LYNCH ELECTED PRESIDENT

AGAIN CHOSEN TO LEAD NATIONAL LEAGUE, 6 VOTES TO 2.

Murphy of the Cubs Lines Up With Majority and Is Scored by Ebbets—American's "War" Resolutions Not Officially Served—Some Baseball Deals.

With the Boston club in the hands of its new owner, James E. Gaffney, the friends of Thomas J. Lynch were unable to reelect him president of the National League of Professional Baseball Clubs at the Waldorf-Astoria yesterday afternoon. Mr. Gaffney, who with John M. Ward closed the deal for the Boston club late Tuesday night, announced before a ballot was taken that he was strongly in favor of Lynch, whereupon August Herrmann of the Cincinnati club and John Whalen of the New York club won over C. W. Murphy of Chicago. The vote stood 6 to 2 in favor of Lynch, C. H. Ebbets of Brooklyn and Horace Fogel of Philadelphia voting for E. W. Brown of Louisville.

Murphy's sudden shift to Lynch almost caused a fight in the star chamber. Ebbets accused him openly of using what is known as the "double cross." He said the Chicago magnate had promised to vote for Brown if Ebbets would nominate him.

Peacemakers got busy and the row was hushed up, although Ebbets told friends in the hotel corridor later that he would have no more dealings with the owner of the Cubs. It appears that on Tuesday Treasurer John Whalen of the New York club prevented an election for president because he had learned that Lynch did not have more than three votes. After that meeting President E. A. Steininger was won over, and with the Boston club's vote Lynch's election was assured. Then it was that Murphy concluded to line up with the majority, but he did not inform Ebbets and Fogel in time for them to change their plans.

Mr. Lynch was warmly congratulated by the baseball men at the hotel and was evidently in a happy frame of mind. It turned out that Murphy received a scoring from other magnates for bringing on a clash with the American League, but Secretary John A. Heydler in making public the doings of the National League surprised everybody with the statement that the warlike resolutions passed by the Johnson organization on Tuesday had not been officially received by President Lynch or by Chairman Herrmann of the National Commission.

When the American League's resolutions were handed to the reporters at the Hotel Astor on Tuesday Secretary McRoy announced that official copies had been sent to Messrs. Lynch, Herrmann and J. H. Farrell, secretary of the National Association of Minor Leagues. It was said yesterday that Mr. Farrell received his copy, so that the failure of the National League and the commission to get theirs was a puzzle. Ben Johnson and McRoy had left for Chicago before the announcement was made, and it was impossible to find any other American League man who could account for the mistake.

Some of the baseball sharps seemed to believe that perhaps the official communications had been conveniently mislaid with the idea that they would soon be forgotten. In their absence the National League men naturally said they could take no action and were unable to make a reply.

"This isn't a duel between the major leagues," said a prominent club owner, "but a row between Johnson and Murphy. It is a childish piece of business."

Before the National League adjourned until noon to-day the club owners elected a new board of directors, consisting of the New York, Brooklyn, Cincinnati, Pittsburg and Chicago clubs. Joseph H. O'Brien, secretary of the New York club, was appointed a committee of one to look after transportation. W. H. Locke of the Pittsburg club was appointed a "hotel committee." On motion of Ebbets of Brooklyn it was voted to hold suitable ceremonies at the ball parks on June 14, flag day. The delegates did not discuss the length of next year's playing schedule and voted to put over amendments to the constitution until the February meeting.

Mr. Gaffney was congratulated on his purchase of the Boston club, and he made a speech to the effect that he would do his best, with the assistance of Ward, to provide a winning team. Among the delegates was Mrs. Helen Hathaway Britton, owner of the St. Louis club, the first woman to attend a league meeting. She told her colleagues members that she did not mind their cigars, and she stayed in the room until the session was over.

The Pittsburg club held its annual meeting in Jersey City in the morning. Barney Dreyfuss was reelected president and John P. Harris, former owner of the Boston club, was added to the board of directors.

While the deal had not been formally closed at 6 o'clock last night it seemed to be a foregone conclusion that W. H. Yerkes, J. J. Navin and Hugh Jennings of the Detroit club would buy the Providence Eastern League club and that Fred Lake would be appointed manager. The price asked for the Providence club was $75,000, but it was said that an offer of $65,000 would be accepted by the owners. It was said that a hitch was caused by Hugh Duffy, who wanted $25,000 cash for his block of stock. The Detroit men, it is believed, will see Providence as a "farm" to develop young players.

James Callahan, manager of the Chicago White Sox, tried to make a deal with the New York Americans for the services of Hal Chase, but he was quickly informed that Chase was needed on the Hilltop. Callahan then approached C. W. Somers of Cleveland with a request for George Stovall. He said he would give Outfielder Zeider in exchange. The Cleveland magnate said he would refer the matter to Manager Harry Davis.

The Newark club has purchased First Baseman Swacina from Mobile for $1,500. Swacina played first base for Pittsburg last year. The Brooklyn club has sold Outfielder Humphreys to Springfield, Mass., for $500.

The Rochester club's manager, John Ganzel, has secured Catcher Walter Blair and Third Baseman Otis Johnson from the Highlanders and Outfielder Lelivelt, Shortstop Wid Conroy and Pitcher Dolly Gray from the Washington club.

FRENCH BOXER WINS.

Carpentier Gets Decision in 20 Round Bout With Harry Lewis.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

PARIS, Dec. 13.—Carpentier, the French boxer, got the unanimous decision of the judges at the conclusion of the twenty round boxing match between him and Harry Lewis here to-night. The decision in favor of the French fighter was naturally a popular one and has not undeserved. Carpentier showed far greater quickness in the first round and then fought on the defensive until the fourteenth round, needed to damage Lewis's right eye severely. Oxygen was administered to Carpentier after the tenth and after succeeding round.

Nearly every round was of the same character. Carpentier would act on the defensive until he found a good opening and then land from one to three good straight rights. He retained his quick ability to duck and dodge to the end.

The Circus, where the fight was held, will seat 7,000 persons comfortably. To-night it was crowded to excess with a crowd which favored the French national champion, but the honors of Carpentier were not offensively shown. Lewis's jabs during clinches caused protests, but they never continued after the order was given to break away.

Carpentier, the victor in to-night's battle, will not be in until January. He looks like a college youth with his long hair, which he wears parted in the middle.

Boxing Commission Meets.

The Union Settlement, at 104th street and First avenue, received a license yesterday from the Boxing Commissioners at their weekly meeting.

Jimmy Twitchell, manager of the American Boxing Club, in the Williamsburg section of Brooklyn, preferred charges against Joe Hyland, the lightweight boxer from Brooklyn. Hyland and Young Ahearn were scheduled to appear in the main bout at the club last Monday night. At the last minute Hyland refused to go on and a substitute bout was put on. Hyland will appear before the Commissioners and a decision will be rendered at the next meeting.

McGoorty Beats Harry Ramsey.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 13.—Eddie McGoorty of Oshkosh, Wis., gave Harry Ramsey of Philadelphia a bad beating to-night before the National A. C. Twice the Oshkosh fighter floored Ramsey in the second round and once again in the fourth. Ramsey's best showing was in the first two rounds. He was bleeding at the finish.

SCREWS FOR BILLIARDISTS.

National Association Draws Line Closer With New Conditions.

The National Association of Amateur Billiard Players, through its secretary, Dr. Walter G. Douglas, announced yesterday that after January 1 it will assume complete control of the amateur players and games in America. Pool, or what is termed pocket billiards, will come under the supervision of the association. For some time past there has been some discussion over the new move, but it was finally carried. In future the tournaments and players will be managed on the lines of the Amateur Athletic Union, for no tourney will be allowed without a sanction, and only players whose amateur status has been vouched for by the association will be allowed. The travelling expenses of players from one city to another have also been touched upon, as well as several other minor matters. The amateur rule says:

An amateur billiard player is one who has never competed in any open to all contest, nor played for a purse or a division of gate money, nor received pecuniary benefit in any way from such contests. One who has never at any period of his life been proprietor of or employed in a billiard room, nor ever taught or pursued billiards as a means of livelihood, nor ever engaged in the manufacture or sale of billiard tables.

Every individual holding an amateur tournament and all clubs holding tournaments open to entries from any other club, will be required to apply to the association for a sanction for each tournament and to pay a fee of $1. Under this plan clubs and promoters become in a way responsible for the bona fide amateur status of the competitors.

Following are the principal rules:

Any person who plays in any event or tournament in billiards or pocket billiards (pool) that is held without sanction from the National Association of Amateur Billiard Players, other than those held by a club where the entries are limited to members of that particular club, suspends himself. The registration committee, N. A. A. B. P., 542 Fifth avenue, New York, has power to reinstate in such cases.

Any person who knowingly competes against a disqualified player disqualifies himself.

Any person who becomes a professional cannot have his application for reinstatement to the amateur ranks entertained unless he has abstained from professional conduct for one year.

No person who knowingly becomes a professional can be reinstated.

Any person who plays against a professional in an exhibition game or match where any admission fee is charged the public for witnessing said event disqualifies himself.

The travelling expenses which any contestant is allowed to pass for, receive or accept are limited to first class railroad fare, including parlor car and single berth sleeping fares actually paid, and the amount paid for meals and lodging, which amount for meals and lodging shall not exceed $7 a day in any case during the time necessarily occupied in going to and returning from a tournament.

No travelling expenses or payment of any kind for coach, friend or relative and no payment for loss of time or wages shall be asked for or received directly or indirectly.

Any person violating this rule shall be disqualified from further competition as an amateur.

A player who permits any one other than an officer of the club which he is entitled to represent in competition to make arrangements for his appearance at a tournament shall thereby disqualify himself.

BIKE GRIND HALF OVER.

Two Foreign Teams Lose Laps—Very Little Sprinting.

The halfway mark of the six day race in Madison Square Garden was reached at 11 o'clock last night with twelve of the original and a reconstructed team still in the grind. There were only eight teams leading last night, two of the foreign combinations being lapped in the afternoon. Gavin and Wiley also lost another lap yesterday. The last twenty-four hours of riding was replete with spills in which the riders suffered bruises.

The big smashup of early yesterday morning, in which several of the riders were seriously injured, had the effect of materially decreasing the speed of the men, and after being ahead of the record for a number of hours they fell back of the old mark at 10 o'clock in the morning. From that hour on the riders crept by the track at a pace that set them further and further behind the records.

With Root and Menus Bedell out it was arranged that John Bedell and Fred Hill form a reconstructed team, and they joined in the race one lap back of the leaders.

Shortly after 4 o'clock in the afternoon Peter Drobach started a sprint that resulted in the lapping of Lapize and Van Hevenoert, Georget and Broeco and Galvin and Wiley, and was only brought to an end when Drobach was run into by De Mara and Wells on the Twenty-sixth street stretch. In the fall Drobach suffered a deep gash in his side and had to be attended by a physician.

Frank Kramer received his first fall of the race at 6:30, when Georget collided with his wheel on the Fourth avenue and Twenty-seventh street turn. He slid along the track for about ten yards and was picked up in a dazed condition.

The race was stopped for fourteen minutes shortly afterward when a man who gave his name as Ferdinand Schultz and who said he was a non-commissioned officer at Fort Hancock, threw a beer glass at the riders as they passed on the Twenty-sixth street side of the track. He missed narrowly Sissoud Moran's head and crashed on the pitchboard saucer. The disturber was arrested.

De Mara fell from his wheel while travelling down the backstretch shortly after 8 o'clock and was slightly bruised.

The score at 10 o'clock:

	Miles.	Laps.
Kramer and Moran	1456	1
Bogler and Clark	1451	1
Root and Bedell	1441	1
Pye and Collins	1441	1
Cameron and Magin	1441
Demara and Lawrence	1441	1
Palmer and Wells	1441	1
Corsini and Sellow	1441	1
Hill and J. Bedell	1436	0
Thomas and Stein	1436	0
L. Georget and Broeco	1436	0
Lapize and Van Hevenoert	1431	0
Galvin and Wiley	1431	0

The record is 1457 miles 7 laps, by Pye and Hefer in 1909.

HARVARD DROPS CARLISLE.

Football Game That Netted $11,000 for Indians Probably the Last One.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Dec. 13.—This afternoon William F. Garcelon, graduate manager and treasurer of Harvard's athletics, sent a check for approximately $11,000 to the athletic association at the Carlisle Indian school, this sum being the Indians' share of the gate receipts for the football game played against Harvard in the stadium on November 11.

It is almost certain that when the $11,000 check is received by the Indians all incidents relating to football between Harvard and Carlisle will be closed for a long time to come. Carlisle will not be on the Crimson's schedule next fall, and it is very likely that there never will be any more football games played between the Harvard and Carlisle Indian teams.

Last December at the American Intercollegiate Athletic Association meeting in New York Prof. Dudley of Vanderbilt University endeavored to secure a football game with Harvard for his team. At that time Harvard had not determined its schedule, although it was holding November 11 for Cornell. Later Harvard offered the date to Vanderbilt.

The reply received from the Southern institution was that Vanderbilt could not send its team to Harvard on November 11, as a game already had been arranged, and then, only a few days later, Glenn Warner of Carlisle came to Boston and secured the date for his team.

When the Harvard football schedule for 1911 was announced the Harvard athletic committee received a letter from the Vanderbilt management stating that Vanderbilt had previously arranged to play Carlisle on November 11 and that it was because of this date that Vanderbilt had rejected Harvard's offer for a game in the stadium on the same date.

Manual Training Wins at Soccer.

For the second time this season the Commercial High School soccer team was defeated at Marquette Oval yesterday by the Manual Training High School team in the high school championship tourney. The score was 2 points to 0. Neither side was able to tally in the opening half. Titus booted the ball for the first point for the Gold and Blue aggregation in the closing round. Five minutes later Daly scored the other.

Wagner Beats Daly.

Young Wagner defeated Johnny Daly in the main affair at the Houston A. C. last night. Wagner knew too much for his opponent and had every session to his credit with the exception of the fourth, which Daly had by a small margin.

Basketball Notes.

The Commercial High School basketball team lowered the colors of the Adelphi quintet at the latter's court in Brooklyn yesterday afternoon. The score was 22 to 15.

De Witt Clinton's basketball team went over to Long Island City yesterday and defeated the Bryant High School quintet by a score of 26 to 10 in a fast game on Bryant's court. Klaschen and Kornsand starred for the victors, each caging the ball five times from the field.

In the fourth of a series of games for the championship for the De Witt Juniors of the De Witt Clinton High School the Waite Chapter was an easy victor with 36 points. The Hastings, Krause and Eagle chapters finished in the order named, with 12, 9 and 1 points respectively.

SECOND SHOW OF PEKINGESE

LION DOG OF CHINA AT HOME IN PLAZA BALLROOM.

Exhibitors Mainly From Manhattan, Westchester County or Long Island—Mrs. M. E. Harby and Mrs. Paul A. Sorg Win Most Awards—Class for Children.

Chinese spaniels, black faced, big eyed and lumbering in gait, to the number of 250 entries were in ornamental cages or pagodas at the second annual show of the Pekingese Club of America yesterday in the ballroom of the Plaza Hotel. There were about 125 exhibitors and all were at the show, including Mrs. Benjamin Guinness, president of the club and the judge last year, Mrs. Morris Mandy, the vice-president, and M. E. Harby, the secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Richard P. McGrann of Lancaster, Pa., who is a governor of the club, was the judge and Charles G. Hopton the show secretary.

The exhibitors were mainly from Westchester county, Long Island or Manhattan. The winners of the most prizes were Mrs. Harby, who has her kennel at Huntington, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Sorg of Pittsburg, but who maintain their Nao-In-Gan kennels in The Bronx. Mrs. Carl Ehlermann, Jr., of Greenwich, Dr. Haskell of Brooklyn and Mrs. Morris Mandy of Port Chester were also on the winning line.

America's first champion of the breed, Mrs. Morris Mandy's Tsang of Downshire, won the veteran class from Dr. Mary H. Cotton's champion Chaou Ching Ur, the only known specimen in this country, bred by the late Dowager Empress of China. Her Imperial Majesty Tye Hsi has written a monograph on the breed, some pearls from which as translated by Miss L. C. Smythe are valuable as a standard of the valuable and rare dogs exhibited:

"Let the lion dog be small; let it wear the swelling cape of dignity around its neck; let it display the billowing standard of pomp above its back.

"Let its face be black; let its forefront be shaggy; let its forehead be straight and low; let its eyes be large and luminous; let its ears be set like the sails of a warjunk; let its nose be like that of the monkey god of the Hindus.

"Let its forelegs be bent, so that it shall not desire to wander far or leave the imperial precincts.

"And for its color let it be that of the lion—a golden sable, to be carried in the sleeve of a yellow robe, or the color of a red bear or a black or a white bear, or striped like a dragon, so that there may be dogs appropriate to every costume in the imperial wardrobe."

All these colors were on view and more too. Some of the prettiest were among the entries in the class that required the owner and exhibitor to be a child not over 14 years. There was one boy in the lot dressed as a sailor, Charles C. Sternbach, and he won third with Nowata Won Da. Alice Chambers won the blue with Ai-Gee Fan Ti. Mabel Moore the red with Pao Sheng and Alice Davidson was fourth with Sao Suey of Downshire. The Pekes had great sport with the children and frolicked gayly in the ring. Certainly no mandarin swell could have been so undignified as these young owners or ever had so much fun with his sleeve dog.

Winner in dogs and in the open for reds was Mrs. M. E. Harby's English bred Champion Nowata Min-Chi, with Mrs. Mandy's Biscuit open winner Chang Foo reserve. Winner bitches was the Nao-In-Gan Kennels' biscuit colored champion Broadoak Fatima an undefeated bitch under three different judges, including the Westminster show. Reserve fell to Mrs. M. E. Harby's homebred red puppy Nowata Yung Min, a signal honor for such a young miss in the presence of so many older favorites. The special for the best dog of either sex was won by Champion Nowata Min-Chi, with Champion Broadoak Fatima reserve, and they had good winnings in specials to which they were eligible.

The first and second awards in each class were:

For the second time within a week George P. B. Clark defeated Charles E. White, the amateur class B 18.2 balk line champion, last night in the first of the billiard games to decide the triple tie that was brought about in the national tournament in Maurice Daly's academy, Forty-ninth street and Broadway. TIGERS WIN CLOSE GAME.

Princeton Scores 27 Points to 26 for Lehigh.

PRINCETON, N. J., Dec. 13.—By the narrow margin of one point Princeton defeated Lehigh at basketball here to-night in one of the most exciting games ever seen in Princeton. At no time during the contest did either team have a lead of more than four points, and until the referee's whistle blew it was anybody's game.

With the score standing 26 to 25 in favor of Lehigh and a scant half minute left to play Vaughan, the Tiger's burly centre, flicked the ball in from a tossup beneath the basket, putting Princeton ahead. Lehigh almost immediately had a chance to tie the score on a free try, but the shot was missed just as time was called.

Penn State Basketball Players Win by One Point.

The Pennsylvania State College basketball team defeated the New York University five last night at the university gymnasium by a score of 16 to 15. The local boys in the first half held their own against the visitors. The Penn boys came back strong in the second half and by good passing managed to capture the lead and hold it until the finish.

DALY WINS MATCH.

Defeats De Oro by Two Points in Remarkable Contest.

John Daly won the three cushion billiard match played at Doyle's Forty-second Street Academy, defeating Alfred De Oro by two points, the totals for the three night's being Daly 150, De Oro 148. It was a most remarkable contest in which each player did well and each showed that he could make a fine uphill fight. Last night 115 innings were played and time after time the two were tied in the grand total. Early in the game De Oro led, then Daly by clever work took the lead away from the champion and threatened to make a runaway game of it, but De Oro settled down to work again and took the lead and reached within two of winning. Then Daly made his last and desperate effort to win and he succeeded, but to do so he had to make some remarkable shots.

When he went to the table for his half of the 115th inning the score was a tie at 148. Daly studied long and carefully and then scored on a brilliant shot and left the balls close to the upper rail. He had all his money on the match and he did not dare let De Oro have another chance. He essayed to score off the red, doubling on the upper rail. It was a difficult shot, but Daly judged so cleverly that the cue ball bounded off the rail four times and counted. Then his admirers went wild. They hugged and pounded him and almost tore his clothes. It was a hard game to win and a hard one to lose, particularly as De Oro had started the last session with a lead of 13 points. The balls did not roll for him early in the contest and he found many hard shots after he had counted several.

Daly started off in fine shape as he had each other night, but last night he made 11 points in his first nine innings, while De Oro counted only three times. Then De Oro spread some oil and by careful work reached 14 by his twenty-fifth inning when Daly had 16 to his credit. Soon after this Daly got going again, one in the thirty-fourth, 4 in the next and then a run of 7, all beautiles, made his total for the night 28 in the thirty-fifth inning and at that time De Oro had made 17. This made the grand total 115 each. De Oro took the lead again in the forty-second inning and held it till the sixty-third when Daly passed him again with a run of 3. Two is in quick succession by Daly made his total in the seventieth inning 40 when De Oro had scored 39, so that in the match Daly led by 5.

Then there was a long period when scoring was very slow, but slowly De Oro reduced Daly's lead and at the 100th inning he took the lead again by one point, the grand totals being De Oro 145, Daly 144. Each counted in the next inning. Six times they failed to score, each playing very safe. Twice Daly missed through unfortunate kisses. De Oro made two in the 108th inning and then needed but two to win. Four times they failed to count and then Daly found an opening and gathered in two clever ones. Daly scored again in the next inning, tying the score, De Oro having missed by a hair. Then Daly made the two necessary to win the game and the purse of $2,500.

The totals for the evening's play were Daly 63, De Oro 48. De Oro had led during two nights of the match, but he failed at the most important part, the finish. During the evening De Oro played safe 16 and Daly 15 times. Tom Gallagher was the referee.

ATHLETICS IMPLICATED.

Brush Writes Open Letter to Ban Johnson Relating to Ticket Scandal.

In response to the charges of Ban Johnson, president of the American League, that irregularities in the sale of world's series tickets by the New York National League club existed, President John T. Brush made public, through Secretary Joseph D. O'Brien, yesterday an open letter to Johnson that implicates the Athletic club of Philadelphia in the scandal that has strained the relations between the major leagues. The letter follows:

The New York club having given to the press the ticket scandal report demanded by and submitted to the National Commission, why is it you do not publish the report submitted to the commission by the Philadelphia club? Having charged some official of the New York club with handing out 8,000 or 9,000 tickets to the speculators out of 25,000 on its reserved seat capacity, depriving the public to that extent of the opportunity of buying direct, why is it you are silent over the disposition of tickets in Philadelphia, where 8,181 out of a total of the reserved seat capacity of 8,838 were given to seventy-three people and there was no public sale for the first two games?

While the New York club's report shows that less than 350 tickets were taken by its players and its officials, the balance being available for the public, why is it you do not explain how the players and officials of the Philadelphia club appropriated 4,600 tickets out of its total of 8,838? While dilating upon the outrage perpetrated upon the New York public through misdirection and collusion with ticket speculators, why do you not explain how in Philadelphia ten persons absorbed over 3,000 tickets, an average of 300 each, and sixty three others absorbed 3,000 tickets, an average of fifty each? Inasmuch as there were no street ticket speculators in New York during the world series, it being unlawful, why do you not explain to the public how it was that in Philadelphia and along Broad street in Philadelphia they were openly plying their trade, and tell how they obtained them?

In your letter to me you say, "Our chief aim is to protect the baseball public from graft, and we should work together for that purpose," and so that I say "Amen." I am with you solidly, but why pick only the New York National League club for the "goat"? Yours very truly,

JOHN T. BRUSH,
President New York Baseball Club.

Quick Finish for Delaney.

With two quick right hooks to the point of the jaw Jumbo Wells made Soldier Delaney take the count at the Sharkey A. C. last night. The bout lasted about half a minute. The men had hardly put themselves when Wells rushed and landed a blow on the jaw. Delaney tried to put over one on Wells, but the latter was too quick. He shot another in the same place and Delaney went down, where he was counted out.

RUNS AWAY, THEN WINS.

Hoffman's Surprising Feat at Columbia Races.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 13.—By winning the fifth race, a handicap, at six furlongs, Hoffman accomplished something that has probably never been done before on a racetrack. After skirmishing at the post Hoffman ran away and went crashing into the fence about ten feet from the starting point. Hoffman then got up, ran away again and travelled two miles and a half before he was captured, but his rider, Hopkins, had wrenched his arm so that he was not able to ride again the rest of the day. Hoffman was a 6 to 5 favorite, and after a long delay it was decided to send him to the post. Turner was substituted for Hopkins, and it was then that Hoffman gave all hands the surprise. He ran close up with the leaders to the far turn, then moved into the lead, and drawing out in the final furlong beat the well backed Rose Queen out by two lengths, running the six furlongs in the fast time of 1:12. One bookmaker laid 25 to 1 on Hoffman straight and 4 to 1 place after his runaway, and thereby dropped a lot of money on the race.

AMONG THE AUTOMOBILISTS

OCEAN PARKWAY FIGHT TO BE RESUMED

Effort to Repeal Act Which Enabled Park Commissioner to Keep Motorists Off This Stretch—Police on Guard There in All Weathers—Other Notes.

All this time the Ocean Parkway from Twenty-second avenue to Kings Highway in Brooklyn is closed to motorists. No matter what the weather the police squad is at work there, and although very few if any drivers of light harness horses come along to use the place handed over to them, the guardians of the sacred stretch stand ready to warn off any automobilists who attempt to make use of the path. Alexander Schwalbach, who has been active in fighting the battle of the automobilists to regain use of the Ocean Parkway, was saying yesterday that in all the mud and in spite of all the bad conditions there are down there two mounted men, two bicycle men and two foot policemen whose duty it is to see that no automobile gets on the road.

"This service," said Mr. Schwalbach, "means a cost of $25,000 a year to the city. They say that policemen are scarce and are needed in other parts of the borough. I tell folks that if they want a policeman to go down to the parkway."

When the Legislature opens on January 1 the battle for the freedom of this road will be begun again. Mr. Schwalbach is going up to Albany and there will be a bill introduced in an att
