EVERGLADES INQUIRY DRAWS IN DEPARTMENT

Division Also Will Undergo Thorough Scrutiny.

THREE WITNESSES CALLED

Representative Clark Defends His Action in Demanding Investigation.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Three witnesses have been ordered to appear before the House Committee on Expenditures in the Department of Agriculture to-morrow to testify in the searching investigation which the committee decided to-day to make of the Florida Everglades land deal and the drainage division of the Department.

At an executive meeting at which the decision to investigate was made Chairman Moss by telegraph ordered O. M. Wright, in charge of the drainage, to appear before the committee next Tuesday. Miles McCalle of the Department of Justice and A. Sappone, chief of the accounts of the Department, were ordered to appear Saturday.

Mr. Moss declared the committee would inquire into the charges of misuse of funds upon which Chief Wright and A. D. Morehouse, chief engineer, were dismissed.

A statement issued by Solicitor McKenney on the charges of Representatives Clark of Florida and others as "prejudiced, unfounded and untrue" was answered by Mr. Clark, who rose to a question of personal privilege on the floor of the House. Mr. Clark said in part:

"I have no interest in any land company in the State of Florida or anywhere else, nor an inch or a foot of Florida land for sale in any part of the State. The only interest I have is in protecting the people of my country from being enshared by false statements of these land sharks who would rob the poor all over the land and bring discredit upon the fair name of my State.

"I stand prepared to prove not only by the sworn statement but by the sworn testimony of as good men as live within this Union that the Secretary of Agriculture did not suppress the circular letter at the instance of persons engaged in selling Everglades lands in Florida. I want to know, and the country has a right to know, who those persons were who could exercise this great influence over a great department of this Government.

"I criticised because I looked upon the action of the Secretary more in a sense of misfortune than of blame.

"The Department of Agriculture sent its engineers down to investigate these lands. Those engineers made a report. The Department was being flooded with letters from all over this country relative to the project. It could not answer them as it was thought necessary to get out a circular letter giving the necessary information. That circular letter was prepared, and when a few of them came into the hands of these land sharks immediately appeared at the Department and threatened the chief drainage engineer of that Department if he did not recall that circular letter. He declined to do it. They then told him that they would get other and they would have him do it.

"A few days the chief engineer received a letter from the Secretary telling him that he must recall no more of these circulars and he must not answer any questions relative to the Everglades of Florida.

"I went before that committee and I tell you whence comes this great power that can accomplish things like this. I can't tell you. Mr. Speaker, to be put in the attitude of opposing this great work of internal improvement. I do not know whether it can be done or not. It it can I am willing for it to be done and I am not for any enterprise in my State, or any other legitimate industry. But I oppose thievery and robbery and I care not whether it is committed in Florida or any other State of this Union.

"I have upon have brought discredit upon my State. Millions of dollars have gone into offers for land eight, ten and twelve under water—land that ought never to have been sold by the Government instead of sold.

"And I wanted to know what influence the Department of Agriculture and the great Government has with these speculators and land sharks.

"I am perfectly willing, if the people are willing to be and love to be humbugged, swindled and to be hoodwinked, but not that a partnership between a great department of this Government and the speculators who are seeking to humbug the people.

"The statement I made before the committee is true.

"Let the Department come there and submit its defence. I am prepared to prove every count in the indictment made and I will prove it beyond a reasonable doubt, but beyond every shadow of a reasonable doubt.

"Among the charges, Chairman Moss and other Senators from Florida, Bryan Mr. Bryan had told him that the air of scandal that has overshadowed the Florida developments had already cost the people millions of dollars.

"The Senators explained they were not interested in any way in the land syndicate business in the State," he said, "but they were in the lands still owned in the State."

WOMAN STRUCK BY AUTO DIES.

Occupants of Car Took Her to Her Home and Disappeared.

Margaret Hawthorne, 60 years old, widow of Robert B. Hawthorne, publisher, died two years ago, was struck by an automobile in front of 1561 Pacific avenue, Brooklyn, on Wednesday evening and she died in her home in about four hours later.

Occupants of the car took her into a house and carried her to her home but did not leave their names or addresses. Her son, William Park, who lives at that address, reported to the police of the Bergen Street station the number of the police learned that the owner of the car bearing that number for 1912 was Stephens, a dealer in coal and wood, 1320 East 115th street, Manhattan. He said that his auto was not used on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Hawthorne had been an active member of the Woman's Charities Tenement Union in Brooklyn and for ten years county superintendent of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. She was one of the managers of the M. E. Home of the Deaconesses Home.

MAHON JURY DISAGREES.

Other Indictments Against Hudson County Register to Be Tried.

In the case of Register of Deeds J. McMahon of Hudson County, New Jersey, and John Daly, a deputy sheriff, charged with conspiring to defraud the township of North Bergen in a school site deal, came into the Hudson County City yesterday after being out thirteen hours and announced that they had not been able to agree on a verdict. The jurors were discharged by Justice Swayze. It was said eight for conviction, three for acquittal and one blank.

Another indictment against the same conspiracy in connection with the same transaction. Prosecutor Corbett said these indictments will be tried.

BEEF TACTICS SAME 10 YEARS.

Cost Making Methods in Vogue a Decade, Testifies Swift & Co. Employee.

CHICAGO, Feb. 8.—In its final effort to connect the members of Swift & Co. with the alleged illegal combination to restrain trade in fresh beef, United States District Attorney Wilkerson to-day called four witnesses to the stand in the United States court here, where the ten indicted packers are on trial. The witnesses are all employees of Swift & Co., and from one of them, William G. Hopkins, it was elicited that the methods of cost making, margins, &c., by which the Government puts so much store, are to-day approximately the same as those in vogue for the last decade.

The Government claims the same methods are common to all the packing plants.

The witnesses in addition to Hopkins were John M. Chaplin, Arthur F. Rogers and Lee M. Lester. They are all connected with the beef section of Swift & Co. Lester traced beef from the hoof until it was sold to the retailers in the East.

After two hours of questioning United States District Attorney Wilkerson turned his task over to Assistant United States District Attorney Ellwood Godman. The Government side has questioned its witnesses from the National Packing Company and Armour & Co. It is now nearly through with Swift & Co.'s employees.

Then will follow those of Morris & Co. When the methods of the four firms are investigated the Government will maintain that their connection in combination has been shown in evidence.

DELAWARE ELECTION FUND.

Charges Against the Distributer, Who Has Been Nominated for U. S. Marshal.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Charges lodged with the Senate Judiciary Committee against C. P. Swayne, who has been nominated for United States Marshal of the district of Delaware, will be investigated to-morrow by a sub-committee of the Senate Committee on Judiciary. The sub-committee is composed of Senator Sutherland of Utah, chairman, and Senators W. P. Dillingham of Vermont and Lee S. Overman of North Carolina. About fifteen witnesses, all Republicans residing in Delaware, were requested by telegraph to appear to-morrow and give testimony in regard to the charges. It was said to-night that some of these witnesses have declined to come on the telegrams sent by the sergeant-at-arms of the Senate and that a deputy sergeant-at-arms may be sent to bring some of them.

Willard Salisbury, the Democratic leader of Delaware and a boomer of Gov. Woodrow Wilson for the Presidency, is in Washington directing the fight on Swayne. It is understood that Mr. Salisbury supplied the names to the sergeant-at-arms of persons to be called as witnesses.

The charges in general are that Swayne has for years been handling funds for the Republicans, and one specific charge is that Swayne received $3,000 in $20 gold pieces at the office of Senator du Pont from Senator du Pont's manager in the campaign of 1904 and carried the money to Philadelphia, where he had it changed into pieces of smaller denomination, and that this amount was later distributed in the Delaware campaign.

Mr. Hill appears before the committee Monday. He will be questioned relative to the relations of the Hill roads with the steel roads in the Lake Superior region and the circumstances under which the Hill ore properties were acquired by lease by the Steel Corporation.
