KEENE'S INJUNCTION WINS.

ST. LEONARDS COLT TAKES $5,000 NEPTUNE STAKES.

J. E. Widener's Miss Mitchell First in Punchestown Steeplechase—Handicap Goes to Tom Kenny—Twenty-five Thousand Persons at Brighton Beach.

Twenty-five thousand persons attended the races at Brighton Beach yesterday afternoon and enthusiasm was at a white heat. Though only three favorites won, the ring suffered another series of financial jolts. The Neptune Stakes of $5,000 for two-year-olds at three-quarters of a mile was the principal event and it not only attracted a good field but also provided the heaviest betting proposition of the afternoon.

Deimel & Dwyer's Africander, by Star Ruby—Affie Queen, with Turner in the saddle was figured both by handicappers and tipsters to be a reasonably sure winner. He was asked to pack 122 pounds, receiving three pounds from both S. S. Brown's River Pirate, by Pirate of Penzance—Harebell, and J. Grant Lyman's Monte Carlo, by Pontiac—Trovana, and conceding from five to twenty pounds to the others. The layers offered even money against Africander, and though many bets were made on the favorite the price went up a shade to 11 to 10. This was due to the flow of coin on River Pirate, who was played down to 11 to 5, and the strong backing for the Keene pair, Injunction, by St. Leonards—Prohibition II., and the untried youngster Gimcrack, by Ornament—Jonna. T. C. McDowell's Woodlake was an added starter and Green B. Morris's Artvis was the only withdrawal, the last named skimpost of 127 pounds being considered too great.

They were sent away in good order from the barrier in the chute and at the end of the first furlong Redfern was making the pace with Monte Carlo, August Belmont's Sailmaker, a fine-looking colt by Henry of Navarre—Semiramis, followed close up. At the beginning of the turn Woodlake passed Sailmaker and headed Monte Carlo, Africander, River Pirate and Injunction having run along in a bunch under restraint. At the top of the stretch it was anybody's race, though Woodlake was the first to straighten out. But at the last furlong pole a great shout went up as Shaw, wearing the well-known Keene colors, came up with Injunction, who, with overwhelming speed, passed the leaders and won in a drive by a length and a half in 1:13 4-5. Wonderly got a the sprint out of Sailmaker, who, in a walking finish, beat Africander a head for the place. Those who backed the favorite had many unpleasant comments to make for the way Turner rode the colt. River Pirate ran far below form, though its weight may have had something to do with it.

The crowd, particularly the women, were on edge when the Punchestown Steeplechase at two miles and a half was run. It was one of the best races of the day and was the medium for a great haul for the public in the way of cashing bets. Joseph E. Widener's Eophone and Miss Mitchell were coupled favorites, there being so great a demand for them that they were reduced from 8 to 5 to 4 to 5. Rising Sun, with Ray up, was also heavily played, especially for the place. Six horses ran without a fall, all of them taking the jumps nicely. Eophone first set the pace, with Marylander and Miss Mitchell following, but Marylander soon began to runaway and opened up a lead of twenty lengths. Barry tried to check the Dutch Roller horse in vain and when two miles had been covered he blew up. Then Miss Mitchell and Rising Sun, both of whom had been skillfully ridden, went to the front while the crowd, eager to get the money, roared in approval. Miss Mitchell had so much the better of it that Mars eased her up in the last 100 yards so that she won by a length in the fast time of 5:03, Rising Sun being in the place, fifteen lengths before Eophone.

Tom Kenny, having a big pull at the weights, won the $1,500 handicap at a mile and a quarter, in a finish that brought another outburst of excitement from the spectators. There was a world of betting on this affair, too, P. Ryan's Nones, going to the post favorite at 8 to 2, with Ten Candles at 9 to 5, loaded down. His Eminence at fours and Tom Kenny sixes. Almost from the moment they were sent away Tom Kenny and Ten Candles raced out in front on even terms. Going up the backstretch, Burns kept Nones in third place, the Sir Dixon gelding running easily. At the turn, Ten Candles had enough and stopped as if shot. O'Connor moved up quickly with His Eminence, swinging wide into the stretch. Tom Kenny had the rail and Burns tried to come between him and His Eminence with Nones. Tom Kenny swerved over directly in front of the favorite so that Burns was compelled to pull the geldingup, thereby losing a couple of lengths. To many it seemed to be a clear case of fouling. Shea put Tom Kenny under the whip after that and in a hot drive he managed to beat His Eminence by half a length in the excellent time of 2:04 4-5, a second slower than Gold Heels's record for the track. Nones was a length away. Burns immediately lodged a protest of foul with the stewards, but it was not allowed.

Prince Richard, who was sold to A. L. Aste earlier in the day, enabled the talent to begin the afternoon with success. He was a 15 to 20 favorite to win the first race, for sailing platers at a mile and a sixteenth. Golden Cottage and Gibson Light were also in favor somewhat at 8 to 1 each. Fonsolee set the pace for half a mile, but soon gave it up, after which Prince Richard carried to the front and won in a gallop by three lengths. The start spoiled the chances of Gibson Light, who was third, three parts of a length behind Golden Cottage. The time was 1:48.

In the second race, for two-year-olds, fifteen pounds under the scale, about three-quarters of a mile, the talent fancied F. H. McCarren's filly Gold Money, by Goldcrest—Money Spinner, who was odds on at 9 to 10. The Keenes' representative. Prediction was not far behind in popularity at 3 to 1. It was only a question of when Burns let the favorite have her head, and that occurred at the head of the stretch. Then Gold Money fairly walked in a winner by four lengths in 1:14. Prediction took the place from Decoration, the fast outsider, by three parts of a length. The books paid out thousands on the result, the lines of successful bettors extending far beyond the limits of the ring.

The last race, for three-year-olds, at fifteen pounds below the scale, was a life saver for the bookmakers. A. Featherstone's Ensnee and J. H. Carr's Bessie McCarthy were the selections on the part of seven money, and 8 to 5 respectively. O'Connor made a fast gallop with Ensnee and was in front turning into the stretch. But suddenly Doggett came out of the bunch with Reformer, a 30 to 1 shot, who not only caught Ensnee with little difficulty, but also took the race in a drive by a length and a half in 1:47. Ensnee, tiring rapidly, beat Bessie McCarthy for the place by a length.

BRISK BIDDING FOR ROXANE.

P. Ryan Gives $7,000 for the Fast Mare—Good Prices for McCafferty's Lot.

Before the races began at the Brighton Beach track yesterday afternoon the Fasig-Tipton Company held a sale of horses in training, which included the entire stable of John J. McCafferty, who is selling out to take charge of the horses of Sydney Paget. In addition to the McCafferty lot were some from the stables of W. C. Whitney, the Pepper Stable, Oneck Stable and J. G. Follansbee.

Roxane, who has won a number of good races this season, was the star of the collection, and her owner, Col. James E. Pepper, got $7,000 for her, so lively was the bidding. The purchaser was P. Ryan, owner of Nones. In the McCafferty lot several were sold for good prices, with the three-year-old filly Fenesolo selling for $5,300 to M. F. Dwyer. J. B. Van Meter gave $4,500 for the two-year-old Incubator, who has not raced this season. A. L. Aste purchased Prince Richard for $2,000, and won the first race with him shortly afterward. The best sales follow:
