S. Winston of this city, in St. George's Church, Hempstead, L. I., on April 10, at 3 o'clock. The wedding ceremony will be followed by a reception at Three Oaks, the country home of the bride's mother.

Miss Kennedy will have her sister, Miss Marian Kennedy, as her only attendant and G. Owen Winston will be his brother's best man. The ushers chosen are Frederick T. Frelinghuysen, John Elliott and Henry Holt, Jr., of this city, Robert S. Potter and Cooper Howell of Philadelphia and G. Davenport Hayward of Boston.

Plans have been completed for the wedding of Miss Emily Coe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Coe, to Harley Lord Stowell in Grace Church on the afternoon of April 20 at 4 o'clock. The Rev. Dr. Charles Lewis Slattery, rector of the church, will perform the marriage ceremony and afterward there will be a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 5 East Tenth street.

Miss Rosalie Coe will be her sister's maid of honor and the other attendants will be the Misses Sarah Cheney, Helen Miller, Dorothy Weir, Gertrude Mali, Alice Pine and Eleanor Rodman Townsend.

Edward Esty Stowell will be his brother's best man. The ushers selected are Colles J. Coe, a brother of the bride; Elihu Root, Jr., George Roberts, Martin J. Keogh, Jr., Edward Wales Root and Sidney P. Henshaw of New York, Richard H. Sherman of Utica and William A. Percy of Greenville, Miss.

Miss Dorothy Wehrhane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wehrhane, whose engagement to Herbert Gardiner Lord, Jr., of this city was announced recently, will be married at the home of her parents, Broad Acres, Llewellyn Park, Orange, N. J., on May 15.

The wedding of Miss Dorothy Doubleday, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank N. Doubleday of Oyster Bay, L. I., to Frederick Huntington Babcock of this city and Providence, R. I., will be celebrated in Christ Episcopal Church, Oyster Bay, on May 19. After the ceremony there will be a reception at Effendi Hill, the country place of Mr. and Mrs. Doubleday.

Rehearsals are being frequently held for the dances which are being arranged for the cafe dansant to be given in the ballroom of the Hotel Astor on the afternoon and evening of Easter Monday, April 5, under the auspices of the New York State Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage. The proceeds of the entertainment will be devoted to the campaign fund of this organization.

The dances will be executed by amateurs of society and there will be several novelties among them, representing a triumvirate of art. The "Futurist Garden" will offer much in the way of odd diversions, and some of the other features of the entertainment will relate to the suffrage question. Miss Inga Sontum is arranging some of the classical dances, rehearsals for which are being held at the home of the Misses Hewitt, 9 Lexington avenue, and Miss Elizabeth Fisher will pose the tableaux after historic women. Some of those who will pose are the Countess Ella Festetics, and the Misses Constance Peabody, Edith Farr, Clover Todd, Roxana Wentworth Bowen and Elise Rice.

Children are to have an important part in the afternoon programme beginning at 2 o'clock, and at the conclusion of the evening performance there will be general dancing. Mrs. Henry Clinton Backus is chairman of the committee in charge of the sale of tickets. On the committee of arrangements, of which Mrs. Nelson Herrick Henry is chairman, are Mrs. Arthur Murray Dodge, Mrs. Edward Ringwood Hewitt, Mrs. Fritz Achelis, Mrs. Francis S. Bangs, Mrs. R. Fulton Cutting, Mrs. Francis G. Landon, Mrs. Benjamin Nicoll, Mrs. Schuyler Van Rensselaer, Mrs. Howard Henry, Mrs. James R. Hayden, Mrs. De Witt Clinton Falls, Mrs. Clough C. Overton, Mrs. Robert Olyphant, Mrs. Gustaf Stromberg, Mrs. Peter B. Olney and Mrs. Stanley Dexter.

A musical comedy in which amateurs of society will take part will be a feature of the "ball for the mentally unemployed" to be given in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton on the night of April 5 under the auspices of Auxiliary No. 13 of Stony Wold Sanatorium for the benefit of the camp conducted by that organization at Lake Kushaqua. The musical comedy, the title of which is "The Musical Binder, or the Loose Leaf Blank Book," is only one of the novel features that will be introduced during the evening. There will be an "unintelligence office" where untrained experts will be on hand for uninvestigation.

Some of the young people who will take part are the Misses Ina Kissel, Dorothy Fox, Edith Sloan, Eunice Clapp, Beatrix Buel, Geraldine Gray, Barbara Shedd and Eleanor Keep and Messrs. Henry Smith, James K. Knapp, Gerald Onativia, George Brett, Miles Riley and Eldon Harvey. After the entertainment there will be general dancing, and on the floor committee will be Oliver Wagstaff, William Bruce Brown, Theodore Crane, Charles S. Butler, Harold Otis, William Boulton, John D. Peabody and J. Berry Underhill, Jr.

Among the patronesses are Mmes. Rudolf Kissel, Edward R. Hewitt, Edward Kellogg Dunham, Henry H. Landon, Philip Livingston, Childe Hassam, Carroll Beckwith, Benson B. Sloan, Samuel L. Tucker, J. Aiden Weir and Charles H. Keep. Tickets at $3 each may be obtained of Miss Mary C. Sturgis, 116 East Thirty-sixth street.

Dancing will be the main diversion at the benefit for the Home Garden Settlement in Sherry's large ballroom on the night of April 7, but there will also be a room set aside for auction bridge. This entertainment is given annually by young people of society who are interested in the settlement located in "Little Italy" on the upper East Side. Miss Margaret Seton Porter is chairman of the committee arranging the dance, and assisting her are the Misses Charlotte Strong, Margaret Trevor, Genevieve Sanford, Margaret Henderson, Adrienne Iselin, Constance Peabody, Rita Sturgis, Symphorosa Bristed, Margaret Overton, Sylvia Holt, Gertrude Gerr, Cordelia Hepburn, Margaret Eubart and Mary Haskell and many of the debutantes of this and last season.

Young men of society will act as members of the floor committee and some of these are Arthur M. Du Bois, Harry C. Cushing 3d, Watson C. Emmet, Murray Hoffman, J. Horton Ijams, Robert O. Du Bois, Bernard S. Van Rensselaer, F. Shelton Farr and Lewis A. Coffin, Jr.

For the benefit of the Manhattanville Day Nursery an entertainment will be given in the ballroom of the Plaza on the night of April 9 called "A Masque of Spring" words by Miss Katharine Harrower and music by Romualdo Sapio. Miss Harrower will play the role of Pierrott and Miss Helen Hartley Jenkins, whose engagement to Francis H. Geer was announced recently, will be Pierrette. Gerald Onativia will have the part of Harlequin. Others in the cast will be the Misses Catherine Culbert, Agnes Surgeoner, Dorothy Taylor, Louise Walker, Muriel Smith, Jean Peters, Helen and Dorothy Leet.

After the "Masque of Spring" there will be several classical dances in which a group of young amateur dancers will take part. At the conclusion of the entertainment there will be general dancing.

A large number of seats and boxes have been sold for the annual entertainment of the Spence School Society, which will be given in the ballroom of the Plaza on the evening of April 15 and the afternoon and evening of April 16. The one act comedy "Op o' Me Thumb" and the musical farce "Old King Cole" will be presented. In the cast will be former pupils of Miss Spence's School, who are interested in the open air class for tubercular children at the foot of East Twenty-sixth street, to which the proceeds of the entertainment will be devoted.

Miss Isabel Foote will have the pricipal role in "Op o' Me Thumb" and others in the cast will include Mrs. John F. Russell, Jr., and the Misses Eva McAdoo, Marjorie Clinton and Katherine Flagg. Lauren Carroll, a brother of Miss Caramai Carroll, will have the only male part in "Old King Cole," and among others in the cast will be Mrs. B. Tappen Fairchild, the Misses Louise Freeman, Margaret Trevor, Louise Butler, Gladys Fries, Gretchen Damrosch, Dorothy Flagg, Dorothy Schenck, Jeanette Flagg, Caramai Carroll, Catherine Colt, Eunice Clapp, Elise Rice, Eva Mali, Caryl Hackstaff, Margaret Luce, Margaret Warren, Katherine Lamont, Elizabeth Kirlin and Margaret Overton.

Mrs. A. Graham Miles is in charge of the details of the entertainment and Miss Catherine Colt of 62 East Fifty-fourth street is receiving applications for tickets and boxes at $3 and $50 respectively.

Gov. and Mrs. Charles S. Whitman, Mayor and Mrs. John Purroy Mitchel, Mrs. Leonard Wood, wife of Gen. Wood, U. S. A., and Rear Admiral and Mrs. Usher of the Brooklyn navy yard have been invited to attend the frugal fete and fantasy to be given for the benefit of the New York Association for the Blind in the ballroom of the Astor on the night of April 6. Miss Winifred Holt and others interested in the arrangement of the entertainment have planned a series of dances to precede general dancing, which will be the principal part of the evening's entertainment.

Mrs. Herbert L. Satterlee, Mrs. Peter Cooper Hewitt and Mrs. Lorillard Spencer, who compose the committee on decorations, have secured the cooperation of several well known artists in their plans to decorate the ballroom. There will be several dinners given in advance of the fete by the patronesses and boxholders, among whom are Mrs. Willard Straight, Mrs. William Pierson Hamilton, Mrs. Joseph H. Choate, Mrs. R. Fulton Cutting, Mrs. Cabot Ward, Mrs. Lawrence L. Gillespie, Mrs. Seth Low, Mrs. Robert A. C. Smith, Mrs. Herbert L. Pratt, Mrs. F. Ashton de Peyster, Mrs. I. Chauncey McKeever, Mrs. Lyle Mahan and Mrs. Richard Irvin.

A history of Poland in picture and music will be given in the series of tableaux, songs and pageant of "A Night in Poland," to be presented at the Biltmore on April 8, in aid of the fund of the American Polish Relief Committee of New York. One hundred and fifty amateurs of society are rehearsing for the pageant, in which there will be groups representing different periods in the life of Poland. Mrs. Arthur Scott Burden and Mrs. Price Post will lead the first group in the pageant, and Miss Helen Morgan Hamilton will be in charge of the second group. Royal personages of the Polish kingdom will be portrayed and those taking part will wear costumes copied from portraits of members of the royal household in Poland.

The first scene in the tableaux will be a view of the Tatra Mountains, which will disclose a group of peasants singing national songs. Then there will be a wedding scene, in which Miss Beatrix Buel and Gerald Onativia will be the bride and the bridegroom. Adamo Didur will represent the bridegroom's best man, and Dr. Stengel Sembrich will appear as the father of the bride. During the tableaux there will be a series of Polish dances by amateurs, and after the entertainment there will be general dancing. As many of the guests will be in appropriate costume the ball will take on much the character of a Polish carnival. Nahan Franko's orchestra will play.

Tickets, including supper, are $5 each and boxes seating six persons are $40 and $75. They may be obtained at the headquarters of the American Polish Relief Committee, 14 East Forty-seventh street, or at the Biltmore Hotel.

One of the picturesque fetes of Easter week will be the flower ball to be given at the Plaza on Thursday night for the benefit of the International Child Welfare League and it is hoped that a handsome sum will be netted to convert vacant lots and tenement house roofs into home gardens, where not only flowers but vegetables can be raised.

Attractive dances are being organized by Mrs. R. W. Hawkesworth and a Pavlowa gavotte will be danced by Miss Margery Shannon and Marquand Walker. The Misses Anna Ballard, Katharine Fitch, Almy Gilford, Elinor Kendall, Frances Peck, Julia Potter, Emmalena Sizer and Dorothy Taylor will do a doll dance. There will be a fancy fox trot by Miss Eunice Clapp and Felix Doubleday. Miss Anna Ballard and Kneeland S. Green, Miss Elizabeth Kirlin and Matthew Looram, Miss Rhoda Tanner and Francis W. Randerbrock, Miss Margaret Warren and J. Berry Underhill, Jr.

In the flower dances will be the Misses Gabrielle Clendenin, Pamela Poor, Adele Prindle, Alma Simon, Marguerita Siegfried and Frances Ward and Messrs. George Brett, Leonard Cox, Lee French, Paul Rittenhouse, G. George Mumford, Gilbert Stockton and Edward Kemp, Jr.

A special feature of the entertainment will be a parody on G. Bernard Shaw's "Androcles and the Lion" to be called "Androcles and the Try-On." It has been written by Littlefield McCoy, with music by Linn Fielder and lyrics by Edward Hale Bierstadt. Douglas Wood will stage the production in which the cast will be as follows: Androcles, Harold Imbrie; Mrs. Androcles, Miss Frances Judson; Paul Pottet, Knox Hardin; Lion, Richard Mackenzie; Cannibals, McNeal Swasey, Edwin Gould, Jr., Theodore Bronson; Models, the Misses Katherine and Barbara Thaw, Gertrude Hamilton, Eva Ingersoll Brown, Vera de Ropp, Caroline Wyeth, Rhoda Tanner and Cornelia Cammann.

The gowns to be worn in this parody have been presented by leading modistes and afterward will be auctioned off for the benefit of the league.

P. P. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education, is cooperating with the patronesses, among whom are Mmes. John Jacob Astor, R. Fulton Cutting, John S. Auerbach, J. Parker Kirlin, Newell W. Tifton, William H. Woodin, Samuel H. Valentine, W. Seward Webb, Jr., William E. Benjamin, Franklin Mott Warner, Gilbert Colgate, George J. Whelan, Daniel S. Lamont, Henry S. Rokenbaugh, Louis Livingston Seaman, A. Barton Hepburn, Frederick Eldy, George A. Legg, James R. McKee, James Stewart Cushman and D. Hunter McAlpin.

Tickets, including supper, at $5 each, may be obtained of Mrs. J. Brewster MacDonald, 820 Park avenue.

Women interested in the success of the Rehearsal Club are organizing a performance of Jean Webster's comedy "Daddy Long-Legs," which will be presented by children of the stage at the Gaiety Theatre, on the afternoon of April 9. Part of the proceeds will be devoted to the school for these children which is carried on in connection with the club, and at present there is an enrolment of more than 100 pupils.

The Rehearsal Club was started to enable women of the theatrical profession to obtain good food at moderate prices and to provide a resting place for them between engagements. The club rooms and cafeteria were opened in July, 1913, with about twenty-five members and now there are 358 members who pay 25 cents per month for the privilege of belonging to the club.

Miss Jean Greer, a daughter of Bishop Greer, is president of the club, Miss Alice Smith is vice-president and Thomas S. McLane, who married a daughter of Bishop Greer, is treasurer. Miss Jane H. Hall is secretary and also the deaconess in charge.

Among the directors are Mrs. Ira Davenport, Mrs Henry Reese Hoyt, Mrs. Thomas S. McLane, Mrs. John J. Riker, Mrs. William Sloane, Mrs. Willard Straight, Mrs. James B. Taylor, Mrs. Breck P. Trowbridge, Mrs. James M. Varnum and the Misses Susan D. Bliss, Marie Russell, Grace Scoville, Lois Scoville and Louise Van Ingen. The advisory board includes Mrs. Richard Mansfield, William Dean Embree, George B. Hedges, Francis P. Wilson, Dr. William S. Thomas, the Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Stires and Bishop David H. Greer.

Tickets from $1 to $5 each may be obtained of Miss Alice Smith, 521 Park avenue.

An Easter sale for the benefit of the Island Mission will be held to-morrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Cadwalader Jones, 21 East Eleventh street. The articles to be offered for sale have been made by inmates of the city hospitals and homes and will include baskets of all sorts and sizes, hat stands, veranda tables, clothes hangers, weather cocks, aprons, dusters, mats and other useful articles. Mrs. Jones will be assisted at the sale by several of her friends.

Even at this early day arrangements are being made for dances of next season. It has been decided to continue the Three Sherry Dances, which have been so much favored for several seasons, and they will be held at Sherry's on December 3 and 30 and January 21. These dances are for the older girls, although some of the debutantes are included. The committee for next season includes Mrs. Edward S. Knapp, Mrs. J. Gerbert Johnston and Mrs. B. Ogden Chisolm. The other subscribers are Mmes. John E. Alexandre, Henry E. Coe, Richard C. Colt, Carl A. De Gersdorff, Charles Merrill Chapin, Columbus O'Donnell Iselin, Bradish Johnson, Louis Butler McCagg, W. Bard McVickar, Pierre Mali, J. Pierpont Morgan, Walter G. Oakman, William Jay Schieffelin, Hiram W. Sibley and Henry G. Trevor.

One of the oldest sewing classes of the Lenten season, that which meets for the benefit of the New York Nursery and Child's Hospital, will hold its final meeting for this season to-morrow morning at the home of Mrs. John M. Bowers, 45 East Sixty-fifth street. The meetings have been well attended since the first, held on March 1.

One of the few dinners of the week will be given by Howard Taylor on Tuesday evening at his home, 19 East Sixty-fourth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelso Cassatt of Philadelphia will pass the summer in Newport, having again leased Gravel Court, the villa of Mr. and Mrs. James F. D. Lanier, in Narragansett avenue. Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Pierson, Jr., will again join the colony and will be at the Parker villa in Larker avenue. Mrs. Schuyler Van Rensselaer has leased for the summer from Robert G. Hone his house in Old Beach road. Mr. and Mrs. John Sanford will go to Newport early in June and will then take possession of the Thorn villa in Narragansett avenue. Beginning early in July there will be a series of the dansants at Berger's Bellevue Lodge, where the Boxhorn London Orchestra will play for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Goelet Gerry have started on the steam yacht O-We-Ha for San Francisco via the Panama Canal. They sailed from Washington, D. C., and stopped off at Miami on Tuesday, leaving for Nassau on Wednesday.

Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., and Miss Eleanora Sears of Boston are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark in San Mateo, Cal.

Mrs. Ira Davenport will leave for California next week to remain until the middle of June, when she will go to her country place, Riverside, in Bath, N. Y.

Mrs. William Buel Franklin will give a small dance for young people at her home, 925 Park avenue, on April 6. The last of Miss Georgianna Owen's Friday junior dances will be held in the rose room of the Plaza on the night of April 23.

Mrs. William B. Leeds and Miss Lota Robinson have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Prescott, who were married in Grace Church chantry on March 9, have returned from their wedding trip and are making their home in Boston. Mrs. Prescott was Miss Marjorie Ficken, daughter of H. Edwards Ficken.
