VICTORY OF MARIETTA OLLY New International Shubert Star Creates a Sensation in Henry Bernstein's Great Paris and Berlin Success, THE WHIRLWIND Public and Press Proclaim Her Preeminence.

ARTHUR WARREN, "TRIBUNE": "Olly is an actress of amazing power and variety. The play suited her. Her part suited her. The supporting company suited her. The occasion was one that will be long remembered by those who had the good fortune to witness the performance. She is an actress that all New York should see. Her technique is as wonderful as her natural power. She is a great woman, greatly trained."

LOUIS DE FOE, "WORLD": "Olly carried her audience with her from the moment she uttered her first sentence and her debut was a distinct success. She is a temperamental creature, who reminds you of a bundle of live electric wires."

J. RANSEN TOWSE, "EVENING POST": "Not only an actress of uncommon ability, but also an artist of rare finish. Won most fervid applause. An actress of the first class. Most welcome addition to the English stage."

CHARLES DARNTON, "EVENING WORLD": "New York is indebted to the Messrs. Shubert for bringing to the American stage an actress of sincerity, intelligence, excellent training and unmistakable dramatic power. Don't be afraid to reap the whirlwind—it's worth the stake you put down at the box office."

ACTON DAVIES, "EVENING SUN": "An actress who has grace, power and ability."

W. HAMPE, "AMERICAN": "Olly's triumph complete. Holds audience at Daly's spellbound."

ADOLPH KLAUBER, "TIMES": "A valuable addition to the list of female stars."

"PRESS": "Her voice, her technique and her sincerity at all times held the audience."

ALAN DALE: "An actress distinctly to be reckoned with."

"NEW YORK HERALD": "Aroused the audience to applause and earned the numerous curtain calls that were demanded."
