Attracted Deserved Attention.

There are queer signs displayed in every city which find their way into print, but the palm is yielded to the following, which has drifted into Grand Rapids from the far east: Mrs. Marshall, an indigent widow, went into the laundry business on a small scale. She had her sign printed upon the shutters of her front window like this:

No. 1
Mrs. Marshall
Laundry
All work punctually done
Open at 7 o'clock
See specimens
in this window.

The next morning when she went out to see what caused the crowd in waiting there she found that the left-hand blind had been blown back by the wind and the sign hardly read as she meant it should, although it accounted for the presence of the crowd.

E. E. Carpenter, Jr., departed Monday for St. Paul, to enter the employ of Uncle Sam in the capacity of mail clerk. Mr. Carpenter is to be congratulated on his good luck in being able to enter the service so soon, having taken the examination last fall, and is the third one to be admitted from this state.

The citizens of Canton and the entire county were greatly shocked upon hearing of the death of H. R. Rise, which occurred in this city last Saturday. Mr. Rise came to Canton a week ago last Friday, and stayed with friends until Monday, he being unable to do anything at home on account of having run a rusty nail in his hand, which caused him considerable trouble. On Monday he was taken suddenly ill and was taken to the hospital, where he remained until death called him away. At first his case was not considered serious, but on Thursday it took a rapid turn for the worse and at a little after 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon he passed away, obstruction of the bowels being the cause of his death. Mrs. Rise was sent for and was by her husband's bedside all the time, and with the assistance of medical aid did all in their power to save the poor man. The funeral took place from the family home in Norway township on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock and was one of the largest ever held in the county. The remains were laid to rest in Land's cemetery in Norway township. The deceased leaves a loving wife and three children, who have the sympathy of the entire community. Born Forty Years Too Soon.

Harvester King Company, Harvey, Ill.

The 12-ft. Single Drive Harvester King Binder which I bought of your agents, the Farmers' Implement & Supply Company, of Canton, has given the best of satisfaction. I have cut 550 acres of grain this season. I cut 140 acres in three of the hottest days of harvest. The folks in the house hardly knew we were harvesting. Have only paid out $12.00 for help and never went through harvest as easy in my life. I averaged over 40 acres per day throughout the harvest. I was born 40 years too soon. I have always worked hard without knowing how to avoid it. I've learned something this year. L. LOWELL.

The musical entertainment given in Bedford Hall Tuesday night by the Maeldoff Imperial Mandolin Orchestra was one of the best entertainments of its kind ever given in Canton. The music was highly appreciated by all present. The orchestra played for a dancing party after the entertainment.
