BLUES FOR A. G. VANDERBILT.

HE DIVIDES HONORS AT BAY SHORE WITH MRS. GROSVENOR.

The Coach Venture a Winner in Four-in-Hand Class Under His Driving—Mrs. Gerken, Angered at the Judges in Horse Show, Withdrews Her Entries.

BAY SHORE, L. I., Aug. 8.—The fifth annual show of the Bay Shore Horse Show Association began here to-day. The meeting is to continue until Saturday, and the classes attracted competitors of the best grade. The chief exhibitors in to-day's events were: Mrs. J. B. M. Grosvenor, Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt and Mrs. John D. Gerken, who won eight out of thirteen events between them.

Mrs. Grosvenor was the most successful exhibitor, taking four firsts, three seconds and two thirds. Alfred Vanderbilt drove three of his own entries to victory and two other of his horses got yellow ribbons. All the Vanderbilt horses were entered from the Oakland farm.

Mrs. Gerken got one first in the opening event, but was unsuccessful in the others. Her star gelding, Newsboy, got only a third in the harness class, and again in the open runabout class he was selected for a yellow. A "highly commended" in the tandem class for Newsboy and Shop Girl was the last straw to her patience. She had been getting angrier every minute at the poor success of her entries, and this last award was too much. She withdrew from the closing classes in which she was entered, and it is unlikely she will exhibit to-morrow or Saturday. Mrs. Gerken did the same thing a couple of years ago in Philadelphia when the awards did not suit her.

The Vanderbilt victory in the open four-in-hand class was the most impressive of the day. The conditions called for road teams to be shown before a coach, drag or break. Although it was stated that no attention was to be paid to the carriage, the three entrants had gorgeous turnouts. The Vanderbilt entries were four smashing grays verging upon dapple on the haunches, dragging the coach Venture, which ran from the Holland House to Belmont Park last spring. The coach was of black, picked out with white on body and wheels, with the motto "Nothing venture, nothing have" on the door panel. J. Campbell Thompson had three bays and a gray tooling a big red and black coach, with the name "Faugh-a-ballagh" emblazoned thereon. Mrs. Grosvenor had a dark blue coach drawn by four roans. Followed by a groom mounted on a relief horse and with a red coated guard tooting melodiously on a good two yards of brass, the three swept around the ring. The Vanderbilt horses moved nicely together, with speed and power, their owner showing their qualities well. It was a popular victory. When the blue ribbon was pinned to the off leader's head still the gray reared up and fell upon his companion leader, almost breaking the harness.

This was the third of the Vanderbilt victories, his other two being in the class for harness pairs, 15.2 hands and over and in the class for horses to runabouts.

In the class for harness pairs, with women to drive, Mrs. Grosvenor's The Baron and President, handled by Mrs. Jack Donnelly, carried off the honors from Eben D. Jordan's Kitty Grey and Lorina, driven by Miss Belle Beach. This must have been unpleasant for Mr. Jordan, who only recently sold the winning pair to Mrs. Grosvenor. It was unexpected, inasmuch as Kitty Grey and Lorina had beaten the Baron and President in the open tandem class earlier in the day.

Sidney Holloway rode the Westchester Farms jumpers in the competition over six jumps and carried off the honors with a rangy chestnut called Buck. It was not a very good class of jumpers, and several showed lack of schooling.

Mrs. Grosvenor won all the harness horse classes.

The events of the day drew a good crowd, remarkable rather for quality than quantity. Among those who were present were: Bradish Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ceballos, Mr. and Mrs. M. Snedeker, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Bourne, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Hubbs, W. Brinckerhoff, Alfred G. Vanderbilt, A. Hanan, S. T. Rothschild, Mrs. Schuyler Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hayward, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bird S. Coler, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Fabre, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Rosenfeld, Lorimer Worden, Robert Stevens, Mrs. Willard Candler, Clarence Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Owens, H. Mifflin Wharton, Mrs. G. A. Ellis, Jr., Miss Cutting, J. S. Remsen, W. Burling Cox, Frank B. Cregmer, J. Carlisle and Mr. and Mrs. Julian Fairchild. The Rockaway, Great Neck and Meadow Brook contingents also were represented.

FOR ENGEMAN'S EX-WIFE.

Alimony From the Late President Sanford's Son, Who Married Her.

Supreme Court Justice Giegerich made an order yesterday directing Henry Sanford, grandson of the late Henry Sanford, who was president of the Adams Express Company, to pay $500 a month alimony and $1,000 counsel fee to his wife, Jessie Grace Engeman Sanford, pending his action for the annulment of their marriage. Sanford, who inherited a large estate from his grandfather and is a mining engineer, alleges that the divorce obtained in 1899 by his wife from William Engeman in Wyoming is not valid in this State. She married Engeman while but a girl. Sanford met her before the divorce was obtained and they were married on Nov. 16, 1901, he believing, he says, that the divorce was entirely regular and valid. He now alleges that neither Engeman nor his wife was a legal resident of Wyoming at the time of the divorce. Mrs. Sanford is a daughter of Alamanzer Battersby, who was associated with Engeman in the horseracing business.

DITMARS FARM OF 800 LOTS IN BROOKLYN CHANGES HANDS.

It Will Be Developed as an Extension of Vanderveer Park, Which It Adjoins—Site Bought for Elevator Flats in West Fifteenth St. Near Seventh Ave.

One of the few farms remaining in Brooklyn between Prospect Park and Coney Island was sold yesterday by the estate of James Ditmars. It consists of 800 lots and abuts on the Long Island Railroad, on Vanderveer Park and on Rugby. The homestead is on Kings Highway. The property realized about $150,000. It was bought by the Estate Agents, a syndicate which proposes to develop the tract by extending streets through it from Vanderveer Park. The deal was negotiated by the Ernest Gulick Company.

The unprecedented real estate activity which Brooklyn is enjoying this year is centered chiefly in two sections—Brownsville and the district between Prospect Park and Coney Island. The movement in the former section is essentially local, though important in volume. It is confined to the Jewish colony, which has grown up at the Brooklyn end of the Williamsburg Bridge through overflow from the lower East Side in Manhattan.

The realty movement south of Prospect Park is more extensive and promises to result before long in the building up of the entire southerly half of the borough as far as Coney Island. Most of the old farms there have been bought up by syndicates for development, and the Ditmars farm was one of the last in the possession of owners holding title by descent.
