IN THE FOOTBALL WORLD

GRIDIRONS AT ALL COLLEGES SCENES OF HARD PLAY.

Harvard's Freshmen Promising—St. Germain at Yale—Ithacans Reform Reds and Blues' Scrubs Disgruntle Princeton Varsity—Amherst Improving.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 17.—Rain and a muddy, slippery field bothered Harvard not at all this afternoon, the players not even going to the cage for signal drill. The blackboard session was specially long, and so was the work on plays in the stadium, Corbett working out two sets of backs before the varsity was sent into a scrimmage against the second team.

The freshman team at Harvard this fall looks like a dandy, but the boys were nervous against the regulars. However, with the bad footing and the slippery ball the regulars were able to score on the freshmen only once, the one touchdown being scored by Bud Smith, who running from his position slid around the freshmen's right wing for 20 yards. The freshmen attack made little headway, their only brilliant play being made by Brickley, who intercepted a forward pass that Potter was making to Smith, and running from his own 30 yard line past the middle of the field. A kick then sent the varsity back to its 10 yard line, from where Potter, standing under the goal, got away a 30 yard kick, Gardiner recovering the ball when fumbled by the freshmen.

Capt. Fisher was on the field to-day, but not dressed for play. He hurt his knee Saturday and was worried a bit yesterday although he worked. To-day the scare was over and Fisher will be back in the lineup to-morrow. Fisher has played football ten years at school and college and never has been taken out of a game because of an injury. To-morrow Harry Kersburg, a former varsity guard, who coached two years ago under Haughton, will begin a two weeks session at Cambridge as coach for the guards. Capt. Fisher is looking for more line material and has Jim Wray's consent to take Goodale, who stroked the freshman crew last year and who played on the freshman line last fall.

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 17.—There were many shifts in the Yale lineup to-day, shifts which are expected to hold for some time. The coaches waited until Paul had come back to scrimmaging before they made them. Then they put Paul in at his old tackle position, shifted Francis from guard to end, put Childs in at guard and Cooney in at centre. Freeman, who has been doing well at halfback on the scrub team, was put in at halfback on the varsity to-day. Reilly and Anderson being the other backs, with Spalding in for a little while. Merritt played through the scrimmage at quarterback, while Capt. Howe followed the team with the coaches.

Childs, at varsity guard to-day for the first time, played a hard game and no one got through him. When the varsity had the ball he proved a very aggressive guard. Francis did well at end and Avery, who was at the other, end didn't let any one get through him. The only scoring in the scrimmage was done by Freeman, who made a touchdown.

Thomas L. St. Germain, the Indian player, arrived in New Haven to-day and is eligible for the Yale team. He helped coach last year. He played in the line in a Western college some years ago. He has been in the employ of the Government recently. Philbin was in the signal drill at halfback to-day and will probably play that position again as West Point, as his shoulder is getting better. The coaches at the field to-day were Walter Camp, Jack Field, Buck Morris, Arthur Brides, Earl O. Kistler, Dewitt Cookran, Ted Lilley, Phil Smith, Dr. William T. Bull, Paul Veeder and Charlie Chadwick.

ITHACA, Oct. 17.—The process of strengthening the Cornell football team to-day took the form of a requisition of the Reds and Blues, as the varsity and scrubs are known. Half a dozen first string varsity men were put over on the Blues, and this team was strong enough as a consequence to beat the varsity in the scrimmage by two touchdowns to one. In addition to Binns, who has been playing right guard, Williamson, a sub tackle, and Fritz, one of the ends, the scrubs had the services of a good many leaders of the varsity back field, including Butler, Collins, McCormick and Underhill. On the Red team Eyrich and Stimson played ends, Krogstad and Champaign tackles, Delano, the old varsity man who has not been in the first lineup in two weeks, and Weidenthal, who has been a sub all season, guards. Whyte centre, Smith quarterback, O'Conner and Hawkins halfbacks and Cass, another sub, fullback. Cass was not brought out into the varsity lineup until very late in the day. Another varsity man who was "there" to-day was O'Connor, at left half. He carried the ball in most of the varsity gains, was fast and sure and his dodging was clever. The interference of the backs on both teams was better than usual.

O'Connor scored the first touchdown of the game by an end run after the Reds had gained through the Blues' line for a number of plays. To show that he was getting back his form Butler took the ball on a quarterback run around Stimson for the second touchdown after Collins's line dashes had given him a good chance. One of the best onside kicks of the year gave Fritz a chance for a fifty yard run and a second touchdown for the Blues.

AMHERST, Mass., Oct. 17.—Coach Savage was visibly pleased with the reappearance of Gen. Miles, '12, in the Amherst backfield to-day. With the captain of the track team back in the lineup and another speedy halfback, Connolly, at right half prospects begin to seem cheerful again. In a twenty minute scrimmage, the varsity took the ball from the 40 yard line against the freshmen and scored four times in successive attempts. Capt. Marden was not on the field and his place was taken by Browne, '12, temporarily. Proudfoot suffered a slight injury to his ankle at right end, but otherwise there were no mishaps. Cook, '12, has not been tried in the backfield as yet but is learning the signals. If he makes good with his weight, speed and hard tackling Monday will very likely be relegated to the second squad. The coaches are in a hole over a man to fill left tackle and to-day a new senior, Cushman, was tried out. Baumann, '12, will fill this gap temporarily if he recovers from his injury by the Harvard game.

ANNAPOLIS, Oct. 17.—Rather than take any chances of not having its full strength for the final game against the Army team the Navy coaches will have the eleven enter the game against Princeton next Saturday with Capt. Dalton and its tackles Brown and Davis. None of the three has been in the game either yesterday or to-day, and though it is hoped that they will be a share for the big local contest no chances of using their services will be taken. Rodman is playing a strong game at right tackle, Davis's old place, but Leonard cannot do the fine breaking work of Dalton or can Ralston fill Big Brown's place acceptably. All three of the players are suffering with bad legs. Ingram played in Weems's place at centre this afternoon.

WEST POINT, Oct. 17.—The rain to-day caused drill to be dispensed with and the coaches seized upon the extra time and contrary to the usual programme drove the men through a long scrimmage until it was so dark the players were hardly in the line. The first team was unable to cross the scrubs' line, nor could they gain consistently for any great length against the strong defence of the second string. There were flashes of brilliant individual playing, both Dean and Hyatt doing some good gaining in running back punts. The defence of the varsity was strong and Arnold and Devore both stopped plays before they could get started. The forward pass was tried repeatedly, but without one successful pass during the afternoon. Hyatt was replaced by Keyes at quarterback and made two drop kicks. One from the 40 yard line just missed the goal and the other from the 35 yard line fell short.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 17.—With the coaches driving the men to their limit the Pennsylvania football team went through a gruelling practice this evening on Franklin Field. With the entire squad in such a non-aggressive condition the coaches feel that their only chance to send the team hard and long throughout the present week. To-day's showing was for the most part very discouraging. A new feature was added to the practice. A team from the battleship Maine, which is now at League Island, was lined up against the varsity at 4 o'clock for half an hour's scrimmage. No regular game was played though kick-offs and regular systems of play were carried out. The jackies showed up very well against the varsity, though their style of play was not along modern lines. The varsity scored but three times on the battleship team, with its many weaknesses.

HANOVER, Oct. 17.—As though Coach Cavanaugh and his staff have not had enough trouble this season what will be the last straw came this afternoon when Hogsett was knocked out, and will probably be out of the game for the rest of the year. It is putting it lightly to say that coming the day after Ambrose was permanently put out of the game the loss of Hogsett is the most serious blow that could be aimed at the back field.

This afternoon practice was begun in the Gymnasium, where the team tried out a number of trick plays. Then behind closed gates these new formations were experimented upon the 1915 delegation. In the first minute of scrimmage the freshmen recovered one of Curtis's long punts and Romers, the 1915 fullback, kicked a goal from placement from the 35 yard line. After that the varsity got together and got their revenge upon the youngsters in the shape of two touchdowns made by Hogsett and Morey. The regulars played with greater spirit and dash than for some time and everything began to look as though the results of the midseason slump had passed away, when the unforeseen happened, which has cast a heavy gloom upon the student body and the coaching staff. Hogsett was tackled by one of the freshmen and thrown on his shoulders. It was learned to-night that the right shoulderblade was broken.

PROVIDENCE, Oct. 17.—The Brown coaches drove the men hard for three hours in a drizzling rain. The first of the afternoon was spent in handling punts and forward passes. Ashbaugh, the husky end, was unable to practice because of a bad ankle. Shipley, who took his place, showed good form. For the first time in a number of years Brown has a capable substitute for every position. The line, which has been weak in the early games, received much of the coaches' attention. Kulp and Gelb, who have just recovered from injuries, bolstered up the line in great shape. The scrubs were given the ball again and again, but made little headway against the varsity forwards.

Bean and Crowther will probably replace Marble and Tenny as halfbacks in the game against Pennsylvania next Saturday. Shipley also will get in the game for a time at Adams's end.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Oct. 17.—Although Wesleyan won from Union last Saturday 20 to 6, the showing of this home team was not satisfactory to Coach Larry Vorhis. The Union team was nearly ten pounds lighter to a man, but in spite of this Wesleyan could not score during the first three quarters. The poor showing was partly explained by the absence of Bacon, the varsity quarter who injured his knee in a scrimmage last week. He is a particularly heady player and the team has confidence in him. Bacon is around in uniform this week but is sparing the bad knee. Ross, who takes his place, is a good man but lacks experience. McKenzie, a freshman from Wilbraham, is developing into some punter. Diamond, who has been covering right end since Grant and Eustice joined the hospital list, is doing snappy work. He works the forward pass in a pretty manner. Murphy is a strong man for centre, filling the gap Capt. Mitchell left when he retired from the game for the season.

ANN ARBOR, Oct. 17.—When Michigan stacked up against the Michigan Aggies last Saturday they ran against a tougher proposition than they expected. With a line that was almost as heavy and a backfield fully as fast, the Farmers gave the State institution a stiff fight until they were worn down by the latter's superior strength. That Coach Yost was not satisfied with the 15-3 result was made clear after the game when he said that the score should have been at least 24 to 0. This score shows the comparative strength of the two teams better than the result of the game, as Michigan gained almost at will in the centre of the field and time and time again were held on the 5 yard line because Craig called for Wells or Thomson to go through centre against the whole Aggie team. Although Yost has announced but one change in the present lineup, that of shifting Craig to half, yet it is strongly held here that a few large changes are in order. The most important of these is that of sending Wells back as Craig's running mate from right end and the shifting of Capt. Conklin from tackle to the vacant end. Conklin is originally an end, having played that position on the high school teams. This shift will bring Bogle to tackle and Alimendinger to right guard, Quinn or Robien taking the other side of centre. This will leave a reserve force of Meek to replace Thomson at full, Carpell, Torbett, Wenner and Herrington halfs and Craig and Barton ends. McMillan will do all the quarterback work from now on, with Picard and Craig ready to jump in at any moment. This shift gives Michigan the fastest and heaviest line possible and the fastest and hardest charging backfield to be had. As a ground gainer Wells has hardly any equal, so that this shift will add materially on the offence. Craig, though not so fast as his brother, is yet the fastest man in college unless it be Garrels. There have been three or four men showing up well on the scrubs, and if they keep up their work they are liable to step into fast company and upset the dope. Otis at centre and H. Smith at end are the two most promising reserves.

PRINCETON, Oct. 17.—A forty-five minute scrimmage against the scrub this afternoon gave the Princeton varsity a hard workout but incidentally increased the discouragement that the coaches at present feel about the outcome of the season. The scrub won the scrimmage by one touchdown to none, and coming after the showing against Colgate which gave hopes for better things the playing of the varsity afforded but little satisfaction. The prevailing opinion here just now is that the team will have to play 100 per cent. better than it has been playing if it hopes to come out of the Navy game unscathed. In addition to the fact that the line to-day fell back to its old habit of failing to open holes for the backs the backs themselves were slow in starting, a fault to which they have not been so greatly given in the past. On mass plays the weakness of both forwards and back was noticeably manifested and practically the only gains that the varsity was able to make were the result of end runs. The forward pass was also a dismal failure although toward the end of the scrimmage the handling of the play improved materially.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Oct. 17.—The Williams varsity coach is devoting his entire attention these days to the punting side of the game and this afternoon's practice was wholly along this line with the exception of the last part which was given over to signal work. The care and detail with which Coach Daly directed the work show his determination to perfect so far as possible the team in this important part of the present day game. An important change was made in the eleven. Capt. Linder going from fullback to centre. His work there to-day was a feature of the practice, since he was down the field on every punt and did more than his share of tackling. Kellogg took his place in the back field. Pringle who has been on the scrub for a week, was shifted back to his old position at right guard. The second team was lined up against the varsity in the punting practice, taking the offensive side. Coach Daly remained in the back field and constantly demanded more aggressiveness, particularly in tackling.

Football practice at New York University yesterday afternoon was encouraging. For an hour and a half the varsity and scrub teams were against each other in a hard, fast scrimmage in which the line was coached in making holes and the backs were sent through on plunges. Torrence appeared at centre and made a good showing. Bristol, Sulzer and Rashbaum were all tried against him. Torrence was the captain at the High School of Commerce in 1908. In 1909, his first year at the University of Vermont, he made centre on the All New England team. He is now at the school of commerce, accounts and finance of New York University. Huntley, Nixon and Coleman took turns running the team yesterday. Nixon played with the team two years ago. Several end runs were tried and Moore did the best in the back field. Elliffe was not out and Von Egloffstein and Comfort alternated at left half.

WOMEN GOLFERS SCORE WELL

MISS BISHOP, WITH ROUND OF 87, LEADS AT MONTCLAIR.

But for Special Rule Brooklawn Player Would Have Won Three Prizes—Members of Engineers Club Plan 2 Days Outing—The Decisions in Book Form.

One of the best fields that has turned out for a one day tournament this season competed for a varied lot of prizes over the links of the Montclair Golf Club yesterday. The affair was run off by the home organization with the cooperation of the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association, which gave the gross score prize in the medal play handicap.

It so happened that Miss Georgianna M. Bishop, the Brooklawn player, who has held both the national and metropolitan titles, had matters all her own way, going round in 87. Even though she played from scratch Miss Bishop was low for both net and gross. The same score also left her only 3 down in the bogey competition, but as the conditions stipulated that a person could not win more than one prize, the Bridgeport player had to make a choice. She selected the gross. This left Miss Eleanor Whitney of Morris County winner of the net prize with 97, 7—90. Mrs. J. S. Irving of Englewood won the bogey contest, finishing 6 down.

Later in the day the women competed in a putting contest for two prizes. After all had made the double circuit of the putting course it was found that Mrs. A. C. Aborn and Mrs. J. A. Philbrick had tied at 35. On the playoff Mrs. Aborn won.

The scores in the handicap were as follows:

Miss G. M. Bishop, Brooklawn, 87, 0—87; Miss E. Whitney, Morris County, 97, 7—90; Mrs. J. S. Irving, Englewood, 99, 8—91; Miss L. Graham, North Jersey, 105, 14—91; Mrs. Frank Enos, Englewood, 111, 18—93; Mrs. T. Neilson, Hackensack, 106, 12—94; Miss B. B. Stratton, Cranford, 106, 12—94; Mrs. T. H. Polhemus, Richmond County, 96, 2—94; Mrs. Ryan, Cranford, 119, 25—94; Miss P. Schwartzwalder, Baltusrol, 104, 10—94; Mrs. F. E. Donohoe, Montclair, 102, 7—95; Mrs. Wetherell, Cranford, 109, 14—95; Miss Pickhardt, Englewood, 108, 12—96; Mrs. S. Cunningham, Englewood, 108, 12—96; Miss Farrelly, Englewood, 122, 25—97; Mrs. N. P. Rogers, Baltusrol, 100, 3—97; Miss B. Graham, North Jersey, 112, 14—98; Mrs. R. O. Smith, Montclair, 107, 8—99; Mrs. John Philbrick, Montclair, 123, 22—101; Mrs. I. Whitney, Morris County, 121, 20—101; Miss Eleanor Freeman, Englewood, 108, 6—102; Miss Louisa Krug, Englewood, 108, 6—102; Miss C. Griggs, North Jersey, 120, 18—102; Mrs. J. L. Griggs, North Jersey, 116, 14—102; Miss S. Wharton, Plainfield, 127, 25—102; Mrs. W. A. Holman, Hackensack, 122, 18—104; Mrs. C. L. Dumont, Plainfield, 129, 25—104; Mrs. W. D. Moffatt, Hackensack, 115, 10—105; Mrs. W. F. Morgan, Baltusrol, 109, 4—105; Mrs. A. Aborn, Montclair, 114, 9—105; Mrs. C. F. Ubelacher, Hackensack, 118, 12—106; Miss M. L. Johnston, Glen Ridge, 121, 15—106; Mrs. C. L. Redfield, Montclair, 128, 20—108; Mrs. Sterling, Montclair, 123, 14—109.

Bogey Handicap—Miss G. M. Bishop, Brooklawn, scratch—3 down; Mrs. S. R. Irving, Englewood, 6 down; Miss Pickhardt, Englewood, 9—7 down; Miss P. Schwartzwalder, Baltusrol, 7—7 down; Mrs. Wetereli, Cranford, 11—7 down; Mrs. Frank Enos, Englewood, 14—8 down; Miss L. Graham, North Jersey, 11—8 down; Miss B. A. Griggs, North Jersey, 11—12 down; Mrs. N. P. Rogers, Baltusrol, 6—12 down; Mrs. W. F. Morgan, Baltusrol, 3—14 down; Miss M. L. Johnstone, Glen Ridge, 12—14 down; Mrs. C. L. Redfield, Montclair, 15—18 down.

The Engineers Club, whose town house is at 32 West Fortieth street, this city, will hold its annual fall golf tournament to-day and to-morrow over the links of the Nassau Country Club. A start will be made with best ball foursomes, combined handicaps to count, and there will be prizes for the pairs with the two leading net totals. Later in the day an eighteen hole medal play handicap in three classes will be run off. First and second prizes will be awarded in each class. In the evening sand traps and missed putts will be forgotten at the "golfers' dinner" when visiting members from the Chicago Engineers Club will be the guests of honor.

Opposing sides will rally for the team match to-morrow when the Chicago Engineers Club and the Engineers Club of New York will renew their annual struggle. Thus far each side has a victory, but before permanent possession of the cup can be had one team or the other must win it three times. Previous tournaments under the auspices of this organization have been held at Montclair, Essex county, and Oakland.

Decisions of the rules of golf committee of the Royal and Ancient Golf Club for 1909-10 have been compiled by Robert C. Watson, secretary of the United States Golf Association. There are 400 copies in book form, the idea being to send a copy to every club in the association. This innovation was decided upon at a meeting of the executive committee held on April 28 last. The preface contains the following:

"The rules of golf committee finds that many of the cases submitted to it arise owing to competitions being held under conditions which are insufficiently stated. Such points as the following should be provided for:

"1. The time and method of starting.

"2. The limit of time within which the matches in each section of a tournament shall be completed.

"3. The manner in which halved matches shall be decided, whether played on level terms or under handicap.

"In competitions where the finalists are allowed to arrange the date of the final within certain limits the committee in charge of the competition should announce that the final must be played at a stated hour on the last day of the period unless the finalists agree to a prior date.

"Before starting in handicap competitions competitors should check their handicaps with the official list.

"In match play handicap competitions competitors should make themselves aware of the holes at which they give or receive strokes."

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—Although no rain fell during the night the fog that prevailed during the early hours of the morning prevented the course of the Huntingdon Valley Country Club from drying out and the fair contestants at Noble yesterday played golf under an even greater disadvantage than on the first day. Under the circumstances, therefore, it is not surprising that the scores ruled high, although Mrs. Ronald H. Barlow did the first nine holes of her match with Mrs. Hirsh in forty-four strokes.

There were no surprises in the first sixteen, although there were one or two good matches. As was expected, Miss Dorothy Campbell defeated Miss Anita Phipps. The Boston player, however, put up a rare good game and carried the match to the seventeenth green, where she was beaten 2 up and 1 to play.

The summary:

First Sixteen, Berthelin Cup—First round—Miss Dorothy Campbell, Hamilton, Canada, defeated Miss Anita Phipps, Boston, 2 up and 1 to play; Miss Nesbit, Toronto, Canada, defeated Miss Phelps, Boston, 3 up and 1 to play; Miss F. C. Griscom, Merion C. C., defeated Miss Helmer, Midlothian G. C., Chicago, 4 up and 3 to play; Mrs. R. H. Barlow, Merion C. C., defeated Mrs. Hirsh, Philmont C. C., 8 up and 7 to play; Mrs. C. H. Vanderbeck, Philadelphia C. C., defeated Mrs. McCammon, Huntingdon Valley C. C., 4 up and 3 to play; Miss F. Harvey, Hamilton, Canada, defeated Miss Noble, Wilmington C. C., 1 up. Mrs. Caleb F. Fox, Huntingdon Valley C. C., defeated Miss G. Wells, Brookline C. C., 4 up and 3 to play.

Duplicate Balk Line Tournament Started at Daly's.

The first game of the duplicate balk line tournament was played last evening at Maurice Daly's parlors, Forty-ninth street and Broadway. It was very interesting from the standpoint of balk line play. The attempt shows it was a display of the technique of the game and demonstrated that amateurs have much to learn about the correct system of the game.

Gershel and Conway, the two experts who played the opening game, were a little confused as to the best method of conducting their play. They made quite a few mistakes in their selections of positions and at times placed the balls in the poorest of places for successful runs, but taking into consideration the fact of their not having sufficient experience at this style of play they did remarkably well, expecially Mr. Gershel, who managed to make a run of 55 and an average of 15 less one point. This is going fairly well for his initial effort and before the tournament is over there is no doubt that he will show much superior play. Mr. Conway, who is strictly an open player, did not show his regular form. He was nonplussed most of the time with the positions and did not seem able to grasp the situations and utilize them to advantage, but later with a little more experience there is no doubt that he will show vast improvement. The score:

	Points.	High run.	Average
Gershel	329	55	14 21-22
Conway	180	21	8 4-22

The tournament will continue for about ten days, games being played every evening.

Sophomores Defeat Freshmen.

In a loosely played game on South Field yesterday the Columbia sophomore baseball team defeated the freshman nine by the score of 11 to 8. The interest in the game was due to the fact that this is one of the annual freshman-sophomore contests and the class rivalry was keen, although as a result of the game the losing team is left in solitary possession of last place in the interclass race for the Eddie Collins medals. Charley Logan from Barnard School played a star game for the freshmen, doing good work in the box but receiving poor support from his team mates. His splendid hit into left field for a home run in the fifth inning made the sophomores a trifle nervous, but the youngsters did not prove very formidable after that lucky stroke.

The score:

								R.	H.	E.
Sophomores	1	6	1	2	1	0	1	11	9	4
Freshmen	1	0	1	0	1	0	1	3	8	4

Batteries—O'Neale and Callahan, Logan, Lee and Grahame. Umpire—Mr. Fisher.
