A regular civil war has broken out in Highland between the farmers and a striped little race, although small are very numerous. The war is not about a six penny tax on tea, nor for the freedom of the slaves, but simply about the possession of some little kernels of corn that the farmers have put in the ground. PUMPKIN.

 Messrs. HENDERSON & GUNTER,
 Mgrs. Tip Top Flour, Canton.
 Gents: Enclosed find draft in full for twenty sacks of flour.
 We feel that we owe you and the good citizens of Canton an apology for leaving our foot prints on your usually clean sidewalks and for breaking open your store and taking what we wanted without permission. It was a ground hog case with us. Poor flour had caused family trouble and to make peace in the family we had to secure your celebrated Tip Top brand. Your store was closed, and our case would admit of no delay. We wanted Tip Top and we wanted it bad. Necessity is the mother of invention, so we invented a patent door opener. Our feet were bolt proof. We took the flour and got home before breakfast. The good wife made biscuit and you never saw such biscuit in all your born days. They fairly raised things, and I was able to plant ten acres of corn more on the rise of those Tip Top biscuits than if I had had some made from "Pillbury's best." Tip Top flour is the queen of all flour. A man works better on it, sleeps better on it, and his wife, well she is always happy when she has it in the house. Yours, J. and B.

A number old settlers suggested to the Editor the necessity of appointing a committee to meet and prepare a program for the old settlers meeting at Worthing. This committee has been selected from the various townships, and while it may be inconvenient for some to attend such a meeting, it is hoped, however, that as many as can come will do so. This committee will have to fix a date and prepare a program, and the place has been generally decided upon. After consulting with a number of old settlers, it was thought best to have this committee meet at Canton, on Saturday, June 3rd, at 1 o'clock, in the old court house. So gentlemen, you will consider this notice a personal invitation, and as many as can, try and be present. Here is a list of the gentlemen selected to put the machinery in motion.

The Old Settlers Picnic.
 I would like it in my own grove like a good many others, but do not want to be selfish, so I think Worthing is the proper place. It is the most convenient on account of the trains and plenty of water and near the center of the county. A. MESSNER.
