BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

A large crowd listened to the address last Sunday evening on the topic: "The Man Who Traded Destiny for Dinner." The second of these addresses will be given next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock on the topic: "The Man Who Traded Loyalty for Lucre." These addresses will be of interest to everybody. The masses of the people that should hear these addresses will not come to hear them. The people have made up their mind that they will not hear anything that will come in contact with their selfish lives. God said in His Word that, "If the watchman on the walls see the enemy coming and fail to warn the people their blood shall be required at his hand, but if he see the enemy coming and warn the people and they fail to heed the warning then their blood shall not be required at his hand." They who fail to hear and heed will be responsible to God for their lives. Hear this evening address.

Tom Johnson and O. F. Neece will have charge of the morning service while the pastor will speak at the Owyhee community. Come and give them a hearing.

A hearty invitation is extended to one and all to attend all the services.
D. E. BAKER, Pastor.

The Ladies Aid of the Baptist church has changed the date of their Apron and Bonnet Bazaar to the 3th instead of the 6th as was announced. Notice the papers for further announcements.

A County Christian Young People's Union Organized

Last Friday afternoon the young people of the churches of Vale and Ontario met at the Baptist church in Ontario for the purpose of organizing a county organization. There were 42 present and after some discussion a union was organized with Miss Emma Hope of Vale as president and D. E. Baker Ontario, vice president, Lucille Biggs Ontario, secretary. Committees will be appointed by the president by mail. The probability of holding a two weeks camp meeting this summer somewhere in the valley was discussed at some length and agreed upon provided that the churches of Ontario, Nyssa and Vale would co-operate with them. After the meeting was over the young people of Ontario furnished refreshments for all present. The Christian people of the valley are getting closer together and it will mean much to the work of the Kingdom of God in this locality for the future.
D. E. BAKER.

Rev. D. E. Baker will speak at the Owyhee school house Sunday at 11 A. M. at the Parrish House, Nyssa at 3 P. M.

Rev. D. E. Baker will go to Haines Thursday morning of this week to attend the Quarterly Assembly of the Grande Ronde Baptist Association.

CONGREGATIONAL NOTES

John Reece, the well known farmer and Nyssa property owner, had the misfortune Wednesday to lose the thumb on his left hand by getting it in the machinery of a grain grinder. Dr. Sarasin was called immediately and found that amputation was necessary.

Mr. Felton is in Nyssa from the Twin Falls country to look after his farm adjoining Nyssa. He recently returned from Kansas City, to which place he accompanied his father, who had an operation performed on his eyes. The operation was successful and the old gentleman, who had been blind for two years, can now see fairly well.

Baseball and shaggy hair will be ambling along now most any day.
