GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK

SPORT AT GRAVESEND MARRED BY ADVERSE BAD BEDS.

Miller Wagon, Buxton, Veal and Frazier Fail to Cut Sharp Criterion—Dandelion Wins Hunter Track Handicap—Second Change in the Ring.

[illegible] yesterday was the poorest contest of fast sport [illegible] Hunting of Matter on the track in the public's mind. [illegible] were winning for the odds [illegible] Water got [illegible] the performance. [illegible] Water was prominent at [illegible] performance to hundreds who [illegible] where he came back [illegible] Miller had put up one of [illegible] finishes it was the greatest [illegible] thinking caper could not [illegible] Veal, who rode Dandelion [illegible] keeping close at the right [illegible] Dandelion was public choice [illegible] of betting. For the [illegible] after leaving the barrier [illegible] in the last race, nobody [illegible] it was due to a case of [illegible] happened she was picked [illegible] to win. At any rate Miller was [illegible] those who hanged Veal [illegible] in 1:08 1-5.

[illegible] E. Dugan put up a ride on Bat Masterson that made the bettors laugh [illegible] as again under the rather [illegible] of the afternoon for them. [illegible] Bat Masterson, [illegible] Schwartz's stable and colors. [illegible] the latter said that Dugan [illegible] he was under the impression [illegible] was on Matzidore's back in a [illegible] race.

[illegible] who came here from California [illegible] to ride for Frank J. Farrell, [illegible] of his mounts, James R. Brady [illegible] Dolan, and will probably get his [illegible] chance in a day or two. The stable [illegible] to Brady to show in the Flatlands Stakes, but when the barrier [illegible] Boston was asleep and the colt was [illegible] Tom Dolan in the fifth race shortly [illegible] a price. They believed that the colt [illegible] which the superior of his field that Buxton merely had to sit still to win. The bookmakers, however, took all sorts of [illegible] with Dolan, Izzy Hamm, for instance, [illegible] Buxton, even money a place and [illegible] Buxton was clearly rattled when [illegible] for he took Dolan wide on [illegible] to escape a crowding bee and [illegible] allowed the colt to drop so far out of it that he never had a chance to get near the winner. Farrell, Dave Johnson, the Sullivans and the followers of the Cook stable lost a lot of coin on Dolan, with the result that Buxton instantly fell into permanent disfavor. Veal was accused of putting up a very weak finish on Foltonville, a hot favorite in the sixth race, while Troxler's handling of Milford in the last seemed to be anticipated in the ring, as the colt went soaring in the odds after opening the favorite at 2 to 1.

Regarding Miller's ride on Ballot there was still a great deal of comment. While the boy was censured for disobeying orders in taking Ballot to the front in the Annual Champion Stakes there was an opinion expressed by several well posted men to the effect that Trainer Rowe should have followed the old custom of taking up a position in the infield during the running of the big race so that he could personally instruct Miller as to the proper method of piloting the Voyer colt.

"In the old days when long distance races were run," said a veteran horseman, "the trainers used to go to the infield to certain points where their riders knew they could see them. Then it was an easy matter to signal to the boys if they were not following instructions. If Rowe had followed this practice instead of sitting up in the grand stand he might have averted a public disaster. It is asking too much of pinheaded jockeys to ride in long distance races according to their own rattled judgment."

W. A. McKinney and Boots Durnell have parted company. McKinney, who has been acting as the trainer of the Durnell stable all season, decided to quit yesterday. He said that his relations with Durnell were extremely cordial and that he was giving up his job solely for the reason that Boots had only a few horses and did not need him. "Durnell is a good fellow," said McKinney, "and has treated me squarely. He is much abused, for he has always been out to win, and the public knows it. I shall have a few horses of my own in future." Durnell did not show in the paddock all the afternoon, but sat close to Big Tim Sullivan in the grand stand. Several rumors regarding Durnell's future movements were in circulation, but there seemed to be nothing tangible upon which to base them.

Dandelion was in receipt of ten pounds by the scale from Running Water in the Oriental Handicap. John E. Madden said the Hamburg horse was a cinch, while Tom Welsh, who saddled Running Water, said that the mare would win because Dandelion could not go the route. There was heavy betting on both of these starters, the public backing Dandelion down from 9 to 5 to 8 to 5, while the play on the Duryea mare was so strong that she remained steady at 2. There was also a strong play on both Cabochon and Beacon Light at 7 and 8 respectively. Dandelion's time, 2:04 2-5, clipped a whole second from the track record made by Gold Heels when he won the Oriental in 1901. Other winners of this race were Ferona, Dunboyne, Kingston, Euros, English Lady, Pactolus, Lamplighter, Ramapo, Clifford, Dutch Skater, Havoc, Algol, Imp, Charentus, Col. Bill, Charles Elwood, Dainty and Alwin.

The Flatlands Stakes was an open betting affair. The May entry, Please and Marbles, went back from 13 to 5 to 3, while Ella O'Neill was solidly backed at 4. The Squire was well taken at 6, James R. Brady was lowered from 8 to 5 and Magazine was played across the boards at 10, 4 and 2. Previous winners were Prince Lief, Box, Highjinks, Satin Slipper, Montaine, Col. Padden, Lady Holyrood, Lady Albercraft, Letola, Tearess, Hooray and Momentum.

The public set it in on Caller in the steeplechase, backing him down to 3 to 5. But the paddock sharps bet on Gus Straus, who was reduced from 5 to 4. This forced the price against Amanda H. from 13 to 5 up to 9 to 2, the ring losing heavily on the result.

There was a cleanup for the ring in the first race, as thousands of dollars were burned up by Veil, while Jack Atkin, the winner, receded from 7 to 2 to 4. Bat Masterson, King's Daughter and Prince Hamburg were also in much demand three ways. Jack Atkin, who is in fine form just now, gave two pounds by the scale to Veil.

William H. DuBois and his friends won some neat wagers on Smiling Tom in the fifth event, as he was backed from 10 to 8 at the last moment. But the educated money was split up between Tom Dolan and Hyperion II. The latter, with E. Dugan up, caught a heavy play at the outset, as he was backed from 4 to 11 to 5. Tom Dolan, the logical choice, meanwhile had gone up from 8 to 5 to 5 to 2, but at that point the right money began to pour into the ring and at post time Dolan and Hyperion II. were at practically even terms. Alpenmarchen was regarded as a good thing by R. E. Watkins and his followers, as the colt was backed from 20 to 15. Arimo was taken three ways.

Big money was lost on Fultonville in the sixth, as he was hammered down from 8 to 5 to 3 to 10. Rosimiro was also in demand at 4, while Miss Norfolk, Earl's Court and King's Plate were all played through the slates. The books won to the last race, as Milford and Alex Grant burned up a fortune. The winner, Goldfinn was liberally taken, also Rampage, who ran second. Donante, Bolando and Scottsdale were all tipped and backed.

[illegible] E. Madden has nominated six yearlings for the Grand Prix, to be run in France [illegible]

G. Burns and G. Swain were set down for the meeting by the starter.

June Time was ordered scratched out of the fifth race because the filly had raced at the outlawed Jamestown meeting.

Ed Heffner has purchased the three-year-old Okenite for the Belmont stable, price private.

DANDELION WINS ORIENTAL.

Beats the Gaily Ridden Running Water by a Neck.

Gravesend's fall meeting opened under the most favorable conditions yesterday, the attendance being close to the record mark. Seven more records were set and four favorites were defeated. The sensational event of the day was the Oriental Handicap, at a mile and a quarter, in which there were five starters. It was supposed there at the end to be a duel between W. R. Duryea's Running Water, 3 to 1, and P. B. Hitchcock's Dandelion, 4 to 5, the latter getting up in the last jump to win by a neck on the post in 2:04 2-5, a new track record. A majority of the spectators were positive that Running Water could not have lost if Miller, through overcontrolling, had not opened up the fifty drives more in the first stretch. At that point she appeared to be winning easily, but Miller eased off to pacify, dropping her hand, and Dandelion began her in the rebuffing of an old James R. Keene's reflection, 7 to 1, made the pace to the head of the stretch, with Dandelion keeping Running Water practically pinned to the rail on turning home. Then as Reflection quit Miller drew away with Mr. Duryea's gallant mare, only to spoil what seemed a well earned victory. Tokalon, 15 to 1, came a hard drive from Radtke and Imp Beacon Light, 4 to 1, an added starter, half a length for third place.

The Flatlands Stakes for two-year-olds five and a half furlongs was won by F. W. May's Please, who was coupled with Marbles at 3 to 1 favorite. At the start Please went to the front with a great turn of speed and was never headed, winning easily by a length and a half from Magazine, 10 to 1, who near Ella O'Neill, 4 to 1, a nose. The Squire, 4 to 1, was a head back. James R. Brady, backed down to 5, was left at the post.

With Bowlen scratched from the handicap for all ages, at about six furlongs, James R. Keene's Veil was made a hot favorite at 2 to 5. Miller got her off in front after she had been alicked at the post by King's Daughter, but he took her up for some reason and then ran clear across the field, finishing second to Jack Atkin, 4 to 1, who beat her easily by three lengths in 1:08 4-5, two-fifths of a second slower than the track record. Five lengths back Prince Hamburg, 4 to 1, beat Bat Masterson, 3 to 1, by a length, the latter getting a queer ride from E. Dugan.

J. E. Widener's Caller, 3 to 5 favorite, had an easy time winning the steeplechase, at about two miles. Donohue had him in hand as he passed the judges, two lengths in front of J. W. Colt's Gus Straus, backed down a point to 4. Amanda H., 9 to 2, was a poor third. The time was 3:52 3-5.

Tom Dolan, a 2 to 1 favorite, in the fifth race at a mile and a sixteenth, was so badly handled by Buxton that he finished far back in the ruck. The Patchogue Stable's Smiling Tom, 8 to 1, made all the running and won easily by two and a half lengths, in 1:42. It took a hard drive on the part of F. Dugan to get the place with Hyperion II., backed down to 5 to 2, by a nose from Zipango, 10 to 1. Was, who had early speed, was half a length back, apparently short.

In a close finish James R. Keene's Earl's Court, 6 to 1, won the sixth event, for maiden two-year-olds, at five and a half furlongs, by a head from H. P. Whitney's King's Plate, 4 to 1. John Sanford's Fultonville, 13 to 10 favorite, who led from the start, was a head back, due to Nicol's weak finish. The time was 1:08 2-5.

Goldfinn, 4 to 1, except home a winner of the last race, also for maiden two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs, passing the judges two lengths in front of Rampage, backed down to 7, who lasted long enough to beat Milford, 4 to 1, by a neck. The latter was handled in an inferior manner by Troxler, while E. Dugan never got Alex Grant, 3 to 1 favorite, out of the ruck. The time was 1:08. The summaries:

NEW YORK VS. PHILADELPHIA (N. L.).

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16.—With the exception of Chase, not a member of the team which Griffith sent in to represent New York this afternoon batted in the order in which his name appeared on the score card. It looked like a makeshift team, but it was not good enough to beat out the Philadelphias. Both teams played fast ball, but the locals played the scores.

After Conroy had flied to Seybold in the first inning, Elberfeld capped a triple to deep centre, which Oldring manipulated, the Kid getting a three bagger. Chase walked and then stole second, while Plank held the ball in his hand. Plank appeared to be rattled over this combination and supplemented it with a wild pitch, Elberfeld and Chase scoring.

The Philadelphias tied the score in the fourth. After Davis had struck out, Murphy was safe on a wild throw by Moriarty. Bell lost Collins's fly to right in the sun, and Collins was credited with a two bagger. Oldring tripled to left centre, Murphy and Collins counting.

The New Yorks made the winning run in the sixth on Bell's triple and Davis's fumble of Thomas's grounder. Cheshro was very effective after the fourth inning. The score:
