EMPLOYING PRINTERS UNITE.

Four Organizations Will Be Represented in a Central Conference Body.

A movement has been started to form a central body in this city of employing printers for the purpose of keeping in touch "on matters for the good of the trade." The Printers League, the Typothetæ of the City of New York, the Printers Board of Trade and the Master Printers Association will be members. A meeting of representatives of these bodies was called yesterday for January 6.

Frederick W. Smith, secretary of the Typothetæ, said last evening that if the central body is formed it will not interfere with the autonomy of the four organizations named. The Printers League is committed to the closed shop. The others are not committed in any way. Most of their members have open shops, but several individual members recognize the closed shop.

SHIRTWAIST STRIKE STARTS.

1,000 Women Stop Work, but a General Walkout May Be Avoided.

Strikes of waistmakers started yesterday in eleven shops of manufacturers who signed an agreement last year and refused to renew it. About 1,000 women quit work. Abraham Baroff, business agent of the Shirtwaist Makers Union, says more shops will be affected to-day.

A committee of the Women's Trade Union League will organize the shops which did not make settlements last year so that they can join in the demand for a new agreement. Miss Helen Marot, secretary of the Women's Trade Union League, said last evening that she still hoped there would be no general strike.

WOULD STRIKE IN CANADA TOO.

Locomotive Engineers in the West Are Demanding More Pay.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 21. Locomotive engineers and railroad officials in Winnipeg, talking over the threatened engineers strike on sixty-one roads, said this afternoon that every engineer in Western Canada would go out with the Americans.

An official of the union said that 50,000 men on this side of the line would be affected. Engineers are paid at the rate of $5 per hundred miles here and are asking for 27½ per cent. increase.

The Groveville Mills at Glenham Sold.

NEWBURGH, Dec. 21. The Groveville mills at Glenham, which have been idle for a number of years, have been contracted to be sold to the Loeb-Schoenfeld Company, whose main factory is at Boschach, Switzerland, with branches at Camden, N. J., and Lebanon, Pa. It is understood that they will remove both plants, centralizing their American plants at Glenham. The factory belonged to the Hilton estate and has been closed since 1893. It was originally held at $285,000, but was probably sold for $200,000. The Chamber of Commerce of Fishkill Landing took a prominent part in the deal.

R. H. Macy & Co.'s Attractions Are Their Low Prices.

Macy's
B'way at 6th Av. 34th to 35th St.

EVERY ONE KNOWS MACY'S PRICES ARE LOWEST

A company of men dining together the other day pronounced judgment on the advertisements of several of New York's largest stores. Some advertisements were called good, others otherwise, when one man said: "I tell you what, boys, you can say what you like about the advertisements—but if you go around to all these stores you'll find Macy's the busiest."

WHY?
Because Macy's Prices Are Lowest

¶ In a recent double page advertisement of an Indiana department store they designated Macy's "the greatest retail mercantile establishment in New York."

WHY?
Because Macy's Prices Are Lowest

¶ Shrewd shoppers familiar with all the New York stores tell us time and again that they shop around if time permits, but nine times out of ten—buy at Macy's.

WHY?
Because Macy's Prices Are Lowest

¶ Now, the lesson to be learned right now, or the reminder, of greatest importance to you, is that

You Can Do Holiday Shopping at Macy's at Tremendous Savings

And Remember, We Never Sacrifice Quality To Make a Low Price.

THE GREATEST SUCCESS IN MANY YEARS
LOUIS N. PARKER'S COMEDY OF HAPPINESS.
POMANDER WALK

"Nothing sweeter, simpler, or more persistently charming has got to the stage in this writer's remembrance."—WORLD.
"It is quite impossible to convey any adequate idea of the quaint charm of this delightful comedy, of its play of fancy and of wit, and its mellow humor. It is an exquisite idyll of Georgian days."—TIMES.
"From first to last you are pleased or nothing on this earth can please you. And where, if not at Wallack's Theatre, should such a play be presented in New York?"—TRIBUNE.
"Mr. Parker writes himself down as author of 'Rosemary.' In the future he may be proud to describe himself as the man who wrote such an exquisitely poetic and charming play as 'Pomander Walk.'"—SUN.
"There are a number of characters in the cast that might well have been born in the brain of Charles Dickens."—AMERICAN.
"One of those comedies that sends you out of the theatre thinking that, after all, life is worth living."—HERALD.
