GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK

STATE SENATOR GILCHRIST SEES THE RACING AT JAMAICA.

Makes a Few Pointed Remarks About the Sport, but Declines to Discuss the Extra Session—Record Breaking Crowd Turns Out—Killing With Hordee E.

All the notables of the turf were in the spacious clubhouse at Jamaica yesterday. One of the visitors was State Senator Gilchrist of Brooklyn, who recently voted against the Agnew-Hart bills at Albany. When asked for an interview Senator Gilchrist said:

"I am here to look things over and meet some of my friends. This is a wonderful crowd and everybody seems to be enjoying the sport. I have failed to see any criminals and there are few pickers, as they are called. Racing is a great industry and there is apparently much interest in it. There seems to be perfect order here."

Senator Gilchrist came to the track with his law partner, Judge Nott, and several friends. He declined to discuss the coming special session of the Legislature in any way. In the clubhouse during the afternoon were Foxhall P. Keene, Andrew Miller, F. R. Hitchcock, J. H. Bradford, C. J. Fitzgerald, P. J. Rainey, H. P. Whitney, R. F. Carman, H. K. Knapp, Senator P. H. McCarren, Eugene Wood, Senator W. H. Reynolds, David Gideon, P. T. Wilson, Jas. R. J. Dwyer, Mattie Corbett, Senator Chrystie Sullivan, J. A. Bennet, H. de Courcey Forbes, J. W. Colt, Frederick Johnson, George Smartas and many others.

In the crowd on the lawn were many politicians, actors, police officials and other professional men, all of whom enjoyed the outing. The size of the crowd evidently showed that racing still has a host of friends in spite of the attacks to which the turf has been subjected for the last four months. The track was built to accommodate just such an outpouring, but yesterday was the first time since the plant was opened that the immense grand stand was filled with spectators.

There were 230 layers operating within the enclosure, and it is not stretching the point to say that probably 80 per cent. of them lost money on the day. The talent backed the various choices with both wide open purses and unlimited confidence, so that when four favorites and a second choice ran to form the chalkers were almost wiped out. This success by the public was sufficient proof that races under the jurisdiction and control of the Jockey Club are run pretty much on the square. Not once during the afternoon was there grumbling over bad rides, for all the jockeys apparently did their best. The racing was clean all the way through, and when the day's fun was over the great crowd filed into the trains well satisfied with what had occurred.

There was a world of enthusiasm during the running of the Montague Stakes. Even the small bettors, who could not back Jack Atkin at 13 to 20, wanted to see him win. Atkin is a popular idol just now and is considered a phenomenal race horse. When the layers first quoted 7 to 10 against him it was regarded as an extremely liberal price, so that the Sain colt was soon hammered down to 13 to 20. This caused Restigouche to go back from even to 3 to 2. The excitement was intense as the two horses raced neck and neck up the backstretch and when Restigouche was suddenly pulled up on the far turn because he had come in contact with Jack Atkin's heels there was a great outcry. Then hundreds of curious men rushed toward the stewards' stand to cheer the winner and also inspect the two jockeys.

Bill Daly did some tail rooting during the first race. The Sage of Hartford has insisted for several weeks that his little apprentice, Jimmy Yorke, is a good jockey, but few have taken much stock in the statement. Yorke had the leg up on Personal, backed from 10 to 8, and when the filly was practically left at the post Daly's face was a study. But as Yorke persevered and took the daughter of Kinley Mack completely around the field Daly began to wake up.

"Come on, Jim!" he yelled as he waved his cane above his head. "Come on, boy! You can win yet!" Yorke went to the whip like a veteran and put up such a splendid finish that Personal got the money. Then Daly hobbled down to the judges' stand and was the first to congratulate the little rider. The books were stung by the success of Personal, but they kept a lot of smart money placed on Arionette, backed from 13 to 5 to 2 to 1, and on Havre, lowered from 3 to 13 to 5. P. J. Rainey's Thetis also got a liberal play three ways.

Yorke also rode a clever race on Sir Toddington in the second race, Troublemaker beating him by the length of one's arm. Troublemaker was hammered from 8 to 5 to 6 to 5, the crowd in general backing him as if there was no such thing in the world as a defeat. The Sullivan clan stood to win a chunk on Sir Toddington, as he was played all over the ring at 7. Druid was also backed three ways and so were Alauda and Golf Ball. Corncob was a tip, too, enough small wagers being placed on him to cut his price from 100 to 60. His backers had visions of wealth while he was tincanning out in front for nearly three-quarters of a mile, but after that they did not utter a sound.

Dave Gideon told his friends before the fifth race that his filly Ida D. could not lose. Accordingly there was a play that reduced her odds from evens to 9 to 10, and when she scored the layers were groggy. Mazuma was well taken straight and place at 7 to 2 and 9 to 10, while Oreagna was in much demand across the board.

The hottest tip of the day came in the last race. The paddock sharps handed out Roy Rainey's Horace E. as a real good thing. While the son of Bannockburn, for whom Mr. Rainey paid $25,000 as a two-year-old, won in California last winter in the care of Ed Peters, he had never been successful on the local tracks. Consequently those who had the tip were a trifle wary, because they did not believe that Horace E. could beat such a high class sprinter as Baby Wolf. The latter looked to be the class, even with 126 pounds on his back, and was therefore the favorite, his price receding from 6 to 5 to 7 to 5. He gave twenty-nine pounds by the scale to Horace E., who was opened at 6. Then came a rush all over the ring with all kinds of wagers on Horace E., who was cut to 7 to 2. Oxford, Fleming and Grimaldi were also in demand three ways. Horace E. tincanned all the way and the ring got a severe scorching.

Dr. E. A. A. Grange, for several years the Jockey Club's official veterinary, has resigned to accept the presidency of the Ontario Veterinary College, now under the control of the Provincial Government. Dr. Grange's successor is Dr. Saylor of Glens Falls.

At a sale of racehorses in training at Jamaica yesterday these owned by James R. Keene were disposed of: Voodoo, to the Beverwyck Stables for $2,500; Besom, to J. C. Goode for $2,100; St. Withold, to F. M. Taylor for $1,900; Mystify, to J. S. McDonald for $1,500; Opal, to G. F. Johnson for $1,750; Sandal, to H. De C. Forbes for $800; Apron, to G. H. Coyle for $750, and Primrose League, to G. Heard for $650. From Jack Joyner's string Distract was knocked down to Max Hirsch for $900; Sparkler to J. W. Colt for $500, and Sequence to Capt. W. M. Roberts for $150. R. Angerola's Greeno went to C. R. Fleischmann for $1,450 and Right and True to L. D. Walters for $400. William Easton was the auctioneer, as usual, and a large crowd attended.

HAVENS'S FAST SPRINT.

Boys High Dash Man Covers 100 Yards in 10 1-5 Seconds.

The Seniors won the Boys High interclass games at Commercial Field yeserday afternoon. The feature of the meet was the 100 yard dash, which Val Havens won in the exceptionally good time of 10 1-5 seconds. Havens made this same time on two occasions several years ago, but of late he had not been running in very good form.

Havens also won the individual point trophy with 28 points. He got first place in the 120 yards high hurdles, 220 yards low hurdles, the broad jump and the discus throw, as well as in the hundred, and second place in the high jump.

The Senior relay team was beaten out by the Sophomores by a few inches.

JACK ATKIN WINS MONTAGUE

CHEERED BY 30,000 SPECTATORS AS HE BREEZES HOME.

Trance Shows Great Speed in Rosedale Stakes—Personal, Troublemaker, Ida D. and Horace E. Also Score at Jamaica—Four Favorites Are Successful.

The largest crowd ever seen at the Jamaica racetrack enthused over some excellent sport yesterday afternoon. It was estimated by the Pinkertons who handled the turnstiles that close to 30,000 spectators were on hand when the horses were called to the post for the first event. The field enclosure was packed to the suffocation point while the huge grand stand was completely filled while the races were under way. The lawn was overrun and the clubhouse was thronged. Despite a chilly wind that blew in from the bay and a sudden rain squall the crowd did not find much fault with the weather conditions. The track was dead, but the horses ran close to public form, four favorites, a second choice and a good thing going over the plate, much to the distress of the layers.

There were only two starters in the Montague Stakes, weight for age, one mile and a sixteenth. Barney Schrieber's great Sain four-year-old, Jack Atkin, was made a 13 to 20 favorite over James R. Keene's Commando three-year-old, Restigouche. They were off to a good start, E. Dugan setting the pace with Jack Atkin, who had a small margin in his favor until the middle of the far turn was reached. Then, it seems, Atkin swerved out from the rail a trifle and Restigouche touched the Sain colt's hind feet in such a way that Notter had to pull up Mr. Keene's racer with a quick jerk to escape a fall. In a jiffy Jack Atkin rushed away from his antagonist and coming into the homestretch he increased his lead so that he breezed past the judges with five lengths to spare in 1 48 2-5. Notter went before the stewards with a protest of foul, which was promptly turned down.

That George Odom made no mistake when he purchased Trance, a fleet filly by Ben Brush—Fair Vision, from H. T. Griffin the other day, was clearly shown when she ran off with the Rosedale Stakes for two-year-old fillies, four and a half furlongs. Trance closed an equal favorite with H. P. Whitney's Top Note, by Hamburg—Sister Mary, at 11 to 10. When the barrier went up Trance rushed out with a terrific burst of speed and had such a big lead as she swept around the turn that the result was no longer in doubt when she hit the head of the stretch. She was galloping at the end with eight lengths over Top Note, running the distance in 0:54 1-5, which was remarkably fast considering the going. W. F. Schulte's Gliding Belle, by Belle's Commoner—Gliding By, a 60 to 1 shot, ran third, four lengths back, while S. C. Hildreth's Instant, by Sombrero—Water Girl, backed down to 7, quit opposite the field stand and finished a bad last.

H. P. Whitney's Baby Wolf, with 126 pounds, was a 7 to 5 favorite in the handicap at five and a half furlongs, but after racing neck and neck for nearly a quarter of a mile with Roy A. Rainey's Horace E., backed from 6 to 7 to 2, the latter drew away with tremendous speed and rolled home a winner by six lengths in 1:07. Baby Wolf held the others safe at all stages and took the place by two and a half lengths from J. A. Wernberg's Grimaldi, 7 to 1, who, in turn, nosed Samuel Emery's Blue Heron, 15 to 1, out of third money. R. F. Carman's Fleming, 7 to 1, was close up.

Although she was practically left at the post, James McLaughlin's Kinley Mack filly Personal, backed down to 8, ran a wonderful race under a fine ride by Bill Daly's apprentice, Jim Yorke, and won the first race, for two-year-olds, five furlongs, in a drive by a length and a half. L. A. Cella's Arionette, 2 to 1 favorite, who made the pace to the last sixteenth pole, weakened, but managed to take the place by three parts of a length from H. T. Griffin's Havre, 13 to 5, who also got the worst of a bad start. The time was 1:01 3-5.

It took a terrific drive on the part of Notter to win the second race, a selling affair at a mile and a sixteenth, with E. R. Bradley's Troublemaker, 6 to 5 favorite. E. L. Norton's Corncob, a 60 to 1 shot, made the running for nearly three-quarters of a mile. Then Druid, 10 to 1, and Troublemaker moved up, but at the same moment Yorke challenged at the head of the stretch with Larry Mulligan's Sir Toddington, 7 to 1. The latter was under a fierce drive all through the stretch, but he swerved at the sixteenth pole and Troublemaker got up in time to beat him a head on the post in 1:49 3-5. Sir Toddington took the measure of Druid by three parts of a length for the place, with Corncob half a length back.

David Gideon's Ida D., backed down to 9 to 10, made all the pace in the fifth race, for three-year-olds, five and a half furlongs, but Dugan had to shake her up in the last furlong to win handily by a length and a half from J. A. Bennet's Oreagna, 6 to 1. The latter was under a sharp drive to beat H. L. Lee's Mazuma, 7 to 2, by three parts of a length for the place. The time was 1:08 2-5.

E. Dugan rode two winners and two seconds, while Notter, Yorke and McCarthy also did good work in the saddle. The summaries:

FIELD DAY AT VASSAR.

Helen Clarke, '09, Breaks a Record in the Running High Jump.

POUGHKEEPSIE, May 9.—Helen Dorothy Clarke of Boston, one of the prettiest and most popular girls in the junior class, made a Vassar College record this afternoon in the running high jump in the field day games. She cleared 4 feet 2½ inches. The press committee said Miss Clarke's jumping was "the prettiest feature of the programme and she was as graceful and light as a deer."

The record broken, 4 feet 2½ inches, was made by Helen C. Babson of Gloucester, Mass., in 1905. Miss Babson, now a member of the Vassar faculty, was on the field. The instant Miss Clarke's achievement was announced the former record holder ran across the field, pulling off her sweater as she ran. She put it on the new victor. It is a gray sweater with a large pink V, such as only holders of athletic records are permitted to wear at Vassar. The act was the signal for great demonstration and a hundred wildly enthusiastic classmates of Miss Clarke hugged and kissed her.

The sophomore class scored the greatest number of points, 32 1-3. The juniors stood next with 30 2-3. The seniors made a poorer showing with only 28 2-3 points. The freshmen made 16 1-3 points.
