyer for $10,000, was the favorite at 11 to 5. Hurst Park was steadily supported at 5 to 2. Hurst Park got away from the post in alert style and proceeded to set the pace. He was attended by Ada Nay and J. E. Madden's Wheeler for five-eighths of a mile, where the latter had enough. Then Africander, under Odom's hard ride, challenged the Keene colt and the latter responding to Shaw's efforts gamely clung to his advantage which, however, was gradually lessened. At the wire there was a sensational finish, Hurst Park, Africander and Ada Nay being heads apart, as named, the time being fast, 1:10 3-5.

J. H. Carr's Bessie McCarthy, played down to 7 to 5 favorite, proved a big disappointment in the sixth race for selling platers at a mile and a half on the grass. Fatalist was the original choice at 8 to 5, but went up to twos. For three-quarters of a mile Adelaide Prince made the running, with San Andres about a length back and Fatalist third. Then the latter moved up to the Tournament filly and raced neck and neck with her into the stretch. After that Rice let Fatalist down and the mare simply romped away with the money, being four lengths to the good at the judges' stand in 2:28. Cougar, who also came fast in the last furlong, took the place from Adelaide Prince by a length and a half. Bessie McCarthy was last for more than half the distance, but finally managed to beat old Alsike.

The Bay Hurdle Handicap at two miles on the grass was a source of profit to the clients of S. S. Allen's Big Gun, by Artillery—Linda Vista, who was a hot favorite at 6 to 5, was the winner. F. Ambrose Clark's Topmast and Seminole were coupled second choices at fours. Big Gun took the lead at the outset, first shaking off Topmast, who was ridden by Mr. Clark, then Semper Ira and Mr. D. Richardson, defeating Ferocious in a drive by two lengths in 3:55 2-5. Parsons whipped Noponset into third place, a head in front of Semper Ira.

John W. Schorr's colt Rightful, by Pirate of Penzance—Early Morn, second choice at 15 to 5, was the winner of the second event, for two-year-olds, selling, pounds below the scale, five and a half furlongs. J. R. and F. P. Keene's much-lauded Clarion, by Kingston—Flying Squadron, was a strong favorite at 11 to 10, but again he failed to live up to expectations. J. B. Haggin's St. Jude made the pace for half a mile, where Bullman got Rightful in front and battled the latter into a clever victory by two lengths in 1:08. St. Jude beat J. Hitchcock Jr.'s Buttons, 12 to 1, by a length, and the latter was two lengths before the favorite.

William Barrick and his friends put a lot of money on Van Ness to win the third race, for three-year-old mares and geldings at three-quarters of a mile, and sent the Loyalist colding to the post an odds-on favorite at 15 to 20. Van Ness showed in front immediately and though hard pressed for a time by Sweet Clover he drew away in the stretch and won easily by two lengths in 1:14 3-5. Sweet Clover was six lengths in front of Lady Radnor.

On the day form players did quite well as three favorites and three second choices landed in front. The attendance was about 8,000.

POOR PRICES FOR YEARLINGS.

Many Disappointing Figures at Auction Sale of Rancocas Youngsters.

Before the races began at Sheepshead Bay yesterday the yearlings from Rancocas Stock Farm were offered for sale in the Fasig-Tipton Company's paddocks. This is the first time in several years that the full produce of the Rancocas farm has been offered, as the late Pierre Lorillard raced the best in England. Many in the lot which sold for around $1,000 yesterday would have probably brought many times that amount in England. The highest amount given was $1,500, P. R. Hitchcock paying this price for the sister to Petra II., a chestnut filly by imp. Pontiac—Poncho.

The filly by imp. The Sailor Prince—Rizpah went to P. Lorillard for $400. This is a sister to Diakka and Rivera, winners in England of $30,000. Other disappointing sales were the filly by imp. The Sailor Prince—Saduda, sister to Sandia and Sibola, winner of the 1,000 Guineas, whom Tom Welch secured for $1,100, and the sister to Calman, winner of $55,853 in England up to 1902.

BOSTON, 6, NEW YORK, 0.

Jones threw three of the Bostons out at the plate in yesterday's game at the Polo Grounds while Brodie doubled up a man at first after a good catch and made one hit. These two New Yorkers played as if they thought their team had a chance to win, but the playing of the others was lifeless, listless and of a losing character from first to last. The Bostons won with absurd ease. They strolled up to the bat and clouted out hits as though nothing else was to be expected. They did not need nearly as many hits as they made as the New Yorks gave a sorry exhibition of fielding in addition to their feeblebeness with the stick in the face of Taskern's pitching. Their playing, by the two men referred to, was as dreary as the weather.

PHILADELPHIA, 2; BROOKLYN, 1.

Pitcher Fraser not only kept more than one Brooklyn player from scoring at Washington Park yesterday, but played the leading part in the performance that gave the Philadelphias the winning run. The score was a delphias the winning run. The score was a tie in the ninth inning and there were two out when Fraser sent the ball screaming to out when Fraser sent the ball screaming to centre field for three bases. Flood followed the hit with a wild throw and Fraser came in. The Brooklyns had a fine chance to score in their half of the ninth, but were not equal to the opportunity. Irwin led off with a single and Abbatichio took first on four balls. Dolan's bunt was a foul to Doom and Kitson Flood's bunt was a foul to Doom and Kitson hit to Holtzwitt, who doubled up Irwin on the play.
