IN SOCIETY.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, who entertained a large holiday party at the Fish country place at Garrison, N. Y., gave a dinner of fifty covers at her town house, 25 East Seventy-eighth street, on Thursday night. She is giving a series of big dinners, all with profuse and effective floral decorations and followed by entertainments. The next will be given on Saturday night, January 14. Among other dinner cards out are those of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Thacher, 49 East Fifty-first street, next Wednesday; of Mrs. Robert C. Morris at Fox Savoy on next Thursday and of Mrs. J. Allen Townsend, 237 Madison avenue, on the same night. Miss Justine Van Rensselaer Barber, daughter of Mrs. Thomas H. Barber of 45 East Sixty-eighth street, will give a dinner on next Wednesday night for Miss Eleanora Kissel. Mrs. H. Fairfield Osborn, 850 Madison avenue, has dinner cards out for Thursday nights, January 12 and 19. Miss Cornelia Clifford Brown, the débutante daughter of Mrs. Pierre Waring, will give a dinner of forty covers on next Friday night at Sherry's and with her guests attend the dance later to be given for Miss Leta Pell Wright.

There was a full attendance of the members of the Saturday dances last night at Delmonico's when Mrs. Charles R. Huntington and other patronesses, who are Mrs. Sackett M. Barclay, Mrs. James A. Glover, Mrs. John Clarkson Jay, Mrs. F. Livingston Pell, Mrs. Charles Edward Sands, Mrs. L. Jacquelin Smith, Mrs. C. Goodridge Wyeth, received. Dancing began at 9.30 o'clock and at midnight supper was served. Montgomery Strong led the cotillion.

Miss Ruth Lily Huggins and Charles Edmund Van Vleck, Jr., will be married on Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. George L. Huggins, 118 West Fifty-seventh street. The ceremony will be performed at 8 o'clock by Dr. Almon Gunnis, and the bride will be attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Nathaniel Huggins, as matron of honor. There will be no bridesmaids or ushers. Horace Van Vleck will assist his brother as best man.

Mrs. William W. Fuller of 1072 Fifth avenue will give a dance at Sherry's next Tuesday night. Mrs. H. Fairfield Osborn of 850 Madison avenue will also give a dance on Tuesday. Mrs. Geraldyn Redmond will give a dance on Wednesday at the Colony Club for Miss Elizabeth Gay Russell. Mrs. Eben Wright of 10 West Fifty-third street will give a dance on Friday night, January 13, at Sherry's for Miss Leta Pell Wright. Mrs. Henry Clarke Coe of 8 West Seventy-sixth street will give a dance that night at the Colony Club.

The tableaux in the big ball room of the Plaza Hotel on Wednesday, it is expected, will be particularly fine. Included in the programme will be that of Hypatia, represented by Mrs. Edward Thomas. Mrs. James B. Eustis will appear as St. Cecelia; Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson will pose as one of Raphael's Madonnas; Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., will be Joan of Arc, and Mrs. Philip M. Lydig an Italian woman of the fifteenth century. Mrs. George J. Gould will be Catherine of Russia, and Mrs. W. Bourke Cockran Mary Wollstoncraft. Mrs. James B. Stillman will be the Goddess of Liberty, and Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay will be Florence Nightingale. The entertainment is under the supervision of Winthrop Ames. It is under the auspices of the Equal Franchise Society.

Duc de Richelieu, son of the Princess of Monaco, and Count Jean de Monceau have attended some of the smart functions of the past week. Baron F. von Blücher and Baron G. von Bredow of Germany, here during the week, are going to Mexico for some shooting. Countess von Ostheim left on Thursday for Europe.

Mrs. Vanderbilt will give a dance at her residence, 1 West Fifty-seventh street, to-morrow night. Her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald C. Vanderbilt, who are staying with her, are booked to leave for Europe next Saturday. They plan to return in the early spring and go to Sandy Point Farm, their place near Newport. The trip will be made for the benefit of Mr. Vanderbilt's health. Mrs. French Vanderbilt was among the New York guests at the Leiter ball in Washington on Tuesday night. Harold Sterling Vanderbilt, younger son of William K. Vanderbilt, attended some of the functions of the week.

Hans Kierstede Hudson, whose marriage to Miss Ethel Le Roy de Koven will take place on the afternoon of January 18 in Grace Church, will give his bachelor dinner on next Saturday night at Delmonico's. His guests will include C. Alan Hudson, Campbell W. Steward, Robert Le Roy, Walter Kobbé, Alfred Macy, Rowland Stebbins, John H. Reynolds, who are to assist him as best man and ushers. The bride will be attended by her cousin, Miss Adelaide Chatfield Taylor, a Chicago débutante of this winter; the Misses Margaret A. Steward, Evelyn Rives Smith, Grace Moore, Maude R. Borland, Gladys F. Waterbury and Louise N. Cruice of Philadelphia.

The round of smart dances for the week began last Monday night with that of Mrs. Joseph F. Stillman of 35 East Thirty-ninth street, which was preceded by a dinner of thirty covers. Mrs. Ralph Oaklev gave a dance at the St. Regis Hotel that night. Several hundred guests were invited. On Tuesday night there was lots of dancing, with the junior cotilion at Sherry's, the dance of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Young at their apartment in the Apthorp and of Mrs. Peter Cooper Hewitt of 11 Lexington avenue, where a cotilion was danced.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Osgood Field entertained a holiday party at Highlawn, their Lenox country place. Dr. and Mrs. W. Seward Webb returned to their town house, 680 Fifth avenue, on Wednesday from their country place at Shelburne, Vt. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Payne Whitney are expected to arrive from Europe to-day or to-morrow.

Courtlandt P. Dixon will give his bachelor dinner on January 20 at Delmonico's. His guests will include William H. Dixon, his brother; Howland Auchincloss, Walter Davis, Jr., Seymour Johnson, J. Henry Alexandre, Jr., Frederic F. de Rham and Theodore P. Dixon, who will assist him as best man and ushers at his marriage to Miss Hortense Howland on Thursday, January 26, at St. Bartholomew's Protestant Episcopal Church, Madison avenue and Forty-fourth street. The rector, the Rev. Dr. Leighton Parks, will perform the ceremony. The bride, who is a daughter of Louis Meredith Howland of Paris, will enter with her grandfather, Col. Frank N. Lawrence, who will give her in marriage. She will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Frederic Kernochan, as matron of honor and by the Misses Nathalie Howland, a sister; Mary Elizabeth Alexandre, Virginia Alexandre, her cousins, and Priscilla Stanton as bridesmaids. Afterward Col. Lawrence will give a reception at his home, 18 West Fifty-third street.

A big wedding for next Thursday evening at St. Augustine, Fla., will be that of Miss Alice Marsden Smethurst and the Rev. Samuel Tyler in the Trinity Episcopal Church. The bride will be given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Dr. Andrew Anderson. Afterward there will be a bridal supper and reception at Markson. The couple will settle at Walnut Hills, Cincinnati, where the bridegroom has a large parish. Miss Smethurst formerly lived in Philadelphia.

The Three Dances are such enjoyable affairs that, despite their name, there are four of them. The second is on for to-morrow night at the Plaza. The dancing will be general from 10 o'clock on, and the supper will be served at midnight. The patronesses, Mrs. W. W. McAlpin, Mrs. J. H. McKee, Mrs. Rowland A. Robbins, Mrs. Charles W. Romeyn, Mrs. G. T. Wilson, Mrs. Frank V. Burton, Mrs. Ira Barrows, Mrs. Weatherbee, Mrs. Henry Dick and Mrs. W. C. Fargo, will receive.

Among the dinners given on last Tuesday night were those of Mrs. J. F. D. Lanier of 123 East Thirty-fifth street, Miss Arna Sands of 11 East Eighty-fourth street, Mrs. Sidney Dillon Ripley, Mrs. P. Cooper Hewitt, Mrs. E. Heywood Ferry of 26 West Fifty-sixth street, Mrs. William Allen Butler, Jr., of 30 East Seventy-second street, Mrs. Daniel French of 125 West Eleventh street, Mrs. William S. Edgar of 127 East Seventieth street, Mrs. Charles E. Tiffany of 128 East Thirty-sixth street, Mrs. F. S. Witherbee of 4 Fifth avenue and Mrs. Arthur Murray Dodge of 563 Park avenue. Mrs. Alfred Wagstaff, Jr., of 24 East Fifty-fourth street, who entertained for Miss Agnes Le Roy Edgar and Mrs. Richard Gambrill of 30 Park avenue also gave Tuesday dinners, as did Mrs. Robert J. Collier of 752 Park avenue.

On Wednesday night Mrs. Oakleigh Thorne of 299 Madison avenue gave a dinner for her daughter, Mrs. Birdseye B. Lewis. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Oakley Rhinelander of 36 West Fifty-second street and Mrs. Urban H. Broughton of 15 East Seventy-eighth street also gave dinners, the latter being in honor of her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Dallas Bache Pratt. Mrs. Moses Taylor Campbell of 25 East Sixty-second street and Mrs. Norman Whitehouse of 118 East Fifty-sixth street also were among the dinner givers of Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Sanford of 112 East Sixty-fourth street left yesterday for Algiers and were accompanied by Mrs. Sanford's sister, Miss Agnes Le Roy Edgar, a debutante of this winter. Mr. and Mrs. Giraud Foster and their son, Giraud Foster, Jr., who will leave on Tuesday, will winter in Egypt. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred M. Coats and the Misses Coats, who have been in town from Providence, R. I., since before the holidays, will leave for England on next Wednesday.

Lord Fairfax was among the guests at Frederick Townsend Martin's dinner on last Sunday night. Sir Charles Wakefield left on Tuesday for England. Sir Arthur Elliott is in town and attending to business interests. Lady Arthur Elliott and their daughter are on the way to London. Lady Herbert, who reached here soon after the death of her father, the late R. T. Wilson, returned to England on Thursday. Lord and Lady Robert Alastair Innes-Ker, the former a younger brother of the Duke of Roxburghe, have had several dinners given for them since their arrival from England. Earl Grey, Governor-General of Canada, and party, are expected to remain at the Plaza during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ledyard Blair and family, who entertained friends over the holidays at their country house near Bernardsville, N. J., returned during the week to the Gotham, where they are passing the winter. Others now settled there for the season include Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Gardiner and Miss Adelaide B. Gardiner of Kenmore, Ridgewood, N. J., who will ermain in town until May 1. Mrs. Gilbert C. Greenway and Miss Greenway of Hot Springs, Ark.; Paul Moore, son of Judge Moore of Chicago, and Mrs. Moore, a daughter of the late Mark Hanna, who are settled for the winter at the Gotham, passed the holidays with a party of friends at the Country Club at Cleveland, Ohio.

Reginald H. Brooks left last Wednesday for the South on a duck shooting trip through Florida. On the same day Mrs. Brooks and their children went to London and will visit for a time with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. Waldorf Astor. Mrs. Brooks's younger sister, Mrs. Higgins, has also resided there since her marriage here two or three years ago.

Mrs. V. Burton-Hart of 404 West 115th street has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Lina Burton-Hart, to the Rev. Edward P. Newton, formerly of Calvary parish, Fourth avenue and Twenty-first street.
