R. H. Macy & Co.'s Attractions Are Their Low Prices.

Macy's

B'way at 6th Av. 34th to 35th St.

We do not keep open evenings, nor will we between now and Christmas. We could sell many extra thousands by doing so—but it would be at the physical expense of our employes.

Try to come before twelve o'clock. You can see more and see easier in the forenoon than in the afternoon. If you wish to take purchases from several departments with you ask for Blue Transfer Card.

Christmas Shopping at the Zenith

Look In at Macy's

We don't think any other store in America presents such a scene of animation as this one does. Every aisle crowded; lines of customers five and six deep about many counters that hold merchandise of a distinctive Christmasy flavor. Watch the crowds—study them. The festival spirit dominates. In spite of their mass and density there is no nervousness or breathlessness. Each customer retains his or her poise. It's this exquisite balance that permits a business of such magnitude to move along so smoothly and quietly. The mingling of many voices is softened into a droning hum—a monotone—that neither jars nor distracts.

These are the days that test a store like this. The merchandise, the varieties, the service, the prices—if they were wrong at any point—you'd find it out quickly. But as the Holiday throngs rise and surge, the system in control proves equal to every emergency. The mental and material machinery, in the main, goes on as accurately as a chronometer.

Men's Fancy Waistcoats

Worth up to $4.00; Choice....$1.69

Fifth Floor.

You might brain-strain a whole day without hitting on a present for a man that would please him better than one of these Fancy Waistcoats. They are made of flannels and cotton fabrics highly mercerized—light and dark gray and neat tinted figures on black. A maker wished to clean up. That's why these Waistcoats, made to sell at $2.50, $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00, may be had at $1.69.

$80 VALUE FOR $25

If you select from the stock of Geo. H. Hoyt & Co. of 36 West 34th St., displayed on our second floor. This winter's Suitings and Overcoatings. Sale ends Friday. Garments completed for Christmas.

ARNHEIM

Broadway & Ninth St.

To the lady who plays Santa Claus to a man.

Our three stores have distinct advantages these days.

Every one of our hundreds of things suitable for men's and boys' Xmas gifts, were made primarily to sell to men for their own use—there are none of the things fond husbands sneak into the back of bureau drawers.

Much of our merchandise on the other hand is not especially suitable for Xmas gifts, and as a result the facilities of our stores are not overcrowded. Every one has time to be prompt and courteous.

Our new department of Leather Goods and Novelties is full of attractive features—new ideas in shirt cases, shaving mirrors, fitted dressing cases, writing portfolios, and odd things in metal, all at prices less than those asked by exclusive specialists.

Of course "everything men and boys wear" includes quantities of such things as sweaters, hockey shoes, gloves, neckwear, fancy waistcoats, silk hosiery and knitted silk mufflers—all most acceptable as gifts.

ROGERS PEET & COMPANY.

Three Broadway Stores,

at Warren st. at 13th st. at 34th st.

Boys' Overcoats

The Military Style of Overcoat for Boys is the thing. The Boy, himself, would be pleased with one for Christmas.

The sizes are from 10 to 17 years and the prices are $12 & $15.

They are in handsome gray Cheviot effects, and in Style they are far ahead of any other coats we know.

We've everything in Furnishings for the Boys as well.

DUSTIN FARNUM IN CAMEO KIRBY
The Ideal Christmas Play
TRIBUNE—"Here is as gentle a play as ever sunned itself in the favor of a public. . . . a pretty play for the holidays. The ladies may compel it to run till Summer."
WORLD—"The most play-proof first-nighter cannot help enjoying it."
HERALD—"The comedy convulses the audience."
SUN—"Affords Mr. Farnum an opportunity for the romantic kind of acting to which he so well adapts himself. The play is a success."
TIMES—"So long as Tarkington and Wilson write romance will not die. Dustin Farnum has the definite charm of a romantic personality, and plays with ingratiating smile, sweeping gesture and grace of manner."
PRESS—"'Cameo Kirby' is the kind of chap who turns the heads of the ladies. The play upholds the reputation of the writers who gave us 'The Man From Home.'"
JOURNAL OF COMMERCE—"'Cameo Kirby' is that rare thing—good entertainment."
COMMERCIAL—"One of the best Southern plays ever produced in the North. Safe for a run."
EVENING JOURNAL—"If you have a soft spot in your heart for the costume drama well acted indulge yourself by going to see 'Cameo Kirby.'"
EVENING TELEGRAM—"An absorbing and enjoyable story of the golden days of the old Mississippi."
MISS MEIGHAN in THE GLOBE—"As 'Cameo Kirby' Dustin Farnum is picturesque and graceful. He looks unvaryingly beautiful and his dazzling smile is brilliantly effective."
POST—"Dustin Farnum is well suited. There is a sympathetic charm in his acting."
EVENING SUN—"'Cameo Kirby' is genial and lovable. Farnum imbues the role with the charm of his personality."
MAIL—"'Cameo Kirby' has won the love of the heroine and the entire approval of the audience."
