TO KEEP A DOG GET A WIFE

ALSO TO GET A WIFE KEEP A DOG—DOG LICENSE $2, T'OTHER $1.

It Looks as if Korasek's Heart Affairs Would Be Impeded if He Doesn't Get His Dog Back and as if He Could Not Get the Dog Back Without Marrying.

A license for the kind of a dog that Irma is costs $2. A marriage license for humans costs $1. The question that Joseph Korasek now has to solve is this: Is Irma worth a dog license plus a marriage license?

A dog can be boarded on 10 cents a day for so Judge Wauhope Lynn decided yesterday in his Municipal Court at Third avenue and Eighty-third street. In fact no dog's stomach can accommodate more than 10 cents worth of plain food a day, said the Judge.

So here naturally arises another question for Joseph to solve. If he decides for Irma and it costs him $3 at the start besides the pain of contracting matrimony, and if every day that he postpones his marriage costs him 10 cents extra, how long can he afford to postpone his marriage? Irma eats only 10 cents worth of soup bone and potato parings in a day, but a wife assuredly could not be supported on 10 cents. No Judge can determine how much a wife will eat in one day. Supposing a wife eats 23 cents worth of soup bone and 10 cents worth of ice cream and 11½ cents worth of fried potatoes in one day and though her license costs only a dollar—ach, such figuring!

Now here is where Joseph stands, or did stand yesterday. He sued his brother-in-law, Thomas McAvoy, who lives at 515 East Seventy-eighth street, for the recovery of his Scotch collie Irma. Joseph had recently suffered severe heart pangs. Because he and his lady love, who lived at the same boarding house, had disagreed Joseph had gone to live with his sister, Mrs. McAvoy, for a few days and he had taken Irma with him. In his despondency Joseph had even sold Irma to his sister's husband for one dollar.

Then had come the reconciliation. Joseph's lady love had desired that he come back to live in his old boarding house and that he bring Irma with him. Joseph would have done so blithely, but his sister's husband, who is materialistic, called to Joseph's mind the fact that he had sold Irma's body and soul for one dollar. Therefore Joseph went back to live under the same roof with his lady love, but it was without Irma.

The lady of Joseph's heart has a great liking for Irma, so she testified before Judge Lynn yesterday. She believes with Joseph that to have parted with Irma for a paltry dollar was not really to have sold her. Irma was worth $40 and in a very short time Irma will have quadrupled her value, let it be hoped, by making herself the common multiple in an interesting fractional development. Certainly Joseph still possessed a lien upon Irma and all future generations of the Irma stock, according to the lady's way of thinking.

So Joseph sued, and so the litigation stood before the Judge. The Judge weighed all of the possibilities in the case, taking into consideration the cost of Irma's upkeep, the promise of her impending multiplication and the necessity for providing a happy and a moral atmosphere for a matron in Irma's present state of mind.

After deliberation he asked Joseph why he and the lady of his choice did not marry. Joseph said that he had been considering that step, but that he had not quite determined. Then Judge Lynn said that if Joseph should marry Irma would be restored to him.

Up spake Thomas McAvoy, wishing to know how about the keep of Irma in the meantime. He declared with every aspect of truth telling that Irma costs 50 cents a day to board and that he could not tell how much it would cost to board Irma in a little while.

"We will adjudicate the costs just as soon as Joseph comes before me and displays a marriage license for himself and his wife and a dog license for Irma," said the Judge. With that he called the next case on the calendar.

BAPTISTS EXPEL KOHLER.

Minister's Brother-in-Law Not Allowed to Be Heard.

The members of the congregation of the Mariners Harbor Baptist Church at Mariners Harbor, Richmond borough, who were present at a special meeting in the church last night voted to expel Frederick Kohler. The vote was 69 to expel and it to dismiss the charges.

The Rev. John Troy, the minister in charge of the church, made the charges which were in effect that Mr. Kohler had circulated stories about him which were scandalous. About half of those present were women. None but members were admitted.

Kohler says that after the charges had been read to the meeting he took the floor and asked that he have a chance to defend himself and that he be allowed to have counsel. He said that if given the hearing he demanded he felt sure he would be acquitted. He also wanted the congregation to take up at the same time the charges he wished to lay against the minister. These were sworn to some time ago by Mrs. Mabel Kohler, his wife, who is a sister of the minister's wife. These allege conduct unbecoming a minister.

Kohler says his requests were refused and he left the church. When the doors were opened the meeting had adjourned and the members were about to start for home. It was announced that he had been dismissed from membership.

Kohler recently retained William J. Kenney as counsel, and Kenney was to have been present last night, but was notified by the board of trustees that he could not be admitted. He says that he will at once apply to the Supreme Court for a writ of mandamus requiring the congregation to give Kohler a proper trial.

ATTACKED SMALL GIRL.

Man Got Entrance to Flat by Posing as Board of Health Employee.

A man got entrance to an apartment at 502 West Sixteenth street yesterday in which ten-year-old Mary Devaney was with her smaller sister by telling Mary he was from the Board of Health. He asked if any of her family were at home. When he learned no one except Mary's little sister was in the girl says he assaulted her.

Mrs. Mary Cullen, who lives on the floor below, heard the girl scream and ran upstairs. She met the man, James McCarthey, leaving the flat. He ran past her and out into the street with Mrs. Cullen in pursuit. At Eleventh avenue and Sixteenth street he was caught and arrested by Policeman Detell. McCarthey says he is a ticket agent for the D., L. and W. in the Hoboken station. The girl's mother made a complaint against McCarthey in the Old West Twentieth street police station.

Beer and Tobacco Necessaries.

A judgment for $298 for assault and battery was entered against Ferko Noesel and supplementary proceedings were instituted in which an order was signed restraining him from paying out any money until he had settled the judgment. The judgment creditor asked Supreme Court Justice Newburger yesterday to punish Noesel for contempt because he had paid out $80.

Richard J. Donovan, attorney for Noesel, told the Court that $60 of the money went to a former attorney and that $20 was for beer and tobacco, which he said were necessaries for a workingman. The Court agreed with Donovan and denied the motion.

AROSEMENA INSTALLED.

Acting President of Panama Announces His Policy and Cabinet.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

PANAMA, Oct. 5.—Pablo Arosemena was inaugurated this afternoon first Vice-President of Panama, by virtue of which office he becomes Acting President. The oath was administered in the National Assembly. The ceremony was largely attended by officials, members of the diplomatic corps, and the public.

Dr. Arosemena outlined part of his political programme.

Subsequently there was a reception at the Government palace. The police, together with a guard from the Canal zone, did the honors of the occasion.

The political crisis is now entirely ended. The people seem to be greatly pleased. They have great confidence that the new administration will be successful. Dr. Arosemena has appointed his Cabinet as follows:

Secretary of Foreign Affairs, Federico Boyd, who is Second Vice-President.

Secretary of the Interior, Ramon Acevedo.

Secretary of Finance, Aurelio Guardia.

Secretary of Public Works, Señor Arosemena, now Panama Minister at Washington.

Secretary of Public Instruction, E. Palmo.

EXPLOSIVE WRECKED CHIRIQUI.

Passengers and Crew, All Save One, at Panama After Much Suffering.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

PANAMA, Oct. 5.—The passengers and crew of the wrecked steamer Chiriqui arrived here to-day aboard the steamer Arica.

According to the story of one of the survivors the explosion was not due to the boilers but to some explosive near the engine. The steamer sank in ten minutes, giving those on board barely time to take to the boats, which were three days and two nights at sea.

There was much suffering owing to the shortage of provisions and clothing. It is rumored that smuggling was being carried on and that possibly some explosive was secreted in the coal bunkers to avoid the payment of duties, and that this was the cause of the accident.

The mails, cargo and passengers' valuables and baggage were lost. The storekeeper was the only person who lost his life. It is believed that he was in the engine room at the time of the explosion.

NOW THE BABIES DAIRY.

It Would Supply Proper Food and Care to Infants Needing Help.

Commissioners William Rhinelander Stewart and Stephen Smith of the State Board of Charities held public hearings yesterday on three applications for the approval of certificates of incorporation.

One application was for the Babies Dairy, whose object is to furnish proper food and medical attention to destitute children and children suffering with nutritive disorders, intestinal troubles, tuberculosis and skin diseases, and to educate mothers as to the care and food of infants.

The attorneys were informed that their application called for a charter that was too broad, in that it would enable them to buy land and erect buildings in any part of the city or State. They were advised to revise the charter and to make it more specific. Among the proposed directors of the Babies Dairy are Adrian H. Joline, Mary E. Joline, Matilda Freeman, Reuel H. Benson and Annie M. Carroll.

M. Lawrence Malmros of Yonkers appeared before the committee in behalf of the Swedish Home for Aged People Association, which aims to establish in Manhattan a non-sectarian home for aged persons who understand the Swedish language. He was advised that the board would regard with greater favor an application for an organization that would be affiliated with a similar home in Brooklyn.

Richard L. Morris and Charles Duncan Miller put in a plea for the incorporation of Clear Pool Camp, an organization supported by voluntary contributions, which aims to "maintain a summer recreation camp for boys on an eighty acre tract of mountain, lake and woodland near Carmel, N. Y." The proposed directors of this corporation are Thomas S. McLane, Richard L. Morris, Blaine Ewing, George B. Hedges, Ashbel H. Barney, Hamilton Fish Benjamin, Richard E. Forest, John A. Gardener, Seton Henry, Carol W. Ladd, Barent Lefferts, Charles Duncan Miller, Lawrason Riggs, Jr., Donald Scott and Arthur G. Higgins.

HOKE SMITH ELECTED.

Former Governor of Georgia Will Probably Have 75,000 Majority.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 5.—Hoke Smith was chosen to-day to serve a second term as Governor of Georgia, defeating Gov. Joseph M. Brown, who was defeated for renomination in the August primary but whose name was put before the voters to-day as an independent Democratic candidate.

Early returns indicate that only two counties of the 145 in the State were carried by Brown to-day. Brown's vote was very small in all the counties and in some not a ballot was cast for him. Smith's majority will probably be 75,000.

All of the regular Democratic nominees for State and county offices were elected, the vote for the Socialist ticket being insignificant. Owing to the candidacy of Brown the vote to-day was much larger than that normally cast in a general election, which is usually considered a matter of form.

Gov. Brown said that the action of Thomas E. Watson and others in running him as an independent was without authority, but he declined to say whether or not he would serve if elected. He announced, however, that he would support the nominees, and to-day went to Marietta, his home town, and cast his vote for Hoke Smith.

Three constitutional amendments were adopted. One of these provides that counties may levy taxes in support of high schools. The others are local in effect.

COMPLAINTS OF BRONX CORONER.

Wittman Says He Had to Wait Many Hours for Doctor.

William Wittman, a driver living at 396 East 151th street, expressed himself very strongly concerning the Bronx Coroner's office yesterday. He reported the death of his three-months-old baby boy William at 11.58 A. M., according to the records, and it was 8.20 P. M. before the Coroner's physician came to the house.

Wittman goes to work at 1 A. M. Yesterday his wife had just fed the baby from the bottle at that hour. At 7 A. M. Wittman returned. His wife said there was something wrong with the baby. Wittman found the baby apparently dead. He spent the morning waiting for a physician who didn't appear, and just before noon he called the Coroner's office on the telephone and asked them to send a doctor.

At 3 o'clock no physician from the Coroner's office had appeared, so he called them again. They said one would call as soon as possible. The same at 6 o'clock. At 7 o'clock he called Police Headquarters, which asked the Morrisania station house to investigate. A policeman came to the house and himself called the Coroner's office.

When Dr. Reigelman, Coroner Schwannecke's physician, appeared at the house he diagnosed the case as death by convulsions due to stomach trouble.

HILLMEN DEFEAT ATHLETICS

CHASE'S MEN SHOW CHAMPIONS HOW TO BAT.

Also Tighten Their Hold on Second Place, as the Detroits and Clevelands Break Even in a Double Header—Boston Red Sox and Washingtons Battle to Draw.

The Highlanders hit the ball with excellent results yesterday in Philadelphia and compelled the champion Athletics to suffer defeat. Chase's men thereby increased their hold on second place to six points, as the Detroits won and lost in a double header with the Clevelands, the latter's victory coming in the tenth inning when five runs were rolled up. Darkness stopped the battle between the Washingtons and the Boston Red Sox at the end of the ninth inning with the score a tie. The results:

New York, 7; Philadelphia, 4.

Cleveland, 8; Detroit, 3. First game.

Detroit, 4; Cleveland, 2. Second game.

Boston, 5; Washington, 5.

NEW YORK (A. L.), 7; PHILADELPHIA (A. L.), 4.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 5.—The New York Highlanders won the opening game of the final series with the champions to-day. The New Yorks hammered Jack Coombs, the hurling sensation of the Mack camp, all over Shibe Park in the last four innings he essayed to pitch. The chief punishers of Coombs were Jack Knight, Walter Blair and Hughes.

There were several features about the game that made it especially interesting for the home fans. One was the presentation to Connie Mack of an automobile by the players. The other was the presence behind the bat of Earl Mack, one of Connie's sons.

Hughes started the pitching for the New Yorkers and lasted a trifle over seven innings. When Lord doubled in the eighth on a base, fearing that the Mackites might rally up to them, vanked Hughes from the box and sent young Fisher to the firing line. He did well enough, but could not keep Lord from counting on an out and a sacrifice fly. The Athletics got another over in the ninth. When Plank retired at the end of the fifth the score was 2 to 2, so the defeat goes against Coombs.

In the seventh Murphy made a great catch of Austin's foul and then Blair singled to centre, scoring on a triple by Hughes, who was left on third by the outside deals of Daniels and Hemphill. The storm broke in the eighth by Chase hitting the fence in left centre for three sacks. Knight walked and Laporte fanned, but Cree smashed the right field fence for a double, which sent Chase over the pan and Knight to third. Austin's hit to centre brought in both runners, and he tallied when Blair banged the ball for three bases. He tried to stretch it into a home run, but was nipped at the plate, which he had been counted had not Blair been so anxious for Hughes came next with a double. That smash went to waste, for after Daniels had been passed Hemphill flew to McInnes.

CLEVELAND 8, DETROIT 3. FIRST GAME.

DETROIT, Oct. 5.—The Tigers and Naps each took a game in this afternoon's double bill, Cleveland winning the first by a score of 8 to 3 in ten innings. Mullin was hammered hard and in the tenth inning the Naps got to him for five hits, which with two errors netted five runs.

The second game was called at the end of the fifth inning with the score 4 to 2 in the Tigers' favor, Cobb and Lajoie broke even on the day's hitting honors, each getting three hits in six times up. The scores:

Evers's Leg Set.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—Johnny Evers, the Cub second baseman, had his leg set by Dr. Davis at the West Side Hospital to-day. After the operation the leg was put in a plaster cast and it will have to be kept in an elevated position for forty-eight hours. The little second baseman took gas for the operation. The doctor assured Evers that his leg would be as good as ever after it healed.

NEW ORLEANS ENTRIES.

Rough Draft of the Athletes Who Will Try for National Championships.

A rough draft of the entries for the national A. A. U. championships to be held at New Orleans next week was sent out yesterday and it shows that a formidable contingent will go from the neighborhood of New York. Of the clubs to be represented from the metropolitan district the Irish American A. C. is in the lead with twenty-five, the New York A. C. coming in second with fourteen. A glance at the makeup of both teams would convey the idea that the New Yorks will not repeat their metropolitan victory against the Irish with the number of men they are taking. Perhaps Capt. Halpin is of the opinion that teams from other places will cut into the Irish, and in this he may be right, for it is a sure thing that the Irish will not land the three places in the 100 and 220 at New Orleans. Leaving out what the Chicago A. A. may send and whose men are not on the list, there is Macauley from Frisco, said to be better than "evens" for the century, Martin from Seattle, also said to be beating "evens," and Beloit, who won the Central title in 10 seconds.

The Olympic Club is down with seven men, among them Ralph Rose and Leland Scott. Rose is a certainty in the shot and good for other points in the discus and javelin. Scott is said to be good for 13 feet in the pole vault, so there is where the New Yorks will lose something, although they are taking two men. Evidently the trouble between the Irish club and Sheppard is patched up, for it was said a few days ago except the club apologized to him he would not compete for them any more.

Following is the list announced:

New York Athletic Club—K. T. Edwards, Harry Gissing, W. C. Pault, Fred Bellars, F. Fitzgerald, J. Hartranft, G. Dukes, H. Babcock, H. J. Grumpelt, W. Thomassen, Platt Adams, Robert Edgren, Con Walsh, Mat McGrath.

Irish American Athletic Club—J. W. Monument, F. N. Riley, R. J. Egan, J. J. Archer, P. McDonald, M. J. Sheridan, John J. Flanagan, D. J. Ahearn, W. A. McLeod, W. C. Robbins, J. J. Eller, J. J. Daly, T. J. Collins, G. V. Bonhag, A. R. Kivlat, M. Ryan, M. W. Sheppard, J. M. Rosenberger, W. J. Keating, H. McGuire, R. F. Coughlen, Robert Eller, H. Schaaf, E. Stevens, J. J. Elliott, B. Broad.

Olympic Club, San Francisco—Ralph Rose, Leland Scott, W. Garvin, F. Macauley, P. C. Gerhardt, J. Donahue, H. Cheek.

Los Angeles, W. Throop, H. Richardson, Brooklyn Mass. Gymnasium, A. A., O. F. Hedlund, Philadelphia, W. J. Hayes, J. A. Gallagher, H. L. Fritschberg, Baltimore, H. C. Alphinstone, Knights of St. Anthony, F. W. Finegan, St. Mary's T. A. C., Charles Doherty, Illinois A. C., Chicago, B. Taylor, H. Wallace, F. Sauer, J. Armour, J. Case, G. Burgess, O. Jordan, Boston A. A., H. F. Sherman, Irish American A. C., Chicago, F. V. Beloit, Seattle Athletic Club, W. Martin, W. J. Kramer, unattached.

HARVARD FALL ROWING.

Three Eights Out for First Practice on the Charles.

CAMBRIDGE, Oct. 5.—Fall rowing for the Harvard varsity crew squad began on the Charles this afternoon, with Wray doing the coaching from a launch. Three eights were out, each taking a paddle of a mile and a half. The work will continue for a month or more and wind up with a race on the river. The crews to-day were as follows:

Varsity: Meyer, 13, bow; Balch, 12, 2; Hooper, 11, 3; Lincoln, 10, 4; Metcalf, 12, 5; Strong, 12, 6; H. Cutler, captain, 11, 7; Newton, 12, stroke; C. Abeles, 13, coxswain.

Second Varsity: Wiggins, 12, bow; Sullivan, 10, 2; Warren, 13, 3; Hoar, 12, 4; Peabody, 12, 5; Stratton, 13, 6; Nelson, 13, 7; Richardson, 11, stroke; Voorhees, 12, coxswain.

Third Varsity: G. Cutler, 13, bow; Shullto, 11, 2; Morgan, 13, 3; Parker, 12, 4; Beane, 11, 5; Weston, 12, 6; Anderson, 12, 7; Davis, 13, stroke; A. Abeles, 13, coxswain.

Of the first varsity Newton rowed No. 2 against Yale last June, Cutler has twice been in crews that beat Yale. Strong and Metcalf were in last June's victorious eight. Lincoln rowed No. 7 on his freshman crew. Goodale, who was in the victorious freshman crew last June, is ill at present, but expected back in a few days. When he returns he will go to stroke and Newton will row No. 4. It will be seen there is excellent material for next season's race with the Blue on the Thames.

GIANT-HIGHLANDER GAMES.

No Conflict With First Two World's Championship Contests.

While nothing official was announced concerning the coming series between the Giants and the Highlanders yesterday it was stated on good authority that the National Commission will not permit games to be played by the New York teams on October 17 and 18 while the Cubs and Athletics are busy in Philadelphia, but that the local series will be resumed on October 19, 20, 21 and 22.

Both New York clubs have received so many requests for reserved seats for those games that it may be decided to reserve sections in the grand stand to be sold at $1.a seat, but efforts will be made to keep these tickets out of the hands of speculators. The clubs have received applications for boxes from all over the State and as far south as Virginia. In a few days announcements will be made where tickets and boxes can be obtained.

VIRGINIA FOR HIGHLANDERS.

Probable That They'll Get Into Trim at Hot Springs and Richmond.

The Highlanders from present indications will not train at Athens, Ga., next year. The club officials are planning to have the players report the last week in February at Hot Springs, Va., where at least two weeks will be spent, though there will be no ball playing.

Although the club has a lease on the ball park in Athens it is very likely that the Highlanders will practise for three weeks, beginning about March 6, at Richmond, Va. The climate is believed to be just what is needed for spring training and Richmond is also near enough for President Farrell to make periodical visits of inspection.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Rain Prevents Pittsburg-St. Louis Game—Brooklyns vs. Giants To-day.

Rain prevented the only game scheduled in the National League yesterday, the Pittsburg-St. Louis contest in the latter city. The Brooklyns after two days of idleness will begin their last series with the Giants at the Polo Grounds this afternoon and will play there again to-morrow. On Saturday McGraw's men will play their final game with Dahlen's team at Washington Park.

AMONG THE AUTOMOBILISTS

ONE LONE DRIVER PRACTISES FOR GRAND PRIZE.

Washington A. Roebling 2d Out on Circuit in Mercer Car That Competed in Wheatley Hills Event—Ford and Sharp-Arrow Are Entered—Gossip.

One lone driver of the lot named to pilot cars in the second race for the Automobile Club of America's grand prize gold cup a week from next Saturday made his appearance on the circuit yesterday morning and he was not at the wheel of the car he is to drive in the contest. Washington A. Roebling 2d of Trenton, N. J., entrant of a Roebling-Planche he will drive himself, had the 12.64 miles circuit all to himself yesterday morning from 5 until 8 o'clock. He was out in the Mercer which E. H. Sherwood drove for him in the Wheatley Hills Sweepstakes race last Saturday and was reported to have made a round of the course in 11 minutes 24 seconds.

It developed yesterday that the three Fiat racing cars to be driven by Louis Wagner, present holder of the cup, Felice Nazzaro and Ralph De Palma had been shipped on the Moltke, which has been held up at Quarantine since Sunday. Wagner and Nazzaro arrived here last week on the Provence of the French Line and were interested spectators at Saturday's race. As the racing cars are in the hold of the Moltke it will be a few days before the drivers will have their cars, and until the cars have been taken out of the Moltke and passed through the customs Wagner, Nazzaro and De Palma will have to do their practice work on the circuit with touring cars or runabouts.

The Motor Cups Holding Company announced yesterday that two more entries had been made for the grand prize race. One is a Ford, horse power not given, that will be driven by Frank Kulick, who drove Ford cars in races a few years ago on the Empire City and Morris Park tracks. The other entry was a 40 horse-power Sharp-Arrow entered by William Sharp, who has named John A. Sharp as driver. A Sharp-Arrow competed in the Long Island Motor Parkway Sweepstakes in 1908.

An official of the Automobile Club of America said yesterday that the Grand Prize race had not been discussed during the meeting of the club's board of governors on Tuesday. He said that the question of withdrawing the international sanction for the race had not been brought up. So far as he knew no formal protest of any kind had been made to the club regarding the possible need for better protection for drivers and spectators in the race scheduled for October 15 over the same circuit that was used for the Vanderbilt Cup race last Saturday.

There was a conference of some of the representatives of entrants in the race yesterday afternoon at the Hotel Cumberland. W. C. Durant, representing the Marquette-Buick team of three; Howard Marmon, representing the three Marmon cars, E. R. Hollander, representing the three Fiat cars, and Jesse Froehlich, representing the three Benz cars, were among those present. After the meeting it was said that a committee consisting of Mr. Marmon and Mr. Hollander had been appointed to confer with officials of the Motor Cups Holding Company and that any news of the result of the later conference would be given out by the Motor Cups Holding Company. No news was given out.

One of the 30 horse-power Cole cars entered for the Fairmount Park road race, to be run next Saturday by the Quaker City Motor Club, threw Harry Endicott out during the practice yesterday morning as well as Dr. E. A. Zim
