

UNIVERSITY PARK AND PORTSMOUTH

Happenings of the Week In and Around These Enterprising Suburbs.

Gathered and Condensed for the Information of Review Readers—Personal, Social and Otherwise.

Miss Fannie Hemstock went to McMinnville last Saturday for a week's visit.

The appearance of the school house has been much improved by a fresh coat of paint.

H. G. Sibray, who is now with the University Land Co., will soon build at Goddard station, near University.

Mr. Hatfield, who has just sold his residence, will move into one of the Dunning houses built by the Nash Bros.

The Rebekahs met Tuesday evening, and the degree team spent considerable time drilling. Those present had a good time.

Have you invested any in real property on the peninsula? If not, you are making one of the mistakes of your life. Correct it while you may.

Odd Fellows lodge No. 128, will elect officers Saturday evening. Work in the second degree will be put on. Visiting brothers will be cordially welcomed.

Dr. DeVaul has again returned to California, his wife's mother having taken a turn for the worse, and word was received here Tuesday that she was dead.

Mr. R. Coon of Hood River, has purchased R. Hatfield's residence at University Park. Mr. Coon was at one time a member of the Oregon legislature.

Assembly No. 3, United Artisans, met in their temple at Portsmouth every Wednesday evening. Letta Osterstett, master artisan; Mrs. A. S. Clark, secretary.

Earl Constable and wife, former residents of the Park but now residing in Seattle, were here Wednesday visiting relatives and renewing old acquaintances.

Mr. John Mock has a stump puller at work on his place adding greatly every hour to the appearance and worth of his already very valuable property.

G. H. Hemstock, the postmaster and merchant, is secretary of nearly all the lodges meeting here, and has his hands full. But he gets away with the work in a creditable manner.

J. H. Wright, accompanied by Mrs. Wright, and his sister, Mrs. Nash, leave for Dundee and McMinnville Monday, where a few days will be spent visiting friends and relatives.

Ed Gilman, son of the celebrated Portland auctioneer, has bought the Thompson property at University and has moved in. His father and mother paid the family a visit Sunday.

Robt. Mitchell and Miss Maud Swan, were united in marriage at Vancouver, Wash., last Sunday. Miss Swan was formerly a resident of this place. Her friends extend congratulations.

Assembly No. 3, United Artisans will give a four evenings' season of drama, select programs, winding up with a grand social ball. It is the occasion of their fifth annual fair, and a splendid good time is promised.

The Columbia University football team went to McMinnville Thursday, to play the McMinnville Baptist college team. The team was accompanied by quite a number of their student friends. The result of the game was 0 to 0. Our boys put up a fine game, but could not score.

Grandma Atwater of Portsmouth, died Sunday at the home of her brother, the Rev. Baldwin of Forest Grove, stroke of paralysis, and being 72 years of age, had little show for recovery. Mrs. Emma Hollister of Portsmouth, with whom she had long resided, was her daughter.

A social club, to be known by the classical name of Narcissus, was organized at Portsmouth Monday evening. The club will give dances at regular intervals during the season, the first one of which will be held at Artisans' temple next Tuesday evening.

G. H. Hemstock, of the University Park Drug Co., is the authorized agent of The Review, and all subscriptions can be left with him. Also news items and orders for job work. We hope the citizens of this immediate district will show their appreciation of The Review, and give their subscription to Mr. Hemstock.

One of the pleasant social events of the week occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. Constable, Wednesday evening. The party was given in honor of Miss Eva Casteel, who will depart in a few days for her former home in Illinois. The hostess of the evening was Miss Ethel Constable, and she was a charming one. About twenty-five were present, and a most enjoyable evening spent. Refreshments were served, including ice cream, cakes, etc.

It is urgently requested by The Review that our friends report to us all items of interest, such as social functions, personals, or anything that may be of interest. Just make a note of these matters, and leave with Mr. Hemstock, at the University Park. She had recently suffered from a Drug Co.'s store, or at the Portsmouth Pharmacy, in the brick block corner, as early in the week as possible. Please remember this, friends, as we want to make this department interesting.

The University Park M. E. Sabbath school has undertaken a systematic review of the Old Testament lessons for the last two quarters. We understand that a Lewis and Clark souvenir gold dollar is to be awarded the best essay covering the six months. The Review will watch the outcome and will cheerfully publish the essay if not more than a column or two. We can not learn too much about the good book, nor practice its precepts too closely.

Portsmouth Tent No. 82, K. O. T. M., meets in Odd Fellows hall, 1st and 3rd Tuesdays. D. S. Walton, commander, G. H. Hemstock, R. K. stock, secretary.

I. O. O. F.—Peninsular Lodge No. 128, meets in Odd Fellows Hall, over postoffice corner, every Saturday evening. C. D. Reger, N. G., G. H. Hem-

Rebekah Lodge, I. O. O. F., No. 77, meets 2nd and 4th Tuesdays at Odd Fellows hall. Miss Adell Horseman, N. G., Mrs. G. H. Hemstock, secretary.

EXCELLENT ENTERTAINMENT.

The Haywood Club Amateurs Acquit Themselves With Credit.

One of the most meritorious amateur theatrical entertainments it has been our good fortune to witness for many a day, was that given by the Haywood Club, in their auditorium at University Park, Monday night, B. L. C. Griffith's popular comedy, in three acts, entitled "Between Acts," seldom, if ever, was given a better interpretation. The play is replete with sensational situations, both grave and amusing, the portrayal of which by the various persons in the cast would do credit to many of the more pretentious actors who go on the boards as professionals. To commend different ladies and gentlemen representing the different parts personally, for merit, would be difficult, for every one acquitted themselves with credit. Following is the cast:

- "Dick" Comfort, married yet single
-Chas. Fairchild
- George Merrigale, an unfriendly friend
-Eugene Ballis
- Alexander Meander, Dick's uncle, blamed but blameless
- Will A. Clark
- Harris, Comfort's man servant
-Claude Brown
- Mrs. Clementina Meander, Dick's aunt, blameless but blamed
-Mrs. O. W. Athey
- Edith Comfort, Dick's wife, unknown, unhonored and unsung
-Mrs. D. B. Morgan
- Sally, Mrs. Meander's french maid,
-Miss Helen Duley
- John F. Bamford, Pianist

The Haywood Club is a local organization, a majority of the members residing here. The club was organized some two years ago for the purpose of furnishing entertainment at home. The club leased the unfinished hall, completed it and fitted it up with stage, gallery, seats and installed an acetylene gas plant, incurring an expense of several hundred dollars, and now have a neat and comfortable place, well adapted for theatrical and other entertainments. This expense of improvements was assured by the club, and the proceeds of all entertainments go to clearing off the debt incurred. Success has attended their efforts so far, and it is hoped that at an early date all liabilities will be wiped out.

The officers are: J. B. Easter, president; D. B. Morgan, vice-president; Arthur P. Johnson, secretary and T. V. Hart, treasurer. D. B. Morgan is the manager, and to his efforts, enthusiastically seconded by every officer and member of the club, is due its success.

The next entertainment will be given early in December, when "Tom-kin's Hired Man," a domestic drama with a strong heart interest, and thrilling climaxes will be presented.

Healthfulness of the Gulf.

If Tom Hannum's prediction was verified, he is now "singing tenor with the angels." He was the most lovable of Washington correspondents, and when consumption developed his fellow journalists secured him a treasury appointment which took him to Texas, where, on light duty, it was hoped that his life would be prolonged. The evening before his departure, at a farewell dinner, Tom was the liveliest conversationalist. He said:

"The climate of Texas is like that of Florida, and I am sure to improve there. A consumptive friend of mine in Philadelphia went to Florida, weighing only ninety-one pounds. When he came back six months later he weighed one hundred and forty-eight pounds. That's what the express company charged."

Unusual Emphasis Necessary.

"Willie, dear," his mother said, "I wish you would go out and see what all that racket in the next block is about."

Willie went away, and returned half an hour later with the desired information.

"There was a deaf and dumb couple married down there this evening," he said, "and the boys is trying to shiveree 'em accordin'."—Chicago Tribune.

Sweet Potato Pudding.

Peel and grate four sweet potatoes; beat six eggs thoroughly, whites and yolks separately; mix half a pound of sugar with one-fourth of a pound of butter (or a little more); add the eggs to this, and then the potatoes; season with nutmeg and allspice and half a teaspoonful of salt, and mix through it four tablespoonfuls of flour. Bake.

Fried Bologna Sausage.

This is much improved by being dipped first in cracker crumbs. All the slices are to be cooked in "deep fat" and then lifted out. Next put them into a shallow frying pan and scramble up beaten eggs with them.

Butter Beans.

One quart beans boiled with a slice of salt pork with little salt and pepper; serve with butter or cream; both, if liked.

He Never Smiled Again.

Miss Cutting—Did I understand you to say you are a college graduate, Mr. Sapligh?

Sapligh—I—aw—pvesume you did, I—aw—gwaduated with high honnabs, doncher know.

Miss Cutting—Must have been an inferior educational institution, wasn't it?

Never tell a girl you love the ground she walks on unless she owns the real estate.

Employment

FOR ALL

University Park lies central to that great manufacturing district extending along the water front from the Portland Flouring Mill to St. Johns. Two thousand hands will soon have employment within easy walking distance from University Park. The better class engaged in this district are striving to have their homes at University Park because it is the desire of every good man to have his home in respectable surroundings.

University Park now has the famed Bull Run water at 50 cents per faucet, has more fine residences under construction than any other suburb, has employment for more men than any other suburb, has better educational facilities than any other part of Portland, has a larger payroll than any other suburb, has the highest degree of morality in Portland. It offers the best opportunity on earth to investors and homeseekers. Prices of lots are advancing. Call and see us about University Park.
