UP STATERS TURNING TO DIX

FRIENDS OF TAFT HAVE RECEIVED 1500 LETTERS.

Continued from the Letter the Announcement That Five Counties Stand Roosevelt. Seven County Furnishes Largest Number Some Extracts.

[illegible]

[illegible] Republicans and Democrats [illegible] Dix [illegible] Republicans in Monroe, Niagara county sends names from North Tonawanda. Orange, where the anti-Roosevelt feeling is particularly acute, has forty names to Mr. Young's list.

In Oswego county there are Dix Republicans in Pulaski, Richland and Oswego. Putnam sends along a dozen names from Cold Spring. Mahopac and Carmel. Rensselaer furnishes the names of real estate brokers, lawyers and paper manufacturers of Troy. In Saratoga knit goods manufacturers, paper manufacturers, retired men and farmers are out for Dix. Among them is Frank Gifford, a paper manufacturer of Waterford.

Steuben and Tioga show large lists of travelling men, laborers, farmers, [illegible] grocers, bookkeepers, market men and professional men. Washington and Wayne counties are strongly represented by business men and employers. In Oneida county, where State Chairman Prentice went a few days ago "to iron things out," are forty three Republicans of standing who have written that they can't stand for Col. Roosevelt or his ticket. Among them is W. H. Roberts, a hardware merchant of Utica, who agrees with the estimate of President Stryker of Hamilton College of the feeling in that county.

Hundreds of letters have come from the counties near this city. In proportion to its size Nassau, Col. Roosevelt's home county, furnishes the largest list of names. In Richmond are thirteen Republicans who are out for Dix and write to say so. Among them are Andrew Powell of Rosebank and James J. Winants of Rossville. The letters from New York and Kings counties are from all classes of men.

The great majority of them wrote that they were averse to having their names printed because it might make trouble for them in their neighborhoods and because it would subject them to annoyance from Republican organization workers who would try to haul them back into line. W. H. Roberts of Utica, in company with some others, wasn't afraid of being annoyed. He wrote:

> For the first time in my life I expect to vote almost a straight Democratic ticket. I have heard Mr. Dix spoken of highly and I certainly have no use for Col. Roosevelt.
>
> I know a great many Republicans in this section, among the business men and manufacturers especially, who are going to vote a straight Democratic ticket, but whether or not they could care to declare this publicly remains to be seen.

Here is an extract from a letter written by a New York Republican:

> The great menace of the day to every business interest is unquestionably Roosevelt and the socialistic doctrines his name stands for. He is endeavoring to sing low and scramble at the present moment, but let Stimson be elected and he will blossom like a green bay tree and his noxious policies will destroy the old party. The only way to meet this peril is to kill him off now, once and for all time.

Another Dix Republican writes this letter:

> Roosevelt is a menace to this Government as he breathed to me. He wants to alter it and he is a dictator now to a horde of sycophants but not so to the men of the Republican party. I have been a Republican for more than forty years, but not one of his kind, and while there may be many who listen to his duplicity in his speeches in public, there never will be a majority of votes polled for him or his machine again. No patriotic American can consistently vote for him. He is dangerous in office, either in person or by proxy.

A New Yorker wrote:

> Barnum said the American people love to be fooled and the American political drummer, Roosevelt, has proved that Barnum was right. Well, there seems to be a change. These complacent, mild faced sheep are beginning to turn against the wolf, although they still tremble a little at his bark. Just watch them next November and afterward. I am a lifelong Republican, but will be glad to vote the straight Democratic ticket at the first opportunity. An ass may represent the Democratic party, but the Republican is a wooden Indian.

GAYNOR TO WRITE FOR DIX.

The Mayor Will Soon Indorse His Candidacy Publicly.

Mayor Gaynor indorsed yesterday the candidacy of John A. Dix. He said that it was true that it was his intention to write a letter publicly urging the election of Mr. Dix. He will write this letter early next week after his return from his visit to the President at Washington.

Mr. Dix called on the Mayor on Thursday, and commenting on this visit Mr. Gaynor said: "I believe that Mr. Dix would give the State a clean administration. He is thoroughly capable. It wants only a few minutes talk with him for any one to realize what a fine man he is."

Lawyers for Justice Garretson

Seventy-five lawyers of Queens county have issued a circular to the voters of the Second Judicial district urging them to support Justice Garret J. Garretson for reelection. The name of Justice Garretson is one of the three on the non-partisan ticket, nominated by the Republicans, but he was nominated by the Democrats. The appeal is made on the ground that if Justice Garretson is defeated Queens county will have no representative on the Supreme Court bench.

HE LOST ON DEX AND OTHERS.

The Letter a Good Man, but Tied Up by an Evil Party.

William R. Hearst, the Independence League candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, had a cold which kept him away from the League's meetings at Manhattan Casino, 155th street and Eighth avenue, and Sidney Garden, Third avenue and 138th street, where he was to have spoken last night. He sent Clarence J. Shearn to read his speech at both places, one at Sidney Garden, where the crowd had waited from 8 until 11 in the expectation of getting a chance to call for Hearst, a large part of the audience left when it was announced that there would have to be no speech without the author.

In the speech read by Mr. Shearn Mr. Hearst went over much the same ground as in his previous speeches, attacking both Democratic and Republican parties as corrupted by trust control. Characterizing Mr. Dix as Morgan's man and saying that Morgan commanded Dix at the Bankers' dinner the night [illegible] A large part of the speech was taken up with a comparison of what Mr. Dix and Mr. Hughes may have believed in and what Mr. Hearst believes, they going about there to stand for.

[illegible] Republican candidates [illegible] mentioned by Mr. Hearst, the speech read.

"I always have asked me why I [illegible] anything about Mr. Stimson. I am perfectly willing to say right now what I think about Mr. Stimson or anybody else. I think that Mr. Stimson is personally an honest man. I know that he commands a Rolls-Royce [illegible] that upon it in the speech.

"If Mr. Stimson and the Republicans in our state should be elected and if Mr. Stimson should want me to help he could not accomplish any more with the Republican party's hell and chain around his leg than Mr. Hughes could.

"Elihu J. Hupper, who heads the League ticket, spoke at both meetings. He said that I say about [illegible] Roosevelt.

"Finding his party thoroughly discredited in this state Roosevelt with his usual loud trumpet blast of egotism and hypocrisy announces that he will drive the men out of his party. Wearing the mask of his own qualification and the direct nomination constitution he puts forth a league. Roosevelt has once again betrayed those who trusted him.

"Can anything good come from a party led by a man who is a progressive in the West, a trimmer in the East and a self-seeker always?"

MONTANA FIKES TAFT

And Doesn't Dislike Roosevelt, Says Lieut.-Gov. W. R. Allen.

"How do you look upon Col. Roosevelt out in Montana?" was asked yesterday of Lieut. Gov. W. R. Allen of that State who is at the Holland House.

"Upon Roosevelt? the ex-President and private citizen we look as a good man. But we consider William H. Taft the President of this country," was the reply.

"Montana will return a solid Republican delegation to Congress this time," said Mr. Allen. "We are allowed only one Representative, and we are strongly represented by business men and employers. In Lewis county, where State Chairman Prentice went a few days ago "to iron things out," are forty three Republicans of standing who have written that they can't stand for Col. Roosevelt or his ticket. Among them is W. H. Roberts, a hardware merchant of Utica, who agrees with the estimate of President Stryker of Hamilton College of the feeling in that county.

"We have been campaigning ever since the middle of September, when the conventions were held. We have no primary elections in Montana, consequently we have to line up in conventions. The Republicans adopted a very progressive platform, but the party in the State is not divided, and there is no opportunity for differences to crop out.

"I am not equal to prophesying whether Senator Carter will be reelected. There are several candidates in the field, some of whom, it must be admitted, are very strong. Senator Carter is the only candidate who seems to be making an active canvass.

"Montana is well satisfied with the Payne-Aldrich tariff, and it supports Taft, though it takes Roosevelt too, for the Colonel has many friends out there."

The Campaign of Senator Travis.

An active campaign is being carried on in Brooklyn to secure the reelection of State Senator Eugene M. Travis, who has represented the Sixth district for two terms. In the last session he succeeded in passing twenty-five of his bills through both houses and twenty-seven through the Senate. He has been described by the Citizens Union as "very active in introducing bills and in urging the passage of his legislation, much of which was of considerable value." The Citizens Union recommends him for reelection, and he has been indorsed by the Independence League. Senator Travis was chairman of the Committee on Banking this year and has always been a consistent supporter of Gov. Hughes's policies in the Legislature. He introduced the original direct nominations bill favored by the Governor and took an active part in drawing up the Travis-Green measures, which passed in the Senate in 1907 and 1908. He also took an active part in bringing about the legislative graft investigation now going on.

WANDERING IN NORTH WOODS.

Party of Woodsmen and Hunters Searching for a Demented Man.

UTICA, Oct. 21. Somewhere in the vicinity of Honnedaga Lake in the Adirondacks a man whose identity is a mystery, but who is presumably a deer hunter from some city and who unquestionably is demented as a result of exposure and starvation, is wandering to-night while scores of woodsmen and hunters are combing the forest for some trace of the unfortunate. He was first encountered at dusk Wednesday by Game Protector Roy Crandall, who while near Swanson's Dam, about two and a half miles from Honnedaga Lake, came across a man who was pushing his way through the underbrush in an aimless sort of way. An attempt to converse with the man disclosed to Crandall that he was dazed.

The man was eating from an old tin can which he evidently found. Regarding his home and his destination he answered nothing that could be understood, but mumbled something about "the mountain." He could not speak his name, but when a piece of paper and a pencil were given him he wrote this: "John Schneimer." Nothing further could be obtained from him.

Crandall prepared to lead the way to the Honnedaga Club, but was met with a vigorous resistance on the part of the wanderer. Unable to get the man to accompany him the warden hurried to the clubhouse and reported the case there. A searching party was at once organized, but up to the present time no trace of the man has been found other than a trail which indicated that he had after leaving Crandall crossed West Canada Creek.

The woodsmen and hunters covered a wide area to-day, and to-night equipped with lanterns they continued their search.

GEBHARDT CONVICTED.

Jury Finds Him Guilty of Murdering Anna Luther.

RIVERHEAD, L. I., Oct. 21. Frederick Gebhardt was to-day convicted in the criminal branch of the Suffolk county Supreme Court of the murder of Anna Luther on April 9, 1909. The jury was out one hour. Gebhardt, although a married man with children, married Anna Luther to get hold of a small sum of money that she had. He lured her to a woods in Islip on the pretence of showing her some real estate and shot her. On hearing the verdict of the jury he nearly collapsed.

Mr. Wason, who set the country laughing in has written a new comedy novel (not an automobile story). It's as different as can be from his first book, but more amusing. In fact, it's different from anything else.

Happy Hawkins

Mayor Gaynor

when recovering from his bullet wound, said that he preferred Mr. Wason to Marcus Aurelius. You'll agree with him when you read "The Steering Wheel."

The STEERING WHEEL

By ROBERT ALEXANDER WASON

Author of HAPPY HAWKINS

At all Booksellers — The BOBBS-MERRILL COMPANY, Publishers

ROOT TO SPEAK FOR STIMSON

NIGHT AND MAYBE WICKERSHAM TO COME HERE TOO.

Republicans Promise a Livelier Campaign. Prentice Back From Upstate Proclaims Confidence. Hupperch Answers Charges About Dix and the Trust.

[illegible]

THE Healthful Art of Dancing

By Luther H. Gulick, M. D.

[illegible]

DOUBLEDAY, PAGE & COMPANY, GARDEN CITY, NEW YORK

[illegible] yesterday saying that "men might be [illegible] for Dix because he is an intelligent [illegible] capable man who will give a clean government and because, if they do, it will be an indication to Col. Roosevelt to go ahead and undermine the Constitution and subvert the Government."

Tammany is hard at work in Tammany's way. The campaign that is of a multitude of [illegible] and neighborhood meetings, where local speakers talk for Dix, with maybe a headliner or two to help things along. Secretary Tom Smith has enlisted a fleet whose initial contribution [illegible] runs.

[illegible] taxes increase.

[illegible] savings men.

[illegible] about account of Russia.

The Independence League folks at the Hotel Bossin keep hinting that William R. Hearst is upon the verge of reading papers extracts from other people's letters. The chances are that Mr. Hearst will make a short trip up State. His partisans in Buffalo and Rochester want him. If he goes it will be because the league wants to make a fair showing in the up-State vote. Mr. Hearst is said not to be keen for the excursion.

Light Registration in Westchester

NEW ROCHELLE, Oct. 21.—The registration here is nearly 600 short of last year, although the city has grown in population about 5 per cent. in the twelve months. In Mount Vernon, unless there is a big jump to-morrow, this year's figures will be the lowest in two or three years.

VICHY CELESTINS

Standard Natural Alkaline Water

A Delightful Table Water with Highly Medicinal Qualities

Standard Remedy for Dyspepsia Stomach Troubles and Gout

Owned by and bottled under the direct control of the French Government

Lehigh Valley Railroad

The Black Diamond Route

Ticket Offices and Phones

Hudson Terminal Bld'g, 4209 Cortlandt; 140 Broadway, 2697 Cortlandt; 355 Broadway, 1601 Franklin and 400 Worth; 1460 Broadway, 4212 and 4213 Bryant; 30 Flatbush Ave., B'k'n, 97 Main; 211 Market St., Newark.

B. Altman & Co.

AN UNUSUAL SALE OF BOYS' SUITS AND FURNISHINGS FOR THIS DAY (SATURDAY), OCT. 22d.

BOYS' NORFOLK AND DOUBLE-BREASTED SUITS OF FANCY MIXTURES AND CHEVIOTS, WITH EXTRA PAIR OF TROUSERS, WILL BE ON SALE IN 4 TO 17 YEAR OLD SIZES, AT THE VERY SPECIAL PRICES OF

$5.60 & $7.50

PARTICULAR ATTENTION IS DIRECTED TO BOYS' FINE DOUBLE-BREASTED ULSTERS OF IMPORTED MATERIALS, IN SEVERAL NEW STYLES, JUST RECEIVED.

BOYS' FURNISHINGS, CONSISTING OF THE FOLLOWING, WILL BE OFFERED AT MUCH BELOW THE USUAL PRICES:

BOYS' NEGLIGEE SHIRTS	AT 75c. EACH
BOYS' PAJAMAS OF OUTING FLANNEL	AT 65c. PER SUIT
BOYS' GREY COAT SWEATERS	AT $1.50 EACH
BOYS' SILK FOUR-IN-HAND SCARFS	AT 25c. EACH

ONE-CLASP GLOVES FOR MISSES AND BOYS WILL BE ON SALE AT THE SAME TIME, AS FOLLOWS:

GLOVES OF TAN GLACE LAMBSKIN OR OF GREY EGAL BUCK,

AT 85c. PER PAIR

Fifth Avenue, 34th and 33th Streets, New York.

Those Durable Shoes for Boys AT ALEXANDER'S

Sold here at $3 a pair in kid, calf and patent leather in a great assortment of sizes and widths. We believe them to be better in leather and style than any shoe sold at or near the price. Sizes 2½ to 5½.

ANDREW ALEXANDER
SIXTH AVE. AT 19TH ST., NEW YORK

Announcement No. 7

St. Paul-Minneapolis

An Epicurean Meal for a Dollar

Here is a recent menu of the table d'hote dinner served for one dollar on the North Western Limited, leaving Chicago each evening at 6.35 p. m.

CAVIAR TARTINE — LITTLE NECK CLAM COCKTAIL
Olives — Radishes — Sweet Pickles — Salted Almonds
CRAB GUMBO — COLD CONSOMME, En Tasse
MACKINAW WHITEFISH, BAKED, Au Gratin
GRILLED SWEETBREADS, FRESH MUSHROOMS
PRIME ROAST BEEF, Au Jus
Mashed Potatoes — Green Corn on the Cob
ROAST LONG ISLAND DUCKLING, Apple Sauce
Browned Bermuda Potatoes — Cauliflower, Hollandaise
HEARTS OF HEAD LETTUCE AND TOMATO SALAD
GOOSEBERRY PIE — ORANGE FLOAT
PISTACHIO ICE CREAM — ASSORTED CAKE — BERRIES
ROQUEFORT, EDAM AND BRIE CHEESE
TOASTED WATER CRACKER — SALTINE WAFERS
COFFEE — COCOA

And after dinner you spend an hour or two over your favorite magazine or a good book in the library-buffet-smoking car.

Then you're ready for a refreshing night's sleep in a roomy berth, with the air cooled by electric fans. Electric reading lights in sections, compartments and drawing-rooms.

You travel the whole way, too, over a smooth, double-track roadbed, safeguarded by automatic safety signals.

Other St. Paul-Minneapolis trains leave daily 10.10 p. m., 9.30 a. m. and 3.00 a. m.

For berths, reservations or information, apply at

THE NORTH-WESTERN LINE

Ticket Offices

Chicago & North Western Railway

R. M. JOHNSON, Gen'l Agent C. & N. W. Ry. 461 Broadway, New York, N. Y. Ticket Offices, 387 and 461 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

NW2601 (19)

Lord Northcliffe and a number of Army and Navy officers within the past year have taken it upon themselves to make some thoughtless remarks—in some cases not altogether true about

The Sunday Sun

[illegible]

Lord Northcliffe says:

[illegible]

Commander Hubbard, U. S. N., says:

Everybody I know in the Army and Navy (like myself regarding THE SUNDAY SUN. When I am on duty and can't get time to read my SUNDAY SUN and Sun on the day they're published I put them on top of my desk so that I can read them later, of course. They all do it. Oh, may be. But any one with a bowing acquaintance with a battleship knows that an Army man do not read THE SUNDAY SUN on a battleship, but at Army posts Commander Hubbard to the contrary and he that with all respect for the Navy's bravery and truthfulness, there isn't an officer aboard ship foolhardy enough to leave his SUNDAY SUN "on top" of his desk. In the Army and Navy they're kept under lock and key when not being read. And speaking about aviation well, if we weren't just at the moment, every one else is.

The International Aviation Meet

will be taken care of in THE SUNDAY SUN in the thorough manner that lead many to bear witness you may have the sworn statement if you want it that during recent meets THE SUNDAY SUN'S aviation news was looked for more eagerly than that of any other New York newspaper. Besides a complete report of the flights at Belmont Park in the news columns, the story of "Aeroplane Mail Routes," "Notes of the Airmen" and other flight subjects in the supplements will give all the flying information from the ground up. Incidentally

Don't Shoot Folks!

Oh, as a rule you don't, don't you? Well, another gunner who also goes in for murder only indifferently too tells in THE SUNDAY SUN under the headline "Shot at Birds, Hit Humans," how much easier he has found it is at times to hit humans than birds. To quote the woodshed saw, "This hurts me more than it does you, Johnny," applies to this blundering gunner, wherefore he writes a lecture on how to tell the wild birds from the caddies, even during the excitement of the chase. And if your field hunting this time of the year is confined to flat hunting you'll be interested to know that there's a Big Demand for Little Flats.

The Harlem flat that fits tight across the shoulders seems of late to be more of a joy than it was in the days when it was a stock joke. A real estate authority tells you why. This subject of size suggests the query

Want to Look Taller, Miss?

One who knows explains why a dumpy appearance in woman, like side whiskers on a man, is one's own fault. The tricks that add to one's height seem to be simple, and the writer explains them all. Dress, of course, plays a part, and if you think dress interests only the frivolous, see the article on Dress of the New York Business Woman.

You'll learn lots of interesting things about business dress from article and pictures. The writer trotted around Manhattan with eyes open and learned things. And whether you're in business or not you'll want to learn about Odd Ways of Getting Rent.

It's odd for lots of us to get rent in usual ways. Most of us merely pay rent, but some of our crowd have hit upon schemes in New York that make their rented properties bring in to the leaseholder returns in some cases as high as $35,000 a year. This is mostly around the theatre district, where nightly the thousands mad with the latest craze for Viennese operettas crowd the orchestra chairs nowanights. That craze and much about other Viennese musical matters are dealt with in Boy of Twelve a Composer.

Although THE SUNDAY SUN tells of a man who has spent fourteen years writing, printing and binding one book, it necessarily takes less time to write, print and bind THE SUNDAY SUN. But you'll learn from this paper that efforts toward timeliness haven't lessened the quality or quantity of stories about Women Sculptors, the Day When Everybody Bet, the Reminiscences of an Earlier New York as Douglas Taylor knew it; many new Chess Problems, the various Animal stories that long ago caused the belief that THE SUNDAY SUN has a Stable Editor on its staff, the Crooked Things about Trotting Races, what Woman is Doing Here and Everywhere, the Psychology of Sporting Men and the Types of Turfmen and Reformed Characters and the Passing of Hats, Luggage, and Shoes and Ships and Sealing Wax and Cabbages and Kings.