LABOR DAY MARDI GRAS FOR ASBURY PARK HOST

Carnival Commissioners Decide to Replace Masque Fete of Other Seasons.

QUEEN HAS BUSY WEEK

Reign of Titania XII. Comes to End With Long List of Festivities.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Aug. 31.—Asbury Park has never had a larger crowd for the triple holiday and the bonifaces are wearing the smile "that won't come off." Thousands came in on every train to-day. The outlook for at least two more weeks of business is most encouraging. The largest hotels will remain open until late in September.

Monday will be given over to the Mardi Gras, an all day event, which the carnival commissioners have decided shall replace the masque fete of other seasons. There will be a parade in the afternoon in which the children can take part, and the festivities will continue all the evening, with the addition of an elaborate fireworks display.

Queen Titania XII. will end her reign on Labor Day. This has been an eventful week for her Majesty. On Monday she and her court attended a special concert given by Bandmaster Edouards at the Arcade. Tuesday the court banquet was given at the Monmouth, where covers were set for forty. The Carnival Association presented Miss Manners, the Queen, with a handsome diamond pin in the form of a crown. Miss Manners gave her maids as souvenirs pretty lavalieres that her father, Frederick Manners, purchased in Sweden.

The initial floral auto parade and auto gymkhana games for Asbury Park were held on the ocean front on Wednesday. More than a hundred automobiles were in line. The gymkhana games evoked considerable amusement. Features were a boudoir race and a dead man's race. In the former contestants drove from a given point to a station where young women, serving as maids, assisted them in donning women's attire, including skirt, shirtwaist and picture hat, powdered their noses and sent them back to the judges. In the dead man's race motorists drove through a lane crowded with dummy figures. They were allowed to "kill" only three persons or were otherwise disqualified.

Although the regular carnival programme ended with the Labor Day mardi gras, Asbury Park visitors will have one of the best entertainments ever offered by the resort when the firemen's tourney is held here on September 5, 6 and 7. Almost a hundred volunteer companies throughout New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania have accepted invitations.

There will be a firemen's industrial exhibit in the Beach Auditorium in connection with the meet, which will be opened by ex-Chief Edward F. Croker of the New York department. Mr. Croker will also serve as a judge at the hose laying contests, ladder raisings and other feats that will mark the programme.

A prominent patron of the New Monterey is Lord Beresford, a younger brother of Lord Decies. He is accompanied by his secretary and will remain at the hotel through the early autumn season.

Miss Agatha Felon, a maid in the court of Queen Titania XII., will give a tea to her sovereign and other members of the royal household next Wednesday at the Marlborough, where she is stopping. Miss Cora Belle Langfield, who also is stopping at this house and was a maid in last year's court, will be a member of the party.

All records for the number of fish caught along the coast have been broken this year by members of the Asbury Park Fishing Club. More than a hundred striped bass have been taken ranging in weight from five to thirty-eight pounds.

BELMAR, N. J.

BELMAR, N. J., Aug. 31.—Although Labor Day usually marks the end of the crowded season here, indications are that there will be at least another full week of entertainments. A programme of sports has been arranged for Labor Day.

Baseball clubs have been formed by the guests of the Neptune House and Colorado and they met to-day for their first game, the Neptune House team winning by the score of 11 to 6.

Mrs. George Millard won the first prize at a euchre held at the Neptune House on Tuesday. A. F. Wiegan won the second, a pillowcase, and Charles Buerman a hot water bag.

The Columbia held a barn dance to-night. There were prizes for the most appropriate costume for men and women.

Plans are being made at the Buena Vista to hold a large charity euchre, bridge and beart party next week. There will be about forty-five tables.

The week's arrivals include:

POINT PLEASANT, N. J.

POINT PLEASANT, N. J., Aug. 31.—Perfect days, moonlight nights, clambakes, watermelon parties, tennis and golf are part of the diversions of summer visitors this week. A party from the Leighton held a bake on the beach on Tuesday. Included in the party were Mrs. F. M. Johnson, Mrs. Arthur Vooghtin, Mrs. Charles Orr, Miss Orr, Mrs. G. M. Black and Miss Black.

Miss Marge Morgan, who is stopping at the Carrollton, gave a watermelon party Friday night.

The Leighton cup will again be placed in competition on Monday when the tournament begins. Among those entered are F. S. Harvey, R. S. Rowland, J. W. Carroll, F. W. Gibbons, H. A. Martin, S. P. Lecis, L. B. Brown, C. S. Brown, W. S. Schoonmaker and Ralph Schoonmaker.

The Squan river has lured many sailing parties from this section during the week. On Tuesday night a party was made up of Miss Helen Hankins, Miss Dorothy Downing, Miss Kathleen Clinton, Miss Katherine Stevenson, Howard Clinton, M. P. Clinton and Miss Baaba.

The tennis championship of the Carrollton will be decided next week between Harry Stockman and Ralph Todd.

Registered at the hotels are:

Leighton—Mr. and Mrs. F. Maxon, R. B. Whitemore, Mrs. E. W. Ostes, Mrs. L. W. Beaumont, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Crosby, George C. Vedder, Mrs. Henry A. Price, Hans V. Hientz, L. C. Smith, Miss K. Jacobs, E. Chopen, Mrs. Lindsay Murray, W. M. Henderson and A. McKinney of New York.

Wright, Tyler Palmer, W. H. Smock and L. Ronnell of New York.

DEAL, N. J.

DEAL, N. J., Aug. 31.—Hathaway Inn shows no signs of a waning season. There was a notable turn out last night for the barn dance.

A merry party enjoyed a picnic at Pleasure Bay on Monday. The party included Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Green, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Corcoran, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Pritchard, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Creighton and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Boggs.

To-night the last large ball of the season was given.

Late arrivals at the hotels include:

Hathaway Inn—Miss Catherine Cook, W. S. Carey, Lewis P. Ward, Miss Pauline Ward, J. G. Boggs, Miss Marguerite Morgan, Michael Fitzgerald, Miss Gladys Barrick, Mrs. L. Moulton, S. M. Payne, Miss Maude Raywood, Mrs. Henry Kraft, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Sykes, John P. O'Connor, A. J. Wetzch, Miss Marguerite Herbert, R. Kavanaugh, D. A. Kelly, Jr., George McDermott, W. LONG BRANCH, N. J.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., Aug. 31.—The reciprocity law doing away with the requirement for licenses for tourists from other States has largely increased the number of motorists here. A few afternoons ago 987 autos were counted passing a given spot on Ocean avenue within one hour.

When Miss Mercedes Crum entertained her court at her Bath avenue villa on Thursday the pageant festivities ended. Miss Emily Loretta Maps had previously entertained the forty at her Franklin avenue home, Miss Emma Wallace entertained at her home in Franklin avenue, as did Miss Tamire Pannaci at her Ocean avenue home and William B. Anderson at the Shore Club.

The event of the season at the Hollywood Golf Club course was the eighteen hole qualifying round for the championship for the Hollywood and West End cups, which began this morning. The final thirty-six holes will be played on Monday.

SEA GIRT, N. J.

SEA GIRT, N. J., Aug. 31.—Visiting marksmen have restored the familiar picture of a white tented village on the parade grounds and Sea Girt these days is attracting crowds of visitors, not only to see Gov. Wilson, but also to watch the rifle tournament.

The annual rifle meet is in progress on the New Jersey Rifle Range here. The teams from the District of Columbia won the regimental match on Tuesday, taking first and second places. The Iowa team finished third.

Gov. Wilson has not yet announced when he will vacate the "Little White House." He has been travelling a great deal to New York and Trenton of late.

Late New York arrivals include:

Parker House—Mr. and Mrs. George H. Doyle, M. F. Farley, H. B. Fuller, G. A. Pinches and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Evans.

Tremont—Capt. G. W. Corwin, Dr. A. H. Buckmaster and Hayden Carruth.

WATCH HILL, R. I.

WATCH HILL, R. I., Aug. 31.—The attention of the summer colony here is now centered on the doings at the Misquamicut Golf Club, which is now in the height of its season. The annual tennis and golf tournaments are being run off with a record number of entries. The golf tournament started a week ago and will continue until to-morrow. The tennis tournament started last Thursday and will end on Tuesday.

In the races, which are attracting considerable attention, the Pard, owned and sailed by Donald Battey of Woonsocket, was this week's victor. The event of the local yachting season is scheduled for Labor Day, when the races are run for the Little Narragansett Cup, presented by Frank S. Turnbull.

The close of the season is in sight and most of the cottagers are making their plans for leaving shortly after Labor Day. The hotels, too, are prepared for an exodus on Tuesday. The Ocean House will close on September 16, and the Watch Hill House a day earlier.

HOPTACONG SO NICE VISITORS STAY LATE

Many of the Hotels at New Jersey Resort Will Remain Open Till October.

WEEK FILLED WITH FETES

New Yorkers Give All Sorts of Parties for Friends and Their Guests.

LAKE HOPATCONG, N. J., Aug. 31.—Summer residents are remaining later year after year and September already vies with July and August as a star month. Most of the hotels will remain open until October. The Hotel Breslin guests have been enjoying various things the past week, whist holding an important place.

One of the diversions of the week was a marshmallow roast. Forty young people went to the beach and built half a dozen bonfires.

On Wednesday Mrs. Russell Blanchard of New York gave a luncheon to a party of friends who came on a coaching party.

There will be dinners galore to-morrow night followed by a dance. Among those who have issued invitations are Mrs. L. Grey, Mrs. P. Dyer, Mrs. L. Harper, Mrs. Hudson Maxim, Miss L. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Barron, Mr. and Mrs. L. Ketcham, Mr. and Mrs. S. Spencer and Mrs. L. Kellogg of New York.

Twenty automobiles containing members of the New York Athletic Club and the Brooklyn Crescent Club stopped here at Camp Columbia University for three days while on their way to the Water Gap to spend Labor Day.

Robert Phillips of Brooklyn, a Wall Street broker, has been making good catches. This week he landed a black bass weighing five and a half pounds.

A musicale and dinner will be given at Mr. and Mrs. William Lockwood's cottage to-morrow night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Jenkins of New York.

A coaching party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carpenter of New York on Wednesday to Budd's Lake. Miss Lillian Perkins acted as the whip for the party, which was entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Fischer.

Mr. and Mrs. James Pierson of New York and their daughters, the Misses Lillian, Grace, Helen and Beatrice, are claiming considerable attention by their skill as golf and tennis players.

A straw ride was given by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Andrews of New York, who are summering at Schooley's Mountain, to a party of twenty-five friends; they had a delightful moonlight drive here, where they passed the evening in dancing and playing cards at the Hotel Breslin.

One of the pleasant events of the week was the at home given by Miss Nellie Ferguson of New York on Tuesday, at which were thirty-five guests.

One of the most delightful afternoon teas of the season was given by Mrs. Maurice Thayer of New York on Thursday afternoon. A Hungarian band played throughout the afternoon.

Lake View, the summer residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stafford of New York, was the centre of social interest Wednesday night, the occasion being the last musicale of the season. It was preceded by a dinner at which there were thirty guests.

On Wednesday evening the grounds of Mr. and Mrs. William Denton of New York were illuminated with hundreds of Chinese and Japanese lanterns. The boat house was turned into a dancing pavilion. Supper was served on the lawn.

Mrs. William H. Marshall of New York, who this season has given fifteen dinners, seven coaching parties, eight musicales, seven card parties, four dances and three tennis tournaments, held her last affair on Tuesday evening, which was a dance and dinner.

The principal society event of the week, which took place on Thursday evening, was the harvest dinner and informal dance given by Mr. and Mrs. John H. Houghton of New York. The decorations were arranged by a New York florist. The smaller pavilion was converted into a lounging room. In the grounds were cosey nooks formed of palms, through which glimmered many colored electric lights. Bright tents covered the lawn.

The women's invitation golf tournament at the Breslin links this week drew every one toward the golf club and the piazzas presented a gay picture. The competition was open to members and season subscribers. Luncheon was served on the lawns.

A series of swimming races for championship honors will take place to-morrow for women and men. The morning will be given up to trial heats and the finals will be decided in the afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Byrnes of New York has donated three prizes for the golf tournament to take place to-morrow on the private links of Mr. and Mrs. K. Temple, in which twenty contestants will participate.

The Misses Jennie, Laura, Mabel and Beatrice Hoffman of New York are the guests of Colonel and Mrs. William Crawford who have issued invitations for a pavilion dance to-morrow night in thier honor.

CAPE MAY TO HAVE TWO NEW HOTELS AND PIER

Resort Authorities Also Are to Put Up an Elevated Boardwalk.

WILL BE READY NEXT YEAR

Crowds Diminish as the Season Draws to Close, With Two Weeks to Go.

CAPE MAY, Aug. 31.—The crowds have diminished in consequence of the nearness of the end of the season, but not to such a degree as might be expected. There are many visitors here from New York and nearby territory. The active seaside life will continue for another fortnight, as none of the hotels will be closed until after the middle of September.

Before another season rolls around Cape May will have an addition of two large up to date hotels. One will be built at Stockton and Madison avenues, within one block of the beach, by Mecray Bros. A second will be built by a Philadelphia syndicate.

A new pier, to cost about $60,000, will be erected at the foot of Gurney street by a Philadelphia syndicate headed by James G. Doak, who purchased from the Pennsylvania Railroad Company a large tract of riparian land on the ocean front.

The resort authorities have also made a bond issue to build an elevated boardwalk, which will no doubt be completed by the opening of the next season.

Miss Effie Mason of Brooklyn is passing late August and early September at the Hotel Cape May.

George C. Boldt, Jr., son of the New York hotel man, is enjoying his vacation at the Hotel Cape May.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis T. Bennet of New York are spending a month at the Carroll Villa.

OCEAN GROVE, N. J.

OCEAN GROVE, N. J., Aug. 31.—Camp meetings will end here on Monday.

Excitement at the meetings has been conspicuous through its absence, and old timers complain that things are not as they once were. However, to-morrow, the big Sunday is expected to see enough spiritual outpouring to satisfy the most pronounced shouter.

At 9 o'clock there will be the annual love feast and at 10:30 Bishop Luther B. Wilson will preach. The evening services will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. J. G. Wilson of Philadelphia. On Monday the heads of the different departments will hand in their annual reports, followed by the march around Jerusalem, which ends the camp meeting for another year.

On Labor Day afternoon the "Storm" concerts will begin again, and in the evening the annual musical jubilee will take place under the direction of Tali Esen Morgan. Mr. Morgan also states that he will continue his popular concerts until September 15, provided enough interest is shown by visitors to warrant it.

All the North End amusement places will remain open until late in the fall, and the North End Hotel will not close before October.

The week's registrations from New York include:

North End—Mrs. A. Barry, Thomas J. Brearton, Joseph Esterbrook, J. H. Corwin, Miss Helen Corwin, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Blair, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Coventier, Mrs. Joseph Buckler, Miss E.
