IN NEW HAMPSHIRE AND MAINE RESORTS

Golfing, Tennis, Riding and Yachting Keep the Summer Visitors Happy.

LAKE SUNAPEE, N. H., Aug. 1.—During the week there have been many new arrivals at Lake Sunapee, and the popular amusements seem to be golfing, tennis, riding and yachting. Remarkable catches of black bass, trout and salmon are still being reported, and this year will be marked down as the banner one for this sport in the history of the lake. Swimming is receiving a lot of attention this year at Granliden with L. C. Dalton of New York as a special instructor in attendance. Swimming races under his direction are held nearly every week.

The men's putting contest at Granliden was won by Philip Rogers of Greenfield, Mass., and in the ladies' contest Mrs. Roger Shale, Washington, D. C., captured first prize.

Lake Winnipesaukee, N. H.

THE WEIRS, N. H., Aug. 1.—This is to be the big month at this resort; there will be two big conventions. The second week of the month will witness the opening of the Methodist camp meeting at their grounds, which will continue for ten days. The last week of the month the comrades of the New Hampshire Veterans Association will gather for their annual encampment and will entertain Gov. Samuel B. Felker of New Hampshire, members of his staff, Congressmen and Senators of the State and other prominent New Hampshire men. The hotels have large bookings for the entire month.

E. F. Winchenbach and party of New York have been registered at the Lakeside House.

Mrs. Royal E. Dean of New York is spending her vacation at the Colonial at Center Harbor.

Charles Hilton of Providence, R. I., has been passing his days of rest and recreation here.

Charles A. Abbott of Willimantic, Conn., is a vacation visitor at Ossipee.

Austicia Bates of Middleton, Conn., is in Wolfeboro for her vacation.

Eugene McCarthy of New York city has been registered at the New Hotel Weirs the last few days.

Society from all parts of the lake and from Laconia gathered in the parlors of the Lakeside House Wednesday at a bridge party, at which quite a sum was netted for the benefit of the Laconia Hospital.

Philip Leidy of Philadelphia is at Center Harbor, where he is a guest at the Colonial.

William C. Mason and family of Wallingsford, Conn., are at the New Hotel Weirs here.

J. W. Thompson of Philadelphia is passing several days vacation at Center Harbor.

Frank E. Mitchell of New York is visiting at Alton Bay.

Poland Spring, Me.

POLAND SPRING, Me., Aug. 1.—The prettiest event of the week at the Poland Spring House was the card party at which Mrs. Irving Schmelzel of New York entertained nineteen of her friends. Prizes were taken by Mrs. C. S. Richardson of New York, Mrs. Harry Coffin of Brooklyn, Mrs. W. C. Perkins of Portland, Mrs. Sarah Allen of Philadelphia and J. P. Bates of Boston. Others from New York who were present included Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sandford, Mrs. L. Hulburt, Mrs. B. Campbell and Mr. Schmelzel.

The young people among the Poland Spring House visitors gathered in the dining room of Ricear Inn at an informal which all voted to be one of the most delightful affairs of the season. Among those from New York in attendance were the Misses Helen and Dorothy Enger, R. A. Chambers, B. P. Elebash, R. E. Campbell, Miss Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Rumsey Green and Miss I. McKinley. Others were Allan Pettit of Philadelphia, James MacMenamin, Harold and Miss Margery Lake of Hartford, Conn., Miss Florence Lindsay of Philadelphia, Royal Little of Brookline and Miss Rochester of New York.

On Tuesday another informal was held in the ballroom of the Poland Spring House. Among those dancing were Mrs. D. B. Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Schmelzel of New York and Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Harned of New York. S. P. Stinson of Philadelphia, Miss Marion Ricker, Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Taylor of Germantown, Pa., Miss Case of New York, Miss Dorothy Kinley of Philadelphia, Mrs. M. M. Singer of New York and many others of the younger set.

York Harbor and Beach.

YORK HARBOR, Me., Aug. 1.—The arrangements for the annual carnival day at York Harbor have been completed and the committees in charge named one day in the week of August 17 for the celebration.

The Bay Haven Yacht Club has as yet failed to enter upon the plans, but it is understood that during the week they will send a committee to talk over the plans with the proprietors of the hotels and the town committees.

The affair this year will be on the same lines as last year, but on a larger scale. A grand automobile parade in the forenoon, sports and yacht races in the afternoon and in the evening a fireworks display.

The selectmen of the town of York have already appropriated $50 for the carnival day and a subscription paper will be circulated next week to raise the amount to $500.

The auto trap at York Harbor, which has been a bugaboo to the summer residents this season, seems to have worn itself out. The continual daily complaints entered against the town by autoists have brought the selectmen to force the police and constables to cease the persecution. It has been the plan of the motorcycle policeman to run in advance of an auto and draw the chauffeurs into a race. An arrest would follow and a fine would be imposed.

Francis Ouimet, national open golf champion, and Thomas McNamara visited the York Country Club Tuesday of this week and were followed by a large gallery. Ouimet and W. D. Vanderpool of Garden City, runner up in the Metropolitan championship, were defeated by McNamara and A. D. Young of York, 4 up. Ouimet played a round in 77. McNamara made a 72, which is considered a fine score.

The York Beach baseball nine has at last hit its stride and is now leading the Southern New Hampshire and Maine Trolley League.

The Hon. Nelson Page and family have opened their beautiful summer home at York Harbor.

Newcastle-by-the-Sea, N. H.

Club Women to Select State Flag.

PHOENIX, Ariz., July 21.—Arizona has no State flag and no State flower, at least none that are recognized as such officially. The board of trade has asked the assistance of the Woman's Club of this city toward coming to a decision as to what is the best in colors to make the official banner and what the State flower should be.

As soon as some decision is reached by the two organizations the matter will be put up to the next session of the Legislature for final decision.
