GOSSIP OF THE RUNNERS.

"PITTSBURG PHIL" DENIES CHARGES OF WRONGDOING.

Offers All Kinds of Money to Prove That He Never Has Been Anything but on the Level—Was Merry Acrobat Doped?—Hildreth May Race in the East

In view of the rumors that have been circulated recently concerning the suspension of Jockey Louis Smith, and the additional fact that the name of George E. Smith, otherwise known as "Pittsburg Phil," has been mixed up in the matter, "Pittsburg Phil" took it upon himself yesterday afternoon to make a long statement calculated to clear himself of any suspicion of wrongdoing on the turf. The well-known plunger said that he was willing to forfeit $25,000 to the Jockey Club to any one that would prove that he ever gave a dollar to a jockey, owner or trainer to do anything wrong since he first became connected with the turf. "Pittsburg Phil" also declared that he was willing to forfeit another $25,000 to any one who could prove that he bet on any other horse than Latson in the race at Saratoga the year before last which created so much ugly talk. He went even further with the declaration that he would give $1,000 to Jockey Louis Smith if the latter did anything wrong in riding Merry Acrobat in the Rancho del Paso Stakes at Morris Park, and also if the boy would inform the Jockey Club who instigated his wrongdoing.

"Pittsburg Phil said that he made this offer because he had been told that a certain bookmaker, a member of the Metropolitan Turf Association, had openly charged him with being in some way connected with the suspended jockey. The plunger admitted that he bet on the race in question, his wagers amounting to $1,200, which he placed on Andrew Miller's coupled entry, Cinquevalli and Wild Thyme, who ran one, two. According to his betting book, $600 was wagered straight, $300 a place and $400 to show, amounting to a winning of $1,700. "Pittsburg Phil" said that he was willing to hang up another $25,000 to any one who could prove that he wagered any more or less on the race. He stated, further, that there have been many times that he refrained from playing a winner for the reason that Shaw or some other one in his employ had the mount on a favorite or a prominent contender in a race. He said that he either played Shaw's mount or nothing. He admitted that he had opportunities to become part and parcel to swindling schemes both on the turf and other affairs but that he had never allowed himself to be tempted. In a word, "Pittsburg Phil" wished to deny emphatically all charges made against him, and said that he stood ready to make good all of his offers if anything wrong could be proved against him.

Singularly enough "Pittsburg Phil's" statement was made public right on the heels of the report that Jockey Louis Smith had made a statement to Jockey Lorenz that Merry Acrobat had the "dope" in him on Oct. 11, when the colt was beaten two short heads by Eugenia Burch and Hurstbourne respectively, but that he had no stimulant when he was badly beaten in the Rancho del Paso Stakes. "Pittsburg Phil," the owner of Merry Acrobat, when he heard of the alleged statement of Jockey Smith said that he did not believe it, for the reason that the boy had made many misleading statements since he had been suspended. Mr. Dwyer said, however, that he would investigate the matter, and that if the statement proved to be true he should be the first to ask for Smith's reinstatement. Mr. Dwyer believes that the Jockey Club should hire detectives to watch the jockeys, because of their tendency to associate with individuals of shady reputations, both on and off the track.

Frank Farrell's horses are entering at the old Gloucester track over in New Jersey. They are in the care of Frank B. Weir, who has succeeded Tom Welch as trainer of the Farrell string. Weir has shown marked ability in times past with crippled horses, and he believes that he will be able to send Eldrim back to the races next season.

A special race has been arranged for next Saturday at Ingleside, rain or shine, at a mile, for Sombrero, Corrigan, Articulate and Kenilworth, each to carry 100 pounds, the special condition being that all four must start.

Foxhall Keene has just returned from a visit to Castleton, Ky., where he held a business talk with Jockey Lucien Lyne and his father, Mr. Keene looked over his horses carefully, especially Voter, Commando and other new stallions who are at the stud, and also the brood mares and yearlings, the latter appearing in a most satisfactory form. Jockey Lyne told Mr. Keene that he would remain at Lexington with his parents until Trainer Matt Allen sent for him to sail for the other side. Lyne will not ride at New Orleans.

Up at Morris Park many well-known horses are stabled for the winter. Trainer James McLaughlin has in his barn Eugenia Burch, Unmasked, Royal Summons, Examiner, Tugal Bey, Dark Planet, Frocks and Frills, Lord Advocate, Conspicuous, Lowly and Lora Vale. Eugenia Burch retired for the season in fine condition and is expected to begin well when she comes to the spring. McLaughlin has eight yearlings also under his care. Trainer Tom Healy is taking care of Mexican, Wild Thyme, Highlander, Innsbruck and others. Mexican has gotten all over his lameness and has shown improved condition from day to day. Healy has a number of yearlings to prepare for next season, including a colt by Ornament.

Ada C., a colt by Longfellow built on the lines of the Parader; a colt by Golden Dawn—Bonnny H., a colt by Handspring—Rose, a colt by Ben Strong—Mary Letcher and others. Bill Smith, who is handling "Pittsburg Phil's" stable, has provided comfortable quarters for Clifton, Past, Pittacus, Rene, Grand Opera and Dr. Preston. Trainer R. D. Wood of the Osceola Stable is also at Westchester with Tom Kenny, Harlem Queen and a string of youngsters.

It is said that Sam Hildreth may race on the metropolitan circuit next season, as, according to report, he has been informed that a trainer's license will be issued to him by the Jockey Club. Hildreth has not raced here since 1900, when he withdrawal from the turf was believed to have been caused by a personal encounter with Jelm E. Madden. Hildreth did not apply for a license because somebody informed him that he would be refused, so he went West and has been racing there ever since. Some people believe that Hildreth still owns the controlling interest in the three-year-old colt McChesney, and if this proves to be the case the colt will be brought east to run in some of the big handicaps.

Capt. S. S. Brown's racing stable has gone into winter quarters at Mobile, the horses being in charge of Peter Wimmer. There are twenty-three yearlings which Wimmer says are the handsomest lot he has ever seen. The colts have been named Conjurer, Merry Dixon, Safety Light, Sea Shark, Iron Abe, Busk, Breeches Fore, Roomsnoto, Lobbyist, Lookout Boy, Mike Clancy, Precentorian and Scottish Thistle, while the fillies bear the names of Aggie Lewis, Miss McMeekin, Keen Still, Docile, Misanthrope, Exclamation and Snow Drop.

Up to date Durnell & Herz lead the winning owners at New Orleans with $4,660. James Arthur stands second with $2,750 with M. H. Tichenor & Co., third, with $1,085.

JOCKEY CLUB STEWARDS MEET.

L. Smith's Request for a Rehearing of His Case Is Denied.

A meeting of the stewards of the Jockey Club was held yesterday afternoon. August Belmont, James R. Keene, Andrew Miller, H. K. Knapp, F. R. Hitchcock and F. K. Sturgis were present. On the recommendation of the stewards of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association Jockey H. Merrick was reinstated to ride in steeplechases and hurdle races.

The application of Jockey L. Smith for a rehearing in the matter of the revocation of his license was denied. Jockey F. O'Neill, who was suspended for his ride on Jessie Jarboe at the Buffalo meeting was reinstated to good standing. R. W. Speakman, who was ruled off for violation of rule 139 of the racing rules was restored to good standing on all courses racing under the jurisdiction of the Jockey Club. The application of William H. Sperling to train on Jockey Club courses was denied.

DENIAL BY COCHRAN'S FATHER.

Writes to W. C. Whitney That He Never Accused John E. Madden of Fraud.

William C. Whitney gave out a statement last night, prompted by the story that has been going the rounds that the father of Jockey Harry Cochran had made what appeared to be serious charges against John E. Madden in relation to the running of the horse Slipthrift. Mr. Whitney's statement is as follows:

"There have appeared from time to time statements in the daily press to the effect that Mr. Cochran, the father of the jockey, had accused Mr. John E. Madden of fraud in connection with the training and running of Slipthrift. Mr. Cochran (entirely unsolicited) writes me denying that he has used language to any such effect. From his letter I gather that he differed with Mr. Madden as to the good judgment of the orders given in what he calls the Slipthrift race, but never has stated anything that implied any wrong purpose on Mr. Madden's part. He adds that I am at liberty to publish this statement."

RACING AT NEW ORLEANS.

W. J. Deboe Wins the Handicap—Midget Robbins Rides One Poor Race.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 8.—The midget Robbins was probably the most-talked-of track personage in the city after to-day's races. The Chicago boy's ride on Leviathan in the sixth race was about as bad as it could be if he had been trying to bring about the defeat of his mount instead of, as was very evident, being over-anxious to win. Leviathan has been a hard-luck horse since the meeting opened and Robbins in endeavoring to force him into the lead in the mile and a sixteenth race had him repeatedly cut off, and even then the horse might have won but for the very weak finish the youngster rode. As it was he finished second to Trocadero, Scotch Plaid, the favorite, being third.

The seven-furlong handicap for all ages, which was the feature event of the programme went to W. J. Deboe, who won after a hard finish with Rolling Boer. Robbins handled Deboe cleverly throughout and put it all over Buchanan when it came to the finish. Irene Mac was the particularly good thing of the day and with Cannon up fairly romped away with the third race. Moranda, at 9 to 5. Optional, at 6 to 5, and Flaneur, at 3 to 1, were the other winners.

First Race—Six furlongs—Moranda, 105 (Rice), 8 to 5, won; Smile, 108 (Landry), 8 to 5, second; Pillo, 105 (H. Booker), 5 to 1, third. Time, 1.20. Trombone, Judge Magee, Bastile and Gautano also ran.

Second Race—Selling; six furlongs—Optional, 99 (Fuller), even, won; If You Dare, 113 (C. Walsh), 13 to 5, and 3 to 5, second; Doc Sain, 105 (Robbins), even and out, third. Time, 1.18. Dr. Schorff, Kiss Quick, Alfred C., and James J. Corbett also ran.

Third Race—For maiden two-year-olds; five furlongs—Irene Mac, 107 (Cannon), 9 to 5 and 4 to 5, won; Woodmont Belle, 107 (Robbins), 25 to 1 and 8 to 1, second; Varna Fonso, 107 (Heigerson), 15 to 1, third. Time, 1.04 4-5. Suburban Queen, Never Smile, Nicolette, Arthess and Ditto also ran.

Fourth Race—Handicap, seven furlongs—W. J. Deboe, 107 (Robbins), 4 to 5, won; Rolling Boer, 113 (Buchanan), 4 to 1 and 2 to 5, second; Worthington, 100 (Fuller), 20 to 1, third. Time, 1.33. Traverse, Death and Cornwall also ran.

Fifth Race—Selling; one mile and a sixteenth—Flaneur, 99 (D. Gilmore), 3 to 1, won; Leonia, 90 (Heinemann), 8 to 1 and 2 to 1, second; Flop, 104 (Helgerson), 2 to 1, third. Time, 1.56 4-5. Goldaga, Lady Mid, Aimless, Swordsman and Georgia Gardner also ran.

Sixth Race—One mile and a sixteenth—Trocadero, 98 (Helgerson), 9 to 1 and 3 to 1, won; Leviathan, 94 (Robbins), 3 to 1 and even, second; Scotch Plaid, 104 (Buchanan), 3 to 1 and even, third. Time, 1.57. Optimo, Loone and Banish also ran.

BASEBALL.

National Leaguers Assembling Here and May Adopt Schedule at Present Meeting.

Members of the National League began assembling here yesterday for their annual baseball meeting, which begins to-day at the Victoria Hotel. Hermann of Cincinnati, Dreyfuss and Pulliam of Pittsburg, Hanlon and Ebbets of Brooklyn, Hart of Chicago and Brush and Knowles of New York, were all about the hotel yesterday. The principal talk was that the League would made a pronounced departure from previous customs and adopt a schedule at this meeting. Hitherto the schedule has been a matter for consideration and adoption at the spring gathering of the baseball Solons, and its adoption at this time means that the spring meeting will be done away with. The Schedule Committee consists of Dreyfuss, Hart and Ebbets, and they were in conference yesterday on the arrangement of the dates, according to those who said they knew what was going on.

"It will be a war schedule," said one of these; "that is, good dates will be assigned to the most profitable cities, something in the nature of a challenge to the American League, and it will then be up to the American League whether there be conflicting dates."

This was one view of it, but another was that the National League was not inviting war, but simply adopting its schedule without any thought of what the American would do. Brush, when asked if the schedule was to be adopted at this meeting, replied: "I don't know anything about it."

Manager McGraw of the New Yorks said he would certainly prefer to open the season at home and the surmise was that New York would open at home with Brooklyn, with Philadelphia at home with Boston, Pittsburg in Cincinnati and Chicago in St. Louis. Also, the belief was expressed that there would be Fourth of July games in the East this year, instead of those games being played entirely in the West, as has been the case the last three years.

Ned Hanlon of the Rules Committee said he knew of no proposed changes in the rules to be considered. He says the foul strike rule has been a good thing for the game and good for the spectators, and that it will be retained. That the Executive Committee will be retained and no president elected is now thought to be more likely than ever. Brush, for one, has expressed himself as in favor of having at the head of affairs those who have more than a sentimental interest in the game.

Secretary Knowles of the New York Baseball Club received word yesterday from Manager Willis of the Yale team that in case of a tie between Yale and Princeton next spring the deciding game would be played at the Polo Grounds. The Yale baseball schedule, recently announced, said this game was to be played at the Crescent A. C. grounds, Bay Ridge, but evidently this was a mistake. In case there is no tie between Yale and Princeton, Yale will play the Crescent team on the date provided for the third game, June 13. An exhibition game between Yale and the New Yorks may be arranged. There may be a cancellation in Yale's schedule, in which case the date will be given to the New Yorks.

There were other men besides National League men in town yesterday. Three leading lights of the American League, Johnson, Kilfoyle and Somers, were together at the Waldorf-Astoria. They are supposed to be here watching developments.

McGraw May Coach Columbia Baseball Players.

A rumor which seems to be based on substantial foundation is current at Columbia University to the effect that Manager John McGraw of the New York National League baseball team will coach the 'Varsity players until the opening of the professional playing season. It is said that a number of the other New York players will assist him in developing the college nine in return for the opportunity that will be afforded them to practise along with the university men in the baseball cage in the college gymnasium before the weather conditions permit of outdoor work. Columbia proposes to obtain the services of a prominent college player as head coach for the main part of the season.

Columbia's baseball schedule, which is almost complete, will include thirty games—a larger number than ever before. The local team will play Harvard again at Cambridge on June 9 for the first time in three years. The annual game with Yale is to take place at New Haven on April 22, and the Lafayette games will be played at Easton, Pa., on May 13. Owing to the difficulty and expense of having a playing field in New York there will be but few home games. Three such games with Williams, the University of Pennsylvania and Cornell will be played at the Polo Grounds on April 18, May 4 and May 15, respectively. A fourth game will be played with New York University at Ohio Field early in the season. There will be at least two extended trips, one of three days up the State and one of five days through Connecticut, Massachusetts and Maine. Manager C. L. Hendricksen will soon submit the complete schedule to the Faculty Committee.

DAN PATCH SELLS FOR $60,000

M. W. SAVAGE PAYS THE RECORD PRICE FOR A PACER.

The Unbeaten Champion Goes From New York to Minneapolis—McHenry Will Continue to Train Horse Who Equalled Star Pointer's Record of 1:59 1-4.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 8.—M. W. Savage, of this city, has bought Dan Patch, the famous unbeaten pacer, of E. M. Sturgis, of New York, for $60,000. M. E. McHenry, who has driven the horse many a fast mile, and scored 1:59¼ with him, signed a contract with Mr. Savage to handle the horse for the racing season of 1903-4.

Dan Patch is to be brought here and wintered. The price is the highest ever paid for a pacer.

The negotiations that finally culminated in the sale of Dan Patch began at the Providence Grand Circuit meet, when the famous horse paced the fastest mile up to that time of his career and crossed the two-minute line.

Dan Patch has had the most successful career ever credited to a harness racehorse. He has met the best the country could produce week after week for two successive campaigns and has yet to meet with his first defeat. After he had proven how invincible he was in open contest he was sent to beat all former records against time, and succeeded in equalling Star Pointer's figures.

His campaign of 1901 made it plain to all that he was the coming champion. In that year he was started in twelve contests without losing one and in only one heat did he allow another horse to lead him at the wire. This was at the Brighton Beach meeting and Martha Marshall won the first heat on sufferance. Just to show how much the horse outclassed every competitor the trainer, M. E. McHenry, sent him along in the next heat and gave him a record of 2:04½, which was his fastest move for that year.

During the campaign just closed Dan Patch was in a class by himself. So he was sent to cross the two-minute mark and put his name beside the only one in the two-minute list. His first start was at Columbus on Aug. 2 to beat the record of his sire, Joe Patchen, 2:01¾, and he was successful, pacing the mile in 2:00¾. At Brighton Beach on Aug. 14 he repeated this performance. At Readville on Aug. 23 he paced the mile in 2:00¼, and the following week at Providence he crossed the dividing line and lowered his record to 1:59¾.

On Sept. 3 Dan Patch was at Belmont Park, Philadelphia, and paced a mile in 2:00. Then at Syracuse on the 11th he covered the distance in 2:00¼. The supreme effort came at Readville on Sept. 19, when the chestnut horse put out for the second time in harness horse history a record of 1:59¾. As a matter of fact the watches recorded 1:59 1-5, but as only quarter seconds are recognized by the National Trotting Association the time had to be so recorded.

This was practically the close of his campaign, as the Empire City track meeting the weather conditions were bad, and the same conditions prevailed at every attempt made during the remainder of the season.

Dan Patch is a black horse nearly 16 hands; foaled 1896, by Joe Patchen, 2:01¾, dam Zelica, by Wilkesberry; he was bred by D. A. Meaner, Oxford, Ind. Myron E. McHenry has trained and driven Dan Patch in all his races and he conducted the negotiations when Mr. Sturgis bought the horse last March for $20,000. McHenry had charge also of the present negotiations and his contract with the new owner places the horse in his training stable for the seasons of 1903 and 1904.

Teams From the Strollers and Two New Jersey Clubs to Meet.

A match is to played on Saturday next, bar snowy weather, between a team from the Strollers Club and a team picked from the Essex County and Morris County Country clubs, to be played on the Essex County links. The Strollers team will include C. B. Macdonald, R. C. Watson, Jr., Fred Watson, W. L. Gunther, Lindsley Tappin, Howard A. Colby and Louis Livingston, while the country clubs can muster J. G. Bates, W. D. Vanderpool, James A. Tyng, R. M. Sanford, W. Y. Marsh, Charles W. O'Connor, G. B. Jenkinson, 2d, William Shippen, L. B. Garrison and W. Y. Thurston. Twelve or fifteen will play on each side, should the arrangements for the match be perfected.

Frosty links are worse than stones on aluminum club heads. Play during the present cold snap has demonstrated this state of affairs to the M. A. A. golfers and golf players in general, and the new-fangled clubs will rest in the lockers, while the old-style sorts will get an airing.

English Professional Beats American Amateur Champion at Court Tennis.

TUXEDO PARK, Dec. 8.—A series of court tennis matches between Joshua Crane, Jr., of the Boston Athletic Association, amateur champion of the United States, and Cecil Fairs "Punch," the English professional, were finished here to-day and resulted in two straight wins for the Englishman. On Saturday in the first match Punch gave fifteen and a bisque handicap to Crane. "Punch," who was playing in good form, won by the score of 2—6, 7—5, 6—1, 6—0.

The second and final match, which was played to-day, was more even. The contested Crane showed up in much better form and won the first set at 4—6. "Punch" finally won the match at 4—6, 6—3, 10—8, 6—1. T. Suffern Tailer was referee.

He thought the name would be definitely decided upon by three or four of owners, but thought they had not yet come to a conclusion.
