Cincinnati, July 20. The chance for the final game of the final series to a score of 6 to 1. Burns was hammered all over the lot by Mathews's team, but a triple play with men on second and third turned the tide of victory. It was the first triple play made in League Park for many years.

First Doyle had singled and Bescher made a mess of Meyers's rap with the score 4 to 1 in the eighth. It looked as if the score would be tied, but Dressen turned for Murray's scorching liner, held the ball and touched third. It was an easy matter for him to complete the triple play by throwing to Egan. He made a very poor throw, but Egan got it and stepped on the bag in time to retire the Indian, who had started for third with the crack of the ball. At the time the play was made Meyers was batting for Devore, who made a very poor showing against the southpaw slants of Burns.

The luck was with the Reds in this game. Burns started finely, fanning Snodgrass and Devore for a starter, while Doyle, who was passed, was put out trying to steal. The Reds got a run on Egan's single and Devlin's bunt of Hoblitzel's tap in the first. Egan working on a forceout. The Giants went to the front in the fifth. With two down Bridwell singled and Devlin put one in the right field corner for a home run.

Ames held the Reds safe until the fifth, when he was hammered all over the lot. Five hits, including a two bagger by Burns, were good for two runs in this session. The Giants promptly won the Reds one better in the sixth, singles by Doyle, Murray and Bridwell and Devlin's double being good for two runs. Ames told Merritt that he could hold the Reds safe at this juncture, but the bombardment of the fifth was repeated in the sixth and five hits were good for three runs this time. Downey's double was a long fly which Murray misjudged in this inning, and Mitchell, who was on second at the time, only reached third on the play.

Burns got by in the seventh and Crandall went to the mound for the Giants after Seymour had batted for Ames. He held the Reds hitless, but it was too late. The great triple play spoiled things in the eighth and a walk in the ninth was good for but one run. With one out Devlin singled and Merkle popped. McMillan fumbled Schlei's roller and when Crandall singled Devlin scored. Shaefer was sent to run for Schlei at this stage and Snodgrass was hit by a pitched ball. Doyle tried hard, but McMillan made a fine play on his rap, forcing Snodgrass at second.

CHICAGO (N. L.), 1; BROOKLYN, 0.

CHICAGO, July 20. In one of the most sensational and best played games seen in Chicago this year the Cubs defeated Brooklyn this afternoon in a twelve inning contest. There was but one run scored, that in the twelfth inning. Both teams fielded brilliantly, the three errors made not counting in the final result. Lennox, Hummel and Smith executed many difficult plays. Lennox and Hummel were also prominent with the stick, the former getting three hits, one a two bagger, and the latter two safeties.

Bell, however, was the hero of the afternoon until the twelfth inning. Then he fell down, and he fell hard. With one out Johnny Evers singled to left and stole second. Sheckard tapped an easy bunt to the big Brooklyn pitcher. Bell had plenty of time to catch Sheckard at first, but instead he hesitated for an instant and then threw to third in an effort to catch Evers. He was too late. The Trojan squirmed around under Lennox and was safe, while Sheckard perched on first. Then when Hofman hit a sharp one to Smith the latter threw to the plate and like Bell he also was too late. Evers was declared safe and the winning run was scored.

Pitcher Pfiester will be out of the game for several days as the result of an injury to his pitching hand when he caught Lennox's terrific liner with his bare left hand in the ninth. He was compelled to retire and McIntire took his place. The score:

HILDRETH AND SHILLING WIN

LANDJEANNE D'ARC AND NOVELTY AT EMPIRE CITY.

But They Fail to Capture the Test Handicap Because Restiguoche Stumbles at the Start—Everett Takes That Event in a Gallop—Lafayette Wins.

S. C. Hildreth won two races at Empire City yesterday with Jeanne d'Arc and Novelty, but failed to capture the Kings Test Handicap, one mile, with Restiguoche. Shortly because that horse stumbled at the start. Shilling rode all of these thoroughbreds and again earned off the saddle honors, even though he was badly beaten on James Butler's Dartworth, one of the strongest favorites of the day. Garner also handled two winners.

Hildreth scratched Dalmatian in favor of Restiguoche in the Test, and the Chesapeake horse picked up top weight, 123 pounds. He was made an equal favorite with F. C. McDowell's mare King's Daughter, at 2 to 1, with plenty of support for the three-year-old. Everett, 10 to 1, and Sir Vinchen at 8. When the barrier was released Garner rushed Apache from an outside position to the front. Restiguoche, however, stumbled and almost went to his knees, losing four or five lengths. In the run up the backstretch Apache was passed by King's Daughter and Everett, but at the six furlong pole King's Daughter hung and Everett drew away. Garner came again with Apache on the rail, but it was too late. Everett, who with 99 pounds breezed home with a margin of four lengths in 1:16 1-5. The struggle for the place was a thriller. Apache got it by a nose from Restiguoche, who came down the home stretch with a mighty rush and passed King's Daughter out of third money. The latter was only a neck in front of Shannon.

Novelty, ridden by Garner, was victorious in the handicap, for two-year-olds, six furlongs. Shilling rode him with confidence even when forced to a mild drive at the end to win by three parts of a length from J. F. Bartlett's Star Charter, 7 to 2. The Newcastle Stable's Seth, 4 to 1, was a badly beaten third. The time was 1:13 1-5.

Shilling delivered the goods with Hildreth's Jeanne d'Arc, 4 to 10, in the third race, for platers, at six furlongs. Just as the gate went up he bumped into Bar None, 16 to 1, and knocked him back. Then Jeanne d'Arc went after H. P. Whitney's Sixty, 6 to 1, who led up to the last furlong pole. Jeanne d'Arc won by a neck, with Sixty half a dozen lengths before Royal Onyx, 8 to 1, who beat Over, 10 to 1, half a length. Bar None, lacking his usual speed, finished last, but when he pulled up lame reason for his crushing defeat quickly developed.

The cause for shilling's mounts received a wet blanket when James Butler's Dartworth, ridden by that popular jockey and quoted at 4 to 5, was outrun from the start and got no part of the purse in the first race, for two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs. J. A. Jones's Hectagon, 8 to 1, made the running to the head of the stretch, where the Woodhaven Stable's Lafayette, 3 to 1, and W. G. Yankee's The Hague, 6 to 1, joined him. In a driving finish Hectagon's jockey, Ural, was outridden by Garner, with the result that Lafayette won by a neck in 1:02, Hectagon beating The Hague four lengths for the place.

Gilding Belle, 11 to 10 favorite, won the second race, a selling handicap, at a mile and twenty yards, when the barrier went up. She was off running, having an advantage of several lengths, and as she led all the way the race was practically a gift for her. Faisada, 6 to 1, who was beaten a length by Gilding Belle, would probably have won with an even break at the post. He was ridden by Glass instead of Higgins this time and showed some of his real form. Red Walker's Noon, 5 to 2, was third, five lengths back, after trying vainly to get upon even terms with Gilding Belle in the first three-quarters of a mile.

Imitator, 6 to 5 favorite, took the last race, a selling event, at a mile and a sixteenth, in a drive by three parts of a length from Banbury, 8 to 1. Old Bad News, 3 to 1, was third.

BAY SHORE HORSE SHOW.

Three Day Fixture Opens This Afternoon With a Large Entry.

Members of the Long Island cottage colonies, particularly of the south side, will attend as exhibitors and onlookers at the opening this afternoon of the tenth annual Bay Shore horse show, to be held on the grounds at Oakwood Park. It is not merely a Long Island fixture, however, for the entries also include many horses of fame at the London international and the leading American shows. The Fairmont Farms string of A. B. Walsh of Baltimore will be on view for the first time since their winning career at Olympia, and there are entries by Paul A. Sorg, Edward Kearney, Andrew Morrison, De Witt C. Flanagan, George Watson's Florham Stud Farm and, with others from outside Long Island, R. C. Vanderbilt's Sandy Hook Farm.

The show begins at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon and fifteen classes are to be judged, eight of the ordinary, as a class for pony ponies for a prize given by F. B. Ballard, 15 is for ponies under 14 hands, to be judged on the best performance over six jumps at about 3 feet 6 inches. The entries are George Wallace and Bernard Gauther's Mr. Nobody, 14 hands; J. A. Fenwick's Alta, 13.2; H. Robinson's Kilkenny, 13.2; Miss Marion Hoffman's Reddy, 13.2, and James Stewart's Perfection, 13.2, the smallest of the party but with the greatest renown as a timber jumper.

To-day and to-morrow a special train will leave East Thirty-fourth street for Bay Shore at 12:30 P. M.

GOLF.

New Record for Extended Wee Burn Course by Killick.

Two fine scores have recently been made over the extended and improved course of the Wee Burn Golf Club by the professional, Ernest Killick. The nine holes have a playing length of 3,100 yards and Killick has twice turned a 34. The two cards follow:

| | | | | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| June 18 | 4 | 4 | 3 | 4 | 4 | 3 | 4 | 4 | 34 |
| July 15 | 3 | 4 | 4 | 3 | 4 | 4 | 3 | 3 | 34 |

On the old course of 3,075 yards the amateur and professional records made in successive rounds were 88 by C. H. Seely and 78 by Walter E. Stoddard.

MAPLEWOOD, N. J., July 20. E. C. English and Charles English, two brothers from New Haven, who entered the Maplewood tourney from the Bethlehem Country Club, captured the honors in the first and second flights to-day, winning their final matches easily. The summary:

First Sixteen—Semi-final round: E. C. English, Bethlehem, defeated N. F. Thayer, Woodland, 1 up. E. Banks, Bethlehem, defeated N. F. Cushman, Winchester, 4 and 1.

Final Round—English defeated Banks, 5 and 4.

Second Sixteen—Semi-final round: C. English, Yale, defeated J. C. Tibbetts, Lamoine, 6 and 5. W. D. Richards, Winchester, defeated V. Banks, Belleclaff, 4 and 3.

Final Round—C. English defeated Richards, 7 and 6.

Consolation—Semi-final round: M. J. Ryan, Fox Hills, defeated C. H. Pope, Fox Hills, by default. R. L. Pullen, Vespers, defeated F. H. Maguire, Bethlehem, 1 up.

Final Round—Pullen defeated Ryan, 3 and 2.

Consolation, Second Sixteen—Semi-final round: J. Fay, Woodland, defeated J. P. Taylor, Hendersonville, 4 and 3. R. Cerero, Crescent A. C., defeated H. Nawn, 2 and 1.

Final Round—Fay defeated Cerero, 3 and 2.

YALE MAN WINS SHOOT.

George F. Dimmock, Jr., Takes Preliminary Handicap at Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 20. George F. Dimmock, Jr., a Yale student and member of the Yale Gun Club, won the preliminary handicap here to-day from one of the best fields which ever shot in an Eastern handicap tournament. The collegian broke 97 out of his 100 targets. Dimmock shot from a sixteen yards rise and broke straight in two of his events, the first and third. He lost one each in the second, fourth and fifth events.

Even the crop of professionals on the grounds, and they are the pick of the country shooting here, were beaten out by this mere lad, with the exception of Walter Huff of Macon, Ga., C. A. Young of Springfield, Ohio, and A. E. Sibley of Brooklyn, each of whom totalled the same score the Yale gunner achieved.

Two veteran amateurs, J. H. Vandever of Brooklyn and J. H. Graham of Ingleside, Ill., kept close to Dimmock throughout, but were beaten by one target.

TO-DAY'S EMPIRE CITY CARD.

Yonkers Handicap, One Mile and a Sixteenth, the Feature.

The regularly scheduled meeting of the Empire City Racing Association will begin at Yonkers to-day. The $2,500 Yonkers Handicap, one mile and a sixteenth, is the stake feature, with the Hildreth entry (Dalmatian and Hampton Court) in favor over Starbottle, Nimbus and others. Maiden two-year-olds will run in the first race, at five and a half furlongs, with Ben Lomond, Beatrice and Hiccough having chances. In the second race, for three-year-olds, one mile and twenty yards, Hampton Court, Perry Johnson and Ashwell may be the factors.

In a handicap at six furlongs Melisande, Magazine and Rose Queen may go well. In the fifth race, for two-year-olds, six furlongs, Novelty, Gauntlet and Mr. Golightly seem best. In the last race, at a mile and a sixteenth, Apologize, Montgomery and Perry Johnson figure well. The entries follow:

First Race. For two year old maidens, selling, five and a half furlongs.

Baseball Notes.

Several of these visiting managers at American League Park have gone buzzer dippy. One of them saw a man with an umbrella on a distant roof and ran to the umpire with the wall that the roof spectator was wigwagging signals with the umbrella.

What has struck the Newarks? They are getting lambasted with regularity on this jaunt.

Only three runs have been scored off the Athletics' pitchers in the last five games.

President Lynch of the National League is in the West and seeing for himself whether there is any justification for this bunt against the umpires. Generally chronic crying out about the umpiring is synonymous with poor ball playing.

Once every four days is as often as Russell Ford likes to pitch and he is not to be moved from that stand. He knows he has a valuable arm to take care of.

Chase has slumped in his hitting the last few days. He hasn't come near to a wallop this week.

Ames didn't come back against the Reds.

Just as it looked as if the Pirates had come back they struck another slump. They braced merely long enough to throw the harpoon deep into the hides of the Giants.

To Get Close to Nature

and to appreciate the beauties of the wilds one must get away from the regular beaten paths. At such a time a shack in the woods eclipses the luxuries of a palace. A case or two of will materially assist in making these outings brighter and happier. No camping outfit is complete without it.

DIXIE KID KNOCKS OUT COLE.

Trenton Man Substituted for Doherty at the Sharkey A. C.

The Dixie Kid had little trouble in defeating George Cole, a welterweight from Trenton who was substituted for Jeff Doherty at the Sharkey A. C. last night. Shortly before the fight the referee announced he had received word from Doherty that he was taken ill and would not be able to appear. The large crowd present took it good naturedly when Cole was substituted. A left jab in the stomach in the fourth round sent Cole down and he was counted out.

In the first round the Kid took things easy and let the Trenton man send in a few to the head and body. They ran into a clinch and on the break the Kid landed a right to the head and then sent a left to the wind. In the second round the Kid rushed his man to the ropes, putting a left to the head. Cole came back with a right on the ear. Cole then missed a swing to the jaw, and as he came in close the Kid sent in a left uppercut which caught Cole on the point of the jaw and he went down for the count. When he got up he staggered across the ring and ran into a clinch, the bell saving him from being counted out.

In the third round the Kid put right and left to the body and Cole swung wildly. The Kid then started out to finish his man and rushed him to his corner, sending in a hurricane of blows. A hard left to the jaw sent Cole down like a log, but he was up in a jiffy and held on until the bell. In the fourth round after Cole received a couple of hard blows on the head and jaw he hung on to the ropes and the crowd shouted, "Finish him up, Kid!" Another uppercut put Cole down and out.

FOGLER WINS AT VAILSBURG.

Elmer Collins Takes Motor Paced Race From Galvin.

Joe Fogler won the Class A professional miss and out race last night at the Vailsburg cycle track in Newark after three miles of hard riding, John Bedell defeating American Champion Frank L. Kramer for second place. Herman Kjeldsen, the Dane, who now lives in Newark, kept up his winning streak by capturing the amateur event.

J. Frank Galvin was defeated by Elmer Collins, the motor paced champion, in the first trial heat of the six cornered meteor paced race. George Wiley disposed of Peter Drobach in the second trial heat and Carlo Vanoni defeated Clarence Carmen in the third trial heat. One of Wiley's tires blew up in the final heat at fifteen miles and he lost four laps before he got going again. He was in second place when the tire blew up.

The summaries:

One Mile Open, Amateur. Won by H. Kjeldsen, Denmark; Eugene F. Bataille, East Orange, second; George Paull, New York, third. Time, 2 minutes 27 2-5 seconds.

One Mile Repechage Handicap, Professional, Class B. Won by Fred McCarthy, Toronto, 15 yards; Phillip Wright, Salt Lake City, 5 yards, second; Al Triebel, Newark, 100 yards, third; Ivan Mischka, Newark, and Martin Ryan, Newark, 45 yards, tied for fourth. Time, 1 minute 59 1-5 seconds.

Miss and Out, Professional, Class A. Won by Joe Fogler, Brooklyn; John Bedell, Newark, second; Frank L. Kramer, East Orange, third; F. F. Root, Boston, fourth; A. Halvorson, Memento, fifth. Distance, 3 miles. Time, 6 minutes 14 seconds.

Fifteen Mile Motor Paced Race. Won by Elmer Collins, Boston; Carlo Vanoni, Italy, second; George Wiley, Syracuse, third. Time, 2 minutes 30 1-5 seconds.

IROLITA WINS.

E. Walter Clark's Yacht Scores First Leg for Norman Cup.

MARBLEHEAD, Mass., July 20. The schooner yacht Irolita, owned by E. A. Walter Clark of Philadelphia, won the first leg to-day in the Normandy cup, 181 miles, run to-day from Bar Harbor, Me., to this port.

The Irolita was the third over the line but won on time allowance over the Savarona, owned by A. Howard Clark, also of Philadelphia, and the flagship Emerald, owned by Commodore F. Lewis Clark. The Iris, owned by Francis M. Whitehouse of Manchester, Mass., was fourth. The yachts had light following airs throughout the run.

Starting from Egg Rock off Bar Harbor at 12:30 yesterday a southeaster took the yachts up to Matinicus Rock by dark last night. Up to that time the Irolita was ahead, but a shift to the northwest gave the Savarona and Emerald a chance to lifted and at dawn to-day when well across the Gulf of Maine the Savarona was leading with the Emerald close astern, the Irolita third and the Iris fourth. Before leaving the owners had agreed to carry only working sails between 7 P. M. and 4 A. M.

As the wind hauled to the northward at daylight the crew of the Irolita had her spinnaker up in stops and at 4:02 the big sail was broken out. From then to the finish the wind was from the north or the north of east.

The Savarona finished at Halfway Rock at 10:02. The Emerald was about five minutes astern and then came the Irolita 34 minutes after the leader. The Iris did not get in in time to save her time allowance.
