At The Movies

Did you ever court a girl beneath the icy stare of one of her relatives who thinks "Janet is making a great mistake by having anything to do with that nasty young man"?

Some job, but Fred Stone manages it, and he's courting on behalf of another fellow at that!—in "Johnny Get Your Gun" at Dreamland next Sunday and Monday.

you were hungry, ragged, and penniless with no hope in your heart—And you suddenly were made rich and comfortable and had a love affair thrust upon you—and you lived as an imposter—could you keep it up?

Should a woman be jealous of her husband's friends? Cannot love and friendship be combined? "PALS FIRST," the gripping play of love and adventure will shed an interesting light on this subject. See it at the Dreamland theatre, starring HAROLD LOCKWOOD, Friday and Saturday, August 29 and 30.

HERE'S A RARE BIRD.

A COUNT WITH MONEY

A rare specimen of European count will be introduced to picture lovers with the presentation of Madge

Kennedy's latest Goldwyn Picture, "The Kingdom of Youth," at the Dreamland Theatre September 4. He isn't penniless nor is he trying to win the heart and hand of a rich American girl—but worse, he has designs on Ruth Betts (Madge Kennedy), who has a perfectly good husband.

But don't be too hard on Count Henri Duval. He's the poor, misguided tool of a middle-aged widow, who covets Ruth's handsome spouse, though she's twice her age. The widow brings about a meeting between Ruth and the Count, knowing that Ruth's husband, Jimmy, has always disliked the nobleman. The latter's frequent meetings with the beautiful Ruth had to have but one result—his falling in love with her—just as the widow has planned.

A climax comes to the Count's love-making at a ball given by the widow. She finds Jimmy has taken her plan too seriously when he sees the Count and Ruth on the balcony. Duval is drawing her scarf up over her shoulders in such a way that his arms are almost about her. What happens when Jimmy approaches the pair makes the Count rue the day that he first cast eyes upon the fascinating Ruth.

Mrs. M. E. Dolling leaves Sunday for a camping trip in the mountains above Arco, Idaho, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gallagher. Later she will visit Portland.

Mrs. Lucy Fox who accompanied by her mother Mrs. Barnett arrived last Thursday morning from Ottumwa, Iowa, left for that city yesterday on No. 4. Mrs. Fox will teach in the Ottumwa schools this year, while Mrs. Barnett will make her home with her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Greig.

Pete (George) Gilham is a strong man. To prove that fact he endeavored to open a Mason jar. He placed the dangerous thing between his knees and twisted the top with his right hand. Before the top moved the glass below it broke cutting his hand and his knees badly. That is why he is wearing the hand in a sling this week.

R. W. JONES' WATER
ONTARIO LAUNDRY

When the board of directors of the Warm Springs Irrigation company were negotiating for the sale of bonds and figuring on getting work on that great project started, the president of the board was R. E. Weant of Vale, well known to all old time Malheur county residents. Mr. Weant retired from the board in January but he is still mightily interested in the progress being made. "I will tell the world," avowed Mr. Weant, "that when any irrigation company contracts for a dam like the Warm Springs dam and gets it completed in ten months, it is going some. Say we will have the Warm Springs system complete and paid for before the King Hill Project is built." Mr. Weant was in Ontario Tuesday.

A Great Remedy.

The merits of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy are well known and appreciated, but there is occasionally a man who has no acquaintance with them and should read the following by F. H. Dear, a hotel man at Dupuyer, Mont. "Four years ago I used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy with such wonderful results that I have since recommended it to my friends."

When last heard from Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Graham, who were accompanying Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Graham on a motor trip from Ontario to Port Angeles, Washington, were marooned at Elgin, Oregon, waiting for their car to be repaired. Car troubles evidently have upset their plans for a speedy trip to the city on the Straights of Juan de Fuca, for they had hoped to negotiate the 600 miles in four days.

John Ray whose long record as a director of the Owyhee Ditch company gives him a wide acquaintance in this section was up from his ranch near Nyssa on Wednesday. "I once listed my ranch for sale," said Mr. Ray, in telling how conditions have improved, "but it is off the list now, tho I have had offers for it. Land is cheaper around Nyssa and Ontario than anywhere in this Snake River valley," he said.

'Royal Gord' 'Nobby' 'Chalm' 'Usco' 'Plats'

See the big Nobs

The 'Nobby' is a big rough husky fellow. The tire they are all talking about.

A great road gripper—a sure enough non-skidder and non-slipper.

Makes easier riding and easier driving. More safety, more comfort—more mileage.

'Nobby' is a United States Tire, —which means none better. Just right for our roads.
