BROOKLYNS WINNERS OF POORLY PLAYED GAME.

Wildness of Cincinnatis' Pitcher Gave Them a Helpful Lead—Pittsburgs Down Quakers—East vs. West Series Ended—Results of American League Contests.

Luck was with the Brooklyns yesterday and they beat the Cincinnatis in a listless game. The Pittsburgs had an easy time with the Philadelphias. These games finished the season's series between the East and West, a series in which the honors went to the West with a good deal to spare. An event of moment in the American League was the defeat of the leaders by the Bostons.

BROOKLYN, 5; CINCINNATI, 4.

It was a dull and poorly played game that the Brooklyns played at Washington Park yesterday. Thielman's wildness in the first inning and Maloney's misjudgment of Sheckard's fly, on which the latter made three bases, were largely responsible for Brooklyn's victory.

National League Games To-day.

New York at Brooklyn, Cincinnati at Pittsburg, St. Louis at Chicago.

Baseball Notes.

Arthur Irwin has lost eighteen pounds since he began umpiring.

Tom Loftus, manager of the Washington American League club, was at the game yesterday. "The American League will be in New York next season," he said. "The fight will be carried to the National League as that's the way to beat them. We've got them whipped in two cities now and I guess we can do it in New York. The National League is just getting onto the fact that it is licked."

Tommy Ryan Favorite Over Kid Carter.

BUFFALO, Sept. 12—The bookmakers at the Kenilworth racetrack in this city have begun to lay odds on the coming middleweight championship contest between Tommy Ryan and Kid Carter, which is to be held before the International Athletic Club on Monday evening.

Among those who have already laid large wagers on the result of the contest are Al Slocum and Benny Falk. The former has wagered $1,000 against $1,500 on Carter, while Falk has taken several wagers of $500 each on Carter, getting 7 to 5 for his money.

Rod McMahon is picking Ryan and the odds he is giving are 7 to 5.

The consensus of opinion locally as to the probable result of the match seems to be that if the contest goes the full twenty rounds Ryan will receive the decision on points; but should there be a knockout, Carter will be the man to deliver that punch.

YANKEE AND NEOLA WIN.

Two Interesting Contests Arranged by the Seawanhaka Corinthian Club.

The 70-footers Yankee and Rainbow and the 60-footers Neola and Weetamoe raced yesterday on the Sound off Oyster Bay. Owing to the outer mark having drifted away when the fall regatta was sailed last week the committee of the Seawanhaka Corinthian Yacht Club arranged for another contest between the 70-footers and as the 60-footers Neola and Weetamoe were in these waters the committee invited the owners of these yachts to race. The races were sailed in a fresh wind that was blowing from the south when they started and when the yachts were on the last leg of the course it backed a couple of points to the eastward. The yachts sailed twice around a triangle, making a total distance of 23¼ miles, and the Yankee, the winning boat in the 70-foot class, averaged very nearly 10.5 knots an hour. This is fast time, as 9¼ miles of the course were to windward. Part of the time the 70-footers were sailing more than 12 knots an hour. The 60-footers Neola and Weetamoe proved that the victory of the Weetamoe over the Yankee on Thursday in the regatta of the New York Yacht Club was not a fluke. Over the course which the yachts sailed yesterday the Yankee would have had to allow the Neola 12 minutes 9 seconds and the Weetamoe 12 minutes 37 seconds if they had been in the same class, and with this allowance the Neola would have beaten the Yankee 2 minutes 59 seconds and the Weetamoe would have beaten the Yankee 1 minute 30 seconds.

Rear Commodore Matheson's steamer Lavrock was the committee boat, and the preparatory signal was made at 2:30 o'clock. The course was three miles north-northwest, then four miles east by north, one-half north, then southwest by south four and three-quarter miles. This course was sailed twice over. Club topsails were carried, and as the first leg was a run balloon jib topsails were sent up in stops and spinnakers got ready to break out to port. The Rainbow, with E. A. Willard at the wheel, was the first across the line. She was a few seconds ahead of the Yankee, but that boat was on the Rainbow's weather quarter. A luffing match followed, and the two boats sailed more than a mile before they squared away and broke out spinnakers. At the first mark the Rainbow had increased her lead to 40 seconds. They gybed at this mark, and with reaching jib topsails had a reach to the next mark, and on this leg the Yankee made a slight gain, so that the Rainbow was only fifteen seconds ahead of her. The times at this mark were: Rainbow, 1:25:05. Yankee, 1:25:20. Then it was a beat. After two short hitches the yachts made a long board in toward the Long Island shore and the Rainbow managed to keep the Yankee under her lee. At the home mark the times were: Rainbow, 1:54:30. Yankee, 1:55:00.

It was down the wind again and the Yankee had her spinnaker set and drawing at least a minute before the Rainbow. Then the Yankee closed up on the leader and passing on the starboard side got on even terms just before the mark was reached. Spinnakers were carried almost to the mark and then quickly taken in and both yachts gybed at the same time. The Yankee was then to windward and she succeeded in pushing in between the mark and the Rainbow and took the lead. The times as they passed the mark were: Yankee, 2:15:00. Rainbow, 2:15:10. The wind was freshening and fast time was made to the next mark, where the Yankee had increased her lead to 25 seconds. Then they started to beat home and the Yankee tacked on Rainbow's weather and kept the lead until the finish. The Yankee crossed the line at 3:05:18 and the Rainbow at 3:05:58. The Yankee won the race by 40 seconds. She was sailed by H. L. Maxwell.

The 60-footers were started at 12:40 o'clock and the Neola led across the line by 35 seconds. Both had spinnakers to port and the Weetamoe on the run across the Sound fell behind, but reaching from the first to the second mark the Weetamoe did better and when the two yachts sailed on the wind the Neola led by 15 seconds. At the end of the first round the times taken were Neola 2:00:45, Weetamoe 2:01:30. The Weetamoe gained before the wind and on the reach on the second round, but she lost in the windward work and the Neola won the race by 1 minute 40 seconds.

CRICKET.

Uncle Sam's Bowlers Play Havoc With Canadians in International Match.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 12—The opening play in the international cricket match between Canada and the United States began here to-day on the grounds of the Germantown Cricket Club at Manheim. The Canadians, who have not won a match since 1897, were expected to give Uncle Sam's representatives a good fight on this occasion, and a large crowd was drawn out to witness the game in consequence.

The visitors, however, contrary to expectation, made a poor showing at the bat and were all at sea with the fast bowling of J. B. King. They lost four wickets for 3 runs, had five men out for 7 and the whole side was disposed of for a total of 49. H. B. McGiverin was the only man who could make any showing and King was credited with seven wickets for 28 runs. H. Auckland, one of the Canadian team, did not arrive until the innings was finished and lost his chance to bat.

The United States opened its innings with J. B. King and C. C. Morris. This pair soon passed the Canadian total, while they kept piling up the runs until King was at length disposed of for 56, an inning in which he gave but one chance for 33. A. C. Morris then kept up the good work in the company of H. A. Haines, and he was not dismissed until he had put on 73 by faultless cricket. Haines also played well for 31 and he was still undisposed of when stumps were drawn for the day, at which time the total had advanced to 178 for 2 wickets. Play will be resumed in the morning.

"ONE-EYED" CONNOLLY DEAD.

Known to Sporting Men as the Champion Deadhead.

"One-Eyed" Connolly is dead. Sporting men all over America knew this odd character as the "champion deadhead." Connolly boasted that he had seen every prizefight of importance in the last twenty years and that he had never paid to get inside the doors. He worked his way from the Atlantic to the Pacific to be at the ringside on such occasions and no matter how difficult it was to secure free tickets he always got one.

"One-Eyed" was an Englishman with a rich cockney accent. He promenaded Broadway while in town, frequently wearing the cast-off clothing of Tom Sharkey, Kid McCoy, Jim Corbett and other pugilists, who always extended a helping hand to him. He was not afraid to ask any man for a dollar and he was so earnest in his requests that he was seldom refused.

There was just one time in his career that a promoter tried to bar him out of a fighting arena. That was in Chicago about six years ago when "Parson" Davies was running a show there. The "Parson" got into the ring and said to the crowd:

"'One-Eyed' Connolly has not been admitted. He's a nuisance!"

Just then a brick was hurled through the skylight to the ring, the missile landing at the Parson's feet.

"Hit's me card!" yelled Connolly, who was on the roof, whereupon Davies instantly issued orders that he should be admitted and have a front seat.

In that race each club is to be represented by three raceabouts. FITZSIMMONS WANTS A FIGHT.

The Former Champion Ready to Box Either Gus Ruhlin or Jim Corbett.

Bob Fitzsimmons, according to a despatch from San Francisco, has decided to fight again. This announcement will undoubtedly surprise a number of the Cornishman's admirers who have been given to understand that Fitz had quit the fistic arena for good and always. Bob is at present travelling with a theatrical troupe in California, but yesterday he found time to say: "I have still a good fight in me. There is only one man in the business whom I cannot whip and that man is Jim Jeffries. I want to fight either Jim Corbett or Gus Ruhlin. There is plenty of money in the game for me, and I feel that I can get the big end of the purse any time I tackle either one of these big fellows. Both of them have played second fiddle to my game, and I will fool them if they think I am too old to make them take the same role again."

Despite his age Fitzsimmons is still regarded as the most wonderful pugilist of the last decade. He has a great record and any number of friends who would readily find backing if he went against either of the above pugilists. A number of clubs when they heard that Fitz meant to return to the ring offered him liberal inducements.
