WEAKNESS OF GREEK MATE BEATS SMITH

Glanakopulos Tires and Star Can't Catch Up All the Ground He Loses.

JORDAN AND EKE FIRST

Handicap of 200 Yards Counts in Ten Mile Team Race—Record for Gordon.

Harry J. Smith, the latest long distance lion, had to put up with defeat last night, but not until he had run one of the pluckiest races on record for the edification of the crowd at the games of the Bronx Church House, of which club Smith is the shining light. With Nick Glanakopulos as his partner Smith essayed to give 200 yards start to eleven other teams in a ten mile team race and it was the weakness of the Greek that led to the defeat of the scratch men, after they had overcome the handicap before half the distance had been covered.

Eddie Jordan of the Xavner A. A. and John Eke, Irish American A. C., with the former as the star member, succeeded in leading Smith to the tape by twenty-five yards in a race that tested both speed and stamina. The partners relieved each other each lap, and a sprinting pace was required to keep anywhere near the front. The time for the ten miles, 41 minutes 53 2-5 seconds, is a sufficient indication of the terrific pace at which the men ran, the time for the scratch men averaging 22 minutes for five miles.

Though the final stages of the race were exciting to the limit, the opinion of experts was that such a contest was far too gruelling for amateurs to indulge in. Half of the competitors were near to a fainting condition before the distance was half completed, and stimulants were used freely to keep the tired men on the track.

W. Gordon, the Yonkers crack, ran a remarkable race in the 1,500 meter handicap, which he won from scratch in the indoor record time of 4 minutes 1 3-5 seconds. He had twenty yards to make up on J. F. O'Connor of the New York A. C. in the last lap but won by five yards.

Hal Helland set a new indoor record for 220 yards in his semi-final heat of the handicap. He ran the distance in 22 3-5 seconds. In the final Helland had a rough journey but he won by half a yard. In beating the Dominican Lyceum team in the special relay the Knights of St. Antony quartet set a new armory record of 3 minutes 33 seconds. The summaries:

100 Yard Dash, Handicap—Won by F. P. McNally, New York A. C., 2 yards; B. T. Harvey, Jr., unattached, 6½ yards, second; J. H. Onken, Irish American A. C., 3½ yards, third. Time, 10 2-5 seconds.

220 Yard Dash, handicap—Won by Hal Helland, Xavier A. A., scratch; Al Woods, Loughlin Lyceum, 6½ yards, second; S. Kenard, Xavier A. A., 6½ yards, third. Time, 22 3-5 seconds.

WALTER TRAVIS DEFEATED.

Veteran Loses First Florida Golf Match in Three Years to Weber.

PALM BEACH, Fla., March 10.—By defeating Walter J. Travis 2 and 1 in the semi-final of the State amateur golf championship of Florida Harold Weber of Toledo furnished the surprise of the local season. Travis has won all but one journey he has competed in here for the last three years. Neither competitor played startling golf, but it was the good work of Weber on the green, where Travis was supposed to excel, and a falling off in this department by this veteran that settled the outcome.

W. R. Simons, Garden City, is the other finalist, as he defeated W. B. Langford of Chicago by 3 and 1. Simons was at his best, scoring a 69 for the round and having but one 5 on his card. Simons led by 2 up at the turn and from then on never was headed.

E. H. Pitler furnished a thrill to the gallery, following the Travis-Weber match by holding his tee shot at the 16th hole, 160 yards. His partner, H. R. Winthrop, remarked, as the gallery cheered, "Hold on a minute; I've got this not for a half."

Two Philadelphians are left in the third flight final and two Bostonians in the first consolation. H. P. Farrington, Boston, had to play 20 holes to defeat C. B. Grier, the Canadian amateur champion, in the consolation flight. Grier led 2 up and 4 to play, but Farrington managed to square the match at the home hole and by taking the two extra holes in 3 each earned his place in finals.

The summary:

Championship Division—Harold Webber, Inverness, defeated W. J. Travis, Garden City, 2 and 1; W. R. Simons, Garden City, defeated W. B. Langford, Chicago, 3 and 1.

Second Flight—E. H. Pitler, Merion, defeated H. R. Winthrop, Piping Rock, 3 and 2; John Shepard, Jr., Belmont, defeated C. W. Garrigues, Baltusrol, 4 and 3.

Third Flight—A. F. Huston, St. Davids, defeated H. T. Shriver, Essex County, 5 and 4; W. L. Allen, Huntingdon, defeated F. G. Bryant, Minneapolis, 7 and 6.

First Consolation—H. P. Farrington, Woodland, defeated C. B. Grier, Montreal, 1 up (twenty holes); E. W. Flake, Oakley, defeated W. J. Hyde, South Shore, 1 up.

Fire Prevents Relay Race.

ITHACA, March 10.—On account of the fire in the building of the Missouri Athletic Club yesterday the two mile relay race between Cornell and Princeton to be held in St. Louis Saturday night has been called off, according to word received here to-day. The Cornell team for this meet already had been chosen. The only remaining race for the Cornell half milers for the balance of the indoor season is that scheduled with Michigan to be run at the games of the Pittsburg A. A., on March 21.

OLD PLAYS CHANGE STAGES.

Where to Find Some of the Favorites This Week.

Victor Herbert went down to the Grand Opera House Monday night to conduct the first performance there of "The Madcap Duchess," which he composed for Ann Swinburne. It has been a long time since the theatre which is described as an opera house has reechoed with music that does so much to justify this name. Mr. Herbert has written a characteristically dainty score for this rococo libretto.

Few dramas have made a more thorough round of the theatres in Manhattan than "The Blindness of Virtue," which drew a large audience to the Royal Theatre last night. It was played by the English company, headed by Vera Fuller Mellish, whose father is remembered by old theatregoers as a member of the Irving companies for years.

"Adele," which has seemed since its first production a perfect specimen of a farce with music, was played last night at the Bronx Opera House by the same company that gave it at the Longacre Theatre for so long.

One of the first of the white slave plays was "The Conspiracy." As it was produced by Charles Frohman and given at the Garrick Theatre it was free from much of the offence of later plays of somewhat the same kind. Its sojourn was long here, and the success of the play with the public was not without its puzzling features. Evidently the plays dealing with the same subject in the present season tackled it so courageously that "The Conspiracy" languished on the road. Now it is back on its native heath, however, and the public at the Academy of Music was loyal yesterday.

The piece was written by Edwin Hanford. Besides Mr. Weber the cast includes Norma Bell, Clara Stimson, Florence Nicoll, Pearl Turner, Louis Thiel, Harry Campbell, George Clayton Frye, James Bogard and Eddie Clark.

"Belles of Beauty Row," with Frankie Heath and Harry Le Van at their head is this week's attraction at the Murray Hill Theatre. Supporting Miss Heath and Mr. Le Van are Mabel Clark, Claude Devine, Francesco Ward, George Howard, Hal Pine, Joe Holland, Joe Fried and Joe Barry. The special feature of the week at the Murray Hill is the tango contest, which will be held to-night. Three cash prizes will be awarded the winners.

"The Social Maids," with George Stone and Etta Pillard, are playing this week at Miner's People's Theatre, on the Bowery. To-night Miner's country store is open, amateur night is held on Friday, and a concert is given on Sunday from 1:30 to 10:30 P. M.
