MAKES THREE OUT OF FOUR

Works Wards Off All Assaults, While Fisher Proves Easy Morsel.

Ray Fisher made his first appearance of the season in the box for the Highlanders yesterday, but the Detroits were not disturbed by that fact. They smeared defeat all over the Gothamites, taking three out of four. They also passed the Athletics, who were shut out by the White Sox. The Washingtons took four straight in St. Louis, and the Bostons met with a setback at the hands of the Clevelands, who are bracing up.

DETROIT, June 4.—The Detroit Tigers took the first eastern series staged on Navin Field when they made it three out of four from the Highlanders to-day, the final score being 14 to 1. These clubs have met eight times this year, six of the games being Tiger victories. Six innings were all Fisher was allowed to stay. He was touched up for eleven hits, Wolverton removed him at the start of the seventh and sent in southpaw Shears, who was wild and nervous, and a few more runs were scored off him for good measure. Works puzzled the Highlanders. He had everything desired and pitched a magnificent game. New York got a safety off him in every inning but the seventh and ninth, still they were always scattered enough, with the exception of the second, to keep Gotham out of the run column.

Cree's line past Delahanty in the opening round with two down proved useless, as he died stealing a moment later. In the second Zinn beat out a slow roller to Bush and went to third on the perfect execution of the hit and run as Gardner singled to right. Chase sacrificed to Gainer, which scored Zinn with the only New York run, Garner taking second, but he was caught stealing by a quick throw by Stanage to Moriarity, as Stumpfanned.

Detroit's first score came in the first inning. With Bush killed, Jones got a single in left and stole second. Cobb lifted a high foul to Hartzell and Crawford raised an easy flyout back of second, with Gardner and Zinn watching it fall. It should have been an easy out for either. Jones scored and Delahanty fouled to Sweeney. The Tigers got a man to third in the second, but he was left when Works fanned.

Another tally counted in round four, which Delehanty opened with a Texas leaguer within a few feet of Zinn. Gardner, Stumpf and Cree Gainer beat an infield hit, which placed Delehanty on the third cushion, and he scored while Hartzell was throwing out Moriarity. From then on the game was a farce.

Three hits and an error scored four more in the fifth. Another four were scored in the following round. Then Shears took up the burden, but was unable to check the scoring, three more runs being made off his delivery.

SATURDAY MARKS THE FINISH.

Ill Fated U. S. League Takes to Lifeboats After One Series.

PITTSBURG, June 4.—The United States League will finish its career in Pittsburg next Saturday. The Chicago team is en route here to play the last three days. That will be the winding. Capt. Marshall Henderson, owner of the Pittsburg team, said to-day he would try to arrange a schedule that would have the local team play here every day in June, but two teams won't make a league.

Owner J. J. Ryan and Manager Hugh McKinnon of the Cincinnati team left here to-day for New York after announcing that they were through and that Cincinnati was out of the game. This means Chicago and Pittsburg will be the only teams remaining on Saturday. Reading, which dropped out last Saturday, played here to-day. The players' salaries are guaranteed by Henderson.

Richmond was to have played here this week but Seybold wired his players not to come as the league would not last a week.

Players Sue Ryan for Salary.

CINCINNATI, June 4.—Separate suits for a month's salary were filed to-day by fourteen players of the Cincinnati team of the new U. S. League against John J. Ryan, a New York attorney, owner of the Cincinnati franchise, is made defendant and his account at the First National Bank was garnisheed.

The suits followed closely an announcement of Ryan that he has given up his franchise. Pitcher Bugs Raymond, former Giant, who has been playing with the team at intervals, is not among the players who brought suit to-day for salary.

Yet Another So-called Ball Game.

PITTSBURG, June 4.—The Pittsburg and Reading teams of the United States League played a so-called game of ball here to-day that wasn't worthy of a bush league. Hits were recorded which should have been easy outs and bases stolen because fielders did not cover the bags and errors were conspicuous by their presence.

WHITE SOX WREAK REVENGE.

In Great Mound Duel, Lange Blanks Athletics, Squaring Series.

CHICAGO, June 4.—The White Sox beat the Athletics, 2 to 0, to-day in the greatest pitchers' duel seen in Chicago this season. Morgan, on the slab for the world's champions, held the Sox to three hits, while Lange of Chicago, allowed four. A bad throw by Morgan in the fifth paved the way for the Sox runs, and the pitcher lost his own game. Chicago fans and White Sox players protested strongly against the umpiring of Westervelt, and it must have had some effect with President Johnson, as Jack Sheridan worked on the bases to-day, while O'Loughlin called balls and strikes. O'Loughlin and Westervelt had been together for some time. By winning to-day the Sox got an even break with the champions.

Vean Gregg Proves Puzzle, Fanning Eleven Red Sox.

CLEVELAND, June 4.—The Naps closed the series with the Red Sox here to-day by knocking Pitcher Bedient out of the box and playing an excellent game in the field. The Boston speed boys found Vean Gregg a puzzle they could not solve. He fanned eleven of them. When they did connect for hits they were unable to bunch them.

TRINITY DEFEATS DARTMOUTH.

Hartford Boys' Hits Fall When They Are Most Needed.

HARTFORD, Conn., June 4.—In a snappy and well played game on Trinity Field this afternoon, Trinity beat Dartmouth by a score of 3 to 2. With two men on bases Gildersleeve's hit brought in two runs for the home team in the first, and her other tally was made by Sporer in the seventh. The feature of the game was Trinity's fielding, which was accurate and fast. The New Hampshire team is on its way to New Haven, where it plays Yale to-morrow.

MRS. BARLOW PLAYING IN CHAMPIONSHIP FORM

Leads Nearest Rival by Sixteen Strokes in Two Days Medal Rounds.

MISS BISHOP IS SEVENTH

Prize Hard Luck Golf Story Is Told by Mrs. Wheeler, Ex-Champion.

PHILADELPHIA, June 4.—Mrs. R. H. Barlow of Merion, with a fine score of 43, 42—85, not only led the field in the second day's 18 hole medal round in the annual championship tournament of the Women's Eastern Golf Association to-day at the Philadelphia Cricket Club, but now has an advantage of sixteen strokes on the total score for the two days over her nearest competitor and has every promise of winning the title for the second time. Mrs. Barlow has a total of 170, while Miss Grace Semple of Wollaston has 186, getting another 93 to-day. Only a stroke behind Miss Semple is Miss Harriet S. Curtis of Essex County, former national champion, who after an ordinary 99 on the first day went out in 43 yesterday and back in 45 for a total of 88, the second best round for the day.

Had it not been for sixes at the fourth and sixth holes, each a little more than 350 yards, and getting trapped at the sixteenth, Mrs. Barlow would have made the round in several strokes less. There is a pit guarding the sixteenth green. She played short on her drive, but topped her second shot and landed in the pit. As it was, she did the 227 yard home hole in three, laying her second shot dead to the pin.

There were hard luck stories galore on the first day, but none of them came up to that related by Mrs. E. C. Wheeler of Wollaston, former Eastern champion. She could do no better on the first day than 109, and at the second hole to-day she got into the circular pit that almost completely surrounds the green. After taking eleven strokes and still in the trouble, she picked up. The hole is 256 yards long and can be done ordinarily in four.

Miss Georgianna M. Bishop, on whom alone rests the representation of the metropolitan district, was able to improve her first day's score by five strokes, getting 95. Her total of 195 for the two days is twenty-five strokes behind the leader. She stands seventh on the list. Miss Bishop found trouble on the greens and she needed extra puts so often as to make it seem like a habit. Then she got into difficulty at the deceptive sixteenth hole, a matter of 152 yards. She landed in the pit guarding the green on her drive and after taking three to get out she required three puts.

The card of Mrs. Barlow:

Out	5	4	5	4	6	3	4	4	3—	43
In	4	5	5	4	4	5	3	7	3—	42—85

Nearly all the leading players from the metropolitan district are expected to be on hand to-morrow afternoon to get in some practice for the Griscom cup matches which begin Thursday. New York will meet Boston in the first contest, the winner to have the choice of meeting the champion Philadelphians on either Friday or Saturday, the losers to take the odd day. In the event of a tie, which is possible under the present conditions, it will be played off on Sunday over the Huntingdon Valley links.

In conjunction with the championship again there was a handicap in which Mrs. Barlow, despite her penalty of plus one, was the leader, getting 86 net. However, if she wins the championship the prize will fall to Miss Curtis, who had 88. In the competition for the combined handicap for three days Miss M. L. Pennock of the home club leads with a total net score of 173. Her handicap is 18.

Second Straight Win Over Skeeters—Pitcher Mains Breaks Finger.

By winning 5 to 3 over Jersey City yesterday, Newark made it two straight and advanced into fifth place, half a game behind Toronto, present holders of fourth position. The first ball thrown by Pitcher Mains of Jersey City was hammered hard by Kirkpatrick. When Mains attempted to stop it with his bare hand his little finger was broken and he retired. McHale took his place and was hit freely. Schardt, formerly of Brooklyn, pitched steady ball for Newark.

Latonia Races Call for Just What They Get.

LATONIA, Ky., June 4.—Favorites swept half of the card at Latonia to-day. Jockey Shilling was in good form, landing two winners. The stewards were on the lookout for rough riding and set Jockey Loftus down for three days for interference in the first race.

The card was poor, the attendance slim and play in the mutuels was light.

The summaries:

First Race—Six furlongs. Prince Gal, 115 (Shilling), 9 to 20, won; Melver, 113 (Loftus), 23 to 20 for place, second; Bob Co, 112 (Dale), 3 to 2 to show, third. Time—1:14 1-5. High Floss, Nan Ferguson, Gertrude Hall, Sylvestris and Elizabethan also ran.

Second Race—Four and a half furlongs: Hobnob, 112 (Shilling), 9 to 10, won; George Stoll, 112 (Loftus), 9 to 20 for place, second; Merlin, 112 (Mentry), 131 to 20 to show, third. Time—0:54 1-5. Jimmie Gill, Baldovie, Ancon, Gold Color, Louis Widrig and White Heather also ran.

Third Race—Six furlongs: Jack Denman, 113 (Loftus), 91 to 20, won; Jeff Bernstein, 112 (Shilling), 17 to 20 for place, second; Etheida, 110 (Molesworth), 13 to 10 to show, third. Time—1:13 4-5. Veneta Strome, Sallal, New Idea, Deacon, Jack Reiger and Dr Burch also ran.

Fourth Race—Mile and a sixteenth. Brig, 103 (Byrne), 11 to 20, won; Creme de Menthe, 100 (Steele), 62 to 5 for place, second; Gay Bird, 105 (Goose), 11 to 20 to show, third. Time—1:48 4-5. Cockspur, Niclas and Rossini also ran.

WHITE SHADES SHUGRUE, BUT FAILS TO IMPRESS

Chicagoan Shows Nothing Until Fourth Round, When He Speeds Up.

LITTLE REAL PUNISHMENT

Cleverness in Avoiding Blows Apparently Chief Asset of Victor.

Charley White, the Chicago featherweight, who recently defeated Owen Moran and Johnny Dundee up the State, made his bow at the St. Nicholas A. C. last night in a ten round bout with Young Shugrue of Jersey City. Although White was the winner on points, he did not come up to expectations. He was either under a pull or overrated. Shugrue carried the fight to him all the way, but White's cleverness enabled him to avoid practically all the dangerous blows. He did not begin to show anything until the fourth round, when he proceeded to outpunch the Jerseyman in a way that made the scoffers close their faces. After that White showed the greater skill, but at no time was Shugrue in trouble. The latter made a game finish and some of the spectators hooted the Chicago boxer. In the other featherweight bouts Tommy Houck of Philadelphia and Packy Hommey of this city fought a terrific ten round draw, while Joe Coster of Brooklyn outpointed Eddie O'Keefe of Philadelphia over the same route.

Coster and O'Keefe provided the first bout, weighing at the ringside. Coster tipped the beam at 123½ and O'Keefe at 121½. For the first three rounds O'Keefe had the better of the argument on points. After that Coster solved the Quaker's methods and in the fourth round he landed many effective punches in the body. O'Keefe rallied in the fifth and got an even break, but in the sixth he was flat-footed under a steady assault. Coster reaching the stomach and face with clean cut blows. In the seventh Coster took the honors by constantly driving in body smashes. Coster outboxed and outslugged his man in the eighth and ninth rounds, but O'Keefe made a desperate finish in the tenth round, with honors even. Coster was the winner after a hard scrap, and the crowd, numbering 3,000 persons, cheered wildly as he left the ring.

Houck and Hommey substituted for Frankie Burns and Patsy Kline, came next. The former scaled at 124 pounds and the latter at 126¼. Houck had no power behind his blows in the first round and Hommey outfought him easily. Hommey rushed and slugged all through the second round, Houck being a target for many solid wallops. Houck improved a little in the third round, but Hommey did the bulk of the leading and landing. Houck improved some more in the fourth round, but Hommey again outpointed him. In the fifth round Houck mixed it incessantly and secured an even break. The sixth round was a humdrum affair. The men fought in and out of clinches, both punching rapidly without taking a breathing spell. Houck had a slight advantage and the crowd was crazy when the bell rang. Houck did the cleaner hitting in the seventh round, which was another slugging bee from bell to bell. The eighth round was Houck's, as he did more clean hitting and showed the greater skill in every way. Again in the ninth round Houck outfought his man, who stood in close and fought like a tiger. They kept on slugging in the tenth round, neither having an apparent advantage, and the bout looked like a draw.
