NOTHING OF VALUE GONE FROM MISS CARTER'S ROOMS.

Death Notice Giving a Wrong Address and Announcing the Funeral, as Yet Unplanned, Published Yesterday—Relatives Suggest a Search for Will.

Whoever broke into and ransacked the rooms at Carter avenue and 150th street, where Miss Mary A. E. Carter lay dead on Monday night, was apparently on a search of money or valuable, for a further investigation yesterday showed that much silver, some money, and bonds and stocks of value had been found and left behind.

The friends and relatives of the dead artist were further puzzled yesterday by the publication in some of the morning newspapers of a death notice, which announced a "funeral service at her late residence, Decatur avenue and 176th street," at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. None of the woman's relatives knew yesterday who had inserted the notice. They did know that no funeral arrangements had been made, and that none would be made until to-day. Furthermore, the dead woman lived at Carter avenue, not Decatur avenue, and 176th street. Decatur avenue does not run down as far as 176th street.

The police from the General Office began their investigation by questioning the most intimate friend of the dead woman, Mrs. Helen Soden, who lives near the Carter home. Mrs. Soden told them that Miss Carter, who was 57 years old, had been employed as a designer by the Tiffanys and had been well paid. When the artist became ill Mrs. Soden had summoned Dr. Anne L. Waite. Dr. Waite had called to see the patient on Saturday night, and with Mrs. Soden went away, leaving the patient apparently in good spirits.

Mrs. Soden then told of finding Miss Carter dead on Sunday, of notifying the relatives and of sending for an undertaker. Of the condition of the room when she returned on Tuesday, Mrs. Soden said:

"Everything was topsy-turvy. A desk in which Miss Carter kept her valuable papers was broken open and there were marks of a screwdriver on it. On the bed was a box filled with solid silver spoons none of which was missing. Beside this box was $8 Bonds, stock certificates and other papers were scattered about the room. The little desk which had been owned by Miss Carter's mother was also broken open and papers from it strewn about. It seemed as if whoever broke in was not in search of cash, for money was hidden in the books around the place and it still remained there. In a rear room a chest of silverware was not disturbed."

The detectives verified the story told by Mrs. Soden and while they were examining the premises William Carter, a cousin of the dead artist, arrived with his wife from Ellenville. Later the dead woman's sister, Mrs. Martha Natagie of Olney, Ill., appeared. She came with her husband in response to a telegram sent by Mrs. Soden.

Mrs. Naugle said that she knew that Miss Carter had property amounting to about $16,000 in the house at the time of her death. All this she thought was accounted for.

A search was made for a will, but none was found, and this led Mrs. Naugle to believe that the person who broke into the premises might have stolen a will. She could not imagine she said, who could wish to steal a will, if there was one. Miss Carter had no relatives except herself and the cousin William Carter, she said.

Mrs. Naugle is of the opinion that Miss Carter left considerable property. "We found all of Miss Carter's real estate deeds intact," he said. "The deed to this house and grounds is valuable, for a gas company offered a big sum for the property some time ago. It seems to me that some one was ransacking the place and was scared away before finding anything, but still we cannot tell whether anything was stolen, for Miss Carter kept her affairs to herself.

"No one knew just how much she was worth. Her father was wealthy at one time, but he lost a heap of money afterward. Still he left his daughter well provided for and she managed to earn enough money so that she did not have to touch what her father and mother left to her."

Half a dozen policemen in uniform and as many more in plain clothes were called in and about the house all day yesterday. Nevertheless, the sergeant at the Tremont station yesterday declared that there had been no robbery at the Carter house and that the place had not been broken into. He added that the police were no longer interested in the case.

PORTRAIT OF ADMIRAL CLARK.

Unveiled in the Capitol of Vermont in Honor of His Distinguished Services.

MONTPELIER, Vt., Oct. 29.—The unveiling and acceptance of the portrait of Admiral Clark, provided by the State, took place at the State Capitol to-day. His native State has honored him as one of the two conspicuous naval heroes of the Spanish war, Dewey being the other, both children of Montpelier. Before a joint assembly the life-sized portrait, painted by Frederick G. Winton of Boston, was presented by ex-Gov. Stickney and accepted by Gov. McCullough. Admiral and Mrs. Clark were present, the former in full uniform. The presentation speeches were eulogistic. The Admiral spoke briefly.

To Widen Wallabout Canal.

A meeting called by the Wallabout Retail Merchants' Association to urge widening and deepening the Wallabout channel and basin was held in the City Hall yesterday. It was decided to have a bill introduced into Congress providing for cutting away Cob Dock in the Navy Yard to allow of broadening the channel so as to permit ocean going vessels to enter the basin.

AFTER UNION CHURCH PROPERTY.

Three Claimants to the Profits of Its Old Sixth Avenue Site.

When the upward movement of the city's population drove the Union Dutch Reformed Church out of existence, some years ago, it still owned the leasehold of its old site, 23, 25 and 27 Sixth avenue. In winding up the affairs of the church these leaseholds were assigned in trust to Dr. Ellery Denison, its former treasurer. The trust provided that the income from the leaseholds should first be used to satisfy a debt owed by the church to Dr. Denison and should then be divided equally between him and the Church of the Comforter on Morris avenue. The Rev. Henry O. S. Myers, formerly pastor of the Union Church, is now in charge of the Church of the Comforter, and he asserts that the time has come when Dr. Denison should share the money with his church.

Two other claimants have, however, appeared. One is the Classis of the Reformed Church in America, which contends that, under the provisions of the Revised Statutes, the property of the defunct church reverts to it. The other is the Marble Collegiate Church, which holds a judgment for $5,275.50 against the Union Church obtained in 1900.

For more than a year the Rev. Mr. Myers, in behalf of the Church of the Comforter, has been trying to persuade Dr. Denison to pay him the money. Dr. Denison has refused to do this unless Mr. Myers can procure releases of the other two claims.

An application is now pending in court to compel the Church of the Comforter to bring in the other two ecclesiastical bodies as parties, so that the rights of all may finally be determined.

NOT PERSONALLY DISHONEST.

Comptroller Says He Attacked the Methods of Deaf Mute Asylum Trustees.

At a hearing yesterday before the Board of Estimate in the matter of charges made by Comptroller Grout against the Institution for the Improved Instruction of Deaf Mutes, the Comptroller said he desired a conference with the President of the State Board of Charities and with the State Superintendent of Public Instruction before proceeding further. Ex-Justice Cohen, counsel for the institution, said that it desired such a conference also and had been trying to get one for ten days. He asked to have the trustees represented when the conference with the Comptroller took place. Mr. Grout made no objections to this, but said he desired to consult the other parties to the conference before making definite arrangements.

The Comptroller then said that the charges he had made and the paper he had read before the Board of Estimate did not in any manner attack the personal honesty of the trustees of the institution, nor was it intended to do so. Mr. Grout said that he had not made any complaint of fraud or dishonesty in management and had no reason to make such any complaint. His complaint was entirely as to the method of management. He said that he had never suggested that any moneys had ever been diverted to other than purposes for the institution. His complaint was that money appropriated for maintenance had been used for building purposes.

The board voted to put over the matter until Friday, Nov. 7, so that in the meantime the conference between the authorities interested in the institution might take place.

Polish Bishop Arraigned for Assault.

BUFFALO, Oct. 29.—Bishop Stephen Kamuiski of the Independent Polish Church was arraigned in police court this morning on a charge of assault in the third degree, on complaint of Henry Barkley and Charles Schubert. The complainants declared that the Bishop assaulted them when Schubert entered the Bishop's house to consult him on business and neglected to throw away the cigar that he had been smoking. Barkley said the Bishop was incensed because he was addressed as "Mister" and not as "Bishop" Kamuski.

In convicting the Bishop, Justice Murphy said: "You should remember the words of the Saviour, 'He who uses the sword shall perish by it.'" Then sentence was suspended.

THE LATE
Emperor Frederick
OF GERMANY
Personally Acknowledged the Merit of Johann Hoff's Extract.

The Late Emperor Frederick, while Crown Prince of Germany, appointed Johann Hoff as an Honorary Member of the National Society, of which he was the head, in acknowledgment of the Genuine Johann Hoff's Extract.

Johann Hoff's Extract has been acknowledged as the world's greatest strength giver and blood-maker ever since 1847. It has been personally endorsed as such by Kings, Emperors, Scientists, the leading Physicians of both continents, and by the best known people all over the world.

Johann Hoff's Extract builds up the weak and debilitated, it brings energy and vigor, puts new life into the system. It cures nervousness, dyspepsia and indigestion. It creates appetite, and brings sound, restful sleep.

Dr. James C. Flint, of Wilson, Mich., writes: "I have for many years prescribed Johann Hoff's Extract for its tonic and strengthening effects, and find it worthy of the high reputation it has always had among physicans."

Johann Hoff's Extract is especially recommended for women. It relieves the distress of nature when taken regularly with meals. It keeps the bowels and entire system in perfect condition.

Dr. M. L. Ravitch, of Lexington, Ky., writes: "I find Johann Hoff's Extract to be the best on the market, in fact, I would not take any other. In weak, anæmic women with delicate stomachs or intestinal troubles it is the best tonic."

There isn't a dyspeptic, a nerve wreck, or a thin, sickly man, woman or child who cannot get well through Johann Hoff's Extract. A wineglassful with each meal is all that is needed.

On account of its great popularity Johann Hoff's Extract is widely imitated. Beware of these cheap substitutes. Avoid disappointment and insist upon getting the Genuine Johann Hoff's Extract. Eisner & Mendelson Co., Sole Agents, New York.
