PENN TAKES UP PLAN THAT TIGERS REJECT

Quakers Decide to Substitute Football Committee for One Man System.

TO CLIP BROOKE'S WINGS

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 2.—The University of Pennsylvania's football authorities have spent the Christmas holidays trying to shape up their football coaching policy and schedule for 1915. An entirely new faction is in control of gridiron matters now and the coaching policy for next fall is to be changed radically. The two graduate members of the football committee are Wharton Sinkler, who played end on the championship 1904 team, and Lyman Cozzens, captain of the 1910 eleven. T. Truxtun Hare, who held the chairmanship of the committee for two years, declined to serve again, and Sinkler and Cozzens were elected because they represented the ideas of the men who believed a change in the coaching policy was necessary.

The most radical feature of the new coaching system is that hereafter the head coach shall not be supreme. There is to be a return to the policy of having a graduate advisory committee which, in conjunction with the new football committee, will have power to override the head coach and captain too on all matters of coaching. This was the policy pursued when the winning 1904 and 1905 teams were developed.

The most delicate problem the committee has to decide is the disposition of George Brooke, the head coach. At the end of the 1914 season the players, after the election of the new captain, took a vote on the retention of Brooke as head coach for 1915. The result of that ballot was 19 to 2 against Brooke. Since Brooke has another year to serve under his contract, the action of the team complicated matters. The consensus of opinion among graduates is that Brooke did too much coaching last year and that he failed to follow the Pennsylvania system. There is no intention on the part of the new committee to prevent Brooke from serving out his contract, provided he fits in with the plans of this committee. To remain he must coach as the committee wishes. This does not mean that the committee will interfere with the coaching, but its members intend to see that the team is coached in accordance with Pennsylvania methods.

It now looks as though Brooke would remain as titular head coach, but would serve more in an advisory capacity. This arrangement provides for the appointment of an active field coach, who probably will be Ely Dickson. This plan is fraught with more or less danger because the authority would be so greatly divided. But the new committee has made it plain that it has no intention of interfering so long as things go properly. All it wants is the power to change the coaching methods if these are at variance with the Pennsylvania system, which it is claimed was the case last year.

There is not much chance of any important changes being made in the schedule for 1915. Michigan, Dartmouth and Cornell will provide the features for November, all occupying dates corresponding to last year. Michigan and Cornell will play here, but the Dartmouth game is to be staged in Boston. There will be only two out of town games, the other one being with the Navy at Annapolis. Applications have been received from several new candidates for places on the Baker schedule. Both the University of Pittsburg and Washington and Jefferson want places, but it is not likely that they can be accommodated. Any new teams would have to be played in October, and both these institutions have teams which would be entirely too strong for the preliminary season. The Quakers are trying to arrange a properly graduated schedule so that they may be at their best for the November games.

BRYANT WINS DECISIVELY.

Shaw Stars in Victory Over Five of Eastern District by 27 to 17.

Bryant High School defeated Eastern District yesterday in a P. S. A. L. basketball game at Mount Carmel Lyceum, Long Island City, by a score of 27 to 17. The Bryant lads showed up well at passing and soon had a safe lead. At half time the Long Island City team was leading by a score of 11 to 8. Shaw, the Bryant forward, scored seventeen of his team's points, enough to tie the Eastern District team. The lineup:

Bryant.	Positions.	Eastern District.
Heeriein	Right forward	Cohen
Shaw	Left forward	Lipsky
Reuter	Centre	Maller
Krahe	Right guard	Kurtzman
Schubard	Left guard	Beer

Score—Bryant, 27; Eastern District, 17. Goals from field—For Bryant, Shaw, 8; Heeriein, 4; Krahe. For Eastern District, Kurtzman, 2; Maller, 2; Beer, 2; Lipsky, Cohen. Goals from foul—For Bryant, Shaw; for Eastern District, Cohen. Substitutes—Kramer for Shaw. Referee—Clark, P. S. A. L. Time of halves—15 minutes.

Cadets Send Ring to Tuthill.

WEST POINT, Jan. 2.—Harry Tuthill, Detroit baseball and Army football trainer, will wear a 1915 West Point class ring in the future. The cadets of that class who were on the football squad during Tuthill's four years here recently forwarded to Detroit as a New Year's gift a valuable ring for Tuthill, engraved with the West Point '15 insignia. In a letter to a friend here Tuthill states that despite rumors to the contrary he will return to the Point next fall if he is wanted and that although he has been mentioned as Pennsylvania's next trainer he has not made any efforts in that direction. Tuthill came here in 1911 and is most popular with the cadets.

Hot Springs Bout Stirs Police.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Jan. 2.—Dick Gilbert of Denver and Sailor Carroll of San Francisco, principals in last night's fifteen round fight at the Auditorium; also Bob Ellison of Kansas City, Carroll's manager, and Art Magiri, the Oklahoma welterweight who officiated as referee, are sought by the Hot Springs police today. Carroll and Magiri were found, pleaded guilty and were fined $1 and costs. The costs will run up around $40 each. Gilbert is either in hiding or has skedaded out of town.

Quimet Turns to Hockey.

BOSTON, Jan. 2.—Francis Quimet, golf champion, has branched out a bit in the world of sport, and is now a fullfledged manager of a hockey team composed of golfers. Like all real managers, he has cast a challenge to the world, and the aggregation is ready to meet teams from any golf club in New England.

Jennie First in Four Races.

INGLESIDE PARK, Jan. 2.—Capt. Edward Little sailed his ice yacht Jennie to victories in four races to-day. In the first the Jennie beat Frank Smith's Nellie Taylor by 32 seconds, Warren's Silver Heels finished a close second in the next race. In the third Nellie Taylor crawled up to second place again. The same order prevailed in the final race for points on a challenge pennant.

Last Night's Boxing Bouts.

At the Fairmont A. C. Billy Jackson outpointed Joe Malone.

At the Broadway S. C. Eddie Campi won all the way over Young Marino.

At Brown's A. A. Kid Black beat Eddie Cook.

At the Coney Island S. C. Bobby Hanson won from Murray Allen.

At the Greenboro A. C. Sailor Hubon drew with Young Al Kale.

At the Sharkey A. C. Eddie Kelly won from Jimmy Duffy.

PENN EXCELS IN ROUGH GAME.

Superiority of McNichol in Foul Shooting Beats Army Five.

WEST POINT, Jan. 2.—Penn's fast five broke the Army's winning streak here to-day and administered a defeat to the cadets. The Red and Blue hung up a 23 to 17 victory in a game that was rough enough for any one. The defeat came as a surprise to the cadets, who had expected a rather easy time with the Quakers, and the loss of the game hurts all the more when the Army thinks of how the Navy snowed Penn under at Annapolis last Wednesday.

The teams were heavy and well matched. Penn's accurate shooting from both foul and scrimmage was a big factor in its victory. McNichol from the foul mark counted eleven times out of thirteen free tries, while Cliphant made a sorry showing from foul for the Army, scoring only six times out of sixteen chances. The former Purdue star, however, proved himself a clever forward, and in his first game played in sensational style at times. His one field goal was of the "hoop" variety and from far down the court.

Howell's guarding was a feature of the Army's play. Penn led at half time 12 to 7, and had that rather close margin to maintain throughout all of the second half. Oliphant and Williamson were sent out of the game near the finish of the contest for too many personal fouls. The lineup:

Army.	Positions.	Penn.
Waldron	Right forward	McNichol
MacTaggart	Left forward	Williamson
Boye	Centre	Seelbach
Howell	Right guard	Hardwick

Score—Army, 17; Penn, 23. Goals from field—Howell, Hibbs, Oliphant, Cole, 2; Williamson, 4; McNichol, Evans. Goals from foul—Oliphant, 6; Kilburn, McNichol, 11. Substitutions—Army, Oliphant for Waldron, Gerhardt for MacTaggart, Britton for Boye, Hobbs for Howell, Cole for Hibbs; Penn, Wallace for Evans, Evans for Williamson, Stokes for Seelbach. Referee—Tom Thorpe of Columbia. Umpire—Ed Thorp of De La Salle. Time of halves—20 minutes.

STALLINGS IN HIGH DEMAND.

Southern Cities Vie for Honor of Banqueting Braves' Chief.

BOSTON, Jan. 2.—George Stallings is unable to escape banquets this winter. In writing of the honors heaped upon the leader of the Braves, Roy L. Bishop of the Florida Times-Union says:

"George T. Stallings continues to be banqueted. Augusta dined him because he was discovered in that city. Charleston wanted to wine and dine him because he broke a leg in that historic old seaport at one time or another, and Macon is to dine him because the world's champions are to train in the City of Peaches next spring. Whenever you want to dine a good fellow "there's a reason," however far it may be to Tipperary.

"George may as well take all the feeds now when the banqueting is good. No one hears of the Athletics' players being wined or dined this winter. Fandom loves a winner and the loser must grubstake himself."

SCHOLASTIC ATHLETIC BRIEFS.

The football warriors of Bay Ridge High School were presented with the athletic insignia of the school last week. Those who received them were Capt. Tom Green, Manager J. W. Graham, M. Ottenstein, E. O'Neill, H. Nordstrom, B. Karlson, W. Caddell, C. Washington, H. Adiman, H. Karlson, M. Diamond, J. Bright, H. Ottenstein, E. Cadmore, C. Youman, T. Grossmann, W. Steel and J. Marcus. All but the last two were presented with sweaters also.

Hal Wittner, the all around athlete of the High School of Commerce, holds two school captaincies. He is captain of the basketball team and is captain-elect of next fall's football team.

John Barshofsky of Boys High goes Wittner one better. He was elected captain of the basketball, baseball and football teams. As the school athletic body does not permit a student to hold more than two offices he will resign from one, probably baseball.

Invitations have been sent to schools in Philadelphia, Jersey City, Newark, New Haven, Rochester, Worcester, Springfield and Providence to take part in a competition for mile national relay, open to high schools, which will feature the annual indoor track and field championships of the city's high schools. The meet will be held at the Twenty-third Regiment Armory, Brooklyn, on January 30.

Irving R. Smith proved to be the best individual shot in the P. S. A. L. sub-target contests. He shot an aggregate score of 243 out of a possible 245 in seven matches. Akulla N. Volkendt is next, with 240. Capt. Quinlan, Zicke and Suedekir follow, with 236, 238 and 234 respectively.

De Witt Clinton High School appears to have the best chance of winning the swimming championship of the city. In the first meet of the season the team defeated the Townsend Harris Hall aggregation, which had previously won five straight victories.

Battery practice for the Commercial High School baseball team will begin in the school gymnasium this week. Coach Charles H. Carey has arranged to hold practice two or three times a week. Eb Williams, the star tackler of the scholastic football team, will captain the team, while J. Booth is manager. The latter is drawing up the schedule.

REVISE BASKETBALL SCHEDULE.

Withdrawal of Evander Childs Necessitates New Dates.

The withdrawal of Evander Childs High School from the championship basketball tournament has made it necessary for the basketball committee of the P. S. A. L. to revise the schedule. The Childs school entered the tournament when the schedule was first made up but withdrew owing to the lack of material. Later Evander Childs again entered the tourney but quit after playing one game, because the team was not up to the standard. The new schedule calls for three playing days a week instead of two. The revised schedule follows:

January 6—Townsend Harris at Clinton, Bushwick at Stuyvesant, Boys High at Far Rockaway.
January 8—Stuyvesant at Boys High, Commerce at Bushwick, Jamaica at Eastern District.
January 9—Townsend Harris at Bryant, Clinton at Far Rockaway.
January 12—Clinton at Bushwick.
January 13—Far Rockaway at Newtown.
January 15—Far Rockaway at Jamaica, Boys High at Newtown.
January 16—Eastern District at Jamaica, Townsend Harris at Stuyvesant.
January 22—Jamaica at Boys High, Commerce at Stuyvesant.
January 23—Erasmus at Newtown, Townsend Harris at Eastern District, Bryant at Far Rockaway.
January 29—Clinton at Commerce, Newtown at Bushwick.
January 30—Townsend Harris at Erasmus, Boys High at Bryant.
February 5—Stuyvesant at Newtown, Bushwick at Boys High.
February 7—Bryant at Erasmus Hall, Commerce at Far Rockaway, Jamaica at Townsend Harris.
February 13—Stuyvesant at Jamaica, Bushwick at Eastern District, Boys High at Erasmus Hall, Townsend Harris at Commerce.
February 19—Clinton at Stuyvesant.
February 20—Jamaica at Commerce, Erasmus Hall at Bushwick, Bryant at Newtown, Eastern District at Far Rockaway.
February 25—Stuyvesant at Far Rockaway.
February 27—Clinton at Jamaica, Commerce at Boys High, Newtown at Eastern District.
March 6—Clinton at Eastern District, Erasmus Hall at Commerce.
March 12—Eastern District at Boys High.

LEADERS' MARGIN NARROWED.

Oldham Athletic Is Defeated by Bolton Wanderers, Score 2 to 0.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

LONDON, Jan. 2.—The first round of the English cup ties is set for decision next Saturday, yet all the clubs in the principal leagues were engaged to-day. The leaders of the first division of the English Association League, Oldham Athletic, received a setback, being beaten by Bolton Wanderers by 2 to 0. The leaders now are only two points ahead of Manchester City, which shared the honors with the United of the same town. Watford makes a big jump in the Southern League table by winning from Portsmouth by 2 to 1. This, together with a win over Cardiff City yesterday, lifts Watford into third place.

With the exception of Queens Park, all the home clubs in the Scottish League picked up points. The results:

McAleer Through With Baseball.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 2.—"I am through with baseball for life." This was the statement made by Jim McAleer, former big league manager and recently president of the Boston Red Sox. "When I sold out at Boston a year ago it was forever; I guess though at the time I did not think so. For from what I hear now of the big league teams, none except the Braves had a very successful season. But, of course, I don't know of the inside affairs. I base my opinion upon what I have read in the papers," said McAleer.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—A depression of moderate intensity was central over eastern Ontario yesterday, attended by snow in the middle and lower lake regions and eastward in New York and New England.

Elsewhere throughout the country the weather was generally fair.

It was generally warmer in the Atlantic States, but much colder over the north central States, with temperatures 10 to 30 degrees below zero in Minnesota and part of North Dakota.

The pressure was low in the Northwest, but was high over the central valleys and over the States west of the Rocky Mountains.

In this city the morning was cloudy and foggy, followed by snow and by clearing in the afternoon; warmer; wind, fresh easterly; average humidity, 73 per cent.; barometer, corrected to read to sea level, at 8 A. M., 30.10; 3 P. M., 30.02.

The temperature in this city yesterday, as recorded by the official thermometer, is shown in the annexed table:

	1915.	1914.		1915.	1914.
9 A. M.	26°	27°	6 P. M.	31°	35°
12 M.	27°	3 °	9 P. M.	30°	32°
3 P. M.	30°	32°	12 Mid.	29°	30

Highest temperature, 31°, at 7 A. M.
Lowest temperature, 21°, at 4 A. M.
