The Messrs. Shubert Announce

THE CITY

CLYDE FITCH'S GREATEST PLAY

No Such Scenes of Turmoil and Excitement Have Ever Taken Place in an American Theatre as Occurred on the Opening Night of "The City" at the Lyric.

ALMOST LIKE ELECTION RIOT OR CIVIL WAR.

HERALD—Audience shouted for the leading players.

DE FOE, WORLD—Cries of women heard, then din of applause. Play written with wonderful power. The most daring and most successful Clyde Fitch work.

KLAUBER, TIMES—Reveals Clyde Fitch at his very best. Climax of "The City" has terrific power. A scene which for sheer power, intensity and cumulative effect has been seldom excelled.

ARTHUR WARREN, TRIBUNE—The applause of hands was drowned in the tremendous cheering that swept from orchestra to balcony. The audience exhausted itself with cheering. The play is as strong as a raging bull, an elephant in passion and a hungry tiger.

SUN—A long time since any such scenes of enthusiasm have been enacted in any Broadway theatre. There were ten, twelve, fifteen, eight as many curtain calls as you like to say. Men and women stood up and cheered and waved their hands and handkerchiefs until they were tired.

GARRISON, PRESS—Loaded to the muzzle with thrills.

EVENING TELEGRAM—The greatest play that Clyde Fitch wrote.

CHARLES DARNTON, EVE. WORLD—Scores a tremendous sensation. It is in fact a hotbed of sensation.

JOSEPHINE NEIGHAN, EVENING GLOBE—The play will draw crowded houses for months to come.

Telephone 44 Bryant. EVENINGS AT 8:15. HACKETT Thea., 42d, W. of B'way. Matinees Thursday and Saturday at 2:15.

THE IDEAL CHRISTMAS PLAY

DUSTIN FARNUM

(Liebler & Co., Managers)

In a New Romantic Play of Old Louisiana.

TRIBUNE—"Here is as gentle a play as ever sunned itself in the favor of a public. . . . a pretty play for the holidays. The ladies may compel it to run till summer."

WORLD—"The most play-proof first-nighter cannot help enjoying it."

HERALD—"The comedy convulses the audience."

SUN—"Affords Mr. Farnum an opportunity for the romantic kind of acting to which he so well adapts himself. The play is a success."

TIMES—"So long as Tarkington and Wilson write, romance will not die. Dustin Farnum has the delicate charm of a romantic personality, and plays with ingratiating smile, sweeping gesture and grace of manner."

PRESS—"'Cameo Kirby' is the kind of a chap who turns the heads of the ladies. The play upholds the reputation of the writers who gave us 'The Man From Home.'"

JOURNAL OF COMMERCE—"'Cameo Kirby' is that rare thing—good entertainment."

CAMEO KIRBY

By Booth Tarkington & Harry Leon Wilson, Authors of "The Man From Home."

COMMERCIAL—"One of the best Southern plays ever produced in the North. Safe for a run."

EVENING JOURNAL—"If you have a soft spot in your heart for the costume drama well acted, indulge yourself by going to see 'Cameo Kirby.'"

EVENING TELEGRAM—"An absorbing and enjoyable story of the golden days of the old Mississippi."

MISS MEIGHAN in THE GLOBE—"As 'Cameo Kirby' Dustin Farnum is picturesque and graceful. He looks unvaryingly beautiful and his dazzling smile is brilliantly effective."

POST—"Dustin Farnum is well suited. There is a sympathetic charm in his acting."

EVENING SUN—"'Cameo Kirby' is genial and lovable. Farnum imbues the role with the charm of his personality."

HAIL—"'Cameo Kirby' has won the love of the heroine and the entire approval of the audience."
