OPERATORS EXPECT CLASH WITH MINERS

Unions Will Demand Recognition in Anthracite Region Next Year.

SEEK RISE IN WAGES

SCRANTON, Pa., July 17.—Gradually it is being borne home to the coal operators of the anthracite region that they are facing another serious clash with the members of the United Mine Workers, which the agreement under which the men are now working expires March 31 next. This is plainly indicated by the strenuous campaign now being waged by President John P. White to build up the membership of the union in the hard coal fields, as well as by some of the statements he has made in speeches since he arrived here.

Never before in the history of the mine workers has such a campaign for membership been waged. President White is accompanied by a number of minor officials as well as a secretary and a publicity promoter, the latter adjunct being a new one in connection with the miners' organization. Beginning July 8 President White has addressed two meetings a day, Sundays excepted. His itinerary will carry him well into August and when he has completed it he will have spoken in nearly every town and hamlet in the coal regions.

While the burden of White's speeches is on the necessity of having every man employed in and around the mines a member of the union previous to the expiration of the agreement, he does not hesitate to hold out inducements to the men to enlist. His main point is that if the men will make the union 100 per cent. strong he will guarantee to obtain for them from the operators both the eight hour day and recognition of the union.

Both these results have long been desired by the miners. They first asked for them fifteen years ago, when the union had its inception in the hard coal fields. They asked for them again in 1902, when the six months strike resulted. They have asked for them at each subsequent conference with the operators, but no requests have been fought harder by the operators than these.

Every promise by White that he will obtain these boons for the miners is greeted wildly by the men who hear him, and they show as well as they can by their enthusiasm that they are with him to the end. Another indication that points to trouble is the fact that the miners, through their own blindness, were cuchred three years ago out of a substantial increase in wages, which they had enjoyed under two previous contracts. They accepted a flat increase in lieu of the sliding scale which they received under the award of 1902, and only too late discovered that the flat increase would not amount to as much in a year as the bonus under the sliding scale, which was figured on the basis of the price coal was bringing at tidewater at various seasons in the year.

This has been a frequent topic in local unions ever since they came to realize their error, and the statement has been made frequently by members that when the agreement expired they would remedy the mistake. The consensus of opinion is that a determined fight will be made to obtain a substantial increase in wages, as well as recognition of the union and the eight hour day.

BOGUS BARONET SENTENCED.

While In Atlanta Prison He Can't Be Shot In England for Deserting.

Henry C. Carlyle, who succeeded in passing for several months in New York and Boston as Sir Henry L. Stirling, Bart., here to buy a new type of periscope for the British Government, was sentenced yesterday by Judge Harland Howe in the Federal District Court to a year and a day for trying to use the United States mail to defraud.

It is said that Carlyle deserted from the British army, carrying off money entrusted to him as pay sergeant. He was arrested here after having got $200 from a young woman on his promise to employ her as travelling companion for his wife.

Carlyle seemed well pleased with his sentence, because he might be shot as a deserter if he were sent back to England.

FRENCH EXCHANGE HIGHER.

Sterling Continues Its Decline—Marks Are Unchanged.

French exchange continued its upward trend in price yesterday, advancing to 5.53 for checks and 5.52 for cables, as compared with a previous close of 5.55 for the former and 5.54 for the latter. Sterling, which has been going fractionally lower each succeeding day for the greater part of last week, continued its decline, selling down to 4.76¾, for demand and 4.76 15-16 for cables. On Friday it was quoted at 4.76½ and 4.77 respectively.

Marks were unchanged at 81½ for sight drafts and 81 9-16 for cables. Italian lire was steady at 6.12, while Austrian kronen dropped to a new low record price of 15.06, against a previous low of 15.08.

Big Jump in Customs Receipts.

The receipts for the week at the Custom House for duties on imports amounted to $2,646,551.06. This amount is nearly $1,000,000 greater than the receipts for the week previous. The receipts for yesterday, when the Collector's office closed at noon, were $233,126.65. Of this amount $63,720.79 was for goods withdrawn from bonded warehouses and $159,405.30 for recent importations.

ACTRESS TAKEN TO COAST.

Charged She Endangered Morals of Her Two Children.

Mrs. Fay Molera, 30, a singer and actress known on the Pacific coast, started for San Francisco yesterday in custody of Detective Frank O'Brien of that place on an indictment charging her with endangering the morals of minor children. She took along her two children, a girl, 4 and a baby.

Mrs. Molera was arrested several weeks ago in 17 Ramsey street, Winfield, where she was living with Frank Terramora. Her baby became severely ill while in jail so Mrs. Molera was sent to St. John's Hospital, where she was held a prisoner.

Fenders Put on Buses.

Fifth avenue buses will present a somewhat altered appearance to-day. Long wooden fenders have been suspended beneath the bodies on either side of the big green vehicles, this change having been made last night by a large force of the coach company's mechanics, who worked most of the night on the job.

WEATHER FORECAST

For eastern New York and southern New England, fair and cooler to-day; probably fair to-morrow; moderate northwest winds.

For New Jersey, probably fair with somewhat lower temperature to-day and to-morrow; light west and northwest winds.

For western New York, fair to-day and to-morrow; cooler; light variable winds.

NEW YORK, July 18.—High pressure continued yesterday over the Southern States and over the north Pacific section and part of the Northwest.

The areas of depression from the north central section moved eastward and established centres in the lower St. Lawrence Valley and over Lake Superior.

It was warmer in the middle Atlantic and New England States and somewhat cooler in the Mississippi and Ohio valleys and parts of the lake regions.

Showers occurred at many points in the northeastern and northwestern States, but there was no general rainfall or rigorous storm formation.

In this city the day was fair and warmer; wind, fresh southwest; average humidity, 78 per cent.; barometer corrected to read to sea level, at 8 A. M., 29.66; 3 P. M., 29.64.

The temperature in this city yesterday, as recorded by the official thermometer, is shown in the annexed table:

	1915	1914		1915	1914
9 A. M.	81°	77°	6 P. M.	75°	83°
12 M.	85°	84°	9 P. M.	74°	82°
3 P. M.	88°	85°	12 Mid.	74°	79°

Highest temperature, 89°, at 2:30 P. M.
Lowest temperature, 66°, at 5:10 P. M.
