SARANAC LAKE, N. Y.

SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., June 19.—The opening of the Country Club, on Ampersand Bay, off Lower Saranac Lake, was largely attended, with visitors present from Loon Lake and other resorts. A club golf tourney attracted much attention and was won by Malcolm Williams and Mrs. George K. Fischer. Following the play on the green and the tennis courts refreshments were served. The ladies who poured during the afternoon were Mrs. Walter H. Cluett, Mrs. Julia Howell, Mrs. A. Paige Watson and Mrs. Walter H. Larom.

A large audience witnessed the Flag Day entertainment provided by the Women's Relief Corps of Saranac Lake at their rooms on Broadway on Tuesday afternoon. The programme was held on this afternoon to avoid conflicting with the Flag Day ball given at the Boys Club the evening previous.

Among the social functions of the week were a picnic at Alder Brook, at which Malcolm Williams had as his guests Bishop Littlejohn, Miss Hildegarde Henderson, Miss Emily Mann, Miss Theodora Bates, Arthur Duncan Moir and F. Hallock. Another was a dinner given by Mrs. Julia Howell, on Church street, and a camp dinner with Mrs. Edward Hanna Small as hostess.

The commencement programme next week, which includes a ball and banquet in addition to the usual graduating exercises of the Saranac Lake schools, is holding the attention of the younger set and will be attended by many of the summer colony.

ONTEORA CLUB.

ONTEORA CLUB, N. Y., June 19.—There are few things more pleasant than a summer vacation passed at the Onteora Club, as this colony has been named. The location of the Onteora Club is ideal, according to visitors, and the reservations for the season are in excess of those of other years.

Miss C. B. Williamson of New York has opened her cottage, as have Mrs. Anna Alling of Newark, N. J., and Perry Averill of New York.

G. A. Reid, well known Canadian artist, has arrived at the Onteora Club and will pass the season at his cottage here.

Miss Luisita Leland, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Moen and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Dwight will be here as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Godfrey of New York are occupying Caddam Hill, the summer home of Miss Maude Adams.

Mrs. G. A. Brown of New York has taken the Harebell cottage.

Judge James A. Kelly has leased the Quaker Lady cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoguet have taken Journey's End, the summer home of Miss Bertha Runkle.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Porter have leased Mme. Torpadie's cottage, Doslers.

Miss I. M. Cammann, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Colgate, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Perry and Mrs. D. W. Peasley have arrived here for the summer.

LAKE PLACID, N. Y.

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., June 19.—Women in large numbers are among those who have met with success in making catches of bass since the opening of the season on June 15. Strings of good size are brought in daily at the hotels.

Members of the Lake Placid Yacht Club are now rapidly taking possession of their camps and following the meeting on July 10 the programme of races will be announced. Eustace Seligman, son of Prof. E. R. A. Seligman of Columbia University, is having his fast racer Columbia, with which he won the powerboat trophy on this lake in 1914, overhauled in readiness for the new series of races. Clifford Herbert's Natoma, one of the fastest boats in Adirondack waters, is also being put in condition. William L. Supplee, who did not occupy his camp on Lake Placid last season, will return this summer, and his fast Wangundin will again enter the races.

Mrs. William G. Rockefeller, who has been here attending the closing exercises of the Lake Placid School, conducted by Prof. John M. Hopkins, will pass the summer at Bay Pond, the Rockefeller camp, a few miles from this place.

Word has been received from Chief Justice Edward Douglass White of the Supreme Court of the United States and Mrs. White, fixing the date of their arrival at Camp Inwood at Whiteface Inn as June 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Herbert and Miss Herbert have arrived at Camp Joyland.

Arthur Mack has opened Bonny View Cottage. Siegfried Kahn is at the Guild Cottage on Signal Hill.

Mrs. William J. Buttfield is at her camp on Lake Placid.

Rabbi Stephen S. Wise has opened his camp on Buck Island.

Mrs. J. Williston Wright and her daughter, Mrs. H. R. Payne, are at their cottage for the season.

M. B. Marshall, managing director of the Grand View Hotel, was among the arrivals of the week.

Capt. T. A. Lyon, U. S. N., retired, who has passed several seasons at the Grand View, will return with Mrs. Lyon. Other New York bookings are Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brant, Mrs. J. G. Cardinal, George E. Townley and Mrs. C. M. Shott.

Thomas F. Smith, secretary of Tammany Hall, has made reservations at the Stevens House, where he will arrive soon with his family.

LAKE GEORGE, N. Y.

LAKE GEORGE, N. Y., June 19.—Oscar Seagle, barytone singer, formerly of Paris and now of New York, has arrived at Hague-on-Lake George. He will devote the summer to teaching and to the preparation of a concert repertoire for next season, in which he will be assisted by his accompanist, Frank Bibbs. Other singers here are David Soderquist of Stockholm, Sweden; Miss Freda Klink of Indianapolis, Frank Steen of New York, Miss Elizabeth Armstrong of Minneapolis and Harold Van Duzee.

Each day has its quota of work and recreation, the party assembling at meal times in the Hotel Phœnix, where F. W. Bauerfeind, formerly of the Ritz-Carlton staff, now manager of the Phœnix, sees to their material comfort. The singers live in cottages which line the bluff overlooking the lake.

Arrivals for to-day are Miss Lucy Lee Call, Miss Marian C. Clark and Miss Dorothy Hasbrouck, daughter of Justice Hasbrouck.

The Fort William Henry had as guests this week a party bent on historical research, among the members being Representative Peter G. Ten Eyck. Recent arrivals from New York are Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Clark, Robert C. Shoal, Courtlandt Palmer, Mrs. Robert Abbey, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stewart, William M. Blake, Miss Gertrude Rice, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Peabody, Miss Eva Peabody, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Work and R. F. Barnum.

New York arrivals at the Worden Hotel are John T. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Peet, Mrs. M. L. Shepard, Mrs. J. E. Sanders, Thomas Foster, H. L. D. Stetteler, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hohms and M. C. Young.

At Glenburnie they are playing the old Scotch game on the newly improved links at the Inn. Among the early arrivals in the cottage colony is Charles S. Skilton, dean of the University of Kansas, who comes to Glenburnie for the first time.

H. J. Slocum, Jr., nephew of Mrs. Russell Sage, has once more joined the cottagers of Hague-on-Lake George.

The first dance of the season was held at the Hulett House, Huletts Landing, on June 10, with about forty couples attending. The register of the hotel, which is now under the management of A. H. Wyatt, shows the following New York arrivals of recent date: Eric N. Griffin, Mrs. Griffin, Miss Olive A. Griffin, Thomas A. Cashin, A. F. Doherty, Miss Gertrude M. Stockwell and Harry Hearn.

At Trout Pavilion are Mr. and Mrs. George T. Aldrich, Donald Aldrich and Mr. and Mrs. W. Pierce, and at Kattskill Inn are C. S. Spencer, N. P. Weissberger and A. D. Fayrelius.

SHELTER ISLAND.

SHELTER ISLAND, N. Y., June 19.—This resort will open next Saturday with every promise of a big season. The Prospect House, under the management of James Eben, will be ready for the reception of guests. One of the first affairs at the Prospect House will be a reunion party. The ballroom has been enlarged and decorated. Around it booths have been placed, where refreshments will be served. Tea dances will be held in the palm garden, atop the bathing pavilion. The music will be under the direction of Thomas G. Austin.

Among those who have made reservations at the Prospect House for the season are:

From New York—Mr. and Mrs. William M. Coleman, Mrs. George R. Johnston, Mrs. Thomas Ransley, Mrs. Pearl Karpen, Mrs. W. R. Brinckerhoff, Mrs. S. H. Wycoff, Mr. and Mrs. Waldo G. Morse, Mrs. E. De Gorgoza and Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Hart.

From Brooklyn—Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Zugalla, Miss Frances C. Ahern, Mr. and Mrs. I. O. Horton and Arthur Horton.

From Montclair, N. J.—Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Boyd.

From Glen Ridge, N. J.—Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Powers.

From East Orange, N. J.— Mr. and Mrs. H. Warren Baker and Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Mulitor.

From White Plains, N. Y.—Mr. and Mrs. L. Ward Prince.

From Allentown, Pa.—Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bonneville and Mr. and Mrs. William D. Schanz.

From Pittsburg, Pa.—Mr. and Mrs. William T. McCullough.

From Cleveland, Ohio—Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Bicknell, Charles S. Thrasher and George Freund.

WESTPORT, N. Y.

WESTPORT-ON-LAKE CHAMPLAIN, N. Y., June 19.—Music is expected to play no inconsiderable part in the pleasures of the summer here, for Fernando Tanara, until recently coach of the Metropolitan Opera Company, who is among the recent arrivals, has leased a cottage and will have with him a number of singers, who will establish a music colony, giving several concerts. Among them are Mme. Rapello of the Metropolitan staff, the Misses Flanagan, Miss Elsas, who is at the Howell cottage, the Misses Booth, who have also leased a cottage, and Morton Adkins, who is at the Westport Inn.

Walter Damrosch will again pass the season at Hall House, on the shore of Northwest Bay, a short distance from the village.

In connection with the building of the State road, completed along the western shore of Lake Champlain from Westport south to the village of Ticonderoga, macadam roads have also been built to several points of historic interest. Old Fort Ticonderoga, which is included in the holdings of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. P. Pell of New York and has been partly restored by them, is reached over a good macadam road from Ticonderoga village, and the old forts on Crown Point and the memorial to Samuel de Champlain are reached over another good road which branches from the main highway a short distance from the village of Port Henry.

E. R. Bacon, former president of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, was among the arrivals of the week. Mr. Bacon will pass the summer with his family at Skenewood.

H. W. Duguid of New York will head a party of twenty-five reaching Westport Inn early in the week. They will make an extended stay for the fishing, which is now at its best, and will devote considerable time to golf.

Miss Jeanette Marks is among those who will spend the summer here.

Hillside cottage has been leased for the season by George Hinckle and Mountain View cottage has been taken by J. B. Fender.

A duly organized cruise on Lake Champlain is among the events on the schedule of the Westport Yacht Club, of which James Crary of Brooklyn is the commodore.

GARDEN CITY, L. I.

GARDEN CITY, L. I., June 19.—One of the largest fancy dress balls ever held here was given on Friday evening at the Garden City Hotel. This annual event always attracts many well known persons and this year was no exception. Many came down from Manhattan and from the nearby country places.

Among the prominent residents of Manhattan who are here to join other members of the polo and hunting sets and who will remain on Long Island all summer instead of taking their summer trip abroad, as has been their custom in the past, are Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., and daughters, the Misses Muriel and Consuelo Vanderbilt. Master William K. Vanderbilt 3d has also been with his mother at Garden City.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hoffman will probably spend the greater part of the summer and autumn here.

Members of polo teams who are competing in the various events held at the Meadow Brook tournament are at the hotel. Among these are P. S. P. Randolph and P. S. P. Randolph, Jr., of the Point Judith (R. I.) Polo Club.

MANHATTAN BEACH.

MANHATTAN BEACH, L. I., June 19.—Many annual conventions and dinners will be held at the Oriental Hotel, Manhattan Beach, immediately following its opening on Thursday, June 24, under the management of Joseph P. Greaves.

The meeting and dinner of the Brooklyn Edison Company will precede on the afternoon and evening of June 23. Nearly 1,000 members are expected to be present.

Women will attend the annual outing and dinner of the Apollo Club of Brooklyn on Saturday, June 26. The tenors and basses will oppose each other in a baseball game on the green west of the hotel in the afternoon.

Students of the De La Salle Institute in West Fifty-ninth street, Manhattan, will give a dinner next Saturday evening.

On the opening day a number of magazine and newspaper writers and advertising men will have a baseball game, followed by dinner on the verandas. Other conventions and dinners will be held soon.

Surf bathing is particularly delightful and safe at the well kept, restricted beach. The fine tennis courts are now being put in shape and the hotel is newly painted and decorated.

DELAWARE WATER GAP.

DELAWARE WATER GAP, Pa., June 19.—The season at the Delaware Water Gap is gaining momentum every day.

Prof. Adam Leroy Jones, chairman of the committee on entrance examinations, at Columbia University, New York, and wife are among the early comers and are staying at the Mountain House.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Knipe of Philadelphia are making an extended visit at the Water Gap House.

Louis Kortum, superintendent of the German Hospital and Dispensary of New York, has brought his family to the Water Gap House for the season.

Recent arrivals from New York:

MOUNT POCONO.

MOUNT POCONO, Pa., June 19.—One would say to watch the roads hereabout that all automobilists in the region are making a dead set for Mount Pocono, and as a matter of fact a goodly number of them are doing that very thing. The fine roads with the splendors of this wonderful mountain scenery on every hand are a lasting inducement.

The trout season is at its height and the bass season has just opened so the fishermen are having a fine time. This year is not behind in the size and weight of trout taken. In fact, when the prizes are awarded it is thought this year will go far ahead of last. The trout preserves are the pride of the hotel men here who have taken collectively a hearty interest in them, having employed expert overseers and wardens in order that the sport during the summer shall be enjoyed to the best advantage.

The following hotels are entertaining hosts of early comers:

Mount Pleasant House, Ontwood, Pocono Mountain House, Meadowside, Fairview, Pocono Heights House, Swiftwater, Elvin, Pennhurst, Farm Rest, Wiscasset Bungalows, Casa Loma Cottage, Chestnut Grove House, Pocono Manor, Laurel Inn, Lake View House, Tuxedo Cottage.

STROUDSBURG.

STROUDSBURG, Pa., June 19.—The season for bass opened here this week. Possibly there is no other section in this region where so many good bass grounds can be found as in Stroudsburg. The trout season is still open and so far the best of luck seems to have been the rule. Prizes are offered this year for the largest and heaviest fish.

Recent arrivals at Stroudsburg from New York:

Maplehurst—Mr. and Mrs. Louis Town, Charles N. Higgins, Walter Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gardener, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Stark, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Woulfe, Miss M. E. CRESCO.

CRESCO, Pa., June 19.—Summer gayety is rapidly getting into full swing here.

Arrangements have been made to have the tennis tournaments start in the next week or two. Entries have been numerous and the expected arrival of many who are anxious to play has been responsible for the delay. The courts throughout the resort are in excellent shape.

The opening of the bass season this week has brought throngs of fishermen to augment the crowd of trout anglers already here. This region is well known for the quality of its fishing and the streams and ponds are yielding big catches every day. G. M. L. Le Branch of New York, an expert angler and author of "Dry Fly Fishing in Fresh Water," has been a guest at Spruce Cabin Inn for several weeks and says there is no excuse for failure this year.
