COMMUNITY CHURCH

The enthusiasm that attended the starting of the Auto contest is growing. The Missionary Maids in the Hudson are still in the lead. A little indisposition on the part of the Ford has put it in fourth place.

Eight new members were voted into membership at the morning worship. In the evening the Pilgrim Boys made their first appearance. They will sing at one service a month hereafter. Their number last Sunday was very nicely done and was appreciated.

Next Sunday morning the pastor's theme will be, "Be Still and Know That I Am God."

The singing at the evening service is improving right along. Our Christmas program includes a tree for the Friday night before Christmas and appropriate services on the Sunday of the 24th.

Christmas will mean more to you if it is kept in a Christian way. Plan to give, not get. Give yourself to that which is more Christlike.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas, the Almighty and Supreme Ruler of Heaven and earth has seen fit to call from this earthly habitation the beloved mother-in-law (Mrs. Monahan) of our beloved brother, C. W. Thayer, be it resolved that we, the entire membership of this Laurel Lodge, No. 186, extend our sincere, heartfelt sympathy to our beloved brother in this sad hour of bereavement.

Be it further resolved, that a copy be sent to Brother Thayer, a copy spread upon the minutes of this meeting, and a copy sent to the St. Johns Review for publication.

JAMES JOHN HIGH SCHOOL

Tryouts for the Senior class play resulted in the selection of the following cast: Ruth Weiss, Lucy White; Amelia Siegenthaler, Eggie; Madge McMillan, The Dowager; Ruby Walker, Lady Gilding; Audrey Young, Miss Goodwillie; Ellsworth Rakes, The Professor; James Tormey, Dr. Coens; Lyle Townsend, Sir George Gilding; Wendell Klostler, Dr. Yellowleaves; Eugene Gannon, Pete; Earl Tormey, Henders. The comedy chosen is one of Barrie's, "The Professor's Love Story."

The semi-annual issue of the Tumulun is now in process of preparation. Material for its pages provided by the senior staff is being gathered. Any one about the building is apt to be taken as a subject for a joke or a kodak snap.

At a special assembly on Tuesday the school celebrated the close of our successful football season. The victory over The Dalles on Thanksgiving day gave additional zest to the occasion and the students much enjoyed the accounts of the trip, the game and the turkey dinner following. They had much to say of the hospitable spirit of The Dalles boys.

In keeping with their general spirit of good-will and friendly co-operation, the student body voted to each member of the faculty a pin of the newly adopted design, the "R" standing for the name of Roosevelt. President Rakes, arraigning th faculty in due order upon the stage, seemed about to pronounce dire judgment, but instead made a neat speech of appreciation for their services to the school in many capacities and then presented their reward. The faculty is proud of the honor accorded them.

In the series of inter-class games of girls' basketball, the first contests have resulted in bringing victory to the seventh and third terms, they having defeated the fifth and second terms respectively by scores of 18 to 4 and 21 to 5. Amanda Steele Lind as coach has developed some snappy playing.

"The Gypsy Rover," now in process of rehearsal, promises to be one of the most tuneful and colorful operettas ever put on by the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs. Two nights are reserved for its presentation, December 15th and 16th. Those having parts of the principals are Madeline Brown, Earle Tormey, Fred Robertson, Wm. Fox, Margaret Holbrook, Katherine McChesney, Maxwell Adams, Ruth Weiss and Thurman Hart.

By means of unique cards of invitation the football boys have been bidden to a banquet tendered by the senior class on Saturday evening, Dec. 9. Food fit for the gridiron kings and music and speeches to please their fans are assured.

Basketball practice is opening up with Coach Campbell to put the boys into winning trim.

You can wear my dress pants to any old dance. $3.85 up. ROGERS.

GLEANERS SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS HAVE BOOK PARTY

The Gleaners Sunday school class of Pioneer Methodist Sunday school entertained their husbands and friends with a merry party on Friday evening in the church parlors. Each guest was invited to represent a book and many clever and original representations were presented. Mrs. Myrtle Weeks, wearing a map of the world thickly sprinkled with I's represented the "Eyes of the World." Mrs. L. F. Clark, wearing a full blown rose was "Rose in Bloom." Mrs. L. E. Rose, also wearing a bouquet represented that book. Mrs. Jones, in a green costume decorated with cork daddy long legs, represented the book by that name as also did Mr. Ruhlen, whose extreme height made him distinguishable as a real Daddy Long Legs. Mrs. E. Callison and Mrs. E. F. Merritt each gaily decorated, represented "My Lady of the Decoration." Mrs. Thompson, in a girlish hat and dress, carrying the inevitable pink parasol, was "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm." Mrs. W. E. Thompson, wearing the printed word "Ben" opposite a picture of a girl, was "Ben Hur." W. E. Thompson, carrying a common burr, by opening his hand, striking his chest and pointing to his head, enacted "The Opening of a Chestnut Burr." Dr. F. N. Sandifur, wearing the word, "Adam," and also a coral bead, represented "Adam Bede." Mrs. D. E. Deemer, with a bow of lavender and a piece of lace was "Lavender and Old Lace." D. E. Deemer, carrying a picture book in which a W had been placed before the little red hen, and also carrying a night cap sprinkled with flour, was "When Knighthood Was in Flower." Mrs. Walcott, wearing a bow of orange ribbon, represented that book and her husband in ordinary clothes was "Simply Me." E. A. Blew, seated on a box, represented "The Man on the Box," and Mrs. Blew, as a cook was just an ordinary cook book. Rev. W. E. Kloster, wearing his long tailed coat and carrying a grip, was "The Sky Pilot," and Mrs. Kloster, with a much decorated bonnet, represented the cantata, "The Minister's Wife's New Bonnet." Mrs. F. D. Hendershott, with two flags in her hair, was "Under Two Flags." L. E. Rose, carrying an unlighted lantern was "The Light That Failed." Mrs. B. A. Olson, decorated with numerals, represented the Book of Numbers from the Bible. A program included readings by Miss Leola Ramsden; violin solos by John Oliver accompanied on the piano by Mrs. C. Harold Palmer, and vocal solos by Miss Lola Murphy accompanied by Mrs. Bernice McCall. Refreshments were served.

Cheap Insurance

Cheapness is relative. Adulterated food, even if bought at a "bargain" may impair health. Inferior medicine, irrespective of the price, is a poor investment. Insurance which does not insure is one of the most costly things on earth, though its promoters claim to sell it "at cost". Stock insurance may be more expensive to buy but it is cheaper to hold.

Mushrooms are good to eat while toadstools are poisonous, yet they look so much alike that it takes an expert to tell the difference.

Stock Insurance Is The Only Sound Insurance.

REV. H. AUGUST HUNDERUP
EVANGELIST BEGINS SERIES AT ST. JOHNS CHURCH

A two weeks' series of Evangelistic meetings will be held at the St. Johns Evangelical church corner Ivanhoe and West John streets, beginning next Sunday morning, under the leadership of The Rev. Hunderup is a man trained in Evangelism and aided by a valuable experience. He was, for a time, associated with the Bronghers of Los Angeles, in an evangelistic effort, has traveled with a number of the prominent evangelistic teams, besides having held many successful meetings under his own supervision. He is a good singer, and has had much experience with evangelistic teams in leading singing. He makes considerable use of negro spiritual melodies of the south. He is decidedly humorous. Preaches straight gospel in a forceful manner, but without prejudicing any one. He is a whirlwind speaker. Hearing him once folks will want to hear him again. Not exactly sensational, yet different. Intensely earnest and sincere; does nothing simply for show. Purpose characterize his whole work. He comes to the St. Johns church direct from a most successful series of meetings just concluded at the Arleta Baptist and Wichita churches.

Preparations have been going on this week for the series of services now contemplated. Many week-day meetings for Christian instruction and prayer have been conducted which have been highly beneficial. Much hope is being expressed that great good will be accomplished for the church and the community.

It is expected that choir and congregational singing will be one of the important features of the meetings. Mr. Hunderup brings his own hymn books and directs his own singing.

Special care will be given to the seating, heating and ventilating of the building, and the public may be assured of their personal comfort, pleasure and profit in attending the meetings. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Services will begin promptly at 7:30 each evening.

H. H. FARNHAM, Pastor.

PEOPLE who are intimately acquainted with physicians know that charges are made very low to those whose resources are limited and that much free service is given those in need.

It is in much the same spirit that the responsible funeral director serves the family whose income is limited.

Where the funeral arrangements are left largely to his judgment it is common practice to provide suitable accessories that will not run to great expense, and to disregard the item of overhead and profit in making his charges. How much free service he gives "without letting the right hand know what the left hand doeth" only those very close to him understand.

Funeral directors welcome the co-operation of the public in discouraging needless expense for the sake of show.
