In a onesided game in which the one redeeming feature was a run of 94 by the winner Edward W. Gardner of the Arion Society, New York, won his second victory in the Class A 18.2 balkline billiard championship tournament yesterday afternoon, defeating Charles Heddon of Dowagiac, Mich., 400 to 203. That the Westerner was in nothing like the form he showed against Joseph Mayer on Wednesday was evident early in the match, but more than anything else bad luck kept his score down.

Heddon lost many chances to score points and to get into a long run by missing shots by the narrowest possible margin. In many cases he lost tries when his cue ball took a bad roll or just barely was kissed out of the way. Whenever this did happen Gardner almost invariably was left with a setup which gave him a chance for a creditable cluster. And, strange to say, when Gardner was shooting nearly every time an unlooked for kiss happened along it worked out favorably for him.

The visitor seemed to have plenty of trouble with the table too. The cushions were too fast for him and he had a hard time judging speed. On one stroke he would lose out by hitting a little too heavily, and on the next when he tried to remedy matters by softening his stroke he frequently failed to get enough power into his stroke.

Gardner on the other hand had almost perfect control, but except when he made his high run of 94 he did not use it to the best advantage, for he was inclined to be too cagy in his play. This run, by the way, was the result of careful nursing and pretty balkline play. The ex-champion had a good chance to go over the century mark, for he had the ivories placed well, but he missed an easy draw shot on his ninety-seventh stroke.

Gardner averaged 11 15-35 and had other high runs of 36, 35 and 31, while Heddon averaged only 5 4-5, with his best clusters at 27, 26 and 23. Twelve of the Michigander's thirty-five innings were blanks. The score:

Edward W. Gardner, Arion Society, New York—31, 0, 35, 94, 12, 5, 2, 10, 0, 3, 8, 1, 16, 0, 1, 1, 29, 2, 27, 36, 2, 8, 12, 6, 14, 2, 8, 1, 8, 5, 8. Total, 400. Average, 11 15-35. High runs, 94, 36, 35.

Charles Heddon, Dowagiac, Mich.—0, 0, 2, 13, 2, 0, 4, 2, 0, 7, 10, 20, 0, 0, 0, 6, 4, 1, 0, 27, 0, 4, 10, 0, 2, 10, 1, 2, 26, 2, 12, 0, 23, 2. Total 203. Average 5 4-5. High runs 27, 26, 23.

In the night game another onesided affair, J. Ferdinand Poggenburg of the Liederkranz Society, New York, international champion, easily defeated Dr. Walter E. Uffenheimer of Philadelphia by a score of 400 to 202. The winner averaged 11 1-9 in thirty-six innings, while the loser averaged only 5 27-35 in thirty-five. Poggenburg had high runs of 56, 47 and 40, while Uffenheimer's best clusters were 33, 32 and 26.

Neither of the contestants played especially brilliant billiards. They missed a number of easy ones and both had a tendency to keep the spheres scattered. Poggenburg was away off form on masse shots and after he had missed three or four of them came to the conclusion that he was the worst masse shooter in the world. At least he said so. Uffenheimer's control was bad. The score:

J. Ferdinand Poggenburg, Liederkranz Society, New York—0, 1, 0, 1, 8, 12, 1, 40, 2, 11, 0, 56, 13, 47, 5, 4, 0, 0, 0, 2, 1, 30, 0, 39, 3, 6, 9, 18, 7, 35, 6, 3, 3, 1, 4, 31. Total, 400. Average, 11 1-9. High runs, 56, 47 and 40.

Dr. Walter E. Uffenheimer, Philadelphia—0, 1, 0, 0, 2, 0, 4, 5, 32, 17, 0, 3, 33, 0, 1, 3, 0, 26, 0, 14, 1, 2, 0, 5, 0, 0, 19, 0, 2, 0, 2, 1, 2, 16. Total, 202. Average, 5 27-35. High runs, 33, 32 and 26.

GILLEN TO BE TRIED NEXT WEEK

Mayor Assigns Counsel to Prosecute Police Inspector.

The charges of neglect of duty and failing to suppress disorderly resorts in his district which are to be lodged against Inspector Gillen to-day are the same upon which many policemen have been tried and dismissed but reinstated by the courts.

Police Commissioner McKay said yesterday that the inspector's trial would be set for next week. Assistant Corporation Counsel Stover will act as prosecutor.

The inspector's defence will be that no complaints were made to him against hotels and that the same disorderly hotel condition exists in various sections of the city, notably in the upper Tenderloin, Harlem, the lower section of The Bronx, the downtown business district of Brooklyn and in Williamsburg. He will also introduce in the record at his trial an order issued by Mayor Gaynor which prohibits a policeman, without the permission of the Police Commissioner, from entering a place where liquors are sold.

Mayor Mitchel has said that he is behind the Commissioner. It was the Mayor who assigned Mr. Stover to represent the Police Department at the trial of Gillen.
