HIMSELF DEFEATS ST. FINNAN

DALY'S COLT WINS THE HANDICAP IN THE LAST JUMP.

Racing on a Heavy Track Gives a Lift to the Bookmakers—Bluff and Warte Nicht Reward the Talent—Hermis, at Prohibitive Odds, Gallops Home.

On a heavy track at Brighton yesterday racing was continued with a marked advantage in favor of the betting ring. Three favorites won, but one of them, Hermis, in the first race was at such a prohibitive price that there was practically no betting at all.

The $1,200 handicap at a mile and a furlong was the most interesting event, even though the field was scratched down to three starters. "Mike" Clancy's St. Finnan opened an even money favorite, but went up a shade to 11 to 10 as the money went on to "Father Bill" Daly's Himself, until he was reduced half a point to twos. Green B. Morris's Swiftmas, meanwhile, receded from 8 to 5 to threes, chiefly because the horse was asked to carry top weight, 124 pounds. No sooner had they rushed away from the barrier than Redfern took St. Finnan to the front. He led by a length at the quarter, with Himself a neck before Swiftmas. At the half St. Finnan held the same advantage, with Swiftmas leading Himself by a neck. After that Swiftmas slowed down under the weight and the pace, while the others continued a sharp duel clean into the stretch. Odom outfinished Redfern and in a desperate drive he got Himself home the winner by a short head in 1:56 2-5. Swiftmas was twelve lengths behind.

The first race, for non-winners of $1,000 at a mile and a sixteenth, was cut to pieces with the blue pencil. H. M. Ziegler's crack three-year-old and J. J. Castles's Fair Knight were the only starters. Hermis was a 1 to 30 favorite, nobody taking a chance. He simply indulged in an exercise gallop and won pulled up by four lengths in the slow time of 1:51.

Knocknagow and Dark Planet were equal favorites in the second race, for beaten two-year-olds at five furlongs, with Bright Girl well played at 4 to 1. J. E. Gardner's First Chord, supported at 8 to 1 as a good thing, went through successfully. He showed the way right from the barrier and was ridden out by Landry to win by a length, in 1:02. P. J. Dwyer's Hackensack, 7 to 1, got the place in a drive and was three lengths before Dark Planet, who came from nowhere when the horses got straightened out for home.

There was plenty of grumbling by the talent over Rice's ride on Lady Holyrood in the third race. This was a selling event for mares of all ages at three-quarters of a mile. Lady Holyrood, being played down to 4 to 5 favorite, Rice rode the favorite as would a stable boy of little or no experience. He had her all over the track and she finished a head outside of the money. Rossignol made the running for the first quarter and then gave way to Neither One. The latter blew up in the stretch whereupon L. Smith went on with Lady Radnor. It took and made her win in a drive by half a length. Rossignol after a rocky road took the place from Wissendine by a length, the latter beating the favorite by a head. The time of the race was 1:15 4-5.

The talent did not go wrong in the fifth race, however, for J. H. Carr's Warte Nicht won loaded down with riches, closing a 9 to 10 favorite. It was a selling affair for two-year-olds at six furlongs, with eleven youngsters at the post. Some of the big bookmakers plunged on Julius Fleischmann's Amorous, who was reduced to fives, with Semper Vivax a hot second choice at fours. The Messrs. Keene's Handspinner, with Waugh, an apprentice, up, was also cut down from 20 to 1 to twelves. But Warte Nicht took the track after the first scramble, lengthened out his lead to four lengths and came down to the wire, eased up by Wonderly, a winner by a length and a half in 1:14 4-5. Bismarck had no trouble in running second with four lengths to spare over Semper Vivax. A. Featherstone's Bondage, 30 to 1, ran a good race after getting away poorly and was fourth.

In the last race, for selling plate at a mile and a sixteenth, the horses were ridden by apprentices who had never handled a winner. Senator Patrick H. McCarren's St. Blaise colt Bluff was the pick of the lot at 2 to 1, with Arak the medium of a plunge that dropped his price from 5 to 1 to 7 to 2. Prince Richard, Aleike, Ninonia and C. Rosenfeld were also generously covered. Arak led Bluff for half a mile, with Aleike close up. At the three-quarter pole "Father Bill's" old gelding took the lead and held it until the stretch was reached. But it was too much for him and Bluff under Erbsmehl's drive drew away and won by a length and a half in 1:51 1-5. Ninonia ran into the place, two lengths before Aleike, with Arak the same distance back.

At Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 21.—Accidents galore marked the opening of the summer meeting of the Chicago Jockey Club at Harlem to-day. Turf Notes.

The first race at Brighton yesterday was run in a thick fog.

Semper Vivax, who finished third in the fifth event yesterday was claimed out of the race by W. T. McGrath for $500.

While mounting Uranium after the second race yesterday, Whanie O'Connor was kicked above the knee and was unable to ride the rest of the day.

LEXINGTON, July 21.—W. S. Barnes, proprietor of Melbourne stud, has sold to Clem Heidenbush, Jr., Chicago, the three-year-old chestnut filly Autumn Leaves, by Prince of Monaco—Lady Rover. The price was $2,700.

Clarence H. Mackay's Trigger was withdrawn from the fourth race yesterday because of the death of John W. Mackay. It is not known what Mr. Mackay will do about the future engagements of his horses but it was said yesterday that if they should compete at Saratoga they would run in the name of the stable's trainer, C. F. Hill.

Round Up of Ponies at Cedarhurst for To-day's Match.

Some of the fastest ponies in the country have been rounded up at Cedarhurst for the final match this afternoon between the Bryn Mawr and Lakewood teams for the Ladies' challenge cup. The players will be the following well-known experts:

Bryn Mawr—No. 1, C. R. Snowden; No. 2, G. W. Kendrick, 3d.; No. 3, Charles Wheeler; back, M. G. Rosengarten.

Lakewood—No. 1, George J. Gould; No. 2, J. M. Waterbury, Jr.; No. 3, J. E. Cowdin; back, Benjamin Nicoll.

Rosengarten takes the place of George McFadden for Bryn Mawr and it is probable that Kingdon Gould will take the place of J. E. Cowdin. Mr. Cowdin's ponies are at Wave Crest, near Cedarhurst, but he has not played since the international match at Hurlingham and is not in the best of training. Both teams are very anxious to win to-day, for Bryn Mawr has already won a match for the cup and moreover, the two teams are entered for the championship, which is under the same conditions, against Dedham and the showing in this match will give a line on the chances for the greater event.

J. M. Waterbury, Jr., who will play for the first time since Hurlingham, has seven ponies at Cedarhurst, including two bought in England, Dennis and Neros. The former is a gray thoroughbred raised in Ireland and is the one Waterbury got into trouble over by spurring at Hurlingham. George J. Gould has fourteen ponies ready, all "made" for fast play. He will use Minnie Mae, a bay; Queen and Vivian, both chestnuts and the former a national horse show winner, and the Crow, a black gelding. Kingdon Gould has ready a black and two chestnuts, Nigger Baby, Edith and Marjorie. Nicoll has five in his string: Featherbattle, a chestnut gelding, Monk, a bay gelding, Turkey Track, a gray gelding, and two others unnamed, a bay and a black.

The Bryn Mawr team have brought on sixteen ponies. Rosengarten has five, including Banister, the gray gelding that won at Wissahickon. Snowden has four clippers, the bays Lightfoot and Happy Jack, Chunk, a brown, and Aneson, a chestnut. Kendrick has a fast lot of odd colors, Toothpick, a chestnut; Brownwood, a gray; Punch, a dun gelding, and the sorrel gelding Comfort. Wheeler has three only, but all extra fast and nimble. The pick is the chestnut gelding Dick.

Big Batch of Athletes Suspended.

The athletes who helped make a success of the games of the associated lodges of the Knights and Ladies of Honor of Greater New York at Washington Park, Newtown, L. I., on Sunday, were suspended yesterday by the Registration Committee of the A. A. U. A majority of the competitors belong to local athletic clubs, notably the New West Side A. C., National A. C., Brooklyn A. C. and Greater New York Irish A. A., and their action in appearing at unsanctioned games is not regarded in a favorable light by the Metropolitan Association magnates. Of late it has become a practice among athletes of the smaller clubs to "sneak" here and there to picnic games and, as they say, "cop" all the prizes. Many prominent athletes have been caught at the game, too, but it is the intention of the athletic authorities to put a stop to the practice. The Knights and Ladies of Honor games did not have the sanction of the Metropolitan Association of the A. A. U. and the following list of athletes stand suspended:

John G. Fielding, National A. C.; G. W. Roberts, Brooklyn A. C.; W. H. McGuire, Arrow A. C.; James J. McGuire, Greater New York Irish A. A.; W. H. Bishop, Brooklyn A. C.; John Jordan, Hamilton A. C.; Joseph G. Henderson, National A. C.; Philip G. Brady, Brooklyn A. C.; Henry Newman, New West Side A. C.; A. G. Parson, Williamsburg A. A.; Edward J. Kraft, National A. C.; J. G. Goodfrey, Brooklyn A. C.; Thomas McBride, National Wheelmen, and J. J. Lovejoy, Peconic Cyclers.

BROOKLYN, 10; PHILADELPHIA, 1.

The Philadelphias led off in brisk fashion at Washington Park yesterday afternoon, making a two-bagger, a single and a run in the first inning against the Brooklyns. Then they suddenly collapsed and their collapse lasted until the end of the game. It was all over with the Quakers when the Brooklyns went after them, and they went after them from the start. The better the Brooklyns played the worse the Philadelphias played, and the Brooklyns played a strong game all the time. They stole bases freely, made swift fielding plays, especially Dahlen and Wheeler, bunted until they had the Quaker infield worried and on the ragged edge, and in fact had all sorts of fun with the visitors. It was a one-sided game and was made more so by the Philadelphias' poor fielding. The Quakers' feet were in the way and they bunts out of the way. They lost their bearings on the bases, and one of the few chances they had to score after the first inning went glimmering because two men tried to occupy second base at the same time and the Brooklyns simply fell into a double play. In the third, fourth, fifth and sixth innings the Quakers did not get a man on base. A foul tip on the knee forced Ahearn out of the game in the sixth inning, and that just after he had distinguished himself by a difficult catch. Bill Douglass, playing left for the Philadelphias, showed how much he scorned a picket fence by taking a fly while jammed up against the obstruction. It was one bright spot in the Philadelphias' game.

National League Game To-day.

Philadelphia at Brooklyn.

Baseball Notes.

Owing to cancellation the Roselle A. C. has Saturday, July 26, open and would pay reasonable guarantee to a first class team. Address G. Sosenheimer, 213 Center street, Manhattan.

The Jersey City-Buffalo game at Jersey City yesterday was stopped by rain in the fifth inning, neither club having scored. The same teams play at Jersey City to-day and to-morrow.

The Brooklyn club officials may take some action to-day regarding Kelley and McGinnity, the players who figured in the Baltimore deal, and who, the Brooklyn people say, belong to them and cannot go elsewhere without their consent.

St. Louis, July 21.—Currie, the diminutive pitcher who has been with the Cincinnati's all season, was signed by Manager Donovan to-day. Moloney, the catcher recently released by the St. Louis American League team, signed for the rest of the season with the Cincinnati reds, his contract also holding for 1903.

Harry Howell, the Baltimore pitcher, was at the Brooklyn game yesterday. Asked if he was going to sign here he replied: "No. I have just been up to visit my folks and am on my way back. I will play in Baltimore while I have a contract with them. The events in Baltimore last week have only served to stir up interest there. Everybody is talking about the game now and there is an increased attendance. We drew the biggest crowd last Friday that has seen a Friday game in a long time."

CICELY WINS OSTEND RACE.

Navahoe Puts Out the Irex in Collision—Record Number of Starters.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

LONDON, July 21.—The number of yachts which started in the Dover-Ostend race to-day broke the record. The Navahoe, which started at scratch, collided with the Irex soon after the boats left Dover. The latter was damaged and gave up the race.

The other competitors in the race were the Cicely, Bona, Brynhild, Tuffy, Clara, Creole, Columbine and Susanne.

The Cicely, owned by Mr. Cecil Quentin, won the big race, with the Clara second. A very strong wind prevailed throughout the race.

The yachts made splendid running before the wind. The weather conditions exactly suited the big schooners. The Cicely covered the distance, seventy miles, in just over six hours, which nearly beat the record. She finished at 1:19:29. The Clara finished at 1:42:50. The Navahoe, which allowed 18 minutes 40 seconds to the Clara, was timed as finishing at 1:29:30. Twenty-three yachts started. The Irex and Navahoe were in collision as they crossed the line.

The boats made an excellent start under full spreads of canvas. They cut through the sea at a great rate, with gunwales under water most of the time. The Iduna had her topmast carried away.

Several boats in the second class under fifty tons had to give up the race. The Pleiad won in this class. She finished at 3:13:37. The Nebula finished at 3:20:36.

THE HANOVER CHESS CONGRESS.

The Results of the First Round—The Monte Carlo Schedule Adopted.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

HANOVER, July 21.—At the last moment the committee in charge of the International Chess Masters' tournament, to be played in this city, altered at the request of the players the rule of having the tourney played exactly according to the Berger system. The players objected to the Berger system as a competitor could then prepare himself from day to day for every single game, which he could not do at Monte Carlo, where the round to be contested on any particular day had to be drawn on each day of play. The committee accepted the Monte Carlo rule and round fourteen of the Berger system provided the pairing for the first round, begun at 9 o'clock this morning. Following are the results: Misses beat Marshall, Wolf beat Pogha, Atkins beat Burn, Bardeleben beat Cohn, Janowski beat Gottschalk, Olland beat Speelthing. Drawn: Sandrzski-Gunsberg, Teichmann-Pillsbury. Adjourned: Levin-Napier. The former has the better position.
