MISS HYDE ADDS TO HER LIST OF TITLES

Defeats Mrs. Hurd, 4 and 2, for United North and South Championship.

IMPROVES AS SHE PLAYS

Starts for Home One Down, but Promptly Captures Lead and Keeps It.

PINEHURST, N. C., March 26.—Miss Lillian B. Hyde, the metropolitan titleholder, is the new United North and South amateur woman's champion as the result of her victory to-day over Mrs. J. V. Hurd, former international champion. Five hundred people followed the contest tense with interest and unmindful of a shower which fell toward the close of play, and the score, 4 up and 2 to play, is but suggestive of the interest and closeness of the round.

The strain of play was apparent in medal scores, the total for the entire round being 92 for Miss Hyde and 91 for Mrs. Hurd, as against 80 and 83 in qualification. The first hole was saved for a halve in 5 by Miss Hyde through brilliant recovery from the trap at the right of the green to make good Mrs. Hurd's perfect play. The second was well played with a 5 to 6 win for Mrs. Hurd. The third was halved in 6 and the fourth in 4, where a fine approach by Mrs. Hurd came within an ace of going down. Miss Hyde won the fifth, 4 to 5, by holing a sensational sixty yard running up approach after a good drive, a fluffed brassy and a topped third. The short sixth was an indifferent halve in 5, and on the seventh the metropolitan player got into numerous kinds of difficulties and picked up after playing seven shots, while Mrs. Hurd went down in 6. Miss Hyde recovered for a win in bogey 4 on the eighth, but lost the ninth to a bogey 3 for Mrs. Hurd, who turned home 1 up with a medal score of 44 to 49 for her opponent.

Miss Hyde evened the score on the tenth with a clean cut 4 and likewise on the 415 yard eleventh she went down in the same figure and one under bogey to a poor 7 through a sliced drive by Mrs. Hurd, which the wind caught and placed badly. Another 4 one below bogey gave Miss Hyde a lead of 2 up on the twelfth. Miss Hyde made a 5 and one under bogey on the thirteenth, while Mrs. Hurd took an extra stroke as a result of a penalty by being trapped on her second and making a good out only to lie badly.

Mrs. Hurd came back for a win on the 432 yard fourteenth with a one under bogey 4, to 7 for Miss Hyde. The fifteenth was beautifully played, Miss Hyde winning, 3—4. On the sixteenth a tee shot in the pond cost Mrs. Hurd two strokes, from which she failed to recover, although her third was a beauty, straight down the course, and her fourth made the green. Miss Hyde required a drive, a brassy and two putts for a 4 and the match, 4 up and 2 to play. On the bye holes, Mrs. Hurd won the seventeenth 3—5 and the eighteenth 5—7, recording 43 to 47 for Miss Hyde coming in.

In the second division Mrs. George C. Dutton of Oakley lost in a keen contest 2 down and 1 to play to Miss Agnes Blancke of Montclair. Mrs. J. H. Horner of Oakmont won in the third division and Miss Priscilla Beall of Uniontown in the fourth.

For Friday the Annual Amateur Professional four ball best ball match is scheduled with the open championship on Saturday and the men's event starting Monday.

HORSE JUMPS 7 FOOT FENCE.

Thrills Fashionable Gathering at Successful Durland Show.

The closing music ride, concert and horse show which was held at Durland's Riding Academy, West Sixty-sixth street, last night brought out real high class entries and displayed them to the boxes and gallery, that were filled with prominent horse followers of high social rank despite the bad weather conditions.

In the contest for jumpers Sapolio, a fleet, wiry steed owned by George Chipchase, thrilled the crowd by his spectacular jumping, and then when he was called out to take first prize a few minutes later filled that same gathering with fright by heading straight for a seven foot fence that enclosed the track. He scattered the crowd near it, but hurt no one and sustained only a slight scratch himself. A youth named Williams, who was riding him, gave the gathering a pleasant surprise by coming out of the fray unscathed. Needless to say he led the horse by the bridle thereafter.

Six events were contested besides various exhibitions—St. Nicholas, a high school horse owned and trained by Emil Anthony, a cotillion ride by patrons and a parade of prize winners of the season. Mr. and Mrs. John Gerken led the cotillion and Miss Anna Keyes and Karl Stoerzter led the figures of the cotillion with more than eighty followers.

Miss C. Kearney's Dixie, the veteran gelding that has never been turned down since he became a horse in 1904, captured the cup in the saddle event for horses under 15.2 hands in his usual masterful style. Miss Margaret Weyher rode fourth in this event with Sunbeam, but redeemed herself by capturing the single harness number, driving Sporting Extra. In the competition for horses over 15.2 hands she could get no better than fourth, riding S. Jacobs's mare Mary Garden.

Artillery, veteran of the London Olympiad, won his cavalry event in easy fashion from a big field of aspirants.

The summaries:

DUNIWAY MAKES HIGHEST RUN.

Defeats Uffenheimer by Small Margin—Mayer Takes Matinee.

PHILADELPHIA, March 26.—Joseph Mayer of Philadelphia and Wilkie E. Duniway of Portland were the winners in to-day's games in the amateur billiard tournament of the National Association of Amateur Billiard Players for the championship of America at 18 inch balkline, two shots in. Mayer defeated J. E. Cope Morton of Philadelphia and Duniway defeated Dr. Walter Uffenheimer of this city.

The evening game was by far the best of the series to date, Duniway running out his string of 400 in the fifty-second inning. Uffenheimer was close up with 389. The game was closely contested throughout. Duniway broke the high run record of the tournament to date, running a string of 81. Uffenheimer's high run was 54.

The afternoon game between Joseph Mayer and J. Cope Morton seesawed until the very end, Mayer eventually winning by 400 to 354 in a game that was far from interesting. Morton made a high run of 72, the highest of the tournament until this game, but that was really the only brilliant run in the game. Mayer's high run was 39, but he won out by more consistent playing, having runs of 37, 34, 32 and 31.

MEREDITH CAPTURES MEMORIAL QUARTER

He Wins Easily, as Also Does Howard Drew in 75 Yard Dash.

J. E. Meredith, the University of Pennsylvania freshman, won the quarter mile scratch race held as a memorial to the late colored runner J. B. Taylor, another Penn man, last night.

The race was held in the Forty-seventh Regiment Armory, Brooklyn, under the auspices of the Smart Set A. C., an organization composed of active colored athletes. It was an easy race for Meredith, who won by six yards from Irving T. Howe, the dusky hued runner from the English High School, Boston. Oltmann of the National A. C. was third, with Donnell B. Young, the old Amherst champion, fourth and Granger of Dartmouth last.

Howard P. Drew, the colored 100 yard champion, earned the cheers of the 5,000 spectators when he dashed through the tape in the special 75 yard scratch race three yards in front of Frank Stephenson of the Trinity Club. His time was 7 4-5 seconds and the champion won hands down.

Howard P. Drew won his heat in the 100 yard dash, but immediately saw that he had a tartar to meet in H. M. Martin of Howard University, of duskier hue than Drew and with speed enough to win his heat in 10 seconds from the 7 yard mark. Drew did not compete in the semi-finals and Martin repeated in 10 seconds. In the final the Howard University lad was put back a yard and was forced to do his best to win by a foot from Ed Maurer of the National A. C., who beat Bert Holden of the Elizabeth Y. M. C. A. by six inches.

W. B. Granger, the star of the colored division at Dartmouth, came on from Hanover and started in the 1,000 yard handicap. He was placed at scratch with Ollie De Gruchy of the New York A. C. and Myles McHugh of the Pastime A. C. The Dartmouth man led the other scratch men for the first furlong, when De Gruchy found the pace too slow and left his companions in chasing after the leaders. He was in fourth place when the bell rang, ten yards behind Meeks of the Long Island A. C., who had worked to the front from the 25 yard mark. Meeks held his advantage to the tape, but De Gruchy managed to catch Hills of the Mohawk A. C. ten yards from the finish and land second ten yards behind Meeks.

Two Plymouth Rocks, one homing pigeon and a rabbit are in the guard room of the armory unless they were taken out at daybreak and shot as spies. If they live they may be court-martialled for gross disregard of the rules of the National Guard.

Cheers for the pickaninny who had just won the 50 yard dash for members of the Smart Set A. C., all of whom are colored, had just subsided when there was a fluttering of wings and from under the table which contained the trophies for the meet flew two bewildered Plymouth Rocks. The crowd roared as one hen flew gayly over to join the contestants waiting their event.

Amused at first, the leading Smartsetters soon became indignant and began a search which resulted in the finding of a pigeon under the table. Later in the evening a poor little rabbit crept timorously out on the floor. There was no runner competing who was as slow as this bunny and he seemed glad when he was gathered to the protecting arms of the armorer.

The summaries:

100 Yard Dash, Handicap—Won by H. M. Martin, unattached, 7 yards; Ed. Maurer, National A. C., 4½ yards, second; Bert Holden, Elizabeth Y. M. C. A., 8½ yards, third. Time—10 1-5 seconds.

CAN'T UNDERSTAND COUNT; OUT.

Battling Boer Rodel Victim of a Technical Knockout by Coffey.

George Rodel, the Battling Boer, fell victim to a technical knockout at the hands of Jim Coffey, the Dublin giant, in the ninth round at the Fairmont A. C. last night because he was unfamiliar with the English language. The Boer had been floored by a right on the jaw but, apparently as fresh as ever, crouched on his knee ready to arise, his seconds having shouted to him "in Boer" to wait until the count of nine so that he could get a little rest. Referee Billy Joh bent over him in customary manner and began tolling off the seconds.

Rodel mised the first second's announcement and so, not knowing the words, was a second behind in his thoughts. When Joh said "seven," Rodel thought "six." When Joh said "ten," Rodel thought "nine" and arose to continue the fight, only to be informed that technically he was knocked out and lying dead to the world on the floor. A miniature riot followed when the crowd tried to learn what had happened and the majority left the building still in ignorance.

The showing of Rodel was equally as good as that of Coffey, excluding the technical part of it. Coffey had the first, third, fourth and fifth rounds, the second and sixth were even, but Rodel outclassed the Irishman in the seventh and eighth. He also had the better of the ninth up to the time that the technicality producing punch landed.

Thomson (scratch) beat Mrs. Harriman and Rea (12), 3 and 1; Mr. and Mrs. Gouverneur Morris (scratch) beat Mr. and Mrs. George T. Smith (8), 3 and 1; Mrs. C. O. Iselin and J. B. Harriman (5) beat Mrs. C. W. Dolan and E. L. Smith (12), 2 up; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Perin (2) beat Mrs. C. M. Hinkle and C. W. Dolan (1), 7 and 5.

Protest Greenberg's Race.

The Presentation Club forwarded a protest to the registration committee of the Amateur Athletic Union last night in regard to M. Greenberg, who took seventh place in the novice road run of McCaddin Lyceum last Sunday. Greenberg competed under the colors of the Sheridan A. C., and it is alleged that he is not a member of that organization but of the Athenæum A. C. The Sheridan A. C. captured the team honors in the race, the Presentation Club taking second honors. By throwing out the performance of Greenberg the Presentation Club will make claim to the premier place.

LEDYARD QUITS NEW HAVEN R.R.

Gives as a Reason His Retirement From Business Activities.

The resignation of Lewis Cass Ledyard as a director of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad was announced yesterday at the offices of the New Haven.

At the last meeting of the directors Mr. Ledyard gave as his reasons his gradual retirement from a number of business activities.

His relations with the management have been entirely cordial.

His retirement is interesting now when the possibility of the dividend on the Boston and Maine Railroad is being widely questioned and talk of a reduction of the dividend on the New Haven from 8 per cent. has caused a decided decline in the price of the stock. Mr. Ledyard entered the directorate of the New Haven when the road took over the Boston and Maine in 1907. As a director of the Boston and Maine he represented the large stock holdings of the American Express Company. He continued to represent these holdings as a director of the New Haven. It has been rumored that some big interests in the B. & M. have been selling out.

Mr. Ledyard was out of town yesterday. He has been associated with J. P. Morgan & Co. as legal adviser.

At the office of J. P. Morgan & Co. it was said yesterday that Mr. Ledyard's resignation had no significance.
