ANACONDA SELLS FOR $7,200.

J. E. B. PAYNE GETS THE CRACK PACER AT OLD GLORY SALE.

The Successful Trotter Chain Shot, 2:06 1-2, Is Bought for $5,000—T. W. Lawson's Poindexter Is Purchased to Race in Austria—Average of $612 for 105 Head

Public interest in the Old Glory sale in Madison Square Garden was as keen yesterday as at the holiday gathering. There were not many sensational features, the greater number offered being of good average quality that brought a good average of prices.

The really sensational feature was the sale of the pacer Anaconda, 2:01¾, a good bread winner this year and still in the prime of his usefulness. The first bid was $2,500, and then John McGuire said $4,000. The next bid was $5,000 and David Lamar and the representative of Lookout Farm, Boston, stayed in up to $6,800. The bid of J. E. B. Payne was $7,200, and there was no advance.

The next highest price of the afternoon was realized for the trotter Chain Shot, 2:06½, sent in by Charles C. Lloyd. Competition was keen and Alonzo McDonald, who trained the horse and drove him to his record, had to bid $5,000 to get him for his present employer, Mr. Sherman of Port Henry, N. Y.

The third highest price of the afternoon was realized for the bay horse Poindexter, 2:00, in the consignment of Thomas W. Lawson. Ben Tappen, who is buying for his employers in Vienna, commissioned B. H. Demarest to buy the horse at any price up to $6,000 and after David Lamar, W. B. McDonald, George Starr and others had carried the bidding up to $4,000, Mr. Demarest made his first bid. It was $4,200, and it was a winner. Mr. Tappen, who trains for his employers, bought the horse to campaign in Austria. Each year there is a large sum offered, about $5,000, as added money for any trotter who beats the record, which is 2:08¾, held by the American trotter Sue Allen.

The well-known Speedway and matinee winner, Col. Wilkes, 2:13¾, was a cheap horse at $1,700. A number of bidders seemed to want him, but no one was willing to pay a good price. The trotter Senator Mills, 2:20¼, was bought by the well-known Speedway patron A. B. Gwathmey. The record is no indication of the speed, for the horse has shown miles close to 2:10 and a quarter mile in thirty seconds. It is believed he will make an ideal Speedway horse and at $1,200 he was a decided bargain.

Matters took a quiet turn at the evening sale. Anthony N. Brady paid the highest price for the bay trotter Double D., trial 2:10¼, and a wagon matinee record of 2:12¼. Mr. Brady paid $2,550. The one that followed brought the second highest price. This was the bay pacer Fanny Foley, 2:09¼, at 8 years, a matinee record of 2:11 and a trial in harness in 2:08. M. F. McDonald was the buyer at $2,100. The gray pacer Cordington Girl, 2:12¼, trial 2:05, was the fourth on the list of high prices. This mare had been seen out on the Speedway. Her beauty and speed attracted much attention. She went out of the city at $1,425.

Mr. Jacobus, president of the Parkway Driving Club, bought through W. H. Snyder one of the gems of the sale in Nerva Patchen, pacing record 2:08, trial to wagon 2:06½, a half mile in 59¾ seconds, and a quarter in 28¾ seconds. She will come pretty near being the boss of the Brooklyn Speedway. John J. Scannell, owner of The Abbot 2:09¾, was the successful bidder on the well-known Speedway winner Nell Gwynne, 2:10¾. The total number sold during the day was 105 for $64,260, an average of $612.

RACING AT NEW ORLEANS.

Jockey Heigerson Rides Four Winners—Bad Day for Favorites.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 28.—There was a large decrease in the attendance at the Fair Grounds this afternoon, for which the cold and threatening weather, no doubt, was accountable. It was a cheerless day both from a weather and a speculative standpoint. Only two favorites managed to catch the judges' eye first.

The feature of the day was the riding of Jockey Heigerson. This lad rode four of the six winners. They were all outsiders in the betting.

H. C. Schults, a New York turfman, took an opportunity to settle an old score with Harry Robinson, a Western owner. Robinson had his three-year-old gelding Optimo in the last race, and when he landed home in front Schults boosted his price $1,000, which was $200 over his entered price. Robinson retained the gelding. Last winter Robinson, who always carries a halter on his arm, ran up Peiderich, a horse that Schultz raced here, and the latter at the time said that he would get even. Plunger Charles Ellison lost his good plater, Watkins Overton, in the fifth race. Ex-Jockey Eddie Cassidy, who had Rankin in the fifth race, was the one who claimed him for $725. Watkins Overton was one of the choicest in the race and was heavily backed.

Sol Lichtenstein, the New York bookmaker, bet $1,000 on Federal in the fourth race. The best that Federal could do was to finish second. Travers, a horse who up to last spring drew a milk cart in Chicago, was the winner. He was somewhat of a good thing, being played down from 10 to 7 to 1.

A killing was attempted on Rasselas in the last race. He was backed down from 20 to 1 to 6 to 1, but finished second. Shoo Fly, an Eastern filly, took the first race rather cleverly from Sidney Sabbath. John Peters, from Brewer Schorr's stable, came home in front in the second. Dodie S. and Leenla furnished an exciting finish in the third, the former winning by a head on the post.

First Race—Six furlongs—Shoo Fly, 102 (Waugh), 3 to 1 and 7 to 5, won; Sidney Sabbath, 112 (Robbins), 5 to 1 and 2 to 1, second; Polite, 102 (Bolsen), 30 to 1 and 12 to 1, third. Time, 1:16. Suburban Queen, Solver and Nicolette also ran.

Second Race—Six furlongs—John Peters, 107 (O'Connor), 8 to 1 and even, won; Bummer, 109 (W. Hicks), 2 to 1 and even, second; Little Jack Horner, 97 (Fuller), 20 to 1 and 8 to 1, third. Time, 1:14. Optional, Della Ostrand, Peter Duryea, Mary Moore, Kiss Quick, Tonicum and Dr. Scharff also ran.

Third Race—One mile—Dodie S., 94 (Heigerson), 5 to 1 and 2 to 1, won; Leenla, 89 (Bridewell), 7 to 1 and 5 to 2, second; Nabokish, 108 (Ctis), 60 to 1, third. Time, 1:43¼. Annie Thompson, Miss Shanley, Tom Middleton and Maid of Enid also ran.

Fourth Race—Seven furlongs—Travers, 95 (Heigerson), 6 to 1 and 6 to 5, won; Federal, 115 (O'Connor), 6 to 5 and out, second; Clonmel, 107 (Buchanan), 7 to 5 and 1 to 2, third. Time, 1:27. Balm of Gilead and Flora Levy also ran.

Fifth Race—Six and a half furlongs—Tancred, 101 (Heigerson), 12 to 1 and 4 to 1, won; Brookston, 106 (W. Hicks), 12 to 1 and 5 to 1, second; Watkins Overton, 101 (McIntyre), 2 to 1 and 4 to 5, third. Time, 1:21¾. Rankin, Florestan, Nimble Nag, Glenlee, Arvensis and Ravenspur also ran.

Sixth Race—One mile—Optimo, 98 (Heigerson), 8 to 1 and 2 to 1, won; Rasselas, 101 (Fuller), 4 to 1 and even, second; Commissioner, Forster, 107 (O'Connor), 3 to 1 and even, third. Time, 1:42 2-5. Scotch Plaid, Huzzah and Pearl Finder also ran.

FORM PLAYERS HAVE LUCK.

THREE FAVORITES AND TWO SECOND CHOICES SUCCESSFUL.

Apprentice Gannon Carries Off the Riding Honors at Bennings With Wonderly Next—Little Adele, a 10 to 1 Shot, the Only Upset at the Bennings Track.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Three favorites and two second choices won for the form players at Bennings to-day. The weather was clear and cold and the track fast. No stake events were run off and three of the six events were for maidens. Gannon, an apprentice, was in good riding form, handling two winners and a second and leading the other boys in this respect, although Wonderly also rode two firsts. Gannon's first success was in the third race, when he drove Little Adele, a 10 to 1 shot, home alength before Black Diana, also 10 to 1. Retire and Roll Call, who carried the smart money, ran below expectations. In the fourth race Gannon had no trouble in winning with the favorite, Sam Craig, who beat Annie Grace, second choice, by two lengths.

Gannon finished second with Maiden, 12 to 1, in the fifth event, Benckart, second choice, with Wonderly up, winning handily by a length and a half. In this event Cogswell, the favorite, burned up a lot of money, even with Redfern in the saddle.

Wonderly's other victory was in the second race, when, with a hard drive, he got Lord Advocate, second choice, home a head before Hist, a 20 to 1 shot. Gould, odds-on favorite, won the hurdle race in a gallop, with Blacksmith and Collegian, the other choices, cutting up the rest of the purse. In the last race Redfern put Florham Queen, the favorite, over the plate with two lengths to spare.

Selling hurdle race; for three-year-olds and upward; $400 added; two miles and a quarter over eight hurdles.

AMENDMENTS TO RACING RULES.

New Law Aimed at Those Who Indulge in "Doping" Horses.

F. R. Hitchcock and H. K. Knapp, members of the Jockey Club, have drawn up a number of amendments to the Rules of Racing which will be officially acted upon by the stewards shortly. There are few radical changes. The work is calculated to make the rules of racing clearer and more concise. Messrs. Hitchcock and Knapp have apparently realized that the practice of "doping" horses must be handled without gloves, for they have drawn the following amendment to Rule 162:

"6. Any person who shall be proved to have affected the speed of a horse by the use of drugs or stimulants administered internally, or who shall have used appliances, electrical or mechanical, other than the ordinary whip and spur, shall be ruled off."

Another important change has reference to the starting, the amendment to Rule 104 reading:

"By special permission of the stewards of the Jockey Club, or in case of an emergency, the stewards of the meeting, or the starter, a race may be started without a gate."

This means that in case the barrier breaks and cannot be repaired without a long delay, the starter will have the power to send the field away. The other changes are of minor importance in point of public interest.

At San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28.—There was little life to the racing to-day. Pedro and Gorgalette proved a surprise to the racegoers.

First Race—Seven furlongs—Castake, 107 (Hansch), 8 to 5, won; Maggie Feltz, 107 (Battiste), 11 to 5, second; Mike Rice, 107 (Donnelly), 15 to 1, third. Time, 1:29¼. Lady Rose and Gorgalette also ran.

Second Race—Five furlongs—Gorgalette, 113 (J. Sheehan), 12 to 1, won; Quatre, 113 (McCue), 9 to 2, second; Kalanga, 107 (Donnelly), 60 to 1, third. Time, 1:03¾.

Third Race—Six furlongs—Brema, 104 (L. Wilson), 4 to 1, won; Matt Hogan, 109 (Donnelly), 2 to 1, second; Belle Weithoff, 109 (Ransch), 7 to 1, third. Time, 1:15.

Fourth Race—Futurity course—Orfeo, 104 (Burke), 25 to 1, won; The Major, 113 (Donnelly), 4 to 5, second; Fossil, 104 (Carrigan), 30 to 1, third. Time, 1:12⅘.

Fifth Race—One mile and 100 yards—Expedient, 106 (Bozeman), 5 to 1, won; Goldone, 107 (J. Sheehan), 6 to 1, second; Canelo, 104 (Lewis), 5 to 1, third. Time, 1:50.

Sixth Race—Five and a half furlongs—Money Muss, 112 (Donnelly), 9 to 10, won; Organdie, 97 (W. Waldo), 4 to 1, second; Narra G., 112 (Lewis), 15 to 1, third. Time, 1:09.

MATCH PLAY AT LAKEWOOD.

Travis and Macdonald to Meet in the Semi-Final To-day.

"Public form," as revealed in the M. G. A. tournaments of the season, won out in the match play rounds yesterday at the Golf Club of Lakewood, leaving in as the semi-finalists for the first cup this morning Travis, to meet Macdonald, and Douglas to play Gaw.

There was an unusually early gathering of players and onlookers at the links in the morning to watch the play-off of the ties to gain admission to the cup sets. W. W. Burton, the Californian, and E. M. Hunt gained the coveted places in the first sixteen; D. G. Geddes proved the best of the eight tied at 94 for the second set, and J. A. Stillman won from the four tied at 96 for the third set, which left James A. Tyng, J. G. Lindsay and G. M. Duland to drop into the unplaced division.

In the opening match play for the first cups the favorites won in nearly every match. The exceptions were the success of H. L. Gaw, the University of Pennsylvania player who has been abroad all summer picking up points on the Scotch links, over Burton, and Dr. Fredericks, the semi-finalist of the amateur championship, who made his first appearance at a Lakewood tournament, and put out A. D. Compton, one of the best of the Westchester set, with unexpected ease. The downfall of W. L. Gunther in the second set, and of Howard Maxwell and James A. Stillman in the third set were also surprises.

In addition to the match play there was an eighteen hole medal play scratch competition for those who had failed
