Tangeman, 97, 19—78; J. W. Gambach, 91, 11—82; H. C. Folger, 91, 10—81.

G. Fye Telham, chairman of the New York A. C. shooting committee and a noted amateur at the game, arrived here yesterday to take the driver and putter yesterday in the cup in the thirty-six hole medal play handicap at the Apawamis Club, the donors being members of the New York Athletic Club. [illegible] Fox Hollow, [illegible] Hill Field Club, [illegible] Edward Murray, ex-judge Nickels of Trenton, Gen. Wilder, Senator Joseph H. Freilinghuysen, Oliver H. Brown, Congressman Hinshelwood, Gov. John Franklin Fort and Blair Swell.

[illegible] Hill Field Club yesterday competed both morning and afternoon. There were separate medal handicaps with prizes and a special prize for the person making the best gross score of the thirty-six holes. This was won by Lloyd Spencer, with 81, 81—162. A handicap against bogey was won by F. Allsopp, who finished eighteen in the A division. H. W. Erler, [illegible] Dishon one down. The [illegible] medal play events were:

[illegible] New Jersey had [illegible] season at the Deal Golf [illegible] yesterday. The principal contest was a thirty-six hole medal play handicap for a cup presented by George W. Young. Seventy tried for the trophy and most play off under a local rule meant to prevent a big handicap man getting off with a prize too easily that all cards less than 150 net counted as one total. The summaries of best cards:

All Day Handicap—John King, 213, 60—152; A. C. Turner, 185, 30—155; W. H. Tavener, 190, 35—156; F. C. Hartford, 188, 30—158; W. R. Dalrymple, 185, 26—159; J. F. M. Byrne, 188, 28—159; W. F. Finn, 198, 39—159.

Winthrop Sayer won the Dr. Wells memorial cup on the links of the Englewood Country Club yesterday with a card of 81, 12—69. This is a perpetual trophy and the winner in addition to having his name engraved on the cup receives a miniature as his personal property. In the eighteen hole medal play handicap for class A golfers Sayer also led, while Dr. L. W. Callan came next with 77, 4—71. Dr. G. T. Hamlin's 93, 20—69 won in the B class. E. Kleybolte getting second with 98, 27—71. There was also a four ball competition under handicap conditions, which was won by H. V. Keep and Dr. Hamlin with 78, 10—68. J. C. Lee and A. S. Ridley got second prizes with 82, 11—72. The final for the club championship was postponed until next Saturday.

It was Otis L. Williams's day at the Richmond Country Club yesterday, for he scored in two of the Independence Day events. He had two cups to fill at the dinner and had a light foot for the dancing that closed the holiday celebrations. The events and winners:

Class A, Best net, C. A. Bliss, 85, 15—80, and W. A. Hamilton, 91, 11—80; best gross score prize, Otis L. Williams, 85, 5—80.

HARLEM CREW COMES UP WELL.

Junior Eights Event at Philadelphia Won by Two Feet Only.

PHILADELPHIA, July 4.—The People's regatta, held on the Schuylkill to-day was productive of many exciting contests. The senior eight oared event was won by the Vespers by a length, after a great struggle. It was a fight from start to finish.

The junior eight was the most exciting contest of the day, only two feet separating the winner from second, and it came close to being a dead heat. Penn barge looked to have a sure thing of this race at first, but soon after the trolley bridge was reached Harlem came up rowing strong, and would not be denied.

Inch by inch they pulled up on the leaders and they passed them at the island. But the struggle did not end there and until the finish line was crossed it was anybody's race. The summaries:

Senior Single Sculls—Won by C. F. Gordon, Vesper Boat Club; H. D. Mann, New York Athletic Club, second; Fred Shepherd, Harlem Rowing Club, third. Time, 7 minutes 24 seconds.

Junior Light Oared Shells—Won by Harlem Rowing Club, with J. J. Lyons, bow; H. A. Hansen, 2; J. Kelly, 3; F. Bannan, 4; M. F. Brody, stroke; J. Jones, 5; W. Quinn, 6; J. O'Neil, stroke. Pennsylvania Barge Club, second; Crescent Boat Club, third. Time, 6 minutes 2 seconds.

Junior Single Sculls—Won by Ernest F. Smith, Penn Boat Club, second, a dead heat between Lindley Jones, Jr., Penn Barge; Barge and Quinn, Pennsylvania Barge. J. Hughes, Harlem Rowing Club, fourth. Time, first, 7 minutes 5 seconds.

Junior Double Sculls—Won by Harlem Rowing Club, with Fred Shepherd, stroke, and Fred Lewis, bo. Crescent Boat Club, second. Time, 6 minutes 9 seconds.

Junior Four Oared Gigs—Won by Pennsylvania Barge, Fairmount Rowing Club, second; Arundel Boat Club, third.

Senior Centipede—Won by Nassau Boat Club, New York, W. A. Kohler, bow; E. Stettig, 2; H. Stevens, 3; G. B. Howard, stroke. West Philadelphia Boat Club, second. Time, 6 minutes 51 seconds.

Intermediate Double Sculls—Won by Ariel Rowing Club of Baltimore, West Philadelphia Boat Club, second. Vesper Boat Club, third. Time, 7 minutes 18 2-5 seconds.

Intermediate Single Sculls—Won by Earnest Smith, Union Boat Club, Boston; G. T. Lewis, Ariel Rowing Club, Baltimore, second. J. E. Neville, Philadelphia Barge Club, third. Time, 7 minutes 45 seconds.

Junior Double Sculls—Won by New Rochelle Rowing Club, Edward P. Banker, bow; J. A. Anderson, stroke. Penn Barge Club, second. West Philadelphia Boat Club, third. Time, 7 minutes 9 seconds.

Intermediate Four Oared Gig—Won by University Barge Club, Fairmount Rowing Association, second; Ariel Rowing Club, Baltimore, third. Time, 7 minutes 6 2-5 seconds.

Senior Eight Oared Shells—Won by Vesper Boat Club, Nassau Boat Club, New York, second, with W. A. Kohler, bow; C. B. Hayward, 2; George Covert, 3; George Howell, 4; Charles Cool, 5; E. Stettig, 6; H. Stivers, 7; Alex Frazer, stroke; T. F. Russell, coxswain. Detroit Boat Club, third. Time, 6 minutes 25 2-5 seconds.

ROUGH WATER ON THE CHARLES.

Regatta Under Difficulties—New York Oarsmen Place.

BOSTON, July 4.—Choppy water and a heavy wind raised havoc with the contestants in the twenty-fourth annual regatta of the New England Rowing Association, held on the Charles River basin to-day. After holding five races in the morning Referee McGrath decided to postpone the races until 3 o'clock. When this time arrived the waters were just as choppy, but the committee decided to hold them.

A race which brought cheers from the lookers on was the senior singles. Carey Faulkner led easily the whole distance. The real race was between Evefett Pope, the veteran oarsman from the B. A. A. and I. J. Emery of New York for second place. Pope won by a stroke.

Fast time was impossible, most of the oarsmen having all they could do to keep from swamping. The Waltham Canoe Club war canoe sank about 500 yards from the finish. The only craft to weather the going were the navy barges of the United States ships North Dakota and Vermont. This was an exciting race and was won by the Vermont boys.

In the novice singles William Faulkner of the Riversides was the winner, with A. A. Pillor of the Metropolitan R. C. of New York second. Frank Bagge of the Metropolitan was third in the junior single. The Metropolitan R. C. fours won the intermediate and junior races.

REALIZATION FOR J. R. KEENE

SWEEP WINS RICH STAKES IN A ROMP AT THE BAY.

Suffragist, a Stable Mate, Runs Second and Jockey Club's Vice-Chairman Takes Down $12,500—Belmont's Footprint Wins Double Event From Meridian.

James R. Keene's Sweep, by Ben Brush—Pink Domino, galloped off with the Lawrence Realization, for three-year-olds, one mile and five furlongs, at Sheepshead Bay yesterday afternoon, and as his stable mate Suffragist, r. Yoter—Noonday, ran second, $12,500 was added to Mr. Keene's winnings for the season and placed him at the head of the list. The Keene entry was quoted at 1 to 100. There were only three starters—Cassidy Woodford sending Hindoo Star, a son of Star Shoot—Sister to Hindoocraft, after the short end of the purse. Notter rode Sweep and made all the running with him. His victory was so hollow that the crowd manifested no excitement. At the end Sweep, under wraps, was half a dozen lengths in front of Suffragist, who had the same advantage over Hindoo Star. The race was run in 2:53.

August Belmont was on hand to see his magnificent colt Footprint, by Rock Sand—Fetish, capture the second part of the Double Event, for two-year-olds, six furlongs, Futurity course. Because Footprint picked up 130 pounds the paddock sharps did not believe he could defeat R. T. Wilson Jr.'s Naushon, by Yankee—Royal Gun, under the same burden. In fact Naushon was regarded as a sure winner by the smart set and was sent to the post a hot even money favorite. C. L. Harrison's Meridian, a fine colt by Broomstick—Sue Smith, was played to beat him, but strange to say Footprint was so lightly regarded that he went up to 6, the same price quoted against S. C. Hildreth's Novelty, by Kingston—Curiosity.

Shilling was sufficiently alert at the post to break in front with Novelty, who set a fast pace for Naushon, half a length back, to the bend in the track. Then Novelty blew up and Naushon tired, whereupon Archibald promptly came from behind with Footprint, attended by Meridian. A furlong from the wire the race was in doubt, but with lion hearted courage Mr. Belmont's colt finally drew out, to win rather easily by two lengths in 1:11, two-fifths of a second slower than Sewell's track record. In a vigorous drive for the place Meridian beat Naushon a neck, while Novelty was a length and a half out of the money. Footprint's share of the stakes was about $3,200, and the former owner, Rose, Russell, Victorious, Corduroy, Hornpipe, Vesuvian, Handspring, Ornament, Hamburg, Jean Beraud, Mesmerist, Elkhorn, Whitechapel, Conjurer, Veto, Ironsides, Water Pearl, Tamina, Sir Martin and Lovetie.

One of the best finishes ever seen at the Bay was provided by the handicap at a mile and a furlong. Mr. Belmont's Prisoniller and Field Marshal, coupled at 7 to 10, were unplaced, but in a fierce drive George Odom's Nimbus, 5 to 1, got the verdict by several inches from James Griffin's Czar, 4 to 1. A head out of the place was F. A. Forsythe's Dorante, 15 to 1, who had a neck over the Osceola Stable's Lucas Chief, 15 to 1. The time was 1:52 4-5.

In the royal finish S. C. Hildreth's Restigouche, 6 to 5, won the handicap at six and a half furlongs, main track, by a nostril. James R. Keene's Melisande set the pace to the head of the stretch, where Restigouche wore her down and made her quit. Then George Odom's Prince Gal, 15 to 1, under a great ride by McGee, closed with a rush and finished third, but the sixteenth pole he overhauled Restigouche. Shilling went to the whip at that juncture and it was a terrific drive to the wire, where Restigouche got the verdict by the smallest of margins in 1:19 2-5. Prince Gal, who was in receipt of eight pounds from Restigouche, had two and a half lengths over it. R. Furyes's Dreamer, 5 to 1, Melisande was five lengths away, badly beaten.

A superb ride by Davidson enabled Henry Craven's The Welkin, 3 to 1, to run away with the Independence Steeplechase Handicap, at about two and a half miles. Davidson took the black mare to the front after half the course had been covered. From that point on it was just a gallop for The Welkin, who won by half a dozen lengths in 5:11 3-5. Bailey's Nimbus, carrying 165 pounds, ran second, beating Bartlett McLennan's Minto a head. Round Brook under a hustling ride looked dangerous half a mile from home, but he gradually fricked up and was three lengths out of the money. Mellowmint, 16 to 5, and Waterway, same price, seemed to have too much weight and were also badly ridden.

Bird of Flight II., an added starter, broke his leg in taking the first jump and was in a helpless condition, so that he had to be destroyed. Former winners were Lion Heart, Trillion, Ir Gallett, Marie Light, George W. Jenkins, Land of Clover, Footpatter, Lexington, Barrad, Agent, Simon Pure and California King.

In addition to scoring with Restigouche Hildreth won the fifth event, at a mile and a half, on the grass, with Hampton Court, 3 to 5, who led always and breezed home with two and a half lengths over Cheek. Dandy Dixon, 4 to 1, after being in several pockets was third eight lengths back. The race was run in 2:33 4-5.

Before the races a sale of horses in training and yearlings took place. It was marked by the purchase of the three-year-old colt The Turk, by Hero, for $7,600, which was paid by R. F. Carman.

Jockey E. Dugan is suffering from an attack of pneumonia at Sunshine Hospital, Bath Beach. Jockey Vincent Powers spent Fourth of July in the heat yesterday morning and was unable to visit the track.

Paul J. Rainey will race Sanctus and De Mund in France next year. Robert McKinney will take them over at an early date.

Yesterday's attendance was the largest of the season. More than 15,000 persons passed through the gates, and the Coney Island Jockey Club will be called upon to make up a loss of about $40,000 on the meeting just closed. The summaries:

TO-DAY'S EMPIRE CITY CARD.

Brighton Mile and Other Events Promise Good Racing.

The Empire City meeting of twenty-six days opens at Yonkers this afternoon with a well filled card. The feature is the Brighton mile, of $2,000, for which S. C. Hildreth seems to have a winning hand with King James and Dalmatian, James R. Keene's Hilarious and R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s Candleberry being the other starters. In the first race, at six furlongs, Jeanne d'Arc, Sixty and Blundara may go well. Maiden two-year-olds will go in the second race, at five furlongs, with Five Aces, Rye Straw and Thrifty figuring well.

In the third race, for three-year-olds, one mile, Big Stick, Frank Purcell and Acumen seem best. There are three starters named for the Atlantic Stakes, for two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs, with Omaga, Alaska Cassa and War Jig figuring in the order named. In the last race, at a mile and a sixteenth, Lad of Langden, Krikina and Black Mate may be the factors. The entries follow:

LAWN TENNIS.

Roberts Wins Knickerbocker F. C. Singles—Brownsville S. A. Matches.

Two stirring finals brought the lawn tennis tournament on the clay courts of the Knickerbocker Field Club, Flatbush, to an end yesterday. Harry S. Roberts won in the singles. William S. Jennings and Lincoln Reimer took the doubles. Both competitions produced hard and fast tennis. Roberts defeated Frederick C. Baggs, 6—10, 6—3, 6—1. Jennings and Reimer defeated S. Howard Voshell and Baggs, 2—6, 6—4, 6—4, 7—5.

Baggs by his volley shots and speed in covering court ran up a lead of 3—0 on games before Roberts settled into his stroke. The ninth game of the first set marked the turning of the tide of the match against Baggs. Alternate lobbing and driving confused Baggs. They fought out the set point by point until at 6 all. Baggs scored up a number of low ground strokes for pretty passing returns so that he scored the set at 10—6.

In the next set Roberts forced into the lead and never was headed, although Baggs by hard fighting balanced the score at 3 all. That was Baggs's last stand. Thereafter he was left behind as Roberts drove straight through his courts for placement, winning the deciding set at 6—1.

In the doubles Jennings played masterful lawn tennis. His forehand lawfords were played with a full sweep through of the racket that sent the ball true to court. Reimer ably supported his plays by chopping and cutting at the net in a way that caused both Voshell and Baggs to make errors on their attempts at returns.

Five lawn tennis doubles pairs, headed by the national champions, Harold H. Hackett and Frederick B. Alexander, will begin the matches to-day in the round robin doubles on the turf courts of the Country Club of Westchester. The next pair in point of importance are the Harvard intercollegiate title winners, Nathaniel W. Niles and Arthur S. Dabney. The others are Raymond D. Little and Edgar W. Leonard, C. Frederick Watson, Jr., and Rex Fincke and the Western pair, Louis H. Waidner and C. Gardner.

The schedule of matches brings Hackett and Alexander against Little and Leonard in the opening competition this afternoon, while Watson and Fincke meet Waidner and Gardner in the second contest.

The Amherst lawn tennis champion, Charles L. Johnston, Jr., and the New Rochelle expert, Alfred Hammett, divided the honors in the opening rounds of the tournament on the clay courts of the Bronxville Athletic Association yesterday for the Lawrence Park challenge cup, now held by George M. Church. Johnston won two matches in excellent style. He first defeated J. Robertson, 6—3, 8—6, and then Frederick P. Fox, 4—6, 6—2, 6—1. It fell to Hammett to defeat W. L. O'Brien, 7—9, 12—10, 6—3, the longest match of the day.

The last drawn for the tournament is the largest in numbers ever assembled for the trophy. Eighty players are on the list, including Gustave F. Touchard, who has one leg on the cup. Touchard scored by a default yesterday. The referee A. Dudley Britton, was unsparing with defaults and all competitors who failed to appear or report met the fate of elimination. In this way the list was reduced to manageable proportions for the play that will be continued to-day so as to allow of the beginning of the doubles and the women's singles to-morrow. The summary follows:

Bronxville Men's Challenge Cup, Singles—First round: Arthur S. Cragin defeated Stanley Ward by default. G. A. L. Dionne defeated B. Appleton by default. Paul Forster defeated Theodore Tuthill, 6—1, 6—0. D. J. Burns defeated D. Lawrence by default. H. Bassford defeated Frank B. Noundey by default. A. F. Lattimer defeated A. H. Johnson by default. Albert Sears defeated S. L. Baggs by default. Gustave F. Touchard defeated J. Barrett by default. W. M. Washburn defeated Reginald Toby, 6—2, 6—2. David Sands defeated C. C. Galey by default. George W. Saltzger defeated D. V. Parker by default. Richard H. Auger defeated Louis Graves by default. W. H. Grange defeated Alfred Dowson, 6—3, 6—4. J. Abraham defeated Jr. defeated Henry Bain Steenberg, 6—2, 6—1.

Second Round—Paul Forster defeated D. J. Burns, 1—6,
