MRS. WOODWARD LEFT $250,000.

Most of It Goes to Her Son, Head of Hanover National Bank.

The will of Mrs. Sarah A. Woodward, mother of William Woodward, president of the Hanover National Bank, was filed in the Surrogate's Court yesterday. Mrs. Woodward died at Paul Smith's, in the Adirondacks, on September 22. Her son receives the bulk of the estate.

The will disposes of about $250,000 in specific bequests, giving $5,000 to the New York School of Applied Design for Women for the establishment of scholarships, $2,000 to St. Thomas's Protestant Episcopal Church for the poor of the parish, and $200 each to Mrs. Woodward's chauffeur and five other servants.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ceyder Woodward, a daughter-in-law, receives $25,000 and each of three grandchildren receives the same amount. The jewelry is left to Mrs. Woodward's son to be kept for the grandchildren.

William Woodward receives furnishings of the home at 11 West Fifty-first street, stocks which was left by his father, William Woodward, for distribution by Mrs. Woodward and all the residue of the estate.
